Repeals and transitional provisions

4. (1) The Liquefied Petroleum Gas Act, 1960-1973, is repealed.
- (2) The Inflammable Liquids Act, 1961-1976, is repealed.

Interpretation

5. In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

“the Chief Inspector” means the person appointed to be the Chief Inspector under Part II of this Act:

“conveyance” in relation to a dangerous substance means movement of the dangerous substance whether by vehicle, pipeline or any other means and “convey” has a corresponding meaning:

“dangerous substance” means any substance, whether solid, liquid or gaseous, that is toxic, corrosive, flammable or otherwise dangerous and declared by regulation to be a dangerous substance for the purposes of this Act:

“the Director” means—

(a) the person for the time being holding or acting in the office of the Director of the Department of Labour and Industry;

or

(b) any other person directed by the Minister to exercise the powers of the officer so designated by this Act:

“the Government Analyst” means the person appointed by the Governor to be the Government Analyst or any person for the time being acting in that office:

“inspector” means—

(a) the Chief Inspector;

or

(b) a person appointed to be an inspector under Part II of this Act:

“premises” means any land or any building or structure whether fixed or moveable:

“vehicle” includes any kind of aircraft or vessel.

Note: For definition of divisional penalties see Appendix 2.

Act binds the Crown

6. This Act binds the Crown.

Non-derogation

7. (1) The provisions of this Act shall be in addition to and shall not derogate from the provisions of any other Act.

(2) The provisions of this Act shall not limit or affect any civil remedy at law or in equity.

PART II
ADMINISTRATIVEInspectors

8. (1) The Governor may, by notice published in the Gazette—

(a) appoint a person to be the Chief Inspector for the purposes of this Act;

and

(b) appoint a person to be an inspector for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Minister shall provide each inspector with a certificate of identification in the prescribed form.

(3) An inspector shall produce his certificate at the request of any person in relation to whom he is exercising his powers or functions under this Act.

Powers of inspectors

9. (1) An inspector may—

(a) at any time, enter into or upon any premises or vehicle, inspect the premises or vehicle and anything in or on the premises or vehicle, and open any container or other thing, for the purpose of determining whether or not any provision of this Act is being or has been complied with;

(b) direct a vehicle to stop, or stop a vehicle, for the purpose of determining whether or not any provision of this Act is being or has been complied with;

(c) take, without payment, a sample of any substance that he suspects on reasonable grounds to be a dangerous substance or an ingredient thereof for the purpose of determining whether or not any provision of this Act is being or has been complied with;

(d) remove any substance or thing in relation to which he suspects upon reasonable grounds that an offence against this Act has been committed;

(e) inspect and examine, analyse and test or cause to be analysed or tested any substance or thing for the purpose of determining whether or not any provision of this Act has been or is being complied with;

(f) require any person to answer a question put to him, whether the question is put to him directly or through an interpreter, for the purpose of determining whether or not any provision of this Act is being or has been complied with;

(g) search, copy and take extracts of, and if necessary for that purpose remove any books, documents or records of any kind for the purpose of determining whether or not any provision of this Act is being or has been complied with;

or

(h) give such directions as are reasonably necessary for, or incidental to, the effective exercise of his powers under this Act.

* * * * *

(4) In the exercise of his powers under this section, an inspector may be accompanied by such other persons as he considers necessary or desirable in the circumstances.

(5) A person shall not hinder or obstruct an inspector, or any person accompanying an inspector, in the exercise of his powers under this section.

Penalty: Division 6 fine.

(6) A person to whom a question is put under this section shall not refuse or fail to answer the question to the best of his knowledge, information or belief.

Penalty: Division 6 fine.

(7) A person shall not be guilty of an offence against subsection (6) of this section if he refuses to answer a question, the answer to which would tend to incriminate him.

(8) A person given any direction under this section shall not refuse or fail to comply with the direction.

Penalty: Division 6 fine.

(9) Where any substance or thing is removed under this section and—

(a) proceedings are not instituted for an offence against this Act in relation to the substance or thing within two months of its removal;

or

(b) proceedings having been so instituted, the substance or thing is not ordered to be forfeited to the Crown or the defendant is not convicted, the person from whom the substance or thing was removed shall be entitled to recover it, or, if it has been destroyed or damaged or has deteriorated, to recover from the Minister, by action in any court of competent jurisdiction, the reasonable value of the substance or thing at the time of its removal.

