Appendix—Divisional penalties and expiation fees

The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

This Act may be cited as the South Australian Film Corporation Act 1972.

4—Interpretation

In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—council means a municipal or a district council and includes a body corporate which is, by virtue of any Act, deemed to be, or vested with the powers of, a municipal council or district council;

film means a photographic film or a recording on magnetic tape or on any other material from which a series of images, with or without associated sounds, may be produced and includes such a photographic film or recording for use in a television programme;

producer, in relation to a film, means the person by whom the arrangements necessary for the making of the film are undertaken; and to produce and production have corresponding meanings;

the Chief Executive Officer means the person for the time being holding or acting in the office of Chief Executive Officer under this Act;

the Corporation means the South Australian Film Corporation established under this Act.

Note—

For definition of divisional penalties (and divisional expiation fees) see Appendix.

Part 2—The South Australian Film Corporation

5—Establishment of the Corporation

- (1) There shall be a corporation which shall be known as the South Australian Film Corporation which shall be established on the day on which the first members thereof take office as such.
- (2) Subject to this Act, the Corporation—
 - (a) shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal; and
 - (b) shall be capable of suing and being sued, and of taking or acquiring, taking or letting on lease, holding, selling and otherwise disposing of land and property of all kinds; and
 - (c) shall hold all its property for and on behalf of the Crown; and
 - (d) shall have the powers, duties, functions and authorities conferred, imposed or prescribed by or under this Act or any other Act.

- (3) Where an apparently genuine document purports to bear the common seal of the Corporation, it shall be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that the common seal of the Corporation was duly affixed to that document.
- (4) The Corporation is to consist of not less than eight and not more than ten members appointed by the Governor.
- (5) One member of the Corporation will be appointed by the Governor to chair the Corporation.
- (5a) The Chief Executive Officer is eligible for appointment to the Corporation.
- (6) A member of the Corporation shall be appointed for such term of office as the Governor fixes at the time of making the appointment and may be removed from office by the Governor by notice in writing.
- (7) When a member of the Corporation is unable to perform his duties as such, the Governor may at any time, upon the recommendation of the Minister, appoint a deputy to act for that member during his incapacity and a person so appointed shall, while so acting, be deemed to be a member of the Corporation in lieu of the member for whom he is so acting.
- (8) A person is eligible for re-appointment as a member of the Corporation on the expiration of his term of office as a member.
- (9) The Governor may, as occasion requires, and on the recommendation of the Minister, make such appointments as may be necessary to fill any vacancies occurring in the membership of the Corporation.
- (10) The office of member of the Corporation may be held in conjunction with any other appointment or office under the Government.
- (11) The Public Service Act 1967, as amended, shall not apply to or in relation to the appointment of a member of the Corporation, and he shall not, as a member, be subject to that Act, but this provision shall not affect the rights, privileges, duties and obligations under that Act of any person who is otherwise subject to that Act.
- (12) A member of the Corporation shall be entitled to be paid out of the funds of the Corporation such remuneration, allowances and expenses as may be determined by the Governor.

6—Procedure at meetings of Corporation

- (1) Five members of the Corporation constitute a quorum of the Corporation.
- (2) The member of the Corporation appointed to chair the Corporation will preside at meetings of the Corporation or, in the absence of that member, the deputy of that member, or, in the absence of both, a member chosen to preside by those members present at the meeting.
- (3) A decision carried by a majority of the votes cast by members at a meeting is a decision of the Corporation.
- (4) Each member present at a meeting of the Corporation has one vote on any question arising for decision and, if the votes are equal, the member presiding at the meeting may exercise a second or casting vote.

- (5) A telephone or video conference between members will, for the purposes of this section, be taken to be a meeting of the Corporation at which the participating members are present.
- (6) A proposed resolution of the Corporation becomes a valid decision of the Corporation despite the fact that it is not voted on at a meeting of the Corporation if—
 - (a) notice of the proposed resolution is given to all members in accordance with procedures determined by the Corporation; and
 - (b) a majority of the members express their concurrence in the proposed resolution by letter, telegram, telex, facsimile transmission or other written communication setting out the terms of the resolution.
- (7) The Corporation must have accurate minutes kept of its proceedings.
- (8) Subject to this Act, the Corporation may determine its own procedures.

6A—Disclosure of interest

- (1) A member of the Corporation who has a direct or indirect pecuniary or personal interest in a matter under consideration by the Corporation—
 - (a) must disclose the nature of the interest to the Corporation; and
 - (b) must not take part in any deliberations or decision of the Corporation in relation to that matter.

