PART 2
THE OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH, SAFETY AND WELFARE
ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Advisory Committee

7. (1) The Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Advisory Committee is established.

(2) The Advisory Committee consists of nine members appointed by the Governor of whom—

- (a) three will be appointed on the Minister's nomination after consulting with associations representing employers and with associations representing employees (including the UTLC); and
- (b) three will be appointed on the Minister's nomination after consulting with associations representing employers; and
- (c) three will be appointed on the Minister's nomination after consulting with associations representing employees (including the UTLC).

Functions of the Advisory Committee

8. (1) The functions of the Advisory Committee are—

- (a) to advise the Minister on the formulation and implementation of policies relating to occupational health, safety or welfare; and
- (b) to advise the Minister (on its own initiative or at the request of the Minister) on—
  - (i) proposals to make amendments to this Act, or to make regulations under this Act; and
  - (ii) other legislative proposals that may affect the operation of this Act; and
- (c) to recommend to the Minister regulations and codes of practice relating to occupational health, safety or welfare, to keep the regulations and codes of practice under review and, where appropriate, make recommendations for their revision; and
- (d) to advise the Minister on occupational health, safety and welfare standards and to report to the Minister (on its own initiative or at the request of the Minister) on any other matter relating to occupational health, safety or welfare; and
- (e) to keep the administration and enforcement of legislation relevant to occupational health, safety and welfare under review; and
- (f) to keep the role of health and safety representatives under review; and
- (g) to keep the provision of services relevant to occupational health, safety and welfare under review; and

- (h) to consult and co-operate with relevant national, State and Territory authorities; and
- (i) to keep the courses of training in occupational health, safety and welfare under review; and
- (j) to carry out other functions assigned to the Advisory Committee by the Minister or by or under this or any other Act.

(2) The Advisory Committee may conduct public meetings and discussions and may, with the approval of the Minister, conduct inquiries, on questions arising before the Advisory Committee.

(3) The Advisory Committee may on its own initiative, and must at the direction of the Minister, consult and co-operate with the Corporation, other government authorities at a State or national level, representatives of registered associations and other persons or bodies.

(4) Before the Advisory Committee recommends the making of a regulation, code of practice or standard, the Advisory Committee should—

- (a) make the proposed regulation, code of practice or standard available for public comment; and
- (b) consider whether an industry impact statement should be prepared and advise the Minister accordingly; and
- (c) if the Minister or the Advisory Committee considers that the proposed regulation, code of practice or standard should be tested—ensure that an appropriate pre-approval trial has been conducted.

(5) The Advisory Committee may, with the approval of the Minister, establish subcommittees to assist the Committee.

(6) A subcommittee may, but need not, consist of, or include, members of the Advisory Committee.

Terms and conditions of office

9. (1) A member of the Advisory Committee will be appointed on conditions, and for a term (not exceeding 3 years), determined by the Governor and, on the expiration of a term of appointment, is eligible for re-appointment.

(2) The Governor may remove a member from office for—

- (a) breach of, or non-compliance with, a condition of appointment; or
- (b) mental or physical incapacity to carry out duties of office satisfactorily; or
- (c) neglect of duty; or
- (d) dishonourable conduct.

(3) The office of a member becomes vacant if the member—

- (a) dies; or
- (b) completes a term of office and is not re-appointed; or

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

---

- (c) resigns by written notice addressed to the Minister; or
- (d) is found guilty of an indictable offence; or
- (e) is found guilty of an offence against subsection (5) (Disclosure of interest); or
- (f) is removed from office by the Governor under subsection (2).

(4) On the office of a member of the Advisory Committee becoming vacant, a person must be appointed, in accordance with this Act, to the vacant office.

(5) A member who has a direct or indirect personal or pecuniary interest in a matter under consideration by the Advisory Committee—

- (a) must, as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the interest, disclose the nature and extent of the interest to the Committee; and
- (b) must not take part in a deliberation or decision of the Committee on the matter and must not be present at a meeting of the Committee when the matter is under consideration.

Penalty: Division 5 fine or imprisonment for two years.

(6) The court by which a person is convicted of an offence against subsection (5) may, on the application of an interested person, make an order avoiding a contract to which the non-disclosure relates and for restitution of property passing under the contract.

Allowances and expenses

10. (1) A member of the Advisory Committee is entitled to fees, allowances and expenses approved by the Governor.

(2) The fees, allowances and expenses are payable out of the Compensation Fund under the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986.

Proceedings, etc., of the Advisory Committee

11. (1) Meetings of the Advisory Committee must be held at times and places appointed by the Committee, but there must be at least six meetings per year.

(2) Six members of the Advisory Committee constitute a quorum of the Committee.

(3) The presiding member of the Advisory Committee will, if present at a meeting of the Committee, preside at the meeting and, in the absence of the presiding member, a member chosen by the members present will preside.

(4) A decision carried by a majority of the votes of the members present at a meeting of the Advisory Committee is a decision of the Committee.

(5) Each member present at a meeting of the Advisory Committee is entitled to one vote on a matter arising for decision by the Committee, and, if the votes are equal, the person presiding at the meeting has a second or casting vote.

(6) The Advisory Committee must ensure that accurate minutes are kept of its proceedings.

(7) The Advisory Committee may open its proceedings to the public unless the proceedings relate to commercially sensitive matters or to matters of a private confidential nature.

(8) Subject to this Act, the proceedings of the Advisory Committee will be conducted as the Committee determines.

Confidentiality

12. A member of the Advisory Committee who, as a member of the Committee, acquires information that—

- (a) the member knows to be of a commercially sensitive nature, or of a private confidential nature; or
- (b) the Committee classifies as confidential information, must not divulge the information without the approval of the Committee.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

Immunity of members of Advisory Committee

13. (1) No personal liability attaches to a member of the Advisory Committee for an act or omission by the member or the Committee in good faith and in the exercise or purported exercise of powers or functions under this Act.

(2) A liability that would, but for subsection (1), lie against a member lies instead against the Crown.

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

PART 3
GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH, SAFETY AND WELFARE

Duties of employers

19. (1) An employer shall, in respect of each employee employed or engaged by the employer, ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that the employee is, while at work, safe from injury and risks to health and, in particular—

- (a) shall provide and maintain so far as is reasonably practicable—
  - (i) a safe working environment;
  - (ii) safe systems of work;
  - (iii) plant and substances in a safe condition; and
- (b) shall provide adequate facilities of a prescribed kind for the welfare of employees at any workplace that is under the control and management of the employer; and
- (c) shall provide such information, instruction, training and supervision as are reasonably necessary to ensure that each employee is safe from injury and risks to health.

Penalty—

- (a) in the case of a first offence—Division 2 fine;
- (b) in the case of a second or subsequent offence—Division 1 fine.

(3) Without derogating from the operation of subsection (1), an employer shall so far as is reasonably practicable—

- (a) monitor the health and welfare of the employer's employees in their employment with the employer, insofar as that monitoring is relevant to the prevention of work-related injuries; and
- (b) keep information and records relating to work-related injuries suffered by employees in their employment with the employer and retain that information and those records for such period as may be prescribed; and
- (c) provide information to the employer's employees (in such languages as are appropriate) in relation to health, safety and welfare in the workplace (including the names of persons to whom the employees may make inquiries and complaints about matters affecting occupational health, safety or welfare); and
- (d) ensure that any employee who is to undertake work of a hazardous nature not previously performed by the employee receives proper information, instruction and training before he or she commences that work; and
- (e) ensure that any employee who is inexperienced in the performance of any work of a hazardous nature receives such supervision as is reasonably necessary to ensure his or her health and safety; and

- (f) ensure that any employee who could be put at risk by a change in the workplace, in any work or work practice, in any activity or process, or in any plant—
  - (i) is given proper information, instruction and training before the change occurs; and
  - (ii) receives such supervision as is reasonably necessary to ensure his or her health and safety; and
- (g) ensure that any manager or supervisor is provided with such information, instruction and training as are necessary to ensure that each employee under his or her management or supervision is, while at work, so far as is reasonably practicable, safe from injury and risks to health; and
- (h) monitor working conditions at any workplace that is under the management and control of the employer; and
- (i) ensure that any accommodation, or eating, recreational or other facility, provided for the benefit of the employer's employees while they are at work, or in connection with the performance of their work, and under the management or control of the employer (either wholly or substantially), is maintained in a safe and healthy condition.

Employers' statements for health and safety at work

20. (1) Every employer shall—

- (a) prepare and maintain, in consultation with—
  - (i) health and safety committees; and
  - (ii) the employer's employees; and
  - (iii) any health and safety representative who represents those employees; and
  - (iv) on the application of an employee—a registered association of which that employee is a member; and
  - (v) if the employer so decides—any other registered association nominated by the employer of which the employer is a member,polices relating to occupational health, safety and welfare at the workplace; and
- (b) (i) prepare and keep up to date a written statement setting out with reasonable particularity the arrangements, practices and procedures at the workplace protecting the health and safety of the employer's employees at the workplace; and
- (ii) take reasonable steps to bring the contents of that statement to the notice of those employees.

