(7) The fact that a member has failed to comply with this section in relation to a matter does not, of itself, invalidate a resolution or decision on that matter, but, where it appears that the non-compliance may have had a decisive influence on the passing of the resolution or the making of the decision, the Supreme Court may, on the application of the Board, the Minister or any person affected by the resolution or decision, annul the resolution or decision and make such ancillary orders as it thinks fit.

Functions of Board

17. (1) The Board is responsible to the Minister for the administration of this Act and, in carrying out that function, is subject to the control and direction of the Minister.

and
(d) is revocable at will by the Board.

PART IV
PASTORAL LEASES

Grant of leases

19. (1) Subject to this Act, the Minister may grant pastoral leases over Crown land.

(2) Where the Minister proposes to make Crown land available for lease for pastoral purposes, the process for taking a lease must be an open competitive process.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply—

(a) if the Minister is satisfied that special circumstances exist justifying the addition of the land to the holding of an existing lease;

(b) if the land was subject to a pastoral lease that was surrendered upon condition that a further such lease be granted to the same lessee or a nominee of the lessee;

or

(c) if the Minister is satisfied, on the recommendation of the Board, that for any other good and proper reason it would be just and equitable to offer the land to a particular person.

Assessment of land prior to grant of lease

20. The Minister cannot grant a pastoral lease over Crown land—

(a) if the Governor has determined that the land should be set aside or used for some other more appropriate purpose;

or

(b) unless—

(i) the Board is satisfied that the land is suitable for pastoral purposes;

and

(ii) an assessment has been made of the condition of the land.

Execution of leases

21. Where—

(a) a document intended to constitute a pastoral lease is sent to the prospective lessee for execution;

and

(b) the document is not returned duly executed, together with such fees or other amounts as may be required, within a period (which must be at least 30 days) specified in an accompanying notice, the Minister may decline to enter into the lease and forfeit any deposit or other money paid in connection with it.

Conditions of pastoral leases

22. (1) A pastoral lease will be granted subject to conditions and reservations providing for the following matters (but no others):

(a) general conditions providing for—

(i) the area of land subject to the lease;

(ii) the term of the lease;

- (iii) the payment of rent annually in arrears;
 - (iv) the lessee's obligation to pay in the due manner all rates, taxes and other government charges in relation to the land;
 - (v) the lessee's obligation to comply with the following Acts and any regulations under those Acts to the extent that they apply in relation to the land:
 - (A) the Animal and Plant Control (Agricultural Protection and Other Purposes) Act, 1986;
 - (B) the Dog Fence Act, 1946;
 - (C) the Mining Act, 1971;
 - (D) the Petroleum Act, 1940;
 - (E) the Soil Conservation Act, 1939;
 - (F) the Water Resources Act, 1976;
 - and
 - (G) any other prescribed Act;
- (vi) the lessee's obligation not to hinder or obstruct any person who is exercising a right of access to the land pursuant to this Act or any other Act;

(b) land management conditions providing for—

- (i) the lessee's obligation not to pasture (as part of the commercial enterprise under the lease) any species of animal on the land other than the species specified in the lease, except with the prior approval of the Board;
- (ii) the lessee's obligation to ensure that numbers of stock on the land or a particular part of the land do not exceed the maximum levels specified in the lease, except with the prior approval of the Board;
- (iii) the lessee's obligation not to use the land for any purpose other than pastoral purposes, except with the prior approval of the Board;
- (iv) the lessee's obligation to maintain existing fencing in a stockproof condition;
- (v) the lessee's obligation to maintain existing constructed stock watering points in proper working order;
- (vi) the lessee's obligation to close off specified areas on the land, or to close or move specified access points on the land, for the purposes of rehabilitation of degraded land;

(c) reservations providing for—

- (i) the property in minerals, petroleum, underground waters and live or dead standing timber on or under the land to be vested in the Crown;
 - (ii) the right of the Commissioner of Highways to establish public roads across the land.
- (2) The form of a pastoral lease and any matters (such as maximum stock levels) to be specified in the conditions of a lease will be determined by the Board.