Penalty: Division 5 fine or division 5 imprisonment.

- (2) A member of the Corporation will not be taken to have a direct or indirect interest in a matter for the purposes of this section by reason only of the fact that the member has an interest in the matter that is shared in common with the public or the film industry generally or a substantial section of the public or the film industry.
- (3) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (1) to prove that the defendant was not, at the time of the alleged offence, aware of his or her interest in the matter.
- (4) A disclosure under this section must be recorded in the minutes of the Corporation and reported to the Minister.
- (5) If a member discloses an interest in a proposed contract under this section and takes no part in any deliberations or decision of the Corporation on the contract—
 - (a) the contract is not liable to be avoided; and
 - (b) the member is not liable to account for profits derived from the contract.

6B—Members' duties of honesty, care and diligence

- (1) A member of the Corporation must at all times act honestly in the performance of official functions.
Penalty: Division 4 fine or division 4 imprisonment or both.
- (2) A member of the Corporation must at all times exercise a reasonable degree of care and diligence in the performance of official functions.

- (3) If a member of the Corporation is culpably negligent in the performance of official functions, the member is guilty of an offence.
Penalty: Division 4 fine.
- (4) A member of the Corporation is not culpably negligent for the purposes of subsection (3) unless the court is satisfied the member's conduct fell sufficiently short of the standard required of the member to warrant the imposition of a criminal sanction.
- (5) A member or former member of the Corporation must not make improper use of information acquired through his or her official position to gain directly or indirectly a personal advantage for himself, herself or another, or to cause detriment to the Corporation or the State.
Penalty: Division 4 fine or division 4 imprisonment or both.
- (6) A member of the Corporation must not make improper use of his or her official position to gain directly or indirectly a personal advantage for himself, herself or another or to cause detriment to the Corporation or the State.
Penalty: Division 4 fine or division 4 imprisonment or both.
- (7) This section—
 - (a) operates both inside and outside the State; and
 - (b) is in addition to, and does not derogate from, other laws.

7—Validity of proceedings of the Corporation

- (1) An Act or proceeding of the Corporation shall not be regarded as invalid for the reason only that there was at the time thereof a vacancy in the office of any member.
- (2) Every act or proceeding of the Corporation shall, notwithstanding any defect in the appointment of a person as a member of the Corporation, be as valid and effective as if that person had been validly appointed a member of the Corporation.

8—Corporation to be subject to general control of Minister

In the exercise and performance of its powers, duties, functions and authorities the Corporation shall, except where it is required to make a recommendation to the Minister, be subject to the general control and direction of the Minister.

9—Power to appoint Chief Executive Officer and other employees

- (1) The Chief Executive Officer and other employees of the Corporation are to be appointed by the Corporation.
 - (1a) The Chief Executive Officer is, subject to the control of the Corporation, responsible for the management of the operations of the Corporation.
- (2) All employees of the Corporation shall be entitled to be paid out of the funds of the Corporation such remuneration, allowances and other emoluments as the Corporation from time to time determines, and shall not in relation to their respective appointments, offices or positions on the staff of the Corporation be subject to the Public Service Act 1967, as amended.

- (3) The Corporation may, with the approval of the Minister and the consent of the Minister controlling any department of the public service of the State, and on such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon by the Minister and the Minister administering that department, employ or make use of the services of any of the employees of that department.

10—Functions of the Corporation

The functions of the Corporation are, generally—

- (a) to undertake the production of films; and
- (ab) to promote and participate in any scheme for the financing of film production; and
- (b) to provide library and other services and facilities relating to films and their screening; and
- (c) to provide information services about films and their availability; and
- (d) to offer and arrange courses of instruction for persons who are interested in film projection; and
- (e) to store, distribute, sell and exhibit or otherwise deal with films; and
- (ee) to do all things necessary to promote public interest in film as a medium of communication and as an art form; and
- (f) to carry out research into the distribution of films and the effectiveness of films to meet the purposes for which they are made with a view to improving such distribution and effectiveness.