* * * * *

Duties of workers

21. (1) An employee shall take reasonable care—

- (a) to protect his or her own health and safety at work; and

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

---

- (b) to avoid adversely affecting the health or safety of any other person through any act or omission at work, and, in particular, shall so far as is reasonable (but without derogating from any common law right)—

- (c) use any equipment provided for health or safety purposes; and
- (d) obey any reasonable instruction that his or her employer may give in relation to health or safety at work; and
- (e) comply with any policy that applies at the workplace published or approved by the Minister after seeking the advice of the Advisory Committee; and
- (f) ensure that he or she is not, by the consumption of alcohol or a drug, in such a state as to endanger his or her own safety at work or the safety of any other person at work.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

(2) In determining the standard of care applicable to a worker whose native language is not English and who is not reasonably fluent in English regard must be had to—

- (a) whether information relating to occupational health and safety has been reasonably available to the worker in a language and form that the worker might reasonably be expected to understand; and
- (b) whether instruction or training of the worker (if any) has been carried out in a language and form that the worker might reasonably be expected to understand.

Duties of employers and self-employed persons

22. An employer or a self-employed person shall take reasonable care—

- (a) to protect his or her own health and safety at work; and
- (b) to avoid adversely affecting the health or safety of any other person (not being an employee employed or engaged by the employer or the self-employed person) through an act or omission at work.

Penalty: Division 6 fine.

Duties of occupiers

23. The occupier of a workplace shall ensure so far as is reasonably practicable—

- (a) that the workplace is maintained in a safe condition; and
- (b) that the means of access to and egress from the workplace are safe.

Duties of designers and owners of buildings

23A. (1) A person who designs a building that is reasonably expected to comprise or include a workplace must—

- (a) ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that the building is designed so that people who might work in, on or about the workplace are, in doing so, safe from injury and risks to health; and

- (b) ensure that the building complies in all respects with prescribed requirements (if any) applicable to it.

Penalty: Division 2 fine.

- (2) The owner of a building that comprises or includes a workplace must—

- (a) ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that the building, and any fixtures or fittings within the building that are under the control of the owner, are in a condition that allows people who might work in, on or about the workplace to be safe from injury and risks to health; and
- (b) ensure that the building complies in all respects with prescribed requirements (if any) applicable to it.

Penalty: Division 2 fine.

- (3) In this section—

"building" includes a part of a building.

Duties of manufacturers, etc.

24. (1) A person who designs, manufactures, imports or supplies any plant for use at work shall—

- (a) ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that the plant is designed and constructed so as to be safe—
  - (i) when properly used and maintained; and
  - (ii) when subjected to reasonably foreseeable forms of misuse; and
- (b) ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that the plant is designed and constructed so that people who might use, clean or maintain the plant are, in doing so, safe from injury and risks to health; and
- (c) take such steps to test or examine, or arrange for the testing or examination of, the plant as are reasonably necessary to ensure compliance with paragraphs (a) and (b); and
- (d) ensure that the plant complies in all respects with prescribed requirements (if any) applicable to it; and
- (e) ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that adequate information about any conditions necessary to ensure the safe installation, use and maintenance of the plant is supplied with the plant.

Penalty: Division 2 fine.

(2) A person who erects or installs any plant for use at a workplace shall ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that it will be safe—

- (a) when properly used and maintained; and
- (b) when subjected to reasonably foreseeable forms of misuse.

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

(2a) Without derogating from the operation of subsections (1) and (2), where any structure is to be erected in the course of any work—

- (a) the person who designs the structure must ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that the structure is designed so that the persons who are required to erect it are, in doing so, safe from injury and risks to health; and
- (b) any person who manufactures any materials to be used for the purposes of the structure must ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that the materials are manufactured so that the persons who are required to erect the structure are, in using, handling or otherwise dealing with the materials, safe from injury and risks to health; and
- (c) any person who imports or supplies any materials to be used for the purposes of the structure must ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that the materials are in such a state as to be safe to any person who must use, handle or otherwise deal with the materials; and
- (d) the person undertaking the erection of the structure must ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that the structure is safe during the course of its erection and subsequent use.

(3) A person who manufactures, imports or supplies any substance for use at a workplace shall—

- (a) ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that the substance is in such a state as to be safe—
  - (i) when properly used, handled, processed, stored, transported or disposed of; and
  - (ii) when subjected to reasonably foreseeable forms of improper use, handling, processing, storage, transportation or disposal; and
- (b) ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that the substance is in such a state that persons who might use, handle, process, store, transport or dispose of the substance are, in doing so, safe from injury and risks to health; and
- (c) take such steps to test or examine, or arrange for the testing or examination of, the substance as are reasonably necessary to ensure compliance with paragraphs (a) and (b); and
- (d) ensure that the substance complies in all respects with prescribed requirements (if any) applicable to it; and
- (e) ensure so far as is reasonably practicable that adequate information about any conditions necessary to ensure its safe use, handling, processing, storage, transportation or disposal is provided in connection with the supply of the substance.

Penalty: Division 2 fine.

(4) In this section—

"structure" includes a part of a structure.

Duties applicable to all persons

25. (1) A person (not being an employer, employee or occupier of a workplace) shall not—

- (a) misuse or damage anything provided in the interests of health, safety or welfare; or
- (b) place at risk the health or safety of any other person while that person is at work.

(2) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (1) for the defendant to prove—

- (a) that the act or omission alleged to give rise to the offence was neither intentional nor reckless; or
- (b) that there is a reasonable excuse for that act or omission.

PART 4
HEALTH AND SAFETY REPRESENTATIVES AND COMMITTEES

DIVISION 1—PRELIMINARY

Preliminary

26. For the purposes of this Part, "employee" does not include—

- (a) a self-employed contractor unless the work performed by the contractor is of a class prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; or
- (b) a person employed in a managerial capacity unless a majority of employees at the particular workplace have resolved that it is reasonable to treat the person as an employee for the purposes of this Part; or
- (c) where the employer is a body corporate, an officer of the body corporate.

DIVISION 2—APPOINTMENT OF HEALTH AND SAFETY REPRESENTATIVES AND COMMITTEES

Interpretation

26A. In this Division—

"interested employee", in relation to the constitution or composition of a work group or health and safety committee, means an employee whose interests could be affected by the constitution or composition of that group or committee (or a change in such constitution or composition);

"recognised member" of a group means a member of the group who—

- (a) by agreement between the employer and—
  - (i) any interested employees; or
  - (ii) a person appointed by such employees; or
- (b) in default of agreement, by determination of the Industrial Commission, is recognised as a member of the group for the purposes of the election of any health and safety representative to represent the group, and the other provisions of this Division relating to the office of health and safety representative.

Health and safety representatives may represent groups

27. (1) A group of employees may elect a health and safety representative to represent a work group for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The constitution of a work group will be determined by agreement between the employer and—

- (a) any interested employees; or
- (b) a person appointed by such employees.

(3) Where an employer is requested by an employee to act to constitute a work group for the purposes of this section, the employer must respond to the request within 14 days of its receipt.

(4) If an employee is a member of a registered association, that registered association must, at the request of the employee, be consulted in relation to any proposal relating to the formation of a work group that could affect the employee.

(5) A work group must be constituted in a manner that takes into account—

- (a) the need for a health and safety representative representing that group to be able to perform his or her functions effectively; and
- (b) the need for the employer to be able to fulfil his or her responsibilities to a health and safety representative representing that group effectively.

(6) Insofar as may be relevant to a particular case, and subject to any guidelines issued by the Corporation after seeking the advice of the Advisory Committee, the following matters should be considered in relation to the constitution of a work group:

- (a) the number of employees employed by the employer;
- (b) the nature of each type of work performed by the employer's employees;
- (c) the number and grouping of employees who perform the same or similar types of work;
- (d) the areas or places where each type of work is performed;
- (e) the extent to which any employee must move from place to place while at work;
- (f) the times at which particular work is performed;
- (g) the overtime or shift-work arrangements that apply in relation to the performance of work;
- (h) the nature of particular risks involved in each type of work;
- (i) any other relevant factor.

(7) Where—

- (a) an employer fails to respond to a request in accordance with subsection (3); or
- (b) a dispute arises in relation to the constitution of a work group under this section, an employee, the employer or, if any employee is a member of a registered association, that registered association if so requested by such an employee, may refer the matter to the Industrial Commission.

(8) Where a matter is referred to the Industrial Commission under subsection (7), the Industrial Commission must attempt to resolve the matter by conciliation.

(9) If a matter cannot be resolved within a reasonable time by conciliation under subsection (8), the Industrial Commission must refer the matter to the President of the Industrial Court for determination by a review committee.

(10) The review committee may determine how a particular work group or groups are to be constituted and the decision of the review committee is binding on all parties.

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

---

(11) The constitution of a work group may be varied at any time—

(a) by agreement between the employer and—

(i) any interested employees; or

(ii) a person appointed by such employees; or

(b) in default of agreement, by a review committee.

(12) The employer must keep a list of the work groups constituted under this section.

(13) A copy of the list must be displayed by the employer in a prominent place at his or her principal place of business, or at any other place that is appropriate taking into account the constitution of the various work groups.

Election of health and safety representatives

28. (1) The election of health and safety representatives shall be conducted in accordance with this section.

(2) A person is eligible to be a candidate for election as a health and safety representative if the person is a recognised member of the work group that the health and safety representative is to represent.

(3) The conduct of an election of a health and safety representative will be carried out by a person selected by agreement between at least one-half of the recognised members of the work group or, failing the selection of such a person within a reasonable time, on application to the Corporation, by a person nominated by the Corporation.