Delegation by Director

9a. (1) The Director may, by instrument in writing, delegate to the Chief Inspector or any other officer engaged in the administration of this Act any of his powers or functions under this Act.

(2) A delegation under subsection (1) may be revoked by the Director by instrument in writing and shall not derogate from the power of the Director to act himself in any matter.

(3) In any legal proceedings, an apparently genuine document purporting to be a certificate signed by the Director containing particulars of a delegation under this section shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be accepted as proof of those particulars.

Secrecy

10. Any person who is engaged or has been engaged in any office or position connected with the administration of this Act shall not, otherwise than in the performance of the duties or functions appertaining to that office or position, divulge or communicate any information obtained by virtue of that office or position.

Penalty: Division 6 fine.

Person acting without authority

11. A person shall not falsely represent, by words or conduct, that he is engaged in or associated with the administration of this Act.

Penalty: Division 6 fine.

PART III
DANGEROUS SUBSTANCES
DIVISION I—GENERAL

General duty

12. A person shall, in keeping, handling, conveying, using, or disposing of, any dangerous substance, take such precautions and exercise such care as is reasonable in the circumstances in order to avoid endangering the health or safety of any other person, or the safety of any other person's property.

Penalty: (a) in the case of a body corporate—Division 2 fine;

(b) in any other case—Division 5 fine or division 5 imprisonment, or both.

DIVISION II—LICENCES TO KEEP DANGEROUS SUBSTANCES

“Prescribed dangerous substance” for the purposes of this Division

13. In this Division “prescribed dangerous substance” means a dangerous substance for the time being declared by regulation to be a prescribed dangerous substance for the purposes of this Division.

Offence to keep dangerous substances without a licence

14. (1) A person must not keep a prescribed dangerous substance in any premises unless the person is the holder of a licence under this Division.

Penalty: (a) in the case of a body corporate—a division 3 fine;

(b) in any other case—a division 6 fine or division 6 imprisonment.

(2) The regulations may exempt (either absolutely or subject to conditions or limitations) a specified person or class of persons from the requirement to be licensed under this Division.

Licence to keep dangerous substances

15. (1) The Director may, subject to this Act, in his discretion, upon application in the prescribed form and payment of the prescribed fee, grant a licence to any person to keep any prescribed dangerous substance in any premises.

* * * * *

(3) A licence granted under this section shall be subject to such conditions relating to—

(a) the prescribed dangerous substance that may be kept;

(b) its keeping;

(c) the premises in which it may be kept;

or

(d) any other matter,

as the Director may specify by notice in writing given to the holder of the licence.

(4) The Director may, by notice in writing given to the holder of a licence under this section, add to, vary or revoke any conditions of the licence.

(5) The holder of a licence under this section who breaches, or fails to comply with, a condition of the licence is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Division 6 fine.

(6) The Director may grant a licence under this section in respect of premises notwithstanding that the premises do not comply with the regulations, provided that—

(a) the Director is satisfied that the keeping of the prescribed dangerous substance in the premises would not immediately endanger the health or safety of any person, or the safety of any person's property;

and

(b) the Director in granting the licence imposes conditions designed to ensure compliance with the regulations within a specified period.

Removal of licence

16. (1) A licence granted under this Division shall, subject to this Act, remain in force for such term as the Director may specify in the licence.

(2) The Director may, subject to this Act, in his discretion, upon application made in the prescribed manner and form and payment of the prescribed fee, renew a licence granted under this Division.

(3) A licence renewed under this section shall, subject to this Act, remain in force for such term (being not less than one year) as the Director may specify in the licence.

DIVISION III—LICENCES TO CONVEY DANGEROUS SUBSTANCES

“Prescribed dangerous substance” for the purposes of this Division

17. In this Division, “prescribed dangerous substance” means a dangerous substance for the time being declared by regulation to be a prescribed dangerous substance for the purposes of this Division.

Offence to convey dangerous substances without a licence

18. (1) A person must not convey any prescribed dangerous substance unless the person is the holder of a licence under this Division.

Penalty: (a) in the case of a body corporate—a division 3 fine;

(b) in any other case—a division 6 fine or division 6 imprisonment.

(2) The regulations may exempt (either absolutely or subject to conditions or limitations) a specified person or class of persons from the requirement to be licensed under this Division.

Licence to convey dangerous substances

19. (1) The Director may, subject to this Act, in his discretion, upon application in the prescribed form and payment of the prescribed fee, grant a licence to any person to convey any prescribed dangerous substance.

