Legislative history

The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

This Act may be cited as the Children's Protection Act 1993.

3—Objects of Act

The objects of this Act are—

- (a) to ensure that all children are safe from harm; and
- (b) to ensure as far as practicable that all children are cared for in a way that allows them to reach their full potential; and
- (c) to promote caring attitudes and responses towards children among all sections of the community so that the need for appropriate nurture, care and protection (including protection of the child's cultural identity) is understood, risks to a child's wellbeing are quickly identified, and any necessary support, protection or care is promptly provided; and

- (d) to recognise the family as the primary means of providing for the nurture, care and protection of children and to accord a high priority to supporting and assisting the family to carry out its responsibilities to children.

4—Fundamental principles

- (1) Every child has a right to be safe from harm.
- (2) Every child has a right to care in a safe and stable family environment or, if such a family environment cannot for some reason be provided, in some alternative form of care in which the child has every opportunity that can be reasonably provided to develop to his or her full potential.
- (3) In the exercise of powers under this Act, the above principles and the child's wellbeing and best interests are to be the paramount considerations.
- (4) In determining a child's best interests, consideration must be given to the following:
 - (a) the desirability of keeping the child within the child's own family and the undesirability of withdrawing the child unnecessarily from a neighbourhood or environment with which the child has an established sense of connection;
 - (b) the need to preserve and strengthen relationships between the child, the child's parents and grandparents and other members of the child's family (whether or not the child is to reside with those parents, grandparents or other family members);
 - (c) the need to encourage, preserve and enhance the child's sense of racial, ethnic, religious, spiritual and cultural identity and to respect traditions and values of the community into which the child was born;
 - (d) if the child is able to form and express his or her own views as to his or her best interests—those views;
 - (e) the undesirability of interrupting the child's education or employment unnecessarily.
- (5) In relation to an Aboriginal child, the Aboriginal Child Placement Principle is to be observed.
- (6) A child who is placed or about to be placed in alternative care—
 - (a) must be provided with—
 - (i) a nurturing, safe and stable living environment; and
 - (ii) care that is, as far as practicable, appropriate to the child's needs and culturally appropriate; and
 - (b) must be allowed to maintain relationships with the child's family (including the child's grandparents) and community, to the extent that such relationships can be maintained without serious risk of harm; and
 - (c) must be consulted about, and (if the child is reasonably able to do so) take part in making, decisions affecting the child's life, particularly decisions about the child's ongoing care, where the child is to live, contact with the child's family and the child's health and schooling; and

- (d) must be given information that is appropriate, having regard to the child's age and ability to understand, about plans and decisions concerning the child's future; and
 - (e) is entitled to have his or her privacy respected; and
 - (f) if the child is in alternative care and under the guardianship, or in the custody, of the Minister—is entitled to regular review of the child's circumstances and the arrangements for the child's care.
- (7) All proceedings under this Act must be dealt with expeditiously, with due regard to the degree of urgency of each particular case.

5—Provisions relating to dealing with Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander children

- (1) No decision or order may be made under this Act as to where or with whom an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child will reside unless consultation has first been had with a recognised Aboriginal organisation, or a recognised Torres Strait Islander organisation, as the case may require.
- (2) A person or court, in making any decision or order under this Act in relation to an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child, must, in addition to complying with the requirements of section 4, have regard—
 - (a) to the submissions made by or on behalf of a recognised Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander organisation consulted in relation to the child; and
 - (b) if there has been no such consultation—to Aboriginal traditions and cultural values (including kinship rules) as generally expressed by the Aboriginal community, or to Torres Strait Islander traditions and cultural values (including kinship rules) as generally expressed by the Torres Strait Islander community, as the case may require; and
 - (c) to the general principle that an Aboriginal child should be kept within the Aboriginal community and a Torres Strait Islander child should be kept within the Torres Strait Islander community.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act, a recognised Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander organisation is an organisation that the Minister, after consulting with the Aboriginal community or a section of the Aboriginal community, or the Torres Strait Islander community or a section of the Torres Strait Islander community, as the case may require, declares by notice in the Gazette to be a recognised Aboriginal organisation, or a recognised Torres Strait Islander organisation, for the purposes of this Act.
- (4) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, after consulting with the relevant community or a section of the relevant community, vary or revoke a declaration under subsection (3).
- (5) All reasonable endeavours should be made when conducting consultations, negotiations, meetings or proceedings of any kind under this Act involving an Aboriginal person (whether a child or not) to do so in a manner and in a venue that is as sympathetic to Aboriginal traditions as is reasonably practicable.

- (6) All reasonable endeavours should be made when conducting consultations, negotiations, meetings or proceedings of any kind under this Act involving a Torres Strait Islander person (whether a child or not) to do so in a manner and in a venue that is as sympathetic to Torres Strait Islander traditions as is reasonably practicable.

 - (ii) support services to children who have been abused or neglected and their families; and
 - (b) ensure that those support services are offered to children who are known by the Department to have been abused or neglected and their families and that genuine efforts are made to encourage such children and their families to avail themselves of the services.