(4) Every recognised member of the work group is entitled to vote at the election to appoint the health and safety representative to represent that group.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), the election of a health and safety representative must be carried out in accordance with procedures prescribed by regulations made after the Minister has consulted with the Advisory Committee.

(6) The election must be carried out by secret ballot if any recognised member of the work group so requests.

(7) If there is only one candidate for election—

(a) a ballot need not be held; and

(b) the candidate shall be deemed to have been duly elected.

(8) If a dispute arises in relation to the election of a health and safety representative under this section—

(a) a person who is a recognised member of the work group; or

(b) if any such person is a member of a registered association and requests the registered association to act on his or her behalf—that registered association, may refer the dispute to the Industrial Commission.

(9) Where a dispute is referred to the Industrial Commission under subsection (8), the Industrial Commission shall attempt to resolve the dispute by conciliation.

(10) If a dispute cannot be resolved within a reasonable time by conciliation under subsection (9), the Industrial Commission shall refer the dispute to the President of the Industrial Court for determination by a review committee.

(11) The review committee may determine the dispute and the decision of the review committee is binding on all the parties.

(12) On being elected under this section, a health and safety representative shall, in accordance with the regulations, provide the prescribed information to the employer and the Corporation.

Election of a deputy health and safety representative

29. (1) The recognised members of a work group may elect one of their number to be a deputy to the health and safety representative for that group.

(2) A deputy may, in the absence of the health and safety representative, perform the functions of the health and safety representative under this Act.

Term of office of a health and safety representative

30. (1) Subject to this section, a health and safety representative shall hold office for a term of three years.

(2) A person ceases to be a health and safety representative for a work group if that person—

- (a) completes a term of office as a health and safety representative expires and is not re-elected; or
- (b) ceases to belong to the relevant work group; or
- (c) resigns as a health and safety representative; or
- (ca) is removed from office by a resolution of at least two-thirds of the recognised members of the group on the ground that they consider that the person has ceased to be a suitable person to act as their representative; or
- (d) is disqualified by a review committee.

(3) Where there is a substantial change in the circumstances surrounding the constitution of a work group and it is agreed at that time by at least one-half of the recognised members of the group that a fresh election should be held to elect a health and safety representative, the health and safety representative who was representing that group must resign and a fresh election must be held.

(4) An application for the disqualification of a health and safety representative may be made to the President of the Industrial Court for determination by a review committee by—

- (a) the employer; or
- (b) a registered association of which any recognised member of the work group that the health and safety representative represents is a member; or
- (c) a majority of the employees who at any particular time are the members of the work group that the health and safety representative represents.

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

(5) The grounds upon which a health and safety representative may be disqualified are—

- (a) that the health and safety representative has on repeated occasions neglected to carry out the functions of a health and safety representative under this Act; or
- (b) that the health and safety representative has—
  - (i) exercised or performed powers or functions under this Act for an improper purpose; or
  - (ii) disclosed information (being information acquired from the employer) for an improper purpose.

(6) If a review committee is satisfied that a ground for disqualification exists, the review committee may, if it thinks fit, disqualify the health and safety representative for a specified period.

(7) In determining what action (if any) should be taken under subsection (6), the review committee shall take into account—

- (a) the harm (if any) that has been caused by the health and safety representative;
- (b) the past record of the health and safety representative in exercising or performing powers or functions under this Act;
- (c) whether the actions of the health and safety representative were contrary to the public interest;
- (d) any other relevant consideration.

(8) For the purposes of this section, a reference to a health and safety representative includes a deputy to a health and safety representative.

Health and safety committees

31. (1) At the request of—

- (a) a health and safety representative; or
- (b) a prescribed number of employees; or
- (c) a majority of the employees at any workplace,

the employer must, within two months of the request, establish one or more health and safety committees.

(1a) An employer must also establish one or more health and safety committees if required to do so by or under the regulations.

(2) The composition of a health and safety committee shall be determined by agreement between the employer, the health and safety representative and any interested employees.

(3) If an employee is a member of a registered association, that registered association shall, at the request of the employee, be consulted in relation to the composition of a health and safety committee under this section.

(4) The membership of a committee should, so far as is reasonably practicable, represent a reasonable cross-section of the persons whose activities, work, or health, safety or welfare (whether as principal, manager, supervisor or employee) could be within the responsibilities of the committee subject however to the following qualifications:

- (a) any relevant health and safety representative should be encouraged to be a member of the committee; and
- (b) at least half of the members of the committee must be employees.

(5) If at any time agreement cannot be reached on any matter relating to the establishment or composition of a health and safety committee, an interested party may refer the matter to the Industrial Commission to resolve the disagreement.

(6) Where a matter is referred to the Industrial Commission under subsection (5), the Industrial Commission shall attempt to resolve the matter by conciliation.

(7) If a matter cannot be resolved within a reasonable time by conciliation under subsection (6), the Industrial Commission shall refer the matter to the President of the Industrial Court for determination by a review committee.

(8) The review committee may determine any matter relating to the establishment or composition of a health and safety committee and its decision is binding on all the parties.

(9) Subject to the regulations, the proceedings of a health and safety committee shall be conducted in such manner as the committee may determine.

(10) A health and safety committee shall hold at least one meeting in every 3 months.

(11) A meeting of a health and safety committee shall be held—

- (a) on the request of at least half of the members of the committee; or
- (b) on the request of a health and safety representative; or
- (c) on the request of the employer.

(12) The composition of a health and safety committee may be varied at any time by agreement between the employer, any relevant health and safety representative, and any interested employees who are within the responsibility of the committee.

(13) In addition to the other matters provided by this section, the regulations may make provision for—

- (a) the term of office of a member of a health and safety committee;
- (b) the disqualification of a person from acting, or continuing to act, as a member of a health and safety committee;
- (c) the appointment of a person to a casual vacancy in the membership of a health and safety committee.

(14) This section does not apply to a prescribed employer or an employer of a prescribed class (if any).

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

DIVISION 3—FUNCTIONS OF HEALTH AND SAFETY REPRESENTATIVES AND COMMITTEES

Functions of health and safety representatives

32. (1) A health and safety representative may, for the purpose of the health, safety and welfare of the employees in the work group that the health and safety representative represents—

- (a) inspect the whole or any part of any relevant workplace—
  - (i) at any time after giving reasonable notice to the employer (which must state the name of any consultant who is to accompany the representative during the inspection and the purpose for which the consultant's advice is sought); or
  - (ii) immediately, in the event of an accident, dangerous occurrence or imminent danger or risk to the health or safety of any person;
- (b) accompany an inspector during an inspection of any relevant workplace;
- (c) investigate complaints relating to occupational health, safety or welfare made by employees in the work group;
- (d) at the request of the employee, be present at any interview concerning occupational health, safety or welfare between an inspector and an employee;
- (e) at the request of the employee, be present at any interview concerning occupational health, safety or welfare between the employer (or a representative of the employer) and an employee;
- (f) make representations to the employer on any matter that relates to occupational health, safety or welfare at any relevant workplace.

(2) In relation to the inspection of a workplace under subsection (1)(a), a health and safety representative may—

- (a) be accompanied by such consultants as the representative thinks fit; and
- (b) discuss any matter affecting health, safety or welfare with any employee at the workplace; and
- (c) carry out any investigation that may appear appropriate.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) are subject to the following qualifications:

- (a) a health and safety representative is only entitled to be accompanied on an inspection by a consultant approved by—
  - (i) the Minister after seeking the advice of the Advisory Committee or the Corporation; or
  - (ii) a health and safety committee that has responsibilities in relation to the work group that the health and safety representative represents; or
  - (iii) the employer; and

- (b) a health and safety representative should take reasonable steps to consult with the employer in relation to carrying out an investigation of any workplace and the outcome of any such investigation.

(4) An employer is not liable for the cost of a consultant attending at a workplace pursuant to this section.

(5) The powers and functions of a health and safety representative under this Act are limited to acting in relation to the work group that the health and safety representative represents.

(6) No provision of this Act shall be construed as imposing any duty on a health and safety representative in his or her capacity as a health and safety representative.

(7) Where a health and safety representative exercises or performs a power or function under this Act—

- (a) for an improper purpose intending to cause harm to the employer or a commercial or business undertaking of the employer; or
- (b) for an improper purpose related to an industrial claim or dispute, the health and safety representative is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Division 6 fine.

(8) In this section—

"consultant" means a person who is, by reason of his or her experience or qualifications, suitably qualified to advise on issues relating to occupational health, safety or welfare.

Functions of health and safety committees

33. (1) The functions of a health and safety committee are—

- (a) to facilitate co-operation between an employer and the employees of the employer in initiating, developing, carrying out and monitoring measures designed to ensure the health, safety and welfare at work of the employees; and
- (b) to assist in the resolution of issues relating to occupational health, safety or welfare that arise at any relevant workplace; and
- (c) to assist in the formulation, review and dissemination (in such languages as are appropriate) to employees of the occupational health, safety and welfare practices, procedures and policies that are to be followed at any relevant workplace; and
- (d) to consult with the employer on any proposed changes to occupational health, safety or welfare practices, procedures or policies; and
- (e) to keep under review—
  - (i) developments in the field of rehabilitation of employees who suffer work-related injuries; and
  - (ii) the employment of employees who suffer from any form of disability; and

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

---

- (f) to assist—
  - (i) in the return to work of employees who have suffered work-related injuries; and
  - (ii) in the employment of employees who suffer from any form of disability; and
- (g) such other functions as are prescribed or agreed upon by the employer and the health and safety committee.