(2) A licence granted under this section shall be subject to such conditions relating to—

(a) the prescribed dangerous substance that may be conveyed;

(b) its conveyance;

or

(c) any other matter,

as the Director may specify by notice in writing given to the holder of the licence.

(3) The Director may, by notice in writing given to the holder of a licence under this section, add to, vary or revoke any conditions of the licence.

(4) The holder of a licence under this section who breaches, or fails to comply with, a condition of the licence is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Division 6 fine.

Renewal of licences

20. (1) A licence granted under this Division shall, subject to this Act, remain in force for such term as the Director may specify in the licence.

(2) The Director may, subject to this Act, in his discretion, upon application made in the prescribed manner and form and payment of the prescribed fee, renew a licence granted under this Division.

(3) A licence renewed under this section shall, subject to this Act, remain in force for such term as the Director may specify in the licence.

DIVISION IV—LICENCES GENERALLY

General ground for not granting or renewing licences

21. The Director shall not grant or renew a licence under this Part if he is satisfied that it is not in the interests of public safety so to do.

Surrender, suspension and cancellation of licences

22. (1) A person holding a licence under this Part may surrender the licence.

(2) The Director may suspend, or cancel, a licence under this Part if he is satisfied—

- (a) that the grant or a renewal of the licence was obtained improperly;
- (b) that the holder of the licence has been convicted of an offence against this Act;
- (c) in the case of a licence to keep a dangerous substance in any premises, that the premises do not comply with the prescribed requirements;

or

- (d) that the holder of the licence has breached, or failed to comply with, a condition of the licence.

Appeal to Minister against decision of Director

23. (1) Any person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Director relating to a licence under this Part may, within the period of one month from the making of the decision, appeal to a local court of full jurisdiction against the decision.

(2) The local court of full jurisdiction may, on hearing an appeal under this section, affirm, vary or quash the decision appealed against.

PART IIIA

IMPROVEMENT NOTICES AND PROHIBITION NOTICES

Improvement notices

23a. (1) Where an inspector is of the opinion that a person—

(a) is contravening a provision of this Act;

or

(b) has contravened a provision of this Act in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will be repeated, the inspector may issue an improvement notice requiring the person to remedy the matters occasioning the contravention.

(2) An improvement notice must—

(a) state that the inspector is of the opinion that the person to whom the notice is addressed—

(i) is contravening a provision of this Act;

or

(ii) has contravened a provision of this Act in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will be repeated;

(b) state the grounds of the inspector's opinion;

(c) specify the provision of this Act in respect of which that opinion is held;

and

(d) specify a day by which the matters referred to in the notice must be remedied.

(3) An inspector may include in an improvement notice directions as to the measures to be taken to remedy the contravention, or to avoid further contravention, of the Act.

(4) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with an improvement notice is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Division 4 fine.

Prohibition notices

23b. (1) For the purposes of this section, a dangerous situation is a situation involving the keeping, handling, conveying, using or disposing of a dangerous substance that is causing immediate danger to the health or safety of any person, or to the safety of any person's property.

(2) Where an inspector is of the opinion that a dangerous situation exists, the inspector may issue a prohibition notice requiring the person to whom the notice is issued to take adequate measures to avert, eliminate or minimize the danger.

(3) A prohibition notice must—

(a) identify the situation that, in the inspector's opinion, is causing the danger;

(b) state the grounds of the inspector's opinion;

and

(c) specify a period within which the danger must be averted, eliminated or minimized.

(4) An inspector may include in a prohibition notice directions as to the measures to be taken to avert, eliminate or minimize the danger to which the notice relates.

(5) Subject to this Act, a person who contravenes or fails to comply with a prohibition notice is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Division 2 fine.

Review of notices

23c. (1) A person to whom an improvement notice or prohibition notice is issued may apply to the President of the Industrial Court to have the notice reviewed by a review committee constituted under the Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act, 1986.

(2) An application for review must be made within 14 days of the receipt of the notice.

(3) Pending the determination of an application for review under this section, the operation of the notice to which the application relates—

(a) in the case of an improvement notice—is suspended;

(b) in the case of a prohibition notice—continues.

(4) A review committee may, if it thinks fit, make an interim order suspending the operation of a prohibition notice until the matter is resolved.

(5) An order under subsection (4) must be made subject to such conditions as may be necessary to protect the health or safety of any person, or the safety of any property.