Part 3—Custody agreements

9—Voluntary custody agreements

- (1) The guardians of a child and the Minister may enter into an agreement (a custody agreement) under which the Minister will have the custody of the child while the agreement has effect.
- (2) Despite subsection (1)—
 - (a) if the whereabouts of a guardian of a child cannot, after reasonable enquiries, be ascertained; or
 - (b) if a guardian of a child has failed to respond within a reasonable period of time to a request that he or she enter into a custody agreement; or

- (c) if it is not, in all the circumstances of the case, reasonably practicable to request a particular guardian of a child to enter into a custody agreement, the remaining guardian or guardians may enter into a custody agreement in respect of the child.
- (3) Negotiations for a custody agreement may be initiated by a guardian of a child or by a child of or above the age of 16 years, but no such agreement can be entered into (or extended) in relation to a child of or above the age of 16 years unless the child consents to the agreement or extension.
- (4) If a child under the age of 16 years appears to have a sufficient understanding of the consequences of a custody agreement, the child must be consulted before such an agreement can be entered into (or extended) by his or her guardians.
- (5) A custody agreement—
- (a) must be in writing; and
 - (b) may be terminated at any time—
 - (i) by a guardian who is a party to the agreement, by notice in writing to the Minister; or
 - (ii) by agreement between the parties to the agreement; and
 - (c) will be taken to have been terminated on any order being made under this Act or any other Act or law for the guardianship or custody of the child.
- (6) If a custody agreement relates to a child of or above the age of 16 years, the Minister must terminate the agreement on the request of the child, but not until he or she is satisfied that proper arrangements exist for the care of the child.
- (7) Unless the agreement is terminated under subsection (5) or (6), a custody agreement—
- (a) has effect for a period, not exceeding three months, specified in the agreement; and
 - (b) may, on its expiration, be extended by the parties to the agreement in accordance with this section, but not so that the agreement will operate for a total period of more than six months.

Part 4—Notification and investigations

Division 1—Notification of abuse or neglect

10—Interpretation

In this Division—

abuse or neglect, in relation to a child, has the same meaning as in section 6(1), but includes a reasonable likelihood, in terms of section 6(2)(b), of the child being killed, injured, abused or neglected by a person with whom the child resides.

11—Notification of abuse or neglect

(1) If—

- (a) a person to whom this section applies suspects on reasonable grounds that a child has been or is being abused or neglected; and
- (b) the suspicion is formed in the course of the person's work (whether paid or voluntary) or of carrying out official duties, the person must notify the Department of that suspicion as soon as practicable after he or she forms the suspicion.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

(2) This section applies to the following persons:

- (a) a medical practitioner;
- (ab) a pharmacist;
- (b) a registered or enrolled nurse;
- (c) a dentist;

- (g) a social worker;
- (h) a teacher in an educational institution (including a kindergarten);
- (i) an approved family day care provider;
- (j) any other person who is an employee of, or volunteer in, a Government department, agency or instrumentality, or a local government or non-government agency, that provides health, welfare, education, child care or residential services wholly or partly for children, being a person who—
 - (i) is engaged in the actual delivery of those services to children; or
 - (ii) holds a management position in the relevant organisation the duties of which include direct responsibility for, or direct supervision of, the provision of those services to children.

(3) A notification under this section must be accompanied by a statement of the observations, information and opinions on which the suspicion is based.

12—Protection from liability for voluntary or mandatory notification

A person who (whether voluntarily or pursuant to a requirement of this Act) notifies the Department of a suspicion that a child has been or is being abused or neglected or provides any information to the Department in respect of such a notification—

- (a) cannot, by virtue of doing so, be held to have breached any code of professional etiquette or ethics, or to have departed from any accepted form of professional conduct; and

- (b) insofar as he or she has acted in good faith, incurs no civil or criminal liability in respect of the notification or the provision of the information.

13—Confidentiality of notification of abuse or neglect

- (1) For the purposes of this section, a notifier is a person who notifies the Department that he or she suspects that a child has been or is being abused or neglected.
- (2) Subject to this section, a person who receives a notification of child abuse or neglect from a notifier, or who otherwise becomes aware of the identity of a notifier, must not disclose the identity of the notifier to any other person unless the disclosure—
- (a) is made in the course of official duties to another person acting in the course of official duties; or
 - (b) is made with the consent of the notifier; or
 - (c) is made by way of evidence adduced in accordance with subsections (3) and (4).

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

- (3) Subject to subsection (4)—
- (a) no evidence as to the identity of a notifier, or from which the identity of the notifier could be deduced, may be adduced in proceedings before a court without leave of the court; and
 - (b) unless such leave is granted, a party or witness in those proceedings must not be asked, and, if asked, cannot be required to answer, any question that cannot be answered without disclosing the identity of, or leading to the identification of, the notifier.
- (4) A court cannot grant leave under subsection (3) unless—
- (a) the court is satisfied that the evidence is of critical importance in the proceedings and that failure to admit it would prejudice the proper administration of justice; or
 - (b) the notifier consents to the admission of the evidence in the proceedings.
- (5) An application for leave to adduce evidence under subsection (3)—
- (a) must not, except as authorised by the court, be heard and determined in public; and
 - (b) must be conducted in such a manner as to protect, so far as may be practicable, the identity of the notifier pending the determination of the application.

14—Chief Executive not obliged to take action in certain circumstances

Nothing in this Act requires the Minister or the Chief Executive to take or initiate any action under this Act in relation to a notification of suspected abuse or neglect of a child if the Minister or the Chief Executive is satisfied—

- (a) that the information or observations on which the notifier formed his or her suspicion were not sufficient to constitute reasonable grounds for the suspicion; or

- (b) that, while there are reasonable grounds for such a suspicion, proper arrangements exist for the care and protection of the child and the matter of the apparent abuse or neglect has been or is being adequately dealt with.

Division 2—Removal of children in danger

15—Interpretation

In this Division—

officer means—

- (a) a police officer; or
- (b) an employee of the Department authorised by the Minister to exercise powers under this Division.

