- (2) The Public Trustee is to be an employee in the Public Service of the State appointed to the office of Public Trustee by the Governor.
- (3) The office of Public Trustee may be held in conjunction with a position in the Public Service.
- (4) The Public Trustee—
 - (a) is a body corporate; and

- (b) has perpetual succession and a common seal; and
 - (c) is capable of suing and being sued; and
 - (d) is an instrumentality of the Crown and holds property on behalf of the Crown; and
 - (e) has the functions and powers assigned or conferred by or under this or any other Act.
- (5) The Minister may assign an employee in the Public Service to act as the Public Trustee—
- (a) during a vacancy in the office of Public Trustee; or
 - (b) when the Public Trustee is absent from, or unable to discharge, official duties.

5—Functions and powers

- (1) Subject to this Act, the Public Trustee has the powers of a natural person.
- (2) The Public Trustee may, for example—
- (a) act as a trustee, executor of a will, administrator of an estate (whether or not of a deceased person), manager, receiver, committee, curator, guardian, next friend, agent, attorney or stakeholder; or
 - (b) act in any other capacity provided for under this or any other Act.
- (3) The Public Trustee may, with the approval of the Court, act in the same matter or transaction in different capacities or in the same capacity but as representative of different persons or interests and, in so doing, may commence and maintain proceedings against the Public Trustee.
- (4) The Court may, in granting its approval, give directions to the Public Trustee.

6—Ministerial control

- (1) The Public Trustee is subject to control and direction by the Minister on matters of policy.
- (2) A direction may not be given so as to affect the efficient discharge of the Public Trustee's duties at law or in equity.

- (a) to a person employed in the Public Service; or

- (b) to the person for the time being occupying a specified position in the Public Service.
- (2) A delegation under this section—
 - (a) must be in writing; and
 - (b) may be conditional or unconditional; and
 - (c) is revocable at will; and
 - (d) does not prevent the delegator from acting in any matter.

Part 3—Appointment as administrator, trustee etc

9—Administration of deceased estate

- (1) The Court may make an order (an administration order) granting administration of the estate of a deceased person to the Public Trustee, or authorising the Public Trustee to administer the estate of a deceased person—
 - (a) if, in the opinion of the Court—
 - (i) the deceased has died bankrupt or insolvent; or
 - (ii) a creditor would be entitled to obtain administration of the estate or to institute an action for the administration of the estate,

(and if, in such a case, probate or administration has been granted to a person other than the Public Trustee, the Court may revoke the probate or administration without prejudice to any proceedings taken or act done under it); or
 - (b) if the deceased has died wholly or partially intestate, leaving property within this State, but not leaving a spouse or next of kin resident in the State who is of or above 18 years of age; or
 - (c) if—
 - (i) the deceased has made a will without leaving an executor resident in this State willing to act and capable of acting in the execution of the will; and
 - (ii) there is no person of or above 18 years of age in this State entitled to obtain administration with the will annexed; or
 - (d) if the deceased has made a will and appointed an executor but probate of the will has not been obtained within four months from the death of the deceased; or
 - (e) if no person entitled to obtain administration (with or without a will annexed) obtains it within three months after the death of the deceased; or
 - (f) if probate or administration has been granted to a person who desires to retire from the office of executor or administrator (and, in such a case, the Court may revoke the probate or administration without prejudice to any proceedings taken or act done under it); or
 - (g) if—

- (i) the estate or portion of it is liable to waste, of a perishable nature or in danger of being lost or destroyed, or great loss or expense may be incurred by reason of delay; and
 - (ii) the executor, person entitled to administration (with the will annexed), spouse or next of kin—
 - (A) is absent from the locality of the estate; or
 - (B) is not known; or
 - (C) has not been found; or
 - (D) is unfit or incapable; or
 - (h) if an executor, or person entitled to administration, requests the Public Trustee, in writing, to apply for an order under this section; or
 - (i) if part of an estate, already partly administered, is unadministered owing to the death, incapacity, insolvency, disappearance or absence from the State of the executor or administrator.
- (2) If it appears to the Court—
 - (a) that there is reasonable ground to suppose that a person has died leaving property within this State; and
 - (b) that the person died intestate or without a will duly proved within a reasonable time after death,

the Court may, without requiring strict proof of death, make an administration order authorising the Public Trustee to administer the person's estate for the benefit of the person's creditors and for the discharge of the person's liabilities as if the person were dead.
- (3) An application for an administration order may be made by—
 - (a) the Public Trustee; or
 - (b) a person interested in the estate (including a creditor); or
 - (c) a guardian or blood relation of a person under 18 years of age interested in the estate.
- (4) An administration order may be obtained either without notice or after notice has been given as directed by the Court.

 - (a) that probate be granted to an executor entitled to probate of the will of the deceased, or that letters of administration with the will annexed be granted to any person entitled to them;
 - (b) that property from a deceased person's estate vested in or under the control of the Public Trustee be transferred or delivered to a person or persons entitled to it, whether in trust or beneficially.
- (6) Revocation of an administration order is without prejudice to any proceedings taken or act done under it.

- (7) An administration order of a kind referred to in subsection (2) may not be revoked unless the Court is satisfied that special circumstances of the case and lapse of time since the making of the order justify the revocation.
- (8) If an order is made authorising the Public Trustee to administer the estate of a deceased person, the Public Trustee will be taken to be the administrator of the estate for the purposes of any other Act but subject to the provisions of the other Act.

