3A—Principles for determining territorial relationship

- (1) An instrument relates to property situated in a particular jurisdiction if it—
- (a) creates, transfers, redeems, renounces, surrenders, cancels or extinguishes an interest in property situated in the relevant jurisdiction; or
 - (b) deals with an interest in property situated in the relevant jurisdiction in any other way; or
 - (c) acknowledges, evidences or records a transaction to which paragraph (a) or (b) refers.
- (2) A potential, contingent, expectant or other inchoate interest is to be regarded as an interest in property in a particular jurisdiction if the realisation of the potentiality, contingency or expectancy, or the occurrence of any act or event necessary to perfect the interest could result in—
- (a) an interest in property situated in that jurisdiction; or
 - (b) an interest in the proceeds of the sale of property situated in that jurisdiction.
- (3) For the purpose of calculating duty on an instrument that relates to a potential, contingent, expectant or other inchoate interest—
- (a) the interest is to be treated as an actual interest ie as if the potentiality, contingency or expectancy had been realised or anything necessary to perfect the interest had occurred; and

- (b) if the interest is dependent in any way on the exercise of a discretion or any other contingency, it will be presumed that the discretion has been exercised, or the contingency has been realised, so as to give rise to the greatest possible liability to duty in this State.
- (4) An interest in property is taken to be situated in the jurisdiction in which the property to which the interest relates is situated.

3B—Territorial application of Act

- (1) This Act applies in respect of an instrument that relates to property situated, or a matter or thing to be done, in South Australia irrespective of whether—
 - (a) the instrument is within or outside South Australia; or
 - (b) the instrument was executed within or outside South Australia.
- (2) If an instrument relates to property situated in part in South Australia and in part outside South Australia, duty is to be calculated as if the instrument related only to the property situated in South Australia.
- (3) This section operates subject to any other specific provision dealing with how duty is to be calculated on an instrument that relates to property within and outside South Australia.¹

Note—

- 1 Section 81B deals with the duty payable on a mortgage over property within and outside the State.

3C—Special rules for determining location of certain forms of intangible property

- (1) This section applies to intangible property of the following kinds—
 - (a) business or product goodwill;
 - (b) intellectual property (except know-how and confidential information);
 - (c) rights conferred under a franchise agreement or licence (including a statutory licence granted under the law of the Commonwealth but not a statutory licence granted under the law of the State).
- (2) If intangible property to which this section applies is a business asset, it is taken to be wholly situated in South Australia if the business is carried on wholly in South Australia and, if not, is taken to be situated in the various jurisdictions in which the business is carried on in proportion to the volume of business carried on in each.
- (3) The Commissioner is to determine proportions for the purposes of subsection (2) having regard to—
 - (a) the turnover of the business; and
 - (b) the relative extent of income generated by the business in each jurisdiction in which the business is carried on; and
 - (c) the relative extent of the work carried on in each of the relevant jurisdictions; and
 - (d) any other relevant factors.

- (4) If intangible property to which this section applies is not a business asset, it is taken to be situated in the jurisdiction in which the owner—
- (a) if a company—
 - (i) in the case of a company incorporated or taken to be incorporated under the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth—is taken, under that Act, to be registered;

14—Instruments to be separately charged

Except where express provision is made to the contrary—

- (b) any instrument made for any consideration in respect of which it is chargeable with ad valorem duty, and also for any further or other valuable consideration, shall, in addition to being charged with ad valorem duty, be charged with duty in respect of the last mentioned consideration as if it were an instrument made only for that consideration.

15A—Ascertainment of value of property

- (1) If the value of property is to be ascertained by reference to an actual or notional cost of acquisition, any component of the cost of acquisition that is referable to GST payable on its sale or supply is to be regarded as a component of its value.
- (2) In ascertaining the value of property for the purpose of assessing ad valorem duty on an instrument, the existence of an overriding power of revocation or reconveyance in that or any other instrument may be disregarded.