16—Power to remove children from dangerous situations

- (1) If an officer believes on reasonable grounds that a child is in a situation of serious danger and that it is necessary to remove the child from that situation in order to protect the child from harm (or further harm), the officer may remove the child from any premises or place, using such force (including breaking into premises) as is reasonably necessary for the purpose.
- (2) An officer's powers under this section are subject to the following limitations:
 - (a) a police officer below the rank of inspector may only remove a child from a situation of danger with the prior approval of a police officer of or above the rank of inspector unless he or she believes on reasonable grounds that the delay involved in seeking such an approval would prejudice the child's safety;
 - (b) an employee of the Department may only remove a child from the custody of a guardian with the Chief Executive's prior approval.
- (3) An officer who removes a child under this section must, if possible, return the child to the child's home unless—
 - (a) the child is a child who is under the guardianship, or in the custody, of the Minister; or
 - (b) the officer is of the opinion that it would not be in the best interests of the child to return home.
- (4) If an officer removes a child under this section, and the child is not returned to the child's home under subsection (3), the officer must deliver the child into the care of such person as the Chief Executive, or the Chief Executive's nominee, directs.
- (5) If the Minister does not already have custody of a child who is removed from a situation of danger under this section, the Minister has custody of the child until—
 - (a) the end of the working day following the day on which the child was removed; or
 - (b) the child's return home,(whichever is the earlier).

Division 3—Investigations

19—Investigations

- (1) If the Chief Executive suspects on reasonable grounds that a child is at risk, the Chief Executive may cause an investigation into the circumstances of the child to be carried out.
- (2) For the purposes of an investigation, the Chief Executive may, by notice in writing, require a person who has examined, assessed, carried out tests on or treated the child, or the agency for whom the person works, to furnish the Chief Executive with a written report on the examination, assessment, tests or treatment.
- (3) Subject to this section, an authorised police officer may, for the purposes of assisting an investigation under subsection (1), do all or any of the following:
 - (a) enter or break into, remain in and search any premises or place;
 - (b) seize any item that the officer believes on reasonable grounds may afford evidence relevant to the investigation;
 - (c) take photographs, films or videos;
 - (d) require a person who may be in a position to furnish information relevant to the investigation to answer any question put by the officer to the best of that person's knowledge, information or belief.
- (4) The powers under subsection (3) can only be exercised on the authority of a warrant issued by a magistrate except if—
 - (a) entry to the premises or place has been refused or cannot be gained; and
 - (b) the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that the delay that would ensue as a result of applying for a warrant would prejudice the investigation and the safety of the child to whom the investigation relates.
- (5) An authorised police officer may be accompanied by such other police officers or employees of the Department while exercising powers under this section as may be necessary or desirable in the circumstances.
- (6) Subject to subsection (7), a person must not refuse or fail to comply with a requirement under this section.
Maximum penalty: $2 500 or imprisonment for 6 months.
- (7) A person is not required—
 - (a) to provide information that is privileged on the ground of legal professional privilege; or
 - (b) to answer a question if the answer to the question would incriminate the person of an offence.
- (8) An application for the issue of a warrant under this section may be made personally or by telephone.
- (9) A magistrate must not issue a warrant under this section unless satisfied on information given on oath, personally or by affidavit, that there are reasonable grounds for the issue of a warrant.

- (10) An application must not be made by telephone unless the applicant is of the opinion that the warrant is urgently required and there is insufficient time to make the application personally.
- (11) The following provisions apply in relation to an application made by telephone:
- (a) the applicant must inform the magistrate of his or her name and rank and the magistrate, on receiving that information, is entitled to assume, without further inquiry, that the applicant has the authority to make the application;
 - (b) the applicant must inform the magistrate of the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is sought;
 - (c) if it appears to the magistrate from the information furnished by the applicant that there are proper grounds for the issue of the warrant, the magistrate must inform the applicant of the facts that, in the magistrate's opinion, justify the issue of the warrant and must not proceed to issue the warrant unless the applicant undertakes to make an affidavit verifying those facts;
 - (d) if the applicant gives such an undertaking, the magistrate may then make out and sign a warrant, noting on the warrant the facts that justify, in his or her opinion, the issue of the warrant;
 - (e) the warrant will be taken to have been issued when signed by the magistrate;
 - (f) the magistrate must inform the applicant of the terms of the warrant;
 - (g) the applicant must, as soon as practicable after the issue of the warrant forward to the magistrate an affidavit in accordance with his or her undertaking.
- (12) A magistrate by whom a warrant is issued under this section must file the warrant, or a copy of it, and any supporting affidavit in the Youth Court.

 - (b) an investigation and assessment order under Division 4 authorising examination and assessment of a child is in force, an employee of the Department may take the child to such persons or places (including admitting the child to hospital) as the Chief Executive may authorise for the purpose of having the child professionally examined, tested or assessed.

- (2) A medical practitioner or dentist to whom a child is referred under this section may give such treatment to the child as he or she thinks necessary for alleviating any immediate injury or suffering of the child.
- (3) A person who is to examine, test, assess or treat a child pursuant to this section may do so despite the absence or refusal of the consent of the child's guardians, but nothing in this section requires the person to carry out any examination, test, assessment or treatment if the child refuses consent.
- (4) A person to whom a child is referred under this section, or the agency for whom the person works, must, as soon as practicable after any examination, assessment, test or treatment of the child is completed, furnish the Chief Executive with a written report on the examination, assessment, test or treatment.

Division 6—Other orders

26A—Definitions

- (1) In this section—
female genital mutilation means—
 - (a) clitoridectomy; or
 - (b) excision of any other part of the female genital organs; or
 - (c) a procedure to narrow or close the vaginal opening; or
 - (d) any other mutilation of the female genital organs,

but does not include a sexual reassignment procedure or a medical procedure that has a genuine therapeutic purpose;

sexual reassignment procedure means a surgical procedure to give a female, or a person whose sex is ambivalent, genital characteristics, or ostensible genital characteristics, of a male.