10—Public Trustee need not give security

The Public Trustee need not, on obtaining administration, enter into a bond or give any security.

11—No action to be instituted after Public Trustee has obtained administration

Subject to this Act, after the grant of administration to the Public Trustee, or the making of an order authorising the Public Trustee to administer the estate of a deceased person, no person may institute an action or other proceeding for the administration of the estate, and any such action or proceeding previously commenced will, on the application of the Public Trustee, be stayed on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

12—Administrator pendente lite

- (1) The Court may appoint the Public Trustee to be the administrator of the estate of a deceased person until an action relating to the validity of the will of the deceased, or for obtaining or revoking a grant of probate or administration, is determined.
- (2) If appointed as administrator under this section, the Public Trustee is subject to control and direction by the Court in the administration of the estate.

13—Administration of trust estate

- (1) The Court may, on the application of a person holding property in trust for any person or purpose, make an order authorising the Public Trustee to receive and administer the property.
- (2) The order may be made whenever or however the trust may have been created or arisen.
- (3) The Court may order that the costs and expenses of and incidental to the application be paid from the trust property, or by the person making the application, and, if the property is held in trust for public or charitable purposes, may, if it thinks fit, direct that no Court fees are payable.

14—Appointment as executor or trustee

- (1) A person may appoint the Public Trustee, either solely or jointly with another person or persons, to be executor or trustee of his or her will or to be trustee of a settlement or other disposition of trust property made by the person.
- (2) The Public Trustee must accept such an appointment unless granted permission to refuse by the Court on the ground that the nature of the trusts and the duties to be performed make it undesirable that the Public Trustee should act.
- (3) If the Court grants permission, it may make such other provision as may be appropriate in the circumstances for the administration of the estate or trust property.

- (4) If the Public Trustee is appointed executor or trustee jointly with another person, the Public Trustee has sole authority—
 - (a) to receive money and hold money on account of the estate or trust; and

- (2) Executors whose duties continue in the nature of a trusteeship after completion of their administration will, for the purpose of subsection (1), be taken to be trustees.
- (3) An application may be made for consent under this section by less than the full number of the executors, administrators or trustees but the Court may not give its consent if there is another executor, administrator or trustee willing and, in the opinion of the Court, suitable to act.
- (4) An application may be made under this section by an executor before or after proving the will.
- (5) The Public Trustee may be appointed under this section without the need to obtain the consent of any person whose consent to the appointment would, apart from this subsection, be required.

- (1) If a court orders the delivery or transfer of property to a person, the court may direct that the property be delivered or transferred to the Public Trustee on behalf of that person.
- (2) The Public Trustee must accept delivery or transfer of the property (and the acceptance is a sufficient discharge to the person delivering or transferring the property).
- (3) The Public Trustee must hold the property on trust to apply it, and its income, in the manner and for the benefit of persons as the court may from time to time direct.

- (4) Subject to direction by the court, the Public Trustee has all the rights and powers, and must undertake all the duties and liabilities, of a trustee (subject to this Act) in relation to the property.

- (2) An order may be made by the Court or an appointment made by a person authorised to appoint new trustees whenever or however the trust may have been created or arisen.
- (3) On appointment of a custodian trustee—
 - (a) the trust property must be transferred to the custodian trustee as if that trustee were sole trustee, and for that purpose orders may be made by the Court vesting the property in the custodian trustee; and
 - (b) those persons who would, if there were no custodian trustee, be the sole trustees of the trust have the management of the trust property; and
 - (c) as between the custodian trustee and the managing trustees (without prejudice to the rights of any other persons) the custodian trustee will have the custody of all securities and documents of title relating to the trust property, but the managing trustees will have free access to them and be entitled to take copies of or extracts from them.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), the custodian trustee must do all things necessary to enable the managing trustees to perform their functions and exercise their powers under the trust.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (4) requires the custodian trustee to do anything that is a breach of trust or subjects the custodian trustee to a personal liability.
- (6) The custodian trustee is not liable for any act or default of the managing trustees to which the custodian trustee has not consented.
- (7) All money payable from the trust estate must be paid by the custodian trustee and all money payable to the trust estate must be paid to the custodian trustee or as that trustee directs.
- (8) If the custodian trustee directs that trust property be delivered to the managing trustees or at their direction, the custodian trustee is not responsible for the application of that property or for its loss or misapplication.
- (9) The custodian trustee does not have power to appoint a new trustee but is entitled to apply to the Court for the appointment of a new trustee in the circumstances in which the managing trustees could apply to the Court for that purpose.

- (10) On application by the custodian trustee or any of the managing trustees or any beneficiary, the Court may—
- (a) terminate the custodian trusteeship; and
 - (b) make such vesting orders and give such directions as are necessary,
- if it is satisfied that—
- (c) termination of the trusteeship is the wish of the majority of beneficiaries; or
 - (d) there are other reasons that make such an order expedient.
- (11) The custodian trustee or the managing trustees may submit a dispute between them to the Court and the Court may determine the matters in dispute in such manner as it considers just.

18—Power of attorney continues despite subsequent legal incapacity

If the donor of a power of attorney granted to the Public Trustee (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) ceases to have legal capacity—

- (a) the Public Trustee may, subject to the terms on which the power of attorney was granted, continue to act under the power of attorney despite the donor's legal incapacity; but