(3) The only conditions of a pastoral lease that can be varied by the Board pursuant to this Act are the land management conditions.

(4) Nothing in this Act prevents a lessee and the Board from entering into an agreement for the variation of a condition of the lease.

Rent

23. (1) The rent payable under a pastoral lease will be an amount determined annually by the Valuer-General and will, subject to subsection (3), be payable annually in arrears, but cannot, in respect of any year, exceed (in relation to land used for the pasturing of sheep or beef cattle) the fixed maximum rent for that year.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the fixed maximum rent for a particular year is—

(a) for the first year after the commencement of this section—

(i) 80 cents for each head of sheep;

and

(ii) $2.40 for each head of cattle;

(b) for the second year or each succeeding year—the maximum rent for the year immediately preceding it increased by the sum of—

(i) the Consumer Price Index (all groups index for Adelaide) as at 30 June in that preceding year;

and

(ii) 10 per cent of the maximum rent for that preceding year, based on the number of stock carried on the land during the preceding year (as determined in accordance with section 42) or the average number of stock carried on the land over the preceding 20 years, whichever is the lesser.

(3) The board may, for the purposes of administrative efficiency, fix a common day by which the rent under all pastoral leases must be paid in each year and, for that purpose, rental accounts for a period greater or less than a year may be sent to lessees.

(4) In making a determination of rent in respect of a pastoral lease for a particular year, the Valuer-General—

(a) must not take into account the value of improvements that do not belong to the Crown;

and

(b) must have regard to—

(i) the capacity of the land to carry stock;

(ii) the numbers of stock actually carried on the land during the previous year (as determined in accordance with section 42);

(iii) the proximity and accessibility of markets and facilities affecting the profitability of the commercial enterprise under the lease;

and

(iv) any other factors that affect the determination of a fair market rental for the land.

(5) The Board may, if it thinks that a case of hardship exists, waive or defer payment of any rent, or part of any rent, unconditionally or subject to such conditions as the Board thinks fit.

Term of pastoral leases

24. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a pastoral lease will be granted for a term of 42 years.

(2) Where a lessee surrenders two or more pastoral leases for the purposes of merger of the leases, the term of the lease to be granted to the lessee will be such term as the Board, having regard to the terms of the surrendered leases, thinks appropriate.

Extension of term of pastoral leases

25. (1) Subject to this Act, the Board will, by notice in writing given to the lessee in the last year of each 14 year period of the term, extend the term of a pastoral lease by a period of 14 years.

(2) The Board must cause an assessment of the condition of the land comprised in a pastoral lease to be carried out before commencing to consider the extension of the term of the lease.

(3) The Board has a discretion not to extend the term of a pastoral lease if satisfied—

(a) that there has been a wilful breach of a condition of the lease resulting in, or likely to result in, degradation of the land;

or

(b) that the lessee has, without reasonable excuse, failed to discharge a duty imposed by section 7.

(4) If the Board refuses to extend the term of a pastoral lease, the lessee may at any time apply to the Board for extension of the term of the lease.

(5) If the Board is satisfied on an application under subsection (4) that grounds for refusal no longer exist, it may extend the term of the lease by such period as will bring the balance of the term to 42 years.

Variation of land management conditions

26. (1) The Board may, by notice in writing to the lessee, vary the land management conditions of a pastoral lease to take effect at the commencement of the next 14 year period of the term of lease.

(2) The Board cannot vary the conditions of a lease pursuant to subsection (1) unless—

(a) the assessment of the condition of the land required by this Act has been completed;

(b) the notice to the lessee is given at least four months before the variation will take effect;

and

(c) the lease conditions as varied by the Board are accepted by the lessee.

(3) If the lessee does not accept the variation of the lease conditions, the term of the pastoral lease will not be extended.

(4) Any variation of the conditions of a pastoral lease must accord with the terms of any property plan that has been approved in respect of the lease.