- (2) A medical procedure has a genuine therapeutic purpose only if directed at curing or alleviating a physiological disability or physical abnormality.

26B—Protection of children at risk of genital mutilation

- (1) If the Court is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that a child may be at risk of female genital mutilation, the Court may make orders for the protection of the child.

Examples—

The Court might for example make an order—

- (a) preventing a person from taking the child from the State; or
 - (b) requiring that the child's passport be held by the Court for a period specified in the order or until further order; or
 - (c) providing for the periodic examination of the child to ensure that the child is not subjected to female genital mutilation.
- (2) An application for an order under this section may be made by a police officer or by the Chief Executive.
 - (3) The Court may make an order on an application under this section without giving a person who is to be bound by the Court's order notice of the proceedings or an opportunity to be heard in the proceedings.
 - (4) However, in that case the Court must allow the person against whom the order is made a reasonable opportunity to appear before the Court to show why the order should be varied or revoked.
 - (5) In proceedings under this section the Court must assume that it is in the child's best interests to resist pressure of racial, ethnic, religious, cultural or family origin that might lead to genital mutilation of the child.

Part 5—Children in need of care and protection

Division 1—Family care meeting

27—Family care meetings to be convened by Minister

- (1) If the Minister is of the opinion that a child is at risk and that arrangements should be made to secure the child's care and protection, the Minister should cause a family care meeting to be convened in respect of the child.
- (2) The Minister cannot make an application under Division 2 for an order granting custody of a child, or placing a child under guardianship, before a family care meeting has been held in respect of the child unless satisfied—
 - (a) that it has not been possible to hold a meeting despite reasonable endeavours to do so; or
 - (b) that an order should be made without delay; or
 - (c) that the guardians of the child consent to the making of the application; or

- (d) that there is other good reason to do so.
- (3) An application under Division 2 is not invalid by reason only of a failure to hold a family care meeting.

28—Purpose of family care meetings

The purpose of a family care meeting is to provide a proper opportunity for a child's family, in conjunction with a Care and Protection Co-ordinator—

- (a) to make informed decisions as to the arrangements for best securing the care and protection of the child; and
- (b) to review those arrangements from time to time.

29—Convening a family care meeting

- (1) A Care and Protection Co-ordinator nominated by the Senior Judge of the Court will be responsible for convening and conducting a family care meeting.
- (2) The Co-ordinator must arrange for a suitable person to act as advocate for the child at the meeting, unless satisfied that the child has made an independent decision to waive his or her right to be so represented.
- (3) The Co-ordinator must, as far as is reasonably practicable, consult with the child and the child's guardians as to who should be invited to attend the meeting and the time and place to be fixed for the meeting.

30—Invited participants

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Care and Protection Co-ordinator convening a family care meeting will issue written invitations to attend to the following persons:
 - (a) the child; and
 - (b) the guardians of the child; and
 - (c) other members of the child's family who should, in the opinion of the Co-ordinator, attend the meeting; and
 - (d) any other person who has had a close association with the child and who should, in the opinion of the Co-ordinator, attend the meeting; and
 - (e) any other adult person (not being a legal practitioner) who the child or the child's guardians wish to support them at the meeting and who, in the opinion of the Co-ordinator, would be of assistance in that role.
- (2) The Co-ordinator is not required—
 - (a) to invite the child to the meeting if the Co-ordinator is of the opinion that it would not be in the best interests of the child for the child to attend; or
 - (b) to invite any other particular person to the meeting if the Co-ordinator is of the opinion that the attendance of that person would not be in the best interests of the child.

31—Constitution of family care meeting

A family care meeting consists of—

- (a) the Care and Protection Co-ordinator; and

- (b) such of the persons invited to attend the meeting as attend in response to the invitation; and
- (c) the employee in the Department authorised by the Chief Executive to present the report of the investigation into the child's circumstances to the meeting; and
- (d) if persistent absenteeism from school is involved—
 - (i) in the case of a Government school—an employee of the administrative unit of the Public Service charged with the administration of the Education Act 1972 nominated by the Director-General of Education;
 - (ii) in the case of a non-Government school—a person nominated by the head teacher of the school; and
- (e) if one has been appointed, the child's advocate; and
- (f) any person, nominated by the Co-ordinator, who has examined, assessed, counselled or treated the child in the course of the investigation into the child's circumstances; and
- (g) any other person nominated by the Co-ordinator for the purpose of providing expert advice or information on matters relevant to the meeting; and
- (h) —
 - (i) if the child is an Aboriginal child, a person nominated by a recognised Aboriginal organisation; or
 - (ii) if the child is a Torres Strait Islander child, a person nominated by a recognised Torres Strait Islander organisation.

32—Procedures

- (1) The Care and Protection Co-ordinator must take reasonable steps to ascertain the views as to the care and protection of the child—
 - (a) from those persons invited to a family care meeting who are unable to attend; and
 - (b) from the child (so far as his or her views are ascertainable) if he or she has not been invited, or refuses, to attend; and
 - (c) from any guardian or other family member who has not been invited to attend the meeting, if the Co-ordinator thinks it appropriate to do so,and must relay all those views to the meeting.
- (2) The Co-ordinator must ensure that sufficient information as to the child's circumstances and the grounds for believing the child to be at risk is presented to the meeting.
- (3) The Co-ordinator must allow the child's guardians and other family members present at the meeting, and the child if the Co-ordinator thinks it appropriate to do so, an opportunity to hold discussions in private for the purpose of formulating the family's recommendations as to the arrangements for securing the care and protection of the child.

