- (b) the desirability of reducing undue fluctuations in the rate of return on the fund.

(3) Where, in pursuance of subsection (2)(b), the Board determines a rate of return that is at variance with the net rate of return achieved by investment of the fund, the Board must include its reasons for the determination in its report for the relevant financial year.

DIVISION 4—PAYMENT OF BENEFITS

Payment of benefits

12. (1) A payment to be made under this Act to or on behalf of a member or to a spouse of a deceased member or to a deceased member's estate, must be made by the Treasurer out of the Consolidated Account (which is appropriated to the necessary extent) or out of a special deposit account established by the Treasurer for that purpose.

(2) If the payment includes an employee component, an amount equivalent to the amount standing to the credit of the member's contribution account is to be charged against that account and the Treasurer must reimburse the Consolidated Account or special deposit account by charging the Fund with that amount.

(3) If the payment includes an employer component or a future service benefit, the Consolidated Account or special deposit account is to be reimbursed with the amount of that component or benefit by charging it against the Southern State Superannuation (Employers) Fund.

Southern State Superannuation Act 1994

(4) Where, upon the invalidity or death of a member who was a member of the police force, an amount greater than the aggregate of the employee and employer components and a future service benefit (if any) is payable by way of benefits under section 34(6) or 35(7) to or in respect of the member, the amount payable will be taken, for the purposes of this section, to include the employee and employer components and a future service benefit (if any).

(3) Where a person who makes an election under subsection (1) is also a member of the Benefit Scheme, the amount standing to the credit of his or her superannuation account under the Superannuation (Benefit Scheme) Act 1992 will be carried over to the Southern State Superannuation Scheme on the commencement date and will be credited to his or her employer contribution account.

Southern State Superannuation Act 1994

- (b) must specify the rate at which the member elects to contribute to the scheme;
- (c) will—
  - (i) in the case of an election received by the Board before this Act comes into operation—be taken to have been made on the day on which this Act comes into operation;
  - (ii) in any other case—be taken to have been made on the day on which it is received by the Board.

Duration of membership

21. A member remains a member of the scheme until the benefits payable under this Act to, on behalf of, or in respect of, the member have been paid.

DIVISION 2—SUPPLEMENTARY FUTURE SERVICE BENEFIT MEMBERS

Acceptance as a supplementary future service benefit member

22. (1) The Board may, on the application of a member, accept the member as a supplementary future service benefit member.

(2) An application must be made in a manner approved by the Board and must specify the level of supplementary future service benefits that the member is applying for.

(3) All members of the police force and all police cadets who are members of the scheme are supplementary future service benefit members and are entitled to the highest level of supplementary future service benefits prescribed by the regulations and are obliged to make contributions in respect of those benefits at the corresponding level prescribed by the regulations.

(4) The applicant must provide the Board with prescribed information as to the applicant's state of health and the Board may require an applicant to provide satisfactory evidence of the state of the applicant's health.

(5) The cost of any medical examination to which an applicant is required to submit for the purposes of subsection (4) must be paid by the applicant.

(6) If it appears to the Board—

- (a) that an applicant's state of health is such as to create a risk of invalidity or premature death; or
- (b) that an applicant has in the past engaged in an activity of a prescribed kind that increases the risk of invalidity or premature death; or
- (c) that an applicant is likely in the future to engage in an activity of a kind referred to in paragraph (b), the Board may refuse the application or may grant it on conditions (being conditions authorised by the regulations).

(7) If it appears to the Board that an applicant withheld information required in relation to his or her application under this section, the Board may withhold or reduce a supplementary future service benefit under this Act.

Variation of benefits

23. (1) A supplementary future service benefit member (other than a member of the police force or a police cadet) may apply to the Board to vary the level of supplementary future service benefits applicable to the member.

(2) An application must be made in a manner approved by the Board and must specify the new level of benefits that the member is applying for.

(3) If an application is for an increase in the level of benefits, this Division will apply as though it were an application for acceptance of the applicant as a supplementary future service benefit member.

Election to terminate status as a supplementary future service benefit member

24. (1) A supplementary future service benefit member (other than a member of the police force or a police cadet) may, by notice in writing to the Board, elect to terminate his or her status as a supplementary future service benefit member.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a member may from time to time elect the rate at which he or she will make contributions.