(2) A health and safety committee may establish such sub-committees as it thinks fit (which may, but need not consist of, or include, members of the committee) to provide advice or to assist it in the performance of its functions under this Act.

(3) A health and safety committee may delegate any of its functions to a sub-committee established under subsection (2).

- (4) A delegation under subsection (3)—
  - (a) may be made subject to such conditions as the health and safety committee thinks fit; and
  - (b) is revocable at will; and
  - (c) does not derogate from the power of the committee to act in any matter itself.

Responsibilities of employers

34. (1) An employer must—

- (a) consult any relevant health and safety representatives and health and safety committees on any proposed changes to any workplace, the plant used at any workplace, the substances used, handled, processed or stored at any workplace, the work to be conducted at any workplace or the procedures for carrying out work at any workplace, where those changes might affect the health, safety or welfare of employees at the workplace; and
- (b) consult any relevant health and safety representatives and health and safety committees on the occupational health, safety and welfare practices, procedures and policies that are to be followed at any workplace; and
- (c) consult any relevant health and safety representatives and health and safety committees on any proposed changes to occupational health, safety and welfare practices, procedures or policies; and
- (d) consult any relevant health and safety representatives on any proposed application to the designated person for the modification of the requirements of any regulation; and
- (e) at the request of the employee, permit a health and safety representative to be present at any interview concerning occupational health, safety or welfare between the employer (or a representative of the employer) and an employee who is a member of the work group that the health and safety representative represents; and
- (f) permit any relevant health and safety representative to accompany an inspector during an inspection of any workplace; and

- (g) permit a health and safety representative to have access to such information as the employer possesses or can reasonably obtain—
  - (i) relating to risks that arise or may arise at any workplace where employees who are members of the work group that the health and safety representative represents work, out of work conducted at any workplace or out of plant or substances used at any workplace; or
  - (ii) concerning the health and safety of the employees of the employer (but personal information regarding the health of an employee shall not be divulged under this subparagraph without the consent of the employee), and, when requested to do so, supply a copy of that information to the health and safety representative; and

- (h) immediately notify a health and safety representative of the occurrence of an accident, dangerous occurrence, imminent danger or risk or hazardous situation that affects or may affect any employee who is a member of the work group that the health and safety representative represents; and
- (i) notify a health and safety representative of the occurrence of any work-related injury to an employee who is a member of the work group that the health and safety representative represents; and
- (j) provide such other facilities and assistance to health and safety representatives as are necessary or prescribed to enable them to perform their functions under this Act.

(2) An employer is not required to give to a health and safety representative under subsection (1)(g)—

- (a) information that is privileged on the ground of legal professional privilege; or
- (b) information that is relevant to proceedings that have been commenced under this Act.

(3) A health and safety representative is entitled to take, without loss of income, such time off work as is reasonably necessary or authorised by the regulations for the purposes of performing the functions of a health and safety representative under this Act or taking part in any course of training relating to occupational health, safety or welfare that is approved by the Minister after seeking the advice of the Advisory Committee.

(4) Subsection (3) is subject to the following qualifications—

- (a) where—
  - (i) the employer employs 10 or less employees; and
  - (ii) the employer is not an employer in respect of whom a supplementary levy has been imposed by the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Corporation under Part 5 of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986, the health and safety representative may only take such time off work to take part in a course of training as the employer reasonably allows; and

- (b) a deputy health and safety representative may only take time off work to take part in a course of training with the consent of the employer; and

---

- (c) where there is a reasonable choice of courses of training available to a health and safety representative, the health and safety representative shall consult with the employer before choosing the course that he or she is to attend.

(5) The Minister may, after seeking the advice of the Advisory Committee, prepare and publish guidelines in relation to the operation of subsection (3).

(6) If a dispute arises in relation to the entitlement of a health and safety representative under subsection (3), the health and safety representative or the employer may refer the dispute to the Industrial Commission.

(7) The Industrial Commission may determine the dispute and the decision of the Commission is binding on the health and safety representative and the employer.

DIVISION 4—RESOLUTION OF HEALTH, SAFETY OR WELFARE ISSUES

Default notices

35. (1) Where a health and safety representative is of the opinion that a person—

- (a) is contravening a provision of this Act; or
- (b) has contravened a provision of this Act in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will be repeated, the health and safety representative shall consult with the employer in relation to the matter.

(2) If the health and safety representative and the employer are unable within a reasonable time to resolve a particular matter pursuant to subsection (1), the matter shall, if there is a health and safety committee that has responsibility in relation to the matter, be referred to that committee or, if there is no such committee, the matter may be referred to an inspector.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), if after taking reasonable steps to stop by consultation a contravention of this Act or prevent a repeated contravention of this Act the health and safety representative is of the opinion that the matter has not been satisfactorily resolved, the health and safety representative may issue a default notice requiring the person to whom the notice is addressed to remedy the contravention.

(4) A health and safety representative shall not issue a default notice in relation to any matter that is the subject of an improvement notice or a prohibition notice.

(5) Where a health and safety representative issues a default notice, the notice must—

- (a) state that the health and safety representative is of the opinion that a person—
- (i) is contravening a provision of this Act; or
- (ii) has contravened a provision of this Act in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will be repeated; and
- (b) state the grounds of the health and safety representative's opinion.

(6) A health and safety representative may specify in a default notice a day by which the matters referred to in the notice must be remedied.

(7) Where a default notice is issued to an employee, the employee shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable after receiving it, give the notice, or a copy of the notice, to his or her employer.

(8) Subject to subsection (11), a person to whom a default notice is addressed or, where that person is an employee, that person's employer, shall take all reasonable steps to remedy—

(a) if a day has been specified under subsection (6)—by that day;

(b) if a day has not been specified under subsection (6)—within a reasonable time, the matters referred to in the notice.

Penalty: Division 3 fine.

(9) If—

(a) a person to whom a default notice is addressed or, where that person is an employee, that person's employer, considers that a default notice need not have been issued or is, for some other reason, inappropriate; or

(b) a health and safety representative—

(i) considers that there has been unreasonable delay in taking action under subsection (8); or

(ii) is dissatisfied with the action taken under that subsection in response to the notice, an inspector may be requested to attend at the workplace.

(10) A request under subsection (9)(a) must be made by a person within 14 days of the receipt of the default notice (or a copy of the notice) by the person.

(11) Where an inspector has been requested to attend at a workplace under subsection (9)(a), the operation of the default notice shall, pending the attendance of the inspector, be suspended.

(12) Where a default notice is issued, the person to whom notice is addressed must, on receipt of the notice (or a copy of the notice)—

(a) bring the notice to the attention of any person whose work is affected by the notice; and

(b) display the notice or a copy of the notice in a prominent place at or near any workplace that is affected by the notice; and

(c) keep a copy of the notice for such period as may be prescribed.

(13) A person shall not remove a notice or a copy of a notice displayed pursuant to subsection (12) while the notice is in force.

(14) A default notice may be cancelled—

(a) at any time, by the health and safety representative who issued the notice; or

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

---

- (b) if the health and safety representative is absent from the workplace and cannot reasonably be contacted, by a health and safety committee that has responsibilities in relation to the matter.

Action where the health and safety of a worker is threatened

36. (1) Where a health and safety representative is of the opinion that there is an immediate threat to the health or safety of an employee who is a member of the work group that the health and safety representative represents, the health and safety representative shall consult with the employer in relation to the matter.

(2) If the health and safety representative and the employer are unable within a reasonable time to resolve a particular matter pursuant to subsection (1), the matter shall, if there is a health and safety committee that has responsibility in relation to the matter, be referred to that committee or, if there is no such committee, the matter shall be referred to an inspector.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), if the health and safety representative is of the opinion that given the nature of the threat and degree of risk work should immediately cease, the health and safety representative may direct that work cease until adequate measures are taken to protect the health and safety of an employee.

(4) Where a health and safety representative gives a direction that work cease—

- (a) if the direction is given without consultation with the employer or before the matter has been considered by a health and safety committee (if any) that has responsibility in relation to the matter, the health and safety representative shall, as soon as practicable after giving the direction, consult with the employer and, if it is necessary or appropriate, with the committee; and
- (b) the employer or the health and safety representative may request an inspector to attend at the workplace.

Attendance by inspector

37. (1) Where a matter is referred to an inspector under this Division, the inspector shall attend at the workplace as soon as possible but in any event—

- (a) if a direction has been given that work cease—
  - (i) where the workplace is within the metropolitan area—within 1 business day;
  - (ii) where the workplace is outside the metropolitan area—within 2 business days; or
- (b) in any other case—within 7 business days.

(2) An inspector—

- (a) shall attempt to resolve any occupational health, safety or welfare matter that remains unresolved; and
- (b) if a default notice has been issued, may—
  - (i) confirm the notice; or
  - (ii) confirm the notice with such modifications as the inspector thinks fit; or
  - (iii) cancel the notice; and

- (c) if the inspector thinks fit, may issue a prohibition notice or an improvement notice; and
- (d) may make such recommendations or take such other action as appear appropriate.

(3) Where a work cessation direction was given and an inspector determines that there was an immediate threat to health or safety justifying a cessation of work or that the health and safety representative reasonably believed that such a threat existed, any employee employed in the work who is remunerated by wages or salary is entitled to be paid for the period of cessation so as not to suffer a loss of income.