- (4) The Co-ordinator may adjourn the meeting to another date if he or she thinks it is necessary or desirable to do so.
- (5) A family care meeting should if possible make decisions by the consensus of the child and the child's guardians and other family members.
- (6) A decision made by a family care meeting will not however be regarded as validly made unless it is concurred in by the Care and Protection Co-ordinator as properly securing the care and protection of the child.
- (7) The decisions made by a family care meeting as to the arrangements for securing the care and protection of the child must be recorded in writing by the Co-ordinator and acknowledged in writing by the Co-ordinator and such of the following persons who attend the meeting and concur in the decisions:
 - (a) the child (unless excused by the Co-ordinator from the obligation); and
 - (b) the child's guardians and other family members.
- (8) A copy of that written record must be made available by the Co-ordinator to—
 - (a) the child; and
 - (b) each guardian of the child; and
 - (c) any other person involved in implementing the arrangements; and
 - (d) such other persons as the Co-ordinator thinks fit.

33—Review of arrangements

- (1) A family care meeting that makes decisions as to the arrangements for securing the care and protection of a child must also make provision for the review of those arrangements.
- (2) A Care and Protection Co-ordinator will convene a family care meeting for the purpose of reviewing the arrangements made for the care and protection of a child at a previous meeting, in the following circumstances:
 - (a) if the Co-ordinator is required to do so pursuant to a decision made at the previous meeting; or
 - (b) if the Co-ordinator is requested to do so at any other time by 2 or more members of the child's family who attended the previous meeting; or
 - (c) if at any time the Co-ordinator thinks it is necessary or desirable to do so.

34—Certain matters not admissible

Evidence of anything said at a family care meeting is not admissible in any proceedings, but the written record of the decisions made by a family care meeting is admissible in proceedings under Division 2 for the purpose of establishing that those decisions were made.

35—Procedure where decisions not made or implemented

If no decisions are made by a family care meeting as to the arrangements for securing the care and protection of the child, or if such decisions are made but are not implemented or complied with, the Minister will, if of the opinion that the child is at risk and that an order under Division 2 is required to secure the child's care and protection, take out an application under Division 2.

36—Guardians whose whereabouts are unknown

This Division does not apply in relation to a guardian whose whereabouts cannot, after reasonable enquiry, be ascertained.

Division 2—Care and protection orders

37—Application for care and protection order

- (1) If the Minister is of the opinion—
 - (a) that a child is at risk; and
 - (b) that an order under this Division should be made in respect of the child to secure his or her care and protection,

the Minister may apply to the Youth Court for an order under this Division.

- (2) If the Minister is of the opinion—
 - (a) that proper arrangements exist for the care and protection of a child (whether pursuant to a decision of a family care meeting or pursuant to an exercise of administrative powers under the Family and Community Services Act 1972 as in force immediately prior to the commencement of this Act); and
 - (b) that the child would be likely to suffer significant psychological injury if the arrangements were to be disturbed; and
 - (c) that it would be in the best interests of the child for the arrangements to be the subject of an order under this Division,

the Minister may apply to the Youth Court for an order under this Division.

38—Court's power to make orders

- (1) If the Court finds, on an application under this Division, that the grounds of the application have been made out and that an order under this section should be made in respect of the child, the Court may exercise 1 or more of the following powers:
 - (a) the Court may require any guardian of the child, or the child, to enter into a written undertaking (for a specified period not exceeding 12 months) to do any specified thing, or to refrain from doing any specified thing and, if the Court thinks fit, require the child to be under the supervision of the Chief Executive or some other specified person or authority for the duration of the undertaking;
 - (b) the Court may grant custody of the child, for a specified period not exceeding 12 months, to one of the following persons:
 - (i) a guardian of the child;

- (ii) some other member of the child's family;
 - (iii) the chief executive of a licensed children's residential facility, for placement of the child in such of those facilities as that officer from time to time thinks appropriate;
 - (iv) the Minister;
 - (v) any other person that the Court thinks appropriate in the circumstances of the case;
 - (c) the Court may place the child, for a specified period not exceeding 12 months, under the guardianship of the Minister or such other person or persons (not exceeding two) as the Court thinks appropriate in the circumstances of the case;
 - (d) the Court may place the child, until the child attains 18 years of age, under the guardianship of the Minister or such other person or persons (not exceeding two) as the Court thinks appropriate in the circumstances of the case;
 - (e) the Court may direct a party to the application to do one or more of the following:
 - (i) to cease or refrain from residing in the same premises as the child;
 - (ii) to refrain from coming within a specified distance of the child's residence;
 - (iii) to refrain from having any contact with the child except in the presence of some other person;
 - (iv) to refrain from having any contact at all with the child;
 - (f) the Court may make consequential or ancillary orders—
 - (i) providing for access to the child; or
 - (ii) providing for the way in which a person who has custody or guardianship of the child under an order of the Court is to deal with matters relating to the care, protection, health, welfare or education of the child; or
 - (iii) dealing with any other matter.
- (2) In relation to orders under subsection (1)(d) (placing a child under guardianship until 18), the Court—
- (a) should not, as a general rule, consider making such an order in relation to a child unless satisfied that no other order would in all the circumstances of the case be appropriate; but
 - (b) should, in the interests of securing a settled and permanent living arrangement for the child, consider making such an order if some other order under this section has been, or will have been, in force in relation to the child for a period of two years (or a number of such orders have, or will have, between them been in force for that period).