(3) A member of the police force must contribute at a rate of at least 4.5 per cent of salary.

(3a) Subsection (3) does not apply to a member of the police force who is employed pursuant to a contract having a fixed term.

(4) A police cadet is not obliged to contribute but may elect to do so.

(5) A member (not being a member of the police force referred to in subsection (3)) may elect not to contribute to the scheme but such an election cannot operate until the member has contributed to the scheme for at least one financial year.

(6) An election must be made in writing to the Board at least two months before the end of a financial year and will operate from the commencement of the next financial year.

(7) Where the Board is satisfied that a member needs to reduce his or her contributions because of financial hardship, the Board may permit the member to make an election under subsection (6) that will operate in contravention of subsection (5) or before the commencement of the next financial year (or both).

(8) A member's contributions will be fixed in relation to each financial year, as from a day in that financial year determined by the Board—

(a) on the basis of the member's salary as at 31 March last preceding the commencement of the financial year or, if the member's hours of employment have increased or decreased between that date and the commencement of the financial year, on the basis of the member's salary following the last such increase or decrease in the hours of employment; but

(b) —

(i) if the member had not then commenced his or her employment, the contributions will be fixed on the basis of the member's commencing salary;

(ii) if the member was then on leave without pay or at a reduced rate of pay, the contributions will be fixed on the basis of the salary that the member would then have been receiving if not on leave;

(iii) if the member's employment is of a casual nature, the contributions will be fixed on the basis of a notional salary fixed by the Board in relation to the member;

(iv) if after the date on which contributions for a particular financial year are fixed there is a reduction in the member's salary resulting from a reduction in hours of work (other than a temporary reduction of less than two weeks duration), there will be a proportionate reduction in the member's contributions (but the member may, with the Board's approval, elect to contribute as if there had been no reduction in salary);

(v) if during the financial year the member commences a period of leave without pay or at a reduced rate of pay (of more than two weeks duration), the member's contributions will be suspended or reduced proportionately (but the member may, with the Board's approval, elect to contribute as if he or she had not been on leave).

(9) If over a particular period a member receives (while remaining in employment) weekly workers compensation payments for total or partial incapacity for work, contributions will be payable as if the weekly payments were salary or a component of salary (as the case requires) but if the aggregate of the weekly payments and the salary (if any) of the member is less than the salary that the member would have received if not incapacitated, the Board may allow a proportionate reduction in the amount of the contributions for that period.

(10) Contributions are payable on the days on which the member's salary is paid or, in the case of a member who is on leave without pay, on the days on which the member's salary would have been paid if he or she had not been on leave.

(11) A member whose membership of the scheme commences on the commencement of the member's employment will commence making contributions on a date fixed by the Board.

DIVISION 4—PAYMENTS BY EMPLOYERS

Payments by employers

26. (1) Within seven days after salary is paid to a member, the member's employer must pay to the Treasurer an amount calculated as follows:

$$A = S \times \frac{CP}{100}$$

Where—

A is the amount to be paid

S is the amount of salary paid to the member

CP is the charge percentage applicable in respect of the member for the period during which the salary was paid.

(2) If an employer fails to pay the amount referred to in subsection (1) within the time allowed by that subsection, the employer is liable to pay to the Treasurer a penalty (not being greater than 10 per cent of the amount unpaid) fixed by the Board.

(3) In this section—

"employer" means—

(a) the administrative unit in which the member is employed; or

(b) the agent or instrumentality of the Crown, or other person or body, that employs the member, as the case requires.

PART 4
THE EMPLOYER COMPONENT OF BENEFITS

Employer contribution accounts

27. (1) The Board must maintain employer contribution accounts in the names of all members.

(2) On 30 June 1996 and on 30 June in each succeeding year the Board must credit or debit to each account an amount calculated as follows:

Where—

A is the amount to be credited or debited

AEC is the annual employer contribution for the financial year in respect of which the amount is to be credited or debited—see section 28

B is the balance (if any) of the account at the beginning of the financial year in respect of which the amount is to be credited or debited (but if an amount was carried over from the Benefit Scheme or from any other superannuation fund or scheme when the member's membership of the scheme commenced, "B" is, in respect of the first financial year of his or her membership of the scheme, the amount so credited)

C is an administrative charge to be prescribed by regulation (different charges may be prescribed depending on the balance of members' accounts or any other relevant factor)

I is the interest rate and is equivalent to the rate of return on investments of the Southern State Superannuation (Employers) Fund determined by the Board under Part 2 Division 3 in respect of the relevant financial year.