(4) Where an inspector confirms a default notice or confirms such a notice with modifications, the inspector shall order the person to whom the notice was addressed to comply with the notice within a period specified by the inspector.

(5) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with a default notice that is confirmed by an inspector within the period specified by the inspector is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Division 3 fine.

(6) An employer, employee or health and safety representative who is dissatisfied with the actions of an inspector under this section may apply to the President of the Industrial Court for the determination of the matter by a review committee.

(7) At the conclusion of a review under this section, a review committee may give such directions as it thinks fit.

(8) A person shall not contravene or fail to comply with a direction of a review committee within any period specified by the review committee.

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

PART 5
INSPECTIONS

Powers of entry and inspection

38. (1) For the purposes of this Act, an inspector or a person authorised by the Director or the Corporation to exercise the powers conferred by this section may—

- (a) enter at any time any workplace;
- (b) inspect the place, anything at the place and work in progress at the place;
- (c) require a person who has custody or control of books, documents or records to produce such books, documents or records;
- (d) examine, copy and take extracts from any books, documents or records, or require an employer to provide a copy of any books, documents or records;
- (e) take photographs, films or video or audio recordings;
- (f) take measurements, make notes and records and carry out tests;
- (g) require any person to answer, to the best of that person's knowledge, information and belief, any question relating to the health, safety or welfare of persons at any workplace or to any other matter to which this Act applies (whether the question is put directly or through an interpreter);
- (h) require an employer to produce a copy of any statement or record that is required to be prepared or kept under this Act.

(1a) Subsection (1)(a) is subject to the qualification that a person cannot enter a workplace where a self-employed person works alone unless he or she has a reasonable belief that there is a risk to the health or safety of a person other than the self-employed person.

(2) Where—

- (a) a person whose native language is not English is suspected of having breached this Act; and
- (b) the person is being interviewed by an inspector in relation to that suspected breach; and
- (c) the person is not reasonably fluent in English,

the person is entitled to be assisted by an interpreter during the interview.

(3) A person is not required to provide under subsection (1)—

- (a) information that is privileged on the ground of legal professional privilege; or
- (b) information that is relevant to proceedings that have been commenced under this Act.

(4) In addition to the powers contained in subsection (1), an inspector may, if the inspector suspects on reasonable grounds that an offence against this Act has been committed, seize and retain anything that affords evidence of that offence, or in relation to which the offence is suspected of having been committed.

(5) An inspector shall, at the request of the occupier of a place from which anything is seized under subsection (4), provide a receipt for the thing seized.

(6) In the exercise of powers under this section, a person may be accompanied by such assistants, authorised by the Director or the Corporation, as may be necessary or desirable in the circumstances.

(7) The occupier of a place that is the subject of an inspection under this section and any employer at that place shall provide such assistance as may be necessary to facilitate the exercise of the powers conferred by this section.

(8) A person shall not—

- (a) hinder or obstruct an inspector or other authorised person in the exercise of a power conferred by this section; or
- (b) refuse or fail, without lawful excuse, to comply with a requirement under this section.

Penalty: Division 4 fine.

(9) Where an occupier becomes aware of the attendance of an inspector at the workplace, the occupier shall notify the health and safety representatives who are present at the workplace.

(10) Where an inspector carries out an inspection of a workplace under this section, the inspector—

- (a) shall take reasonable steps to consult with the occupier of the workplace (or, if the occupier is not present, the person who at that time is apparently in control of the workplace), any employer of employees at the workplace and any health and safety representative who represents those employees on—
  - (i) any occupational health, safety or welfare issue that arises from the inspection; and
  - (ii) the action (if any) that the inspector considers should be taken as a result of the inspection; and
- (b) shall make available to the occupier, any employer and any health and safety representative copies of any written report (or any part of a written report) made by the inspector in relation to the inspection, insofar as that report relates to—
  - (i) factual information obtained during the inspection; or
  - (ii) the action (if any) that the inspector has taken or proposes to take as a result of the inspection,

(and, when requested to do so, shall supply a copy of that report or that part of the report to the occupier, employer and health and safety representatives); and

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

- (c) shall take reasonable steps—
- (i) to relate to a health and safety representative the contents of any oral report made by the inspector to the occupier or an employer at the workplace and the details of any consultation that has occurred in the absence of the health and safety representative (insofar as that report or consultation relates to the health, safety or welfare of employees in the work group that the health and safety representative represents); and
  - (ii) to relate to an employer the contents of any oral report made by the inspector to a health and safety representative at the workplace and the details of any consultation that has occurred in the absence of the employer.

(11) An inspector who has a pecuniary or other personal interest in any business carried on at a workplace shall not inspect that workplace unless and until the inspector has disclosed that interest to the Director or to the Corporation and has obtained the Director's or the Corporation's permission to carry out the inspection.

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

---

PART 6
IMPROVEMENT NOTICES AND PROHIBITION NOTICES

Improvement notices

39. (1) Where an inspector is of the opinion that a person—

- (a) is contravening a provision of this Act; or
- (b) has contravened a provision of this Act in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will be repeated, the inspector may issue an improvement notice requiring the person to whom the notice is addressed to remedy the matters occasioning the contravention or likely contravention.

(2) An improvement notice must—

- (a) state that the inspector is of the opinion that a person—
  - (i) is contravening a provision of this Act; or
  - (ii) has contravened a provision of this Act in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will be repeated; and
- (b) state the grounds of the inspector's opinion; and
- (c) specify the provision of this Act in respect of which that opinion is held.

(3) An inspector may—

- (a) include in an improvement notice directions as to the measures to be taken to remedy the contravention, or to avoid further contravention, of the Act;
- (b) specify in an improvement notice a day by which the matters referred to in the notice must be remedied.

(4) Subject to this Act, a person who contravenes or fails to comply with an improvement notice is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Division 3 fine.

Prohibition notices

40. (1) Where an inspector is of the opinion that there is an immediate risk to the health or safety of a person at work, the inspector may issue to the person apparently in control of the activity from which the risk arises a prohibition notice prohibiting the carrying on of the activity until an inspector is satisfied that adequate measures have been taken to avert, eliminate or minimise the risk.

(2) A prohibition notice must—

- (a) identify the activity from which the immediate risk to health or safety arises; and
- (b) state the grounds of the inspector's opinion that there is an immediate risk to the health or safety of a person.

(3) An inspector may include in a prohibition notice directions as to the measures to be taken to avert, eliminate or minimise the risk to which the notice relates.

(4) Subject to this Act a person who contravenes or fails to comply with a prohibition notice is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Division 2 fine plus $10 000 for each day that the contravention or failure continues.

Notices to be displayed

41. (1) Where an improvement notice or prohibition notice is issued, to an employee, the employee shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable after receiving it, give the notice, or a copy of the notice, to his or her employer.

(2) Where an improvement notice or a prohibition notice is issued, the person to whom the notice is addressed must, on receipt of the notice (or a copy of the notice)—

- (a) supply a copy of the notice to any health and safety representative who represents any employees whose work is affected by the notice; and
- (b) bring the notice to the attention of any person whose work is affected by the notice; and
- (c) display the notice or a copy of the notice in a prominent place at or near any workplace that is affected by the notice.

(3) A person shall not remove a notice or the copy of a notice displayed pursuant to subsection (2) while the notice is in force.

Review of notices

42. (1) Any of the following persons, namely—

- (a) an employer affected by an improvement notice or prohibition notice; or
- (b) a person in relation to whose work an improvement notice or a prohibition notice applies; or
- (c) a health and safety representative who represents any employee whose work is affected by an improvement notice or a prohibition notice, may apply to the President of the Industrial Court to have the notice or the actions of an inspector reviewed by a review committee.

(2) An application under subsection (1)(a) or (b) must be made by a person within 14 days of the receipt of the notice (or a copy of the notice) by the person.

(3) Pending the determination of an application for review under this section the operation of the notice to which the application relates shall—

- (a) in the case of an improvement notice—be suspended;
- (b) in the case of a prohibition notice—continue.

(4) A review committee may if it thinks fit make an interim order suspending the operation of a prohibition notice until the matter is resolved.

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

---

(5) An order under subsection (4) must be made subject to such conditions as may be necessary to protect the health and safety of any person at work.

(6) Where a prohibition notice has been issued, the proceedings on a review under this section must be carried out as a matter of urgency.

Powers of committee on review

43. (1) At the conclusion of a review under this Part, a review committee may—

- (a) confirm any notice to which the review relates; or
- (b) confirm a notice with such modifications as it thinks fit; or
- (c) cancel a notice; or
- (d) issue a notice or issue a different notice in substitution for the notice.

(2) Where a review committee confirms an improvement notice the operation of which has been suspended or confirms such a notice with modifications, the review committee shall order the person to whom the notice was addressed to comply with the notice within a period specified by the committee.

(3) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with a notice that is confirmed or issued by a review committee within the period specified by the committee is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Division 2 fine.

Worker's entitlement to pay while notice is in force

44. Where work is suspended in consequence of an improvement notice or a prohibition notice, an employee employed in the work who is remunerated by wages or salary is entitled to be paid for the period of suspension so as not to suffer a loss of income.