- (3) If the Court finds that a child is at risk because a person other than a guardian with whom the child resides has abused, neglected or threatened the child, the Court cannot make an order removing the child from the guardianship or custody of the guardians with whom the child resides unless satisfied that they knew, or ought to have known, of the abuse, neglect or threats.
- (4) If the Chief Executive or some other specified person or authority is, by order of the Court, to supervise a child who has entered into an undertaking, the supervisor may exercise such powers as the Minister authorises either generally or in relation to a particular supervisor.

39—Adjournments

The Court—

- (a) cannot exercise its general power of adjournment in relation to an application under this Division so that the period between the lodging of the application and the commencement of the hearing exceeds 10 weeks; and
- (b) on any adjournment, may make such of the orders it is empowered to make under this Division as it thinks appropriate, to have effect for the period of the adjournment and any subsequent adjournment (but nothing in this subsection prevents the Court from varying or revoking such an order or making a further order on any subsequent adjournment).

40—Variation or revocation of orders

An order made by the Court under this Division—

- (a) may be varied or revoked at any time on application by a party to the proceedings; and
- (b) lapses when the child attains 18 years of age.

42—Conference of parties

- (1) If the Court considers it desirable to do so, the Court may, before or during the hearing of proceedings under this Division, convene a conference between the parties to the proceedings for the purpose of determining what matters are in dispute, or resolving any matters in dispute.
- (2) A judicial officer of the Court, other than the one who is hearing or is to hear the proceedings, will preside over such a conference.
- (3) Counsel for parties to the proceedings are to be admitted to such a conference.
- (4) Evidence of anything said or done at such a conference is inadmissible, except by consent of all parties to the proceedings, in the proceedings.

43—Effect of guardianship order

44—Non-compliance with orders

A person who, having been personally served with an order made by the Court under this Division, contravenes or fails to comply with the order is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 3 months.

Part 6—Procedural matters

45—Evidence etc

- (1) In any proceedings under this Act—
 - (a) the Court is not bound by the rules of evidence but may inform itself as it thinks fit; and
 - (b) the Court must act according to equity, good conscience and the substantial merits of the case without regard to technicalities and legal forms.
- (2) A fact to be proved in proceedings under this Act is sufficiently proved if proved on the balance of probabilities.

46—Service of applications on parties

- (1) The following persons are parties to an application under this Act for an investigation and assessment order or a care and protection order, or for the variation, extension or revocation of such an order, or to an application by the Chief Executive under Part 8 for the transfer of a child protection order or a child protection proceeding:
 - (a) the applicant; and
 - (b) the child the subject of the application; and
 - (c) each guardian of the child.
- (2) A copy of an application must be served—

 - (c) if the application is to transfer a child protection order or a child protection proceeding under Part 8, on any person to whom access to the child has been granted.
- (3) The application must be served personally, but—
 - (a) if it is not practicable to serve the application personally on a party (not being the child); or
 - (b) if the whereabouts of such a party cannot, after reasonable enquiries, be ascertained, the application may be served on that person by post addressed to the person at his or her last known place of residence or employment or in any other manner authorised by the Court.

- (4) A copy of an application for service must be endorsed with a notification of the place, date and time for the hearing of the application.

- (5) Subject to this section, the Court must not proceed to hear an application unless each party served with the application has had at least the following period of notice of the hearing:
- (a) in the case of an application for an investigation and assessment order—three working days;
 - (b) in any other case—five working days.
- (6) The Court may, for any proper reason, dispense with service under this section, or reduce the period between service and the time for the hearing of the application.

47—Joinder of parties

If the Court is of the opinion in any proceedings on an application for an investigation and assessment order, a care and protection order or an order under Part 8 to transfer a child protection order or a child protection proceeding that it should make an order binding on a person who is not a party to the proceedings, the Court—

- (a) may join that person as a party to the proceedings; and
- (b) must allow him or her a reasonable opportunity to make representations to the Court as to why such an order should not be made.

47A—Right of other interested persons to be heard

In any proceedings under this Act, the Court may, on the application of—

- (a) a member of the child's family; or
- (b) a person who has at any time had the care of the child; or
- (c) a person who has counselled, advised or aided the child, hear submissions the applicant wishes to make in respect of the child, despite the fact that the applicant is not a party to the proceedings.

48—Legal representation of child

- (1) The Court must not proceed to hear an application under this Act unless—
- (a) the child is represented in the proceedings by a legal practitioner; or
 - (b) the Court is satisfied that the child has made an informed and independent decision not to be so represented.
- (2) If the child is to be represented by a legal practitioner, but is not capable of properly instructing the legal practitioner, the legal practitioner must act, and make representations to the Court, according to his or her own view of the best interests of the child.
- (3) A child (whether represented by a legal practitioner or not) must be given a reasonable opportunity to give the child's own views personally to the Court about his or her ongoing care and protection unless the Court is satisfied that—
- (a) the child is not capable of doing so; or
 - (b) to do so would give rise to an unacceptable risk to the child's wellbeing.

49—Court may refer a matter to a family care meeting

Without limiting the reasons for which the Court may adjourn proceedings under this Act, the Court may adjourn the hearing of an application for the purpose of referring specified matters to a family care meeting for consideration and report to the Court by the meeting.

50—Orders for costs

If the Court dismisses an application under this Act by the Chief Executive or the Minister, the Court may make such order for costs against the Crown in favour of any other party to the proceedings as the Court thinks fit.

