Repeals and savings

5. (1) The Consolidation of Regulations Act, 1937, is repealed.

(2) The repeal effected by subsection (1) of this section does not affect the operation or effect of any regulation, or any consolidation under the Consolidation of Regulations Act, 1937, as in force from time to time, of previously existing regulations to which that Act applied, and that regulation or that consolidation shall, subject to any amendment lawfully made thereto, and, unless and until it is revoked or otherwise ceases to have effect, continue to have the same operation and effect, as it would have had if that Act had not been repealed.

6. (1) The Statute Law Revision Act, 1974, is amended by striking out all matter in the second schedule to that Act relating to the Consolidation of Regulations Act, 1937.

Amendment of Acts Interpretation Act

7. (1) Section 38 of the Acts Interpretation Act, 1915-1975, is repealed.

(2) The Acts Interpretation Act, 1915-1975, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Acts Interpretation Act, 1915-1978.

(3) Where in any Act passed before the commencement of this Act a reference express or implied is made to section 38 of the Acts Interpretation Act, 1915, as in force from time to time, that reference shall, on and after that commencement, be read as a reference to section 10 of this Act.

Appointment of authorized legal practitioners

8. The Attorney-General may, by notice in writing, appoint a legal practitioner as defined in the Legal Practitioners Act, 1936-1977, to be an authorized legal practitioner for the purposes of this Act.

Application of this Act to other subordinate legislation

9. The Governor may, by proclamation, declare that this Act or any specified provision of this Act shall, in addition to applying to regulations, apply to and in relation to any other enactment of a legislative character made pursuant to any Act, whether that Act was passed before, on or after the commencement of this Act, and this Act shall apply and have effect accordingly and the Governor may by a subsequent proclamation amend, vary or revoke any such declaration.

PART II

MAKING OF REGULATIONS, ETC.

Making of regulations

10. (1) Where, by any Act passed after the sixteenth day of December, 1915, it is provided that regulations shall or may be made and it is not provided by whom such regulations shall or may be made, any regulation made under, or by virtue of, such provision, shall be made by the Governor.

(2) Except as is expressly provided in any other Act, every regulation made after the commencement of this Act shall, subject to subsection (4) of this section, take effect from the day on which it was made or from such later date as is specified in the regulation.

(3) Except as is expressly provided in any other Act, every regulation shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the making thereof if Parliament is in session, or, if Parliament is not then in session, within fourteen days after the commencement of the next session of Parliament.

(4) If either House of Parliament passes a resolution disallowing any such regulation, of which resolution notice has been given at any time within fourteen sitting days of such House after such regulation has been laid before it notwithstanding that those fourteen sitting days, or some of them, do not occur in the same session of Parliament as that in which the regulation is laid before that House, then that regulation shall thereupon cease to have effect.

* * * * *

(6) When a resolution referred to in subsection (4) of this section has been passed, notice of that resolution shall forthwith be published in the Gazette.

(7) Notwithstanding anything in this section, where in any Act, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Act, it is provided that any regulation shall be made by an authority other than the Governor and that that regulation shall be confirmed by the Governor or some other authority before it shall have the force of law, that regulation shall not take effect unless it has been confirmed as required.

Regulations to be referred to Legislative Review Committee

10a. (1) Every regulation that is required to be laid before Parliament is, when made, referred by force of this section to the Legislative Review Committee of the Parliament.

(2) The Committee must inquire into and consider all regulations referred to it.

(3) The Committee must consider all regulations as soon as conveniently practicable after they are referred to the Committee and, if Parliament is then in session, must do so before the end of the period within which any motion for disallowance of the regulations may be moved in either House of Parliament.

(4) If the Committee forms the opinion that any regulations ought to be disallowed—

(a) it must report the opinion and the grounds for the opinion to both Houses of Parliament before the end of the period within which any motion for disallowance of the regulations may be moved in either House;

and

(b) if Parliament is not in session, it may, before reporting to Parliament, report the opinion and the grounds for the opinion to the authority by which the regulations were made.

11. Every regulation shall, forthwith after it is made, be published in the Gazette in the prescribed form and manner.

Reprinting of regulations

Numbering of regulations

13. (1) For the purposes of this section the Governor may by proclamation appoint a day.

(2) Regulations (other than regulations made by an authority other than the Governor) made on and after the day appointed under subsection (1) of this section shall be numbered consecutively as nearly as may be in the order in which they were made beginning with the number "1" in each year.

PART III