Action on default

45. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a person is required by an improvement notice or prohibition notice to take any specified measures and the person fails to comply with the notice, the inspector who issued the notice may have those measures carried out and, for that purpose, the inspector or any person authorised by the inspector may, after giving reasonable notice to the person required to take the measures, enter and take possession of any workplace (taking such measures as are reasonably necessary for the purpose) and do, or cause to be done, such things as full and proper compliance with the notice may require.

(2) If a person who has been required by an improvement notice or prohibition notice to take specified measures stops using plant that is subject to the notice and satisfies an inspector that the plant will not be used again until the notice is complied with, action may not be taken under subsection (1) in relation to that plant (unless the plant is used again before the notice is complied with).

(3) If a person referred to in subsection (2) uses plant that is not to be used again until an improvement notice or prohibition notice is complied with before that notice is complied with, the person is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Division 6 fine.

(4) The Crown may recover the costs and expenses reasonably incurred in an inspector or other authorised person exercising the powers under subsection (1) from the person who failed to comply with the notice, as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.

PART 7
REVIEW COMMITTEES

Review committees

46. There shall be such review committees as are necessary for the purposes of this Act.

Constitution of review committees

47. (1) A review committee shall be constituted in relation to particular proceedings by the President of the Industrial Court.

(2) The President of the Industrial Court shall constitute a review committee by appointing one member from each of the panels constituted under subsection (3) to the committee.

(3) For the purpose of constituting review committees there shall be—

- (a) a panel of Judges of the Industrial Court and Industrial Magistrates appointed by the President; and
- (b) a panel of members nominated by the Minister after taking into account the recommendations of employer associations; and
- (c) a panel of members nominated by the Minister after taking into account the recommendations of the United Trades and Labor Council.

(4) A person shall cease to be a member of a panel if that person—

- (a) resigns by written notice addressed to the President of the Industrial Court; or
- (b) is removed from the panel—
  - (i) in the case of a Judge or Industrial Magistrate—by the President; or
  - (ii) in any other case—by the Minister, on the ground of misconduct, neglect of duty, incompetence or mental or physical incapacity to carry out satisfactorily the duties of office; or

- (c) has completed a period of 3 years since being appointed to the panel, or last appointed to the panel, and is not reappointed to the panel.

(5) A member of a panel is entitled to such fees, allowances and expenses as the Governor may approve.

(6) Despite subsection (2), the President of the Industrial Court may, in a special case, constitute a review committee solely of a Judge of the Industrial Court or an Industrial Magistrate (and this Part will then apply with respect to the relevant proceedings with such modifications or variations as may be necessary or appropriate, or as may be prescribed).

Procedures of the committee

48. (1) The member of a review committee appointed from the panel of Judges and Industrial Magistrates shall preside at any proceedings of the review committee.

(2) A decision in which any two members of a review committee concur is a decision of the committee.

(3) A review committee—

- (a) shall act according to equity, good conscience and the substantial merits of the case without regard to technicalities and legal forms; and
- (b) is not bound by any rules of evidence, but may inform itself on any matter in such manner as it thinks fit.

(4) A review committee shall give reasonable notice to the parties to proceedings before it of the time and place of those proceedings and shall afford the parties a reasonable opportunity to call or give evidence, to examine or cross-examine witnesses and to make submissions.

(5) In the exercise of its powers and functions, a review committee may—

- (a) by summons signed by the presiding member of the committee, require the attendance before the committee of any person; and
- (b) by summons signed by the presiding member of the review committee, require the production of any document, object or material; and
- (c) require any person appearing before the review committee to answer any relevant questions put by the committee, any member of the committee or by any person appearing before the committee.

(6) Where—

- (a) the native language of a person who is to give oral evidence in any proceedings before a review committee is not English; and
- (b) the witness is not reasonably fluent in English,

the person is entitled to give that evidence through an interpreter.

(7) A person may present written evidence to a review committee in a language other than English if that written evidence has annexed to it—

- (a) a translation of the evidence into English; and
- (b) an affidavit by the translator to the effect that the translation accurately reproduces in English the contents of the original evidence.

(8) If a person—

- (a) who has been served with a summons to attend before a review committee fails without reasonable excuse to attend in obedience to the summons; or
- (b) who has been served with a summons to produce any document, object or material, fails without reasonable excuse to comply with the summons; or
- (c) misbehaves before a review committee, wilfully insults a review committee or any member of a review committee, or interrupts the proceedings of a review committee; or
- (d) refuses to answer any relevant question when required to do so by a review committee, that person shall be guilty of an offence.

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

---

(9) A person is not obliged to answer a question under this section if the answer would tend to incriminate that person of an offence, or to produce a document, object or material if it or its contents would tend to incriminate that person of an offence.

(10) A review committee may—

- (a) refer any technical matter to an expert;
- (b) accept the evidence or report of an expert.

(11) A person is entitled to appear personally, or by representative, in proceedings before a review committee.

(12) A person who appears as a witness in proceedings before a review committee is, subject to any contrary direction by the review committee, entitled to reimbursement of expenses in accordance with the regulations.

(13) A review committee should hear and determine any matter referred to it as expeditiously as possible.

(14) Except as provided by this section, the proceedings of a review committee may be conducted in such manner as the review committee determines.

Appeals

49. (1) A party to proceedings before a review committee may appeal to the Supreme Court against a decision of the committee in those proceedings.

(2) For the purposes of an appeal under this section, the Supreme Court may be constituted of a single Judge.

(3) An appeal under this section may be on a question of law or a question of fact.

(4) An appeal on a question of fact may only occur with leave of the Supreme Court (which should only be granted where special reasons are shown).

(5) An appeal under this section must be instituted within 21 days of the decision appealed against unless the Supreme Court, in its discretion, allows a longer time for the institution of an appeal.

(6) Pending the determination of an appeal in a case where a prohibition notice has been issued, the operation of the prohibition notice shall, subject to an order made under subsection (7), continue.

(7) The Supreme Court may if it thinks fit make an interim order suspending the operation of a prohibition notice pending the determination of an appeal.

(8) An order under subsection (7) must be made subject to such conditions as may be necessary to protect the health and safety of the employees to whom the prohibition notice relates.

Immunity of members

50. No personal liability attaches to a member of a review committee for an act or omission by the member in good faith in the exercise or discharge or purported exercise or discharge of a power or function of the member under this Act.

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

---

PART 8
MISCELLANEOUS

Immunity of inspectors and officers

51. (1) No personal liability attaches to an inspector or an officer of the Corporation engaged in the administration or enforcement of this Act for an act or omission by the inspector or officer in good faith in the exercise or discharge, or purported exercise or discharge, of an official power or function under this Act.

(2) A liability that would, but for subsection (1), lie against an inspector or officer shall lie against the Crown.

Inspector to produce certificate of authority

52. Where an inspector exercises a power or performs a function under this Act, the inspector must, at the request of a person affected by the exercise of the power or the performance of the function, produce a certificate of identification, in a form approved by the Minister, for inspection by that person.

Delegation

53. (1) The Minister, the Director or the Corporation may, by instrument in writing, delegate a power or function under this Act.

(2) A delegation under this section—

- (a) may be made subject to such conditions as the delegator thinks fit; and
- (b) is revocable at will; and
- (c) does not derogate from the power of the delegator to act in any matter.

Power to require information

54. (1) The Minister or the Corporation or a person authorised by the Minister or the Corporation may, by notice in writing, require a person to furnish information relating to occupational health, safety or welfare that is reasonably required for the administration, operation or enforcement of this Act.

(1a) The Advisory Committee may, by notice in writing, require the Department for Industrial Affairs or the Corporation to furnish information necessary for the performance of the Advisory Committee's functions.

(2) A person is not required to provide under subsection (1)—

- (a) information that is privileged on the ground of legal professional privilege; or
- (b) information that is relevant to proceedings that have been commenced under this Act; or
- (c) information that would tend to incriminate the person who has the information of an offence; or
- (d) personal information regarding the health of a person who does not consent to the disclosure of the information.

Confidentiality

55. (1) A person (including a health and safety representative, a member of a health and safety committee or a person acting as a consultant) must not disclose information (except as permitted by subsection (1a)) if—

- (a) the person obtained the information in the course of carrying out functions in, or related to, the administration, operation or enforcement of this Act; and
- (b) the information is—
  - (i) about commercial or trading operations; or
  - (ii) about the physical or mental condition, or the personal circumstances or affairs, of an employee or other person; or
  - (iii) information provided in a return or in response to a request for information under this Act.

Penalty: Division 6 fine.

(1a) The disclosure of information is permitted if it is—

- (a) a disclosure in the course of official duties; or
- (b) a disclosure of statistical information; or
- (c) a disclosure made with the consent of the person to whom the information relates, or who furnished the information; or
- (d) a disclosure required by a court or tribunal constituted by law; or
- (e) a disclosure to the Corporation, or to an administrative unit in the Public Service of the State, made under the authorisation of the Minister; or
- (f) a disclosure authorised by the regulations.

(1b) A regulation made for the purposes of subsection (1a)(f) cannot take effect unless it has been laid before both Houses of Parliament and—

- (a) no motion for disallowance is moved within the time for such a motion; or
- (b) every motion for disallowance of the regulation has been defeated or withdrawn, or has lapsed.

(1c) A person must, in making a disclosure under subsection (1a), insofar as is reasonably practicable, take steps to prevent or minimise any adverse commercial or industrial impact on the relevant employer.