Part 7—Children under Minister's care and protection

51—Powers of Minister in relation to children under the Minister's care and protection

- (1) Subject to this Act, the Minister may from time to time make provision for the care of a child who is under the guardianship of the Minister or of whom the Minister has custody pursuant to this Act, in any of the following ways:

 - (c) by placing the child in a home (not being a training centre) established or licensed under the Family and Community Services Act 1972 or in any other suitable place, and by giving such directions as to the care of the child in that home or place as the Minister thinks fit;
 - (d) by making arrangements for the education of the child;
 - (e) by making arrangements (including admission to hospital) for the medical or dental examination or treatment of the child or for such other professional examination or treatment as may be necessary or desirable;
 - (f) by making such other provision for the care of the child as the circumstances of the case may require.
- (2) In making provision for the care of a child pursuant to subsection (1), the Minister must, if appropriate, have regard to the desirability of securing settled and permanent living arrangements for the child.
- (3) The Minister must keep the guardians of the child informed about where the child is placed and how the child is being cared for, unless the Minister is of the opinion that it would not be in the best interests of the child to do so.
- (4) An authorised police officer may for the purposes of enforcing any order of the Youth Court, without warrant, remove from any place a child who is under the guardianship of the Minister or of whom the Minister has custody, using such force (including breaking into premises) as is reasonably necessary for that purpose.

52—Review of circumstances of child under long term guardianship of Minister

- (1) If a child is subject to an order placing the child under the guardianship of the Minister until the child attains 18 years of age, a review of the circumstances of the child must be carried out at least once in each year that the child remains subject to the order.
- (2) The review will be carried out by a panel appointed by the Minister for the purpose.
- (3) The panel carrying out a review must keep under constant consideration whether the existing arrangements for the care and protection of the child continue to be in the best interests of the child.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), the Minister must cause a copy of the conclusions reached by a review panel to be given to the child, the child's guardians and the persons who have the care of the child.
- (5) The Minister is not obliged to give a copy of the panel's conclusions to a particular person if—
 - (a) the Minister is of the opinion that it would not be in the best interests of the child to do so; or
 - (b) the whereabouts of the person cannot, after reasonable enquiries, be ascertained.

 - (a) to the same or a similar effect as the terms of the home order; or
 - (b) otherwise in the best interests of the child.

54I—Duty of Chief Executive to inform the Court of certain matters

If the Chief Executive is aware that—

- (a) a sentencing order, other than a fine, is in force in respect of the child who is the subject of an application under this Division; or
- (b) a criminal proceeding is pending against that child in any court, the Chief Executive must, as soon as possible, inform the Court of that fact and of the details of the sentencing order or pending criminal proceeding.

Division 4—Transfer of child protection proceedings

54J—When Court may make order under this Division

- (1) The Court may make an order under this Division transferring a child protection proceeding pending in the Court to the appropriate court in a participating State if—
 - (a) an application for the order is made by the Chief Executive; and
 - (b) the relevant interstate officer has consented in writing to the transfer.
- (2) The proceeding is discontinued in the Court on the registration of the order in the appropriate court in the participating State in accordance with the interstate law.

54K—Court to have regard to certain matters

- (1) In determining an application to transfer a proceeding under this Division the Court must have regard to—
 - (a) whether any other proceedings relating to the child are pending, or have previously been heard and determined, under the child welfare law in the participating State; and
 - (b) the place where any of the matters giving rise to the proceeding in the Court arose; and
 - (c) the place of residence, or likely place of residence, of the child, his or her guardians and any other people who are significant to the child; and
 - (d) whether the Chief Executive or an interstate officer is in the better position to exercise the powers and responsibilities under a child protection order relating to the child; and
 - (e) the desirability of a child protection order being an order under the child welfare law of the State where the child resides; and
 - (f) any information given to the Court by the Chief Executive under subsection (2).
- (2) If the Chief Executive is aware that—
 - (a) a sentencing order, other than a fine, is in force in respect of the child who is the subject of an application under this Division; or

(b) a criminal proceeding is pending against that child in any court, the Chief Executive must, as soon as possible, inform the Court of that fact and of the details of the sentencing order or pending criminal proceeding.

54L—Interim order

- (1) If the Court makes an order transferring a proceeding under this Division, the Court may also make an interim order.
- (2) An interim order—
 - (a) may make provision for the guardianship, custody or care of the child in such terms as the Court considers to be appropriate; and
 - (b) may give responsibility for the supervision of the child to the interstate officer in the participating State or any other person in that State to whom responsibility for the supervision of a child could be given under the child welfare law of that State; and
 - (c) remains in force for the period (not exceeding 30 days) specified in the order.
- (3) The appropriate court in the participating State may vary or revoke, or extend the period of, an interim order in accordance with the relevant interstate law.

Division 5—Registration of interstate orders and proceedings

54M—Filing and registration of interstate documents

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), the Chief Executive must, as soon as possible, file in the Court for registration a copy of a child protection order transferred to South Australia under an interstate law.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the Chief Executive must, as soon as possible, file in the Court for registration a copy of an order under an interstate law to transfer a child protection proceeding to South Australia, together with a copy of any interim order made at the same time.
- (3) The Chief Executive must not file in the Court a copy of a child protection order or of an order to transfer a child protection proceeding if—
 - (a) the decision or order to transfer the child protection order or the order to transfer the child protection proceeding (as the case requires) is subject to review or appeal or a stay; or
 - (b) the time for instituting a review or appeal has not expired, under the interstate law.

54N—Notification by Registrar

The Registrar must immediately notify the appropriate officer of the appropriate court in the sending State and the interstate officer in that State of—

- (a) the registration of any document filed under section 54M; or
- (b) the revocation under section 54P of the registration of any document so filed.

