The person primarily liable for the payment of rates in respect of any ratable land shall be the person for the time being appearing in the assessment-book as the occupier of the land. In default of payment by or recovery from him, or if the land is or becomes unoccupied, then the person for the time being appearing in the assessment-book as the owner of the land shall be liable.

99—Twenty-one days' notice to be given before recovery of rates

Every rate shall become due when it is declared, but no rate shall be recoverable by action or by summary proceedings from any person resident in the State until twenty-one days after a written notice from some officer of the trust is delivered or sent by post to the usual or last known place of abode in the State of that person, informing him of the amount of the rate payable by him, and in respect of what land the same is payable.

100—Interest in default of payment of rate

- (1) If any rate is not paid before the end of three months after the same becomes due and payable, interest determined in accordance with this section shall be added to the amount of the rate, and shall thenceforth for all purposes be deemed to be a part of the rate, and shall be paid by the person or persons liable to pay the rate, and be recoverable from any person liable to pay the rate, and in such manner as if it were part thereof: Provided that no such interest shall be added to the amount of any rate payable by a person resident in the State unless the rate has remained unpaid for the space of twenty-one days after notice of the rate has been delivered or sent by post to the usual or last known place of abode in the State of that person, as provided by section 99.

101—Liability of persons appearing in assessment book as owners

Every person appearing in the assessment-book as the owner of any ratable land shall continue liable for all rates declared in respect of that land, notwithstanding any change in the ownership thereof prior to the declaration of the rates, unless before such declaration the name of another person is inserted in the assessment-book as the owner, or the person so ceasing to be owner gives written notice to the secretary of the change of ownership, stating who is the person who has become owner.

- (2) Every deed or other instrument entered into by the trust for effectuating any such letting shall be valid and binding upon the owner or any person claiming through or under him.

105—Power of sale

- (2) The said court, on being satisfied, by affidavit or otherwise, that the rates mentioned in the notice are lawfully due, and were in arrear for two months at the time of the first publication of the notice, and that all things required by section 103 to be done have been done, shall—
- (a) order the sale, by public auction, of the ratable land to which the application relates, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to pay the rates in arrear, including as well the rates in arrear at the time of the first publication of the notice as any rates that may become due and in arrear up to the time of the application for sale, together with interest due in respect of those rates and together with all costs and expenses of and attending the notice, the application, and the sale, and that the proceeds be paid into court;
  - (b) and may order that a memorandum of transfer be executed by the Master or other officer of the court, in such form as shall be approved by the court or a judge thereof, transferring the premises to the purchaser free from any mortgage or encumbrance.

- (4) The court may order payment out of the proceeds of the sale of the said rates, interest, costs, and expenses, and the balance of the proceeds of the sale shall remain subject to any future or other orders of the court for the behoof of the parties interested therein.

106—Transfer to have effect as ordered

Every transfer ordered by the court as aforesaid shall have effect in accordance with the order. #### 107—Properties comprised in different assessments may be included in one application

In case there are included in any such notice as aforesaid any ratable lands comprised in different assessments or belonging to different owners, the same may be included in one application for sale, and the court may make such orders as to the apportionment of rates, interest, costs, and expenses in respect of the ratable lands, or any part thereof, as the court may deem just.

109—Notice of application a condition precedent

- (1) No application under section 105 shall be made to the court unless it is then shown that at least one month prior to the application the trust posted a notice or notices addressed to the person or persons who at the time of the posting appeared in the register-book at the Lands Titles Registration Office at Adelaide, as having any interest in the land in respect whereof an order for sale is sought.
- (2) The notice may be in the form in Schedule 9, or to the like effect, and shall be deemed to be a sufficient notice of the said application to all persons concerned, but the non-receipt of the notice shall not affect any sale made under an order of the court.

110—After once offered for sale and unsold, lands may be sold privately

In every case where land is offered for sale, pursuant to the provisions of section 105, but no sale has thereupon taken place, the trust may at any time thereafter, without any further application to the Supreme Court, and without any further notice in the Government Gazette or to any person, sell the land either by public auction or private contract, and without any reserve or upset price, if the rates which were in arrear at the date when the land was first offered for sale as aforesaid, or any part of these rates, still remains unpaid.