(2) An inspector shall not intentionally disclose to an employer the name of a person who has made a complaint to the inspector in relation to occupational health, safety or welfare unless—

- (a) the disclosure is made with the consent of the complainant; or
- (b) the disclosure is required by a court or tribunal constituted by law.

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

---

Discrimination against workers

56. (1) An employer shall not dismiss an employee, injure an employee in employment or threaten, intimidate or coerce an employee by reason of the fact that the employee—

- (a) is a health and safety representative or a member of a health and safety committee or has performed the functions of a health and safety representative or of a member of a health and safety committee; or
- (b) has assisted or given information to an inspector, health and safety representative or health and safety committee; or
- (c) has made a complaint in relation to a matter affecting health, safety or welfare.

Penalty: Division 6 fine.

(2) An employer or prospective employer shall not refuse or deliberately omit to offer employment to a prospective employee or treat a prospective employee less favourably than another prospective employee would be treated in relation to the terms on which employment is offered by reason of the fact that the prospective employee—

- (a) has been a health and safety representative or a member of a health and safety committee or has performed the functions of a health and safety representative or of a member of a health and safety committee; or
- (b) has assisted or given information to an inspector, health and safety representative or health and safety committee; or
- (c) has made a complaint in relation to a matter affecting health, safety or welfare.

Penalty: Division 6 fine.

(3) If in proceedings for an offence against this section all the facts constituting the offence other than the reason for the defendant's action are proved, the onus of proving that the act of discrimination was not actuated by the reason alleged in the charge shall lie on the defendant.

(4) Where a person is convicted of an offence against this section, the court may, in addition to any penalty it may impose, make one or both of the following orders:

- (a) it may order the person to pay within a specified period to the person discriminated against such damages as it thinks fit to compensate that person;
- (b) it may order that an employee be re-instated or re-employed in the employee's former position or, where that position is not reasonably available, in a similar position, on conditions determined by the court, or that a prospective employee be employed in the position for which the prospective employee had applied or a similar position.

(5) This section does not derogate from any right under any other Act or law of a person against whom an offence has been committed.

Assignment of workers during a cessation of work

57. Where work is suspended in consequence of a direction of a health and safety representative that work cease or on account of the issue of a default notice, an improvement notice or a prohibition notice, the employer may, while the work remains suspended, assign an employee to suitable alternative work.

Offences

58. (1) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of this Act is guilty of an offence.

(2) A person who is guilty of an offence against this Act for which no penalty is specifically provided is liable to a Division 5 fine.

(3) Subject to this Act, offences against this Act are summary offences.

(4) The issuing of a default notice, improvement notice or prohibition notice under this Act does not prevent the institution of proceedings for an offence against this Act in relation to the subject matter of the notice.

(5) Proceedings for an offence against this Act may be brought against—

(a) an agency or instrumentality of the Crown;

(b) a person employed by or under the Crown.

(6) Proceedings for an offence against this Act may only be brought by the Minister or by an inspector.

(7) A proceeding for an offence against this Act must be commenced within 2 years after the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

Aggravated offence

59. (1) Where a person contravenes a provision of Part 3—

(a) knowing that the contravention was likely to endanger seriously the health or safety of another; and

(b) being recklessly indifferent as to whether the health or safety of another was so endangered, the person is guilty of an aggravated offence and liable upon conviction to a monetary penalty not exceeding double the monetary penalty that would otherwise apply under Part 3 for that offence or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years or both.

(2) An offence against this section is a minor indictable offence.

Continuing or repeated offences

60. (1) Where a person is convicted of an offence against this Act and after that conviction the act or omission of that person that constituted the offence continues, that person is guilty of a further offence.

Penalty: Division 3 fine.

(2) Where a person is convicted of an offence against this Act, the court may, in addition to any penalty it may impose, order that person to take such steps as are specified in the order and within the time specified in the order to comply with this Act.

(3) If the person to whom an order is directed under subsection (2) fails to comply with the order within the time specified in the order, that person is guilty of a further offence.

Penalty: Division 2 fine.

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

---

(4) Where in proceedings for an offence against this Act the court is satisfied that the accused—

(a) has previously been convicted of the same offence; and

(b) has on the present occasion wilfully repeated the act or omission constituting the offence, the court shall, in addition to any penalty it may impose for the offence, impose a penalty of not more than $20 000.

Expiation of offences

60A. Where it is alleged that a person has committed an offence against this Act that—

(a) carries a maximum penalty not exceeding a division 5 fine; and

(b) is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section,

an inspector may cause to be served personally or by post on that person a notice in a form determined by the Director to the effect that the offence may be expiated by payment to the person specified in the notice of the prescribed expiation fee specified in the notice within 60 days of the date of the notice and, if the offence is so expiated, no prosecution of the alleged offence may be commenced.

Offences by bodies corporate

61. (1) Each body corporate carrying on business in the State must appoint one or more responsible officers for the purposes of this section.

(2) A person appointed as a responsible officer under this section must be—

(a) a member of the governing body of the body corporate who resides in the State; or

(b) the chief executive officer of the body corporate, if he or she resides in the State; or

(c) if no one is eligible for appointment under a preceding paragraph—a senior executive officer of the body corporate who resides in the State; or

(d) if no one is eligible for appointment under a preceding paragraph—an officer of the body corporate.

(3) A responsible officer must take reasonable steps to ensure compliance by the body corporate of its obligations under this Act.

Penalty—

(a) in a case where paragraph (b) does not apply—division 6 fine;

(b) where the court is satisfied that the offence has contributed to the commission of an offence by the body corporate—a fine not exceeding the fine that is prescribed for the offence committed by the body corporate.

(4) If a body corporate fails to appoint one or more responsible officers under this section, each officer of the body corporate will be taken to be a responsible officer for the purposes of subsection (3).

(5) This section does not derogate from any other rule of law relating to the duties of officers of bodies corporate.

Health and safety in the public sector

62. The chief executive officer of each administrative unit under the Government Management and Employment Act 1985 must appoint a person to be responsible for the implementation of the requirements of this Act in that administrative unit.

Code of practice

63. (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Advisory Committee, approve a code of practice for the purposes of this Act.

(2) A code of practice may incorporate, adopt or apply, with or without modification, any other document prepared or published by any body or authority as in force at the time that the code of practice is issued or as in force from time to time.

* * * * *

(4) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Advisory Committee—

- (a) approve the revision of the whole or a part of a code of practice; or
- (b) revoke a code of practice.

(5) The Minister shall give notice in the Gazette of—

- (a) the approval of a code of practice; or
- (b) the approval of a revision of the whole or a part of a code of practice; or
- (c) the revocation of a code of practice.

(6) The Minister shall cause a copy of—

- (a) every approved code of practice; and
- (b) where an approved code of practice has been revised and that revision has been approved—every approved code of practice as so revised; and
- (c) where an approved code of practice has incorporated, adopted or applied any document, every such document, to be made available for inspection by members of the public without charge.

(7) An approved code of practice and any approved revision of a code of practice shall come into operation on the day on which the notice of approval is published in the Gazette or on such later day as may be specified in the notice.

(8) An approved code of practice or the revision of a code of practice is subject to disallowance by Parliament.

(9) Every approved code of practice or revision must be laid before both Houses of Parliament within 14 days of notice of its approval being published in the Gazette if Parliament is in session or, if Parliament is not then in session, within 14 days after the commencement of the next session of Parliament.

(10) If either House of Parliament passes a resolution disallowing an approved code of practice or the revision of a code of practice, then the code of practice or revision ceases to have effect.

(11) A resolution is not effective for the purposes of subsection (10) unless passed in pursuance of a notice of motion given within 14 sitting days (which need not all fall in the same session of Parliament) after the day on which the code of practice was laid before the House.

Use of codes of practice in proceedings

63A. Where in proceedings for an offence against this Act it is proved that the defendant failed to observe a provision of an approved code of practice dealing with the matter in respect of which the offence is alleged to have been committed, the defendant is, in the absence of proof to the contrary, to be taken to have failed to exercise the standard of care required by this Act.

Evidentiary provision

64. (1) In proceedings for an offence against this Act, an allegation in the complaint that, at a specified time—

- (a) a person was an employer at a specified workplace; or
- (b) a person was an occupier of a specified workplace; or
- (c) a notice was given under this Act; or
- (d) a notice required to be given under the regulations has not been given; or
- (e) a prescribed fee has not been paid; or
- (f) a person was an inspector,

shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be proof of the matter so alleged.

(2) Nothing said or done during the course of conciliation proceedings under this Act shall subsequently be given in evidence in other proceedings under this Act.

(3) In any legal proceedings, evidence of the contents of an approved code of practice, or of a document adopted or applied by, or referred to in, an approved code of practice or a regulation, may be given by production of a document purporting to be certified by or on behalf of the Minister as a true copy of the approved code of practice or other document.

Annual Report

65. The Advisory Committee must, before 30 September in each year, prepare a report on the work of the Committee during the financial year that ended on the preceding 30 June and forward copies of the report to the Presiding Members of both Houses of Parliament to be laid before their respective Houses at the earliest opportunity.

Modification of regulations

66. (1) Where—

- (a) the occupier of a workplace or an employer applies to the designated person under this section for the modification of the requirements of a regulation as they apply to that occupier or employer; and
- (b) the designated person is satisfied that a modification of the regulations would not adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of any employee, the designated person may, by notice in writing to the occupier or employer, modify the requirements in the manner set out in the notice (as those requirements apply to any workplace, work, plant, substance or process specified in the notice) and while any such notice remains in force compliance with the provision as modified shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be compliance with the regulation.