54O—Effect of registration

- (1) A child protection order registered in the Court under this Division will be taken for all purposes (except for the purposes of appeal) to be a care and protection order of the relevant type made by the Court on the day on which it is registered and it may be varied or revoked, or the period of the order extended, or a breach of it dealt with, under this Act accordingly.
- (2) An interim order registered in the Court under this Division will be taken for all purposes (except for the purposes of appeal) to be an order made by the Court under this Act on the day on which it is registered and it may be varied, or the period of the order extended, or a breach of it dealt with, accordingly.
- (3) If an order under an interstate law to transfer a child protection proceeding to South Australia is registered under this Division, the proceeding will be taken to have been commenced in the Court on the day on which the order is so registered.

54P—Revocation of registration

- (1) An application for the revocation of the registration of any document filed under section 54M may be made to the Court by—
 - (a) the Chief Executive; or

- (2) The Registrar must cause a copy of an application under subsection (1) to be given personally or by post as soon as possible to—
 - (a) the relevant interstate officer; and
 - (b) each person (other than the applicant) by whom such an application could have been made.
- (3) The Court may only revoke the registration of a document filed under section 54M if satisfied that it was inappropriately registered because—
 - (a) the decision or order to transfer the child protection order or the order to transfer the child protection proceeding (as the case requires) was at the time of registration subject to review or appeal or a stay; or
 - (b) the time for instituting a review or appeal had not expired, under the relevant interstate law.
- (4) The Registrar must cause any document filed in the Court under section 54M to be sent to the appropriate court in the sending State if the registration of the document is revoked under this section.
- (5) The revocation of the registration of a document does not prevent the later re-registration of that document.

Division 6—Miscellaneous

54Q—Appeals

- (1) An appeal against a final order of the Court—
 - (a) if made in a proceeding to transfer a child protection order to a participating State, must be lodged within 10 working days after the day on which the order was made; or
 - (b) if made in a proceeding to transfer a child protection proceeding to the appropriate court in a participating State, must be lodged within 3 working days after the day on which the order was made.
- (2) An appeal operates as a stay of the order.

54R—Effect of registration of transferred order

- (1) On a child protection order being registered in a participating State under an interstate law, the child protection order made by the Court under this Act ceases to have effect.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), an order that has ceased to have effect by force of that subsection is revived if the registration of the transferred order is revoked in the participating State under the interstate law.
- (3) The period for which a child protection order is revived is the balance of the period for which it would have remained in force but for the registration of the transferred order.

54S—Transfer of Court file

The Registrar must cause all documents filed in the Court in connection with a child protection proceeding to be sent to the appropriate court in a participating State if—

- (a) the child protection order or proceeding is transferred to the participating State; and
- (b) the decision or order to transfer the child protection order or the order to transfer the child protection proceeding (as the case requires) is not subject to review or appeal or a stay.

54T—Hearing and determination of transferred proceeding

In hearing and determining a child protection proceeding transferred to the Court under an interstate law, the Court—

- (a) is not bound by any finding of fact made in the proceeding in the appropriate court in the sending State before its transfer; but
- (b) may have regard to the transcript of, or any evidence adduced in, the proceeding referred to in paragraph (a).

54U—Disclosure of information

Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, the Chief Executive may disclose to an interstate officer any information that has come to his or her notice in the performance of duties or exercise of powers under this Act if the Chief Executive considers that it is necessary to do so to enable the interstate officer to perform duties or exercise powers under a child welfare law or an interstate law.

54V—Discretion of Chief Executive to consent to transfer

- (1) If, under an interstate law, there is a proposal to transfer a child protection order to South Australia, the Chief Executive may consent or refuse to consent to the transfer and the proposed terms of the child protection order to be transferred.

 - (ii) the transfer of a child protection proceeding pending in the Court to the appropriate court in a participating State; and
- (b) purporting to be signed by the relevant interstate officer or his or her delegate, is admissible in evidence in any proceeding under this Part and, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, is proof that consent in the terms appearing in the document was duly given by the relevant interstate officer.

Part 9—Miscellaneous

56—Referrals to the Chief Executive

If the Youth Court, a Youth Justice Co-ordinator or a police officer, in the course of exercising any powers in relation to a child otherwise than under this Act, forms the opinion that the child may be at risk, the Court, Co-ordinator or police officer may refer the matter to the Chief Executive.

57—Delegation

- (1) The Minister or the Chief Executive may delegate any of his or her powers under this Act or an interstate law within the meaning of Part 8.

Maximum penalty: $10 000.

- (3) This section does not prevent—
- (a) a person from divulging information if authorised or required to do so by law; or
 - (b) a person from divulging statistical or other data that could not reasonably be expected to lead to the identification of any person to whom it relates; or
 - (c) a person engaged in the administration of this Act from divulging information if authorised or required to do so by his or her employer.

59—Reports of family care meetings not to be published

A person must not publish, by radio, television, newspaper or in any other way, a report of any family care meeting held pursuant to this Act or of anything said or done at such a meeting.

Maximum penalty: $10 000.

59A—Restrictions on reports of proceedings

- (1) A person must not publish by radio, television, newspaper or in any other way, a report of proceedings in which a child is alleged to be at risk or in need of care or protection, if—
- (a) the court before which the proceedings are heard prohibits publication of any report of the proceedings; or
 - (b) the report—
 - (i) identifies the child or contains information tending to identify the child; or
 - (ii) reveals the name, address or school, or includes any particulars, picture or film that may lead to the identification, of any child who is concerned in the proceedings, either as a party or a witness.
- (2) The court before which the proceedings are heard may, on such conditions as it thinks fit, permit the publication of particulars, pictures or films that would otherwise be suppressed from publication under subsection (1)(b).
- (3) A person who contravenes this section, or a condition imposed under subsection (2), is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $10 000.