(6) Where a prohibition notice has been issued, proceedings under this section must be carried out as a matter of urgency.

(7) The provisions of the Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act, 1986, relating to the procedures and powers of a review committee under that Act extend, with necessary modifications, to proceedings on a review under this section.

Powers of committee on review

23d. (1) At the conclusion of a review under this Part, the review committee may—

(a) confirm any notice to which the review relates;

(b) confirm a notice with such modifications as the review committee thinks fit;

(c) cancel a notice;

(d) issue a different notice.

(2) Where the review committee confirms an improvement notice the operation of which has been suspended or confirms such a notice with modifications, the review committee may order the person to whom the notice was issued to comply with the notice within a period specified by the review committee.

(3) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with a notice that is confirmed or issued by the review committee within the period specified by the review committee is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Division 4 fine.

(4) If a notice is modified or cancelled by the review committee, the person to whom the notice was issued has no right of recovery against the Crown in respect of any loss or expenses incurred by him or her as a result of having complied with the notice as it was issued by the inspector.

Action on default

23e. (1) Where a person is required by an improvement notice or prohibition notice to take any specified measures and the person fails to comply with the notice, the inspector who issued the notice may have those measures carried out and, for that purpose, the inspector or any person authorized by the inspector may, after giving reasonable notice to the person required to take the measures, enter and take possession of any place (taking such measures as are reasonably necessary for the purpose) and do, or cause to be done, such things as full and proper compliance with the notice may require.

(2) The Crown may recover the costs and expenses reasonably incurred by an inspector or other authorized person exercising the powers under subsection (1) from the person who failed to comply with the notice, as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Action in emergency situations

23f. (1) Where an inspector considers on reasonable grounds that there is immediate danger to the health or safety of any person, or to the safety of any person's property, and that there is insufficient time to issue a notice under this Part, the inspector may, after giving such notice (if any) as may be reasonable in the circumstances, do such things as may be necessary to avert, eliminate or minimize the danger.

(2) In the exercise of powers under this section, an inspector—

(a) may at any time enter and take possession of any place (taking such measures as are reasonably necessary for the purpose);

and

(b) may be accompanied by such assistants as may be necessary or desirable in the circumstances.

(3) The Crown may recover the costs and expenses reasonably incurred by an inspector exercising the powers under this section from the person who caused the danger, as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.

PART IV
MISCELLANEOUSExemption by chief inspector

24. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Director may, upon the application of any person, by notice in writing, exempt that person from compliance with any specified provision of this Act.

(2) An exemption granted under this section shall be subject to such conditions as the Director may specify in the notice.

(3) The Director shall not grant an exemption from compliance with any provision of this Act unless he is satisfied—

(a) that compliance with the provision is not reasonably practicable in the circumstances;

and

(b) that the granting of the exemption subject to such conditions as he may specify will not endanger the health or safety of any person, or the safety of any property.

(4) The Director may, by notice in writing given to any person granted an exemption under this section, add to, vary, or revoke any conditions of the exemption.

(5) The Director may, after due inquiry and for good cause, by notice in writing to any person, revoke any exemption granted to that person under this section.

(6) Any person who has been granted an exemption under this section and who breaches, or fails to comply with, any condition of the exemption shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the penalty prescribed for contravention of the provision in relation to which the exemption was granted.

Evidentiary provisions

25. (1) In proceedings for an offence against this Act, an allegation in the complaint—

(a) that any person named holds or held at a specified time a specified office;

(b) that any person named was or was not at a specified time the holder of a specified licence under this Act;

(c) that any specified substance is or was a dangerous substance;

or

(d) that any specified substance is or was a dangerous substance of a specified class, shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed to be proved.

(2) In proceedings for an offence against this Act, a licence and any conditions of a licence, an exemption and any conditions of an exemption, or any notice, granted or given under this Act may be proved by production of an apparently genuine document purporting to be a copy of the licence, exemption or notice certified by an officer authorized by this Act to grant or give such licence, exemption or notice.

(3) In proceedings for an offence against this Act, an apparently genuine document purporting to be a certificate of the Government Analyst setting out the results of an analysis of any substance or thing, shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be accepted as proof of the matters stated therein.

Offences by bodies corporate

26. Where a body corporate is guilty of an offence against this Act, every member of the governing body and the manager of the body corporate shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the same penalty as is prescribed for that offence (when committed by a natural person) unless he proves that he did not know and could not reasonably be expected to have known of the commission of that offence or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of that offence.