11—Powers of the Corporation

The Corporation has power to do all things necessary for the administration of this Act and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing—

- (a) shall have the sole and exclusive right to produce, or arrange for the production of, film for or on behalf of the Government of the State or for or on behalf of any instrumentality or agency of the State or the Government of the State; and
- (aa) shall have vested in it, by force of this section, all rights in any film made for or on behalf of the Government of the State; and
- (b) may undertake film production on its own behalf or for any other person or organisation; and
- (c) may enter into and carry out arrangements and agreements for the making, distribution and exhibition of films; and
- (ca) may, for the purpose of participating in any scheme for the financing of film production, advance moneys to any person, or persons, upon such security and such conditions as the Corporation thinks fit; and
- (d) may acquire and lend films and any periodicals, books and equipment for use in connection with film making, producing, projecting and screening; and
- (e) may establish regional film libraries throughout South Australia; and

- (f) may do all such other things as it is authorised or empowered to do by or under this Act or any other Act.

12—Power of Corporation to delegate powers

- (1) The Corporation may, by writing under its common seal, but subject to the approval of the Minister, delegate any of its powers, other than this power of delegation, to a member or employee of the Corporation.
- (2) A power so delegated may be exercised by the delegate in accordance with the instrument of delegation and, when so exercised, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been exercised by the Corporation.
- (3) A delegation of power under this section is revocable at will and does not prevent the exercise of the power by the Corporation.
- (4) A delegate must not act in any matter pursuant to the delegation in which the delegate has a direct or indirect pecuniary or personal interest.

Penalty: Division 5 fine or division 5 imprisonment.

13—The Corporation may borrow for purposes of this Act

- (1) For the purposes of this Act the Corporation may, upon such terms and conditions as are approved by the Treasurer, borrow money—
 - (a) from the Treasurer; or
 - (b) with the consent of the Treasurer, from any other person.
- (2) The repayment of all moneys borrowed under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section together with any interest payable thereon is hereby guaranteed by the Treasurer.
- (3) The Treasurer is hereby authorised, without further appropriation than this section, to pay out of the General Revenue of the State any amount required to satisfy a liability under a guarantee by virtue of subsection (2) of this section.

Part 5—Financial provisions

22—Moneys required for purposes of this Act

Except to the extent that the funds of the Corporation might otherwise be sufficient for the purposes of this Act, the moneys required for those purposes shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament for those purposes.

23—The funds of the Corporation

- (1) The Treasurer may, from time to time, make available to the Corporation from moneys appropriated by Parliament for the purposes of the administration of this Act and the carrying out by the Corporation of its functions, duties and authorities under this Act, such moneys on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit.

- (2) The funds of the Corporation shall be kept and maintained at the Treasury and shall consist of—
- (a) all moneys made available by the Treasurer to the Corporation, out of appropriations authorised by Parliament, for the purposes of the administration of this Act and the carrying out by the Corporation of its functions, duties and authorities; and
 - (b) all moneys derived by the Corporation from the sale, leasing and other disposal by the Corporation of any property which it has power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of; and
 - (c) all moneys borrowed by the Corporation under this Act; and
 - (d) all other moneys received by the Corporation; and
 - (e) all moneys, other than moneys referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d) (inclusive) of this subsection that are required to be paid to the Corporation by this Act or any other Act.
- (3) The funds of the Corporation may, with the approval of the Minister, be used by the Corporation for all or any of the following purposes:
- (a) the acquisition and development of any property for the purposes of this Act; and
 - (b) the payment of moneys which the Corporation becomes liable to pay; and
 - (c) the establishment of any special fund or funds for any purposes connected with the functions, duties and authorities of the Corporation; and
 - (d) the transfer to any reserve for the repayment of any moneys borrowed by the Corporation for the purposes of this Act; and
 - (e) the payment of principal, interest and expenses in respect of moneys borrowed by the Corporation for the purposes of this Act; and
 - (f) the maintenance and improvement of any property owned or held by or vested in the Corporation; and
 - (g) any purposes authorised by or under this Act as a purpose for which the funds of the Corporation may be used.
- (4) Any funds of the Corporation that are not immediately required for the purposes referred to in subsection (3) of this section may be deposited by the Corporation with the Treasurer, or may be invested in such other manner as the Treasurer may approve.

24—Budget

- (1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of this Act, the Corporation shall present to the Minister a budget showing estimates of its revenue and expenditure over the balance of the financial year within which that budget is presented and thereafter the Corporation shall, before the commencement of each succeeding financial year, present to the Minister a budget showing estimates of its revenue and expenditure for that financial year.
- (2) The Minister may approve of a budget presented to him pursuant to subsection (1) of this section or may direct or allow the Corporation to amend a budget before he approves of that budget.

- (3) The Corporation shall not, without the consent of the Minister, make any expenditure that is not provided for by a budget that has been approved by the Minister under this section.

