An Act to consolidate and amend the laws constituting public holidays and bank holidays, and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Holidays Act, 1910.

Repeal

2. The enactments mentioned in the first schedule are hereby repealed to the extent stated in such schedule.

Days fixed as holidays

3. (1) The days mentioned in the second schedule are public holidays and bank holidays but when a day mentioned in Part II of the second schedule falls on a Saturday or Sunday, the following Monday will be a public holiday and bank holiday instead of that day.

³ Came into operation 4 November 1993: Gaz. 4 November 1993, p. 2168.

Note: 1. Asterisks indicate repeal or deletion of text.

2. For the legislative history of the Act see Appendix. Entries appearing in the Appendix in bold type indicate the amendments incorporated since the last reprint.

(2) 26 December will be a public holiday and a bank holiday but—

- (a) when 26 December falls on a Saturday, the following Monday will be a public holiday and a bank holiday instead of that day; and
- (b) when 26 December falls on a Sunday or a Monday, the following Tuesday will be a public holiday instead of that day.

Anzac Day

3a. In addition to the days mentioned in the second schedule to this Act, the twenty-fifth of April shall be a public holiday and a bank holiday: Provided that when the said day falls upon a Sunday, the following Monday shall be a public holiday and a bank holiday in lieu of that day.

Certain Saturdays to be bank holidays

3b. The days mentioned in Part II of the second schedule and 26 December are bank holidays when they fall on a Saturday.

Special holidays may be proclaimed

4. (1) The Governor may, from time to time, as he may think fit, by proclamation published in the Government Gazette, appoint a special day to be a public holiday or bank holiday in any year either—

- (a) throughout the said State, or
- (b) within such district or locality as is specified in such proclamation; and such day shall in such year be a public holiday or bank holiday accordingly.

(2) At any time before a special day referred to in subsection (1) of this section occurs, whether that special day was appointed pursuant to that subsection before, on or after the commencement of the Holidays Act Amendment Act, 1973, the Governor may by proclamation published in the Gazette revoke the proclamation appointing that day to be a public holiday or bank holiday, and upon the publication of that first mentioned proclamation the day so appointed shall not be, and shall be deemed never to have been appointed as, a public holiday or bank holiday.

Bank half-holidays

4a. (1) The Governor may from time to time, as he may think fit, by proclamation published in the Government Gazette, appoint any part of any specified day to be a bank half-holiday either—

- (a) throughout the State; or
- (b) within such district or locality as is specified in the proclamation.

(2) When a bank half-holiday is so proclaimed, section 7 of this Act shall apply in relation to the day on which that half-holiday occurs as if the whole of that day had been proclaimed a bank holiday.

Governor may substitute another day for day appointed

5. (1) The Governor may, from time to time, as he may see fit, by proclamation published in the Government Gazette, declare some other day to be a public holiday or bank holiday in any year in lieu of a day by this Act appointed a public holiday or bank holiday, and in that case such other day shall in such year be substituted as a public holiday or bank holiday for the said day appointed by this Act.

(2) The Governor may by subsequent proclamation vary or revoke a proclamation made under this section.

Public offices and banks to be closed on holidays

6. (1) Subject to subsection (2), all offices of the Public Service of the said State shall be closed on public holidays, and all banks shall be closed on bank holidays: Provided that nothing in this Act shall—

- (a) authorize the closing on any public holiday of any office of the said Service which is specially required by law to be kept open on such public holiday; or
- (b) prevent the responsible Minister in charge of a Government department from requiring the services of any or all of the officers of such department during any public holiday in case of emergency.

(2) Subsection (1) does not require the closure of a bank on a bank holiday if the opening of the bank on that day is authorized by a proclamation under subsection (3).

(3) The Governor may, by proclamation, authorize the opening of banks within a specified area on any bank holiday or holidays specified in the proclamation.

(4) The Governor may, by subsequent proclamation, vary or revoke a proclamation made under this section.

Payments and other acts on holidays or Saturdays

7. (1) No person shall be compellable to make any payment or do any act upon any public holiday, bank holiday or Saturday which he would not be compellable to make or do on Sunday.

(2) When, except for the provisions of this section, any person would be obliged to make any payment or do any act upon a public holiday, bank holiday or Saturday, the obligation shall apply to the next day following which is not a public holiday, bank holiday or Saturday, and payment or performance on such following day shall be due payment of the money or performance of the act: Provided that nothing in this Act shall exempt any person from making any payment or doing any act on any public holiday, bank holiday or Saturday which he is by law specially required to make or do on such day.