Continuing offences

27. (1) A person convicted of an offence against any provision of this Act in respect of a continuing act or omission—

(a) shall be liable, in addition to the penalty otherwise applicable to that offence, to a penalty for each day during which the act or omission continued of not more than the amount equal to one-tenth of the maximum penalty prescribed for that offence;

and

(b) shall, if the act or omission continues after he is convicted, be guilty of a further offence against that provision and liable, in addition to the penalty otherwise applicable to that further offence, to a penalty for each day during which the act or omission continued after that conviction of not more than the amount equal to one-tenth of the maximum penalty prescribed for that offence.

(2) Where an offence against a provision of this Act consists of an omission to do something that is required or directed to be done, the omission shall, for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, be deemed to continue for so long as the thing required or directed to be done remains undone after the expiration of the period for compliance with the requirement or direction.

Forfeiture of dangerous substance upon conviction

28. (1) Where a person is convicted of an offence against this Act, the court may order that any dangerous substance in relation to which the offence was committed and that is the property of that person be forfeited to the Crown.

(2) Any dangerous substance forfeited to the Crown shall be disposed of in such manner as the Minister may direct and, where any dangerous substance is disposed of by way of sale, the proceeds of the sale shall be paid into the general revenue of the State.

Summary proceedings

29. Proceedings for an offence against this Act—

(a) shall be disposed of summarily;

and

(b) shall not be commenced except upon the complaint of an inspector.

Regulations

30. (1) The Governor may make such regulations as are contemplated by this Act or as are necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) of this section, those regulations may—

- (a) prescribe fees for licences under this Act varying according to the activity authorized under any such licence and the term of any such licence;
- (b) regulate the keeping, handling, conveyance, use and disposal of any dangerous substance;
- (c) prescribe standards of quality and composition in relation to any dangerous substance;
- (d) prohibit the sale of any dangerous substance that does not conform to any relevant prescribed standard of quality or composition;
- (e) prescribe standards for the siting, design, construction, ventilation, illumination, fittings, fixtures and management of premises used, or to be used, in connection with any dangerous substance;
- (f) prescribe standards for the design, construction, cleanliness, venting, ventilation, marking, and maintenance of any vehicle, pipeline or other means of conveyance, or any container or any other thing used, or to be used, in connection with any dangerous substance;
- (g) prohibit the keeping of any dangerous substance in any premises or containers that do not conform to any standard prescribed therefor;
- (h) prohibit the conveyance of any dangerous substance in containers or by vehicles, pipelines or any other means that do not conform to any standard prescribed therefor;
- (i) regulate or prohibit any activities of specified kinds in the vicinity of any dangerous substance;
- (j) prescribe the safety procedures to be followed and the provision, maintenance and use of safety equipment and facilities in connection with the keeping, handling, conveyance, use and disposal of any dangerous substance;
- (k) regulate, restrict or prohibit the disposal of any dangerous substance;
- (l) prohibit the handling, conveyance or use of any dangerous substance except by a person who has received the prescribed training and who is the holder of a permit;
- (la) prohibit the manufacture, installation, repair or maintenance of any machine, equipment, container or device in or in connection with which any dangerous substance is kept or used except by a person who has received the prescribed training and who is the holder of a permit;
- (lb) provide for the grant, suspension and revocation of permits by the Chief Inspector;
- (lc) prescribe fees for permits granted by the Chief Inspector;
- (ld) regulate the manufacture, installation, repair or maintenance of any machine, equipment, container or device in or in connection with which any dangerous substance is kept or used;
- (m) require the reporting to the Director of accidents occurring in connection with the keeping, handling, conveyance, use or disposal of any dangerous substance;

(n) require the keeping of records and the furnishing of returns to the Director in connection with the keeping, handling, conveyance, use or disposal of any dangerous substance;

and

(o) provide for and prescribe penalties not exceeding, in each case, a division 6 fine for breach of, or non-compliance with, any regulation.

(3) Any regulations made under this section may—

(a) be of general or limited application according to the persons or classes of persons to whom, or the dangerous substances or classes of dangerous substances, or the time, place or circumstances, to which they are expressed to apply;

and

(b) refer to, or incorporate, in whole or in part, a standard or code of practice, as in force at a particular time, or as in force from time to time, of the Standards Association of Australia, the International Standards Organization, or any other prescribed body.
