4—Adoption of National Unexplained Wealth Laws

- (1) The following laws of the Commonwealth are adopted within the meaning of section 51(xxxvii) of the Constitution of the Commonwealth:
- (a) National Unexplained Wealth Laws 1;
 - (b) National Unexplained Wealth Laws 2.
- (2) The adoption of a law under subsection (1) has effect for a period—

- but no longer.

- (5) The operation of a paragraph in subsection (1) is not affected by any paragraph contained in section 4(1).

6—Amendment of Commonwealth law

For the avoidance of doubt, it is the intention of the Parliament of the State that—

- (a) the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act may be expressly amended, or have its operation otherwise affected, at any time by provisions of Commonwealth Acts the operation of which is based on legislative powers that the Parliament of the Commonwealth has apart from a reference of any matters for the purposes of section 51(xxxvii) of the Constitution of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act may have its operation affected, otherwise than by express amendment, at any time by provisions of instruments made or issued under that Act.

7—Rollback of particular express amendments

- (1) For the purposes of section 14G of the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act, the Governor may, by proclamation, declare that an express amendment of that Act (other than Subdivision B of Division 2 of Part 1-4) is not to apply to proceedings covered by subsection (3), (4) or (5) of that section.

Note—

To be effective for the purposes of section 14G of the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act, the proclamation must come into force in the period of 6 months beginning on the day the amendment is enacted. On the coming into force of the proclamation, that Act applies to the proceedings as if the amendment had not been enacted.

- (2) For the purposes of section 14J of the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act, the Governor may, by proclamation, declare that an express amendment of that Act (other than Subdivision B of Division 2 of Part 1-4) is not to apply to:
- (a) an application covered by subsection (3) of that section; or
- (b) an order made as a result of an application referred to in paragraph (a); or
- (c) a notice covered by subsection (4) of that section.

Note—

To be effective for the purposes of section 14J of the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act, the proclamation must come into force in the period of 6 months beginning on the day the express amendment is enacted. On the coming into force of the proclamation, that Act applies to the application, order and notice as if the amendment had not been enacted.

8—Relevant offences

For the purpose of the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act, in so far as it relates to an offence of a kind that is specified by this Act, the following offences are specified:

- (a) an indictable offence against a law of the State;
- (b) an offence against—

9—Termination of adoption and amendment reference

- (1) The Governor may, at any time, by proclamation, fix a day as the day on which—
 - (a) adoption 1 and the amendment reference are to terminate; or
 - (b) adoption 2 is to terminate; or
 - (c) the amendment reference is to terminate; or
 - (d) adoption 1 is to terminate (if the amendment reference has been previously terminated).
- (2) The Governor may, by proclamation, revoke a proclamation published under subsection (1).
- (3) A revoking proclamation under subsection (2) has effect only if published before the day fixed under subsection (1).
- (4) If a revoking proclamation has effect, the revoked proclamation is taken, for the purposes of sections 4 and 5, never to have been published but the revocation does not prevent publication of a further proclamation under subsection (1).

10—Termination in particular circumstances

- (1) The Governor may, by proclamation, fix a day as the day on which adoption 1 and the amendment reference are to terminate if the Commonwealth Parliament enacts an express amendment of the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act that, in the opinion of the Governor, is inconsistent with the fundamental attributes of the unexplained wealth provisions.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), an express amendment of the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act that is inconsistent with the fundamental attributes of the unexplained wealth provisions includes an amendment to section 20A or Part 2-6 of that Act that has the effect of allowing a restraining order, payment order, seizure order or forfeiture order to be made under those provisions otherwise than by order of a court.
- (3) For the purposes of section 14F of the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act, the Governor may, by proclamation, fix a day as the day on which both adoption 1 and the amendment reference are to terminate, or the amendment reference only is to terminate, if the Commonwealth Parliament enacts an express amendment of section 14G or 14J (about rollback), or Division 2 of Part 4-3 (about sharing proceeds), of the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act.
- (4) The Governor may, by proclamation, revoke a proclamation published under subsection (1) or (3).
- (5) A revoking proclamation under subsection (4) has effect only if published before the day fixed under subsection (1) or (3).

- (6) The revocation of a proclamation published under subsection (1) or (3) does not prevent publication of a further proclamation under that subsection.
- (7) A proclamation under subsection (1) or (3) has effect despite any earlier proclamation published under section 9(1).

11—Effect of termination of amendment reference before termination of adoption 1

- (1) If the amendment reference is terminated but adoption 1 is not terminated, the termination of the amendment reference does not affect—
 - (a) laws that were made under the amendment reference (but not repealed) before that termination (whether or not they have come into operation before that termination); or
 - (b) the continued operation in this State of the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act as in operation immediately before that termination or as subsequently amended or affected by—
 - (i) laws referred to in paragraph (a) that come into operation after that termination; or
 - (ii) provisions referred to in section 6.
- (2) Accordingly, the amendment reference continues to have effect for the purposes of subsection (1) unless adoption 1 is terminated.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to or in relation to an amendment of the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act that is excluded from the operation of this section by the proclamation that terminates the amendment reference.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1)—
 - (a) the laws referred to in subsection (1)(a) include instruments under the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act; and
 - (b) the reference in subsection (1)(b) to the Commonwealth Proceeds of Crime Act as in operation immediately before the termination of the amendment reference includes that legislation as affected by instruments under that Act that have come into operation before that time.

12—Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may deal with matters of a transitional, application or savings nature relating to an offence becoming, or ceasing to be, a relevant offence.