(3) The interest component of an amount calculated under subsection (2) in respect of the first year of membership must be reduced in proportion to the part of the year (if any) occurring before the membership commenced.

(4) Immediately before the employer component is paid to, on behalf of, or in respect of a member under Part 5, the Board must credit or debit to the member's employer contribution account an amount calculated as follows:

but if the member's membership of the scheme commenced during the relevant financial year and an amount was carried over from the Benefit Scheme or from any other superannuation fund or scheme when the member's membership of the scheme commenced, the amount to be credited or debited by the Board will be calculated as follows:

Where—

A is the amount to be credited or debited

AEC is the annual employer contribution for the relevant financial year—see section 28

B is the balance (if any) of the account at the beginning of the relevant financial year

B<sub>1</sub> is the amount carried over on behalf of the member and credited to the member's employer contribution account

C is an administrative charge to be prescribed by regulation (different charges may be prescribed depending on the balance in members' accounts or any other relevant factor)

I is the interest rate and is equivalent to the rate of return on investments of the Southern State Superannuation (Employers) Fund estimated by the Board in respect of that part of the relevant financial year occurring before the last day on which interest is payable

Y is the number of days from the commencement of the member's membership of the scheme or from the commencement of the relevant financial year (whichever is later) to the last day on which interest is payable

D is the number of days in the relevant financial year.

(5) Where the Board has given to a member, or to the spouse or personal representatives of a deceased member, at least one month's written notice of its requirements to enable it to make payment of superannuation benefits under this Act to, on behalf of, or in respect of, the member and those requirements have not been met within the time specified in the notice, the Board may by notice in writing to the member, or to the spouse or personal representatives of a deceased member, certify that interest will cease to be payable under subsection (4) on the date specified in the notice.

(6) In this section—

"the last day on which interest is payable" means—

(a) where the Board has issued a certificate under subsection (5), the day specified in the certificate;

(b) in any other case, the day on which the amount referred to in subsection (4) is credited to the member's employer contribution account;

"the relevant financial year" means the financial year in which the last day on which interest is payable occurs.

Annual employer contribution

28. (1) The annual employer contribution in respect of a member is calculated as follows:

$$AEC = S \times \left[ \frac{CP - N}{100} \right]$$

Where—

AEC is the annual employer contribution

S is the amount of salary paid or payable to the member during the financial year in relation to which the calculation is made where the member was a member of the scheme throughout the year or, where the member was a member of the scheme for part only of the year, S is the amount of salary paid or payable to the member during that part of the year

CP is the charge percentage

N is the future service benefit factor and is—

- (a) in the case of a supplementary future service benefit member—a number (being a number greater than the number referred to in paragraph (b)) fixed by or in accordance with the regulations in respect of the member; or
- (b) in any other case—0.3 or such other number as is prescribed from time to time by regulation.

(2) If two or more charge percentages apply in relation to a member at different times during a financial year, the annual employer contribution in respect of the financial year will be the aggregate of the amounts calculated under subsection (1) in respect of the parts of the year during which each of the charge percentages applied and for the purpose of those calculations "S" will be the salary paid or payable to the member for the relevant part of the financial year.

SUPERANNUATION BENEFITS

Interpretation

30. In this Part—

"the employee component" in relation to a member means an amount that is equivalent to the greater of the amount standing to the credit of the member's contribution account and the amount that would have stood to the credit of that account if instead of the Board adjusting the balance to reflect a rate of return determined by the Board the balance had been adjusted to reflect a rate of return equal to movements in the Consumer Price Index plus 4 per cent;

"the employer component" in relation to a member means an amount that is equivalent to the greater of the amount standing to the credit of the member's employer contribution account and the amount that would have stood to the credit of that account if the amounts credited to the account had not included an interest component but the balance of the account had been adjusted to reflect a rate of return equal to movements in the Consumer Price Index plus 4 per cent.

Retirement

31. (1) A member who retires from employment is entitled to payment of the employee component and the employer component.

(2) For the purposes of this section a member retires from employment if—

- (a) the member has reached the age of 55 years; and
- (b) the member's employment terminates or is terminated for any reason (except the member's death).