Part 6—Miscellaneous

25—Service with the State or Commonwealth Government or approved employer to count as service with the Corporation, if continuous

Where the service of a person in the employment of the Corporation is continuous with his service in the employment of the Government of the Commonwealth or of this State or any other State of the Commonwealth or in the employment of any other employer approved by the Minister, the Corporation shall, when calculating the recreation leave, sick leave and long service leave to be granted to that person in respect of his service in the employment of the Corporation—

- (a) grant in addition to that leave any accrued leave to which that person is entitled in respect of his service in that previous employment; or
- (b) if that person has no such entitlement to any accrued leave, take into account his period of service in that previous employment as if it were service in the employment of the Corporation.

26—Superannuation

The Chief Executive Officer and other employees of the Corporation shall, for the purposes of the Superannuation Act 1969, as amended, be deemed to be employees within the meaning of that Act and, subject to that Act, may become contributors within the meaning of that Act, if accepted as such by the South Australian Superannuation Fund Board.

27—Films and equipment of Government departments may be vested in Corporation

- (1) The Governor may, by proclamation, subject to such terms and conditions, if any, as he may state therein, vest in the Corporation the ownership or custody of any films and any periodicals, books and equipment for use in connection with film making, producing, projecting and screening which are owned by or vested in the Government or any instrumentality or agency of the Government.
- (2) Subject to this Act and to the terms and conditions of the vesting, the Corporation may utilise for the purposes of this Act the films, periodicals, books and equipment so vested in it.
- (3) Upon application to the Corporation by or on behalf of a department, instrumentality or agency of the Government to borrow any film, periodical, book or equipment of which the applicant has been divested pursuant to this section, the Corporation shall, so far as is practicable and unless otherwise directed by the Minister, give the applicant immediate access to the required film, periodical, book or equipment and permit the applicant to borrow it for the period of time for which it is required.

28—Preferences in the lending of films etc

Unless otherwise directed by the Minister, the Corporation shall, when determining conflicting applications to borrow any film, periodical, book or equipment of or in the custody of the Corporation—

- (a) give priority to any applicant that is a department, instrumentality or agency of the Government which has been divested of the film, periodical, book or equipment pursuant to this Act; and
- (b) have regard to the purposes for which the applicants require the film, periodical, book or equipment.

29—Temporary closure of roads etc

The Commissioner of Police shall—

- (a) if he thinks fit, upon the application of the Corporation and the approval of the appropriate council; or
- (b) upon the direction of the Minister made upon application made to him by any person including the Corporation, and after consultation with the appropriate council, temporarily close any road or part of any road or cause such directions to be given as are necessary to control the movement of pedestrians and vehicular traffic on any road or part of any road during the making of any film being produced by or on behalf of the Corporation or that other person, as the case may be.

30—Annual report

- (1) On or before the thirty-first day of October in each year the Corporation shall furnish the Minister with a report on its administration and the work that had been undertaken by the Corporation during the year or part of the year ended on the thirtieth day of June preceding the report.
- (2) The Minister shall cause each report to be laid before both Houses of Parliament within three weeks after receiving the same, if Parliament is then sitting, or, if Parliament is not then sitting, within two weeks after the commencement of the next sitting of Parliament.

31—Accounts and Audit

- (1) The Corporation shall keep proper books of account showing accurately and in detail all its financial transactions and shall in each year prepare a profit and loss account for the period of twelve months or part thereof ending on the thirtieth day of June in that year and a balance sheet showing its assets and liabilities as at that thirtieth day of June.
- (2) The Auditor-General shall audit the accounts of the Corporation annually and for the purpose of such audit may exercise any of the powers which he could exercise for the purpose of auditing the accounts of a Government department.
- (3) The Corporation shall pay to the Treasurer, as a fee for every such audit, such sum as the Treasurer thinks reasonable.

32—Summary proceedings

Proceedings for offences against this Act or any provision of this Act shall be disposed of summarily.

33—Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make such regulations as are necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions and objects of this Act.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the regulations may—
 - (a) prescribe all matters required to be prescribed or authorised by or under this Act and such other matters as are necessary or convenient for carrying out the provisions and objects of this Act; and
 - (b) provide for fees and charges to be payable under this Act and, if necessary, prescribe the fees and charges so payable; and
 - (c) prescribe additional powers and duties of the Corporation, the Chief Executive Officer or any other employee of the Corporation; and
 - (d) provide for and prescribe penalties not exceeding in each case, one hundred dollars, for an offence against this Act or any provision of this Act.