Exemption from stamp duty

27. The grant of a pastoral lease or extension of the term of a lease is exempt from stamp duty.

Dealing with pastoral leases

28. (1) Subject to the conditions of the lease, the interest of the lessee under a pastoral lease cannot be transferred, assigned, mortgaged, sublet or otherwise dealt with without the consent of the Minister.

(2) The Minister must not unreasonably or capriciously refuse or withhold consent under subsection (1).

(3) Where a lessee transfers or assigns his or her interest under a pastoral lease, all accrued and accruing liabilities pass to the transferee or assignee.

(4) Any such liabilities that had accrued before the date of the transfer or assignment may be enforced against the transferor or assignor (who will be regarded as jointly and severally liable with the transferee or assignee).

(5) A pastoral lease can be wholly or partially surrendered with the consent of the Minister (which may be unconditional or subject to conditions) and, subject to subsection (6), the consent of all persons who have a registered interest in or caveat over the lease.

(6) If it appears to the Minister that a consent has been unreasonably withheld, the Minister may accept the surrender notwithstanding the absence of that consent.

(7) Where the surrender of a pastoral lease is conditional on the granting of an interest in the land to the lessee or any other person, an interest or caveat registered on the lease continues in force and will be endorsed on the new lease or other documents of title, unless the holder of the interest or caveat consents to its discharge.

(8) Where the surrender of a pastoral lease is not conditional on the granting of an interest in the land to the lessee or any other person, the land reverts to the Crown freed from all encumbrances and claims.

Agreements to deal with a lease

29. Where an agreement is entered into under which the parties agree to transfer, assign, mortgage, sublet or otherwise deal with a pastoral lease, the agreement will expire 12 months after its execution unless the consent of the Minister to the transfer, assignment, mortgage, subletting or other dealing has been obtained.

Consent to certain share transfers in pastoral company

30. (1) Where a company—

(a) is a lessee under a pastoral lease;

or

(b) is a party to an agreement for the transfer, assignment, mortgage or subletting of a pastoral lease to the company, no change in the ownership of the shares of the company can be effected without the prior consent of the Minister, if the change in ownership would result in a controlling interest in the company being held by some person, or by some other person than the present holder of such an interest.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a change in ownership of shares effected by a will or other testamentary disposition.

Alteration of boundaries

31. (1) If the Board is satisfied that the boundary of land subject to a pastoral lease does not reflect the land actually occupied by the lessee, the Minister may, by notice in writing to the lessee, alter the boundary accordingly.

(2) The Minister may, in the same notice, vary the rent payable under the lease to take into account the increase or reduction in value of the lease that results from the alteration of the boundary.

(3) On registration by the Registrar-General of a boundary alteration pursuant to this section—

(a) the alteration takes effect;

and

(b) all registered interests or caveats to which the pastoral lease is subject extend over the lease as so altered.

Resumption of land

32. (1) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, resume any pastoral land.

Property plans

41. (1) If the Board is of the opinion that pastoral land has, from any cause, been damaged, or is likely to suffer damage or deteriorate, and that in order to prevent, arrest or minimize damage to or deterioration of the land, or to rehabilitate the land, it is necessary that action under this section be taken, the Board may, by notice in writing to the lessee, require the lessee—

(8) An approved property plan may, with the approval of the Board, be varied by the lessee.

(4) If a lessee fails to comply with a notice under subsection (2)(b), the Board may cause the muster to be carried out and, subject to subsection (5), may recover the cost of doing so from the lessee as a debt.

(5) If a muster carried out pursuant to this section verifies that the stock levels as declared by the lessee in accordance with this section were accurate, the cost of carrying out the muster will be borne by the Crown.

(6) A declaration as to stock levels will be taken to be accurate if a subsequent muster finds that the numbers of stock on the land are less than or do not exceed by more than 10 per cent the declared levels.

(7) If a lessee fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a requirement of, or notice under, this section, the failure constitutes a breach of the conditions of the pastoral lease.

Notices to destock or take other action

and

(b) will, where necessary, be fenced by the Minister.