When any land is offered for sale by public auction, pursuant to section 105 or to section 110, it shall be lawful, notwithstanding any other enactment, for the clerk of the local court at Renmark, if at the time of the sale being ordered or determined upon, there is no licensed auctioneer carrying on business at Renmark, to act as the auctioneer at the auction without taking out any licence in that behalf. The clerk shall be entitled to be paid by the trust the ordinary remuneration for his services as if he were a licensed auctioneer.

114—Power to lease property for arrears of rates

- (1) Where any rates declared by the trust in respect of any ratable land remain unpaid for three months after becoming due, the trust may, with the previous consent of the Governor, and subject as hereinafter appears, take possession of the land, and may hold the same as against any person interested therein, and from time to time grant leases of the same for any period not exceeding seven years. Every deed and other instrument entered into by the secretary in the name or on behalf of the trust as hereinafter appears for effectuating the letting shall be valid against and binding upon the owner of the land or any person claiming through or under him.
- (2) The trust shall not take possession of any such land until three months after a notice in writing, setting forth that rates in respect of the land are unpaid, and demanding payment thereof, and stating that in default of payment the trust will take possession thereof under the provisions of this Act, has been served on or posted to every person appearing by the books of the Registrar-General to be a mortgagee of the land, and on or to every person who is rated in respect of the land or is entitled under any lease to the possession of the land whose name and address is known to the trust, or, if there is no such person whose name and address is so known, has been affixed to some conspicuous place on the property. Every such notice served on or posted to any person, or so affixed, shall contain a sufficient description of the land to identify the same, but every lease granted by the trust otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be valid, notwithstanding the non-compliance with any of the provisions of this subsection.
- (3) On taking possession of any land as aforesaid the trust shall cause to be affixed on some conspicuous part thereof a notice that the land has been taken possession of by the trust under the provision of this section and is to let on lease.
- (4) An entry in the minute book of the trust that notice has been served, posted, or affixed as required by subsections (2) and (3) or a certified copy of any such entry, shall be accepted as conclusive evidence of the giving of the notice, and of the rates therein referred to being unpaid.
- (5) Every such lease shall be for such term not exceeding seven years as to the trust may seem fit, and shall reserve the best rent which can be reasonably obtained for the land, and shall contain and be subject to such other reservations and such exceptions, covenants, and conditions as to the trust may seem fit.
- (6) The secretary shall, upon being directed by the trust so to do, execute in the name and on behalf of the trust a memorandum of lease or other deed or instrument, in such form as he may think fit, leasing the land to the lessee or lessees free from any mortgage, lease, tenancy, or encumbrance.
- (7) The Registrar-General shall, on the receipt of a certified copy of the entry in the minute book mentioned in subsection (4), and without any further evidence of title or of the power of the trust to grant the lease, forthwith register the same in the certificate of title relating to the land, on payment of the usual fee therefor. The registration of the lease shall vest in the lessee an indefeasible estate during the term and subject to the provisions of the said lease.

- (8) Within three months after demand by any person who, but for the provisions of this section, would be entitled to the possession of the land, made within twenty-one years after the taking possession thereof on the part of the trust, and after payment of all rates due in respect thereof and interest due in respect of those rates, and all costs, charges, and expenses incurred by the trust, in respect of the land, pursuant to this Act or any repealed Act, and interest upon those costs, charges, and expenses, at the rate of six dollars per centum per annum, the trust shall execute under the common seal of the trust a release of the land from all rates due in respect thereof. If the trust makes default in executing the release the Supreme Court may, upon the application of any person interested in that behalf, compel the trust so to do. Upon the execution of the release, subject to any lease theretofore legally granted by the trust under the provisions of this section, such person or persons shall be entitled to the land, and the possession thereof, as would have been so entitled if this section had not passed, and any tenant of the land under any such lease shall attorn to such person or persons accordingly.
- (9) All rent and other moneys payable under any such lease shall, until the execution of a release as hereinbefore mentioned, or the expiration of twenty-one years from the trust taking possession, whichever shall first happen, be received by the trust, and shall be applicable—
- (a) in defraying the expenses of and incidental to carrying into effect the provisions in this section contained, and to the execution of the lease, and the collection of the rents, and the expenses of any repairs and improvements to the land which the trust may consider it necessary to effect;
  - (b) in payment to the trust of—
    - (i) all rates in arrear and interest due in respect of those rates; and
    - (ii) interest on the expenses referred to in paragraph (a) at the rate of six dollars per centum per annum calculated from the time of the payment of those expenses; and