(2) The occupier or employer shall—

- (a) display the notice or a copy of the notice in a prominent place at or near any workplace that is affected by the notice; and
- (b) provide a copy of the notice to any health and safety representative who represents employees at that workplace.

(3) The designated person shall send to the Minister a copy of every notice issued under this section.

(4) The designated person has an absolute discretion to vary or revoke a notice issued under this section.

(5) A health and safety representative or a registered association representing one or more employees at a workplace that is affected by the notice may apply to the President of the Industrial Court for a review by a review committee of a notice issued under this section.

(6) Pending the determination of a review under this section, the operation of the notice to which the review relates shall continue.

(7) At the conclusion of a review under this section, a review committee may—

- (a) confirm the notice to which the review relates; or
- (b) confirm the notice with such modifications as it thinks fit; or
- (c) cancel the notice.

Exemption from Act

67. (1) Where—

- (a) an employer applies to the Minister under this section for an exemption from all or any of the provisions of this Act; and
- (b) the Minister is satisfied—
  - (i) that the granting of the exemption would not adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of any employee;
  - (ii) that it is reasonable to grant such an exemption,

the Minister may, by notice in writing to the employer, grant an exemption under this section.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) may exempt—

- (a) the employer; or
- (b) specified operations carried on by the employer; or

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

---

(c) a specified workplace under the management of the employer, from all or any of the provisions of this Act.

(3) Before deciding on whether to grant an exemption under this section, the Minister must—

(a) consult with the Advisory Committee; and

(b) so far as is reasonably practicable, consult with—

(i) any registered association representing employers that might have an interest in the matter; and

(ii) any registered association representing one or more employees who might be affected by the granting of the exemption.

(4) An exemption under this section may be granted subject to such limitations as the Minister thinks fit.

(5) The Minister has an absolute discretion to revoke an exemption granted under this section.

Registration of employers

67A. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person who is required to be registered as an employer under the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986 is also required to be registered under this Act.

(2) A person is not required to be registered if the person is exempt from the obligation to be registered by the regulations.

(3) The Corporation will undertake registrations under this section in conjunction with the registration of employers under the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986.

(4) A periodical fee is payable in relation to a registration under this section.

(5) Subject to this section, the amount of the fee will be set by the Corporation—

(a) taking into account the criteria prescribed by or under subsection (6); and

(b) on the basis that the total amount paid to the Corporation for a particular financial year by persons registered under this section should, so far as is reasonably practicable, equal the prescribed amount for that financial year.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5)(a), the criteria to be taken into account are—

(a) that the fee or fees paid by a particular person should reflect the aggregate remuneration paid to the person's employees in each class of industry in which the person employs employees; and

(b) that the fee or fees paid by a person in a particular industry should reflect the risk of work-related injuries in that industry; and

(c) that the fee or fees paid by a particular person over a particular financial year should reflect any matters taken into account by the Corporation under section 67 of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986 for the purposes of the calculation or imposition of a levy under that Act, and such other criteria as may be prescribed by the regulations (which regulations may, if they so provide, revoke or replace any of the criteria referred to above).

(7) A prescribed percentage of the prescribed amount for a particular financial year will be payable to the Department for Industrial Affairs in accordance with guidelines established by the Treasurer.

(8) The prescribed amount for the 1994/1995 financial year, and for each succeeding financial year, will be an amount fixed for that financial year by the regulations (but if any such regulation is not made before the commencement of the relevant financial year, or is disallowed or revoked, then the prescribed amount for that financial year will be the amount that applied under this section for the preceding financial year).

(8b) Subsection (5)(b) is subject to the following qualifications:

(a) if the total amount paid under this section for a particular financial year exceeds the prescribed amount for that year, the amount that is sought to be recovered under subsection (5)(b) for the next financial year should be the prescribed amount for that year less the amount of that excess;

(b) if the total amount paid under this section for a particular financial year is less than the prescribed amount for that year, the amount that is sought to be recovered under subsection (5)(b) for the next financial year should be the prescribed amount for that year plus the amount of that deficiency.

(8c) A fee imposed under this section will be payable to the Corporation in accordance with the regulations.

(8d) If a person fails to pay a fee, or the full amount of a fee, in accordance with the regulations, the Corporation may recover the unpaid amount as if it were unpaid levy under Part 5 of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986.

* * * * *

(9) The Department for Industrial Affairs is entitled to information provided to the Corporation for the purposes of this section.

(10) A person who fails to comply with this section is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Division 6 fine.

(11) The Governor may, by proclamation, fix a day on which this section expires.

Consultation on regulations

68. The Minister shall consult with the Advisory Committee on any regulations proposed to be made before those regulations are made.

Regulations

69. (1) The Governor may make such regulations as are contemplated by this Act or as are necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), those regulations may be made with respect to any of the matters specified in schedule 1.

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

---

(3) A regulation made under this Act in relation to the registration or licensing of any work, plant, process, substance or workplace may also—

- (a) prohibit any activity unless carried on in pursuance of a licence or at registered premises or by means of registered equipment;
- (b) prescribe the persons who may apply for registration or a licence;
- (c) prescribe the manner and form of applications for registration or for a licence;
- (d) prescribe fees for registration or for the issuing or holding of a licence;
- (e) prescribe the terms and conditions of registration or for the holding of a licence;
- (f) provide for the variation by the Director of terms and conditions imposed under paragraph (e);
- (g) prescribe the circumstances in which registration or the holding of a licence may be cancelled or suspended;
- (h) prescribe the manner of application for the renewal or transfer of registration or of a licence.

(4) A right of appeal to the Industrial Court lies against—

- (a) a refusal to grant a registration or licence under the regulations; or
- (b) a decision of the Director to vary the terms or conditions of registration or for holding a licence; or
- (c) a decision to cancel or suspend a registration or licence.

(5) An appeal must be instituted within one month of the date of the decision appealed against but the Industrial Court may, if it thinks fit, dispense with the requirement that the appeal should be instituted within that time.

(6) The Industrial Court may on the hearing of an appeal, taking into account what is just and reasonable in the circumstances, exercise one or more of the following powers—

- (a) affirm, vary or quash the decision appealed against and make any incidental or other order that may be just and reasonable in the circumstances;
- (b) remit the decision for reconsideration;
- (c) make any order as to costs.

(7) For the purposes of an appeal under this section, the Industrial Court shall be constituted of a single Judge.

(8) A right of appeal to the Full Industrial Court lies, with leave of the Full Industrial Court, from a decision of a single Judge under subsection (6).

(8a) A regulation made under this Act in relation to the notification of work-related injuries may provide that notice of prescribed classes of injury may be given to the Corporation in conjunction with the provision of information relating to claims for compensation under the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986.

(8b) The Department for Industrial Affairs is entitled to information relating to work-related injuries obtained by the Corporation under subsection (8a).

* * * * *

(9) Regulations made under this Act may incorporate, adopt, apply or make prescriptions by reference to, with or without modification—

- (a) any code of practice issued by the Advisory Committee;
- (b) any other document prepared or published by any body or authority as in force at the time the regulations are made or as in force from time to time.

(10) The Minister shall cause a copy of any document that has been incorporated, adopted or applied by regulations made under this Act or by reference to which a prescription is made by those regulations to be made available for inspection by members of the public without charge.

(11) Regulations made under this Act—

- (a) may be of general or limited application; and
- (b) may leave any matter or thing to be determined, dispensed with, regulated or prohibited according to the discretion of the Director or the designated person, either generally or in a particular case or class of case; and
- (c) may make different prescriptions according to prescribed circumstances; and
- (d) may differentiate between various classes of persons.

Repeal

70. The Industrial Safety, Health and Welfare Act 1972 is repealed.

Amendment of certain Acts

71. (1) The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1972 is amended as indicated in the first Part of schedule 3.

(2) The Mines and Works Inspection Act 1920 is amended as indicated in the second Part of schedule 3.

Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986

SCHEDULE 2

Transitional Provisions

Interpretation

1. In this schedule—

"the repealed Act" means the Industrial Safety, Health and Welfare Act 1972 repealed by this Act.

* * * * *

Industrial premises

3. Any industrial premises that were, immediately before the commencement of this Act, registered under the repealed Act shall, on the commencement of this Act, be deemed to have been registered under the regulations.

Construction work

4. A notice given under section 26 of the repealed Act has effect in relation to construction work commenced after the commencement of this Act as if given under this Act.

Modification of regulations

5. A notice given under section 38 of the repealed Act and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act continues in force as if it had been given under this Act.

Special provisions relating to plant

6. (1) It is a defence in proceedings for an offence against this Act in relation to failing to use safe plant for the defendant to prove—

- (a) that the plant was manufactured before the commencement of this Act; and
- (b) the plant was being used for pastoral or agricultural purposes; and
- (c) that its use would not have been in breach of the repealed Act if the provisions of that Act as they applied immediately before its repeal were still in force.

(2) The defence provided by subclause (1) is not available in relation to the use of unsafe plant by an employee.

(3) This clause expires on the fifth anniversary of the commencement of this schedule.

Acts Interpretation Act

7. The Acts Interpretation Act 1915 shall, except to the extent of any inconsistency with the provisions of this schedule, apply to the repeal of the Industrial Safety, Health and Welfare Act 1972.