Resignation

32. (1) Where a member resigns from employment before reaching the age of 55 years the member may elect—

- (a) to take immediately the employee component; or
- (b) to preserve the employee component; or
- (c) to carry the employee component over to some other superannuation fund or scheme approved by the Board in accordance with criteria prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.

(2) Where a member resigns from employment before reaching the age of 55 years the member may elect—

- (a) if the circumstances referred to in subsection (3) apply—to take immediately the employer component; or
- (b) to preserve the employer component; or
- (c) to carry the employer component over to some other superannuation fund or scheme approved by the Board in accordance with criteria prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.

(3) The circumstances referred to in subsection (2)(a) are as follows:

- (a) the amount of the employer component is less than $500; or
- (b) the member satisfies the Board that—
  - (i) he or she intends leaving Australia on a permanent basis; or
  - (ii) he or she is residing out of Australia and will continue to do so on a permanent basis.

(4) A member who fails to inform the Board in writing of his or her election under subsection (1) or (2) within three months after resignation will be taken to have elected to preserve the employee or employer component.

(5) If the Board is of the opinion that the limitation period referred to in subsection (4) would unfairly prejudice a member, the Board may extend the period as it applies to the member.

(6) Where the member elects to preserve the employee or employer component (or both), the following provisions apply:

- (a) the member may at any time after reaching 55 years of age require the Board to pay the component and, if no such requirement has been made on or before the date on which the member reaches 65 years of age, the Board will pay the component to the member;
- (b) if the member satisfies the Board that he or she has become totally and permanently incapacitated for work, the Board will pay the component to the member;
- (c) if the member dies, the component will be paid to the spouse of the deceased member or, if he or she left no surviving spouse, to the member's estate,

(and a payment under any of the above paragraphs excludes further rights so that a claim cannot be subsequently made under some other paragraph).

(7) A member who has elected, or has been taken to have elected, to preserve his or her employee component or employer component (or both) and to whom the component has not been paid under subsection (6), may elect to withdraw that election and to elect to carry the component over to some other superannuation fund or scheme approved by the Board in accordance with criteria prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

(8) If both components have been preserved a member cannot make an election under subsection (7) to carry only one of them over.

(9) Where the member elects to carry over the employee or employer component (or both) to an approved superannuation fund or scheme, the following provisions apply:

- (a) the member must satisfy the Board by such evidence as it may require that he or she has been admitted to membership of the fund or scheme; and
- (b) on being so satisfied the Board will pay the component on behalf of the member to the fund or scheme.

(10) Where a member has resigned from employment and has elected to preserve the employee or employer component but has subsequently been re-employed in employment by virtue of which (upon election) he or she becomes a member of the scheme, the Board may maintain separate member's contribution or employer contribution accounts or a combined member's contribution account or a combined employer contribution account in the name of the member.

(11) For the purposes of this section and subject to any other provision of this Act a member will be taken to resign if the member's employment terminates or is terminated for any reason (except invalidity, retrenchment or death).

Retrenchment

33. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a member's employment is terminated by retrenchment the member is entitled to payment of the employee component and the employer component.

(2) The member may elect to preserve his or her employee or employer component or to carry the employee or employer component over to some other superannuation fund or scheme as if the member had resigned from employment.

- (b) a component consisting of—
  - (i) the employer component; and
  - (ii) subject to this section, a future service benefit calculated in accordance with subsection (2) or (3).

(2) Where the member had been a member of the scheme for a period that included the last three complete financial years before termination of the member's employment, the future service benefit will be $20 000 or an amount calculated as follows whichever is the greater:

$$\text{FSB} = \frac{S}{3} \times \frac{(5 + A)}{100} \times \frac{M}{12}$$

Where—

S is the amount of salary paid to the member during the last three complete financial years

- (a) unless the invalidity was caused by accidental injury; or
- (b) where the invalidity was not caused by accidental injury—unless the member is a supplementary future service benefit member (but, in that case, payment of both the basic future service benefit and the supplementary future service benefit is subject to the conditions (if any) imposed by the Board when granting the member's application to be accepted as a supplementary future service benefit member.)

(6) If—

- (a) the member was, immediately before termination of his or her employment, a member of the police force; and