16—Duty in force when instrument produced for stamping to apply

 - (b) the Commissioner is satisfied that, by reason of non-fulfilment of the condition, or recall of the execution, the instrument will never come into force, the Commissioner will, on application by a party who paid the duty and production of the instrument, cancel any stamp on the instrument and refund the amount of the duty paid.

18—Duty on other instruments

Where the duty with which any instrument is chargeable depends in any manner upon the duty paid upon another instrument, the payment of the last mentioned duty may, on production of both the instruments, be denoted in such manner as the Commissioner thinks fit upon the first mentioned instrument.

19A—Certain copies dutiable

- (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, but subject to subsection (2), where an original instrument chargeable with duty under this Act has not been duly stamped or has been destroyed without being duly stamped, any copy of the instrument shall, for the purposes of this Act, be chargeable with duty as if it were the original and be deemed to have been executed by the person or persons who executed the original at the same time as the original was executed.
- (2) Where an original instrument or a copy of an instrument is duly stamped under this Act, the Commissioner shall, upon application and production of that original or copy, stamp any copy or further copy or the original, as the case may be, with a particular stamp denoting that it is duly stamped.

- (7) The commission of an offence against subsection (4) does not affect the validity of the instrument in relation to which the offence was committed.

21—Admissibility of unstamped instruments in evidence

Upon the production of any instrument chargeable with duty as evidence in any civil proceedings in any part of South Australia, the officer whose duty it is to read the instrument shall call the attention of the presiding judge, special magistrate or justices to any omission or insufficiency of the stamp thereon.

- (2) If the result of an assessment relating to an instrument is that the instrument is chargeable with duty or further duty, the instrument is, on payment of any duty or further duty payable in respect of the instrument, to be stamped or further stamped in accordance with the assessment, and, when so stamped, may also be stamped by the Commissioner with a particular stamp denoting that it is duly stamped.
- (3) If the result of an assessment relating to a stamped instrument is that duty or further duty is chargeable in respect of the instrument, the instrument is, from the date of the assessment until the duty or further duty is paid and the instrument is further stamped, to be taken to be insufficiently stamped, and this subsection applies despite the fact that the instrument has already been stamped, whether under this section or another provision of this Act, with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with duty or that it is duly stamped.
- (4) Every instrument stamped with the particular stamp denoting either that it is not chargeable with duty or that it is duly stamped shall, subject to subsection (3), be admissible in evidence and shall be available for all purposes, notwithstanding any objection relating to duty.

 - (a) in the case of a conveyance on sale—as at the date of the sale; or
 - (b) in any other case—as at the date of the conveyance, assuming, in either case, that the property had, at that date, been free from any encumbrances.

- (2) In the case of a conveyance on sale, the Commissioner may treat the consideration for the sale as being the value of the property conveyed or transferred unless it appears to the Commissioner that the consideration may be less than the value of the property as referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) Where no evidence of the value of property conveyed or transferred, or comprising or forming part of the consideration for a conveyance, is furnished to the Commissioner, or the evidence so furnished is, in his opinion, unsatisfactory, the Commissioner may cause a valuation of the property to be made by some person appointed by him and may assess the duty payable by reference to that valuation.
- (4) The Commissioner may, having regard to the merits of the case, charge the whole or a part of the expenses of, or incidental to, the making of a valuation pursuant to subsection (3) to the person liable to pay the duty and may recover the amount so charged from him as a debt due to the Crown.
- (4a) Where an interest, agreement or arrangement (granted or made on or after 7 January 1997) in respect of property has the effect of reducing the value of the property, the Commissioner may, for the purposes of assessing the duty payable on a conveyance of the property, disregard the existence of the interest, agreement or arrangement unless a person liable to pay the duty satisfies the Commissioner that the interest, agreement or arrangement—
- (a) was granted or made for a purpose other than reducing the value of the property; and
 - (b) was not granted or made in favour of the transferee or a person related to the transferee.
- (4b) Where an estate or interest conveyed or transferred merges with an estate or interest already held by the transferee (the latter having been acquired by the transferee on or after 7 January 1997), the Commissioner may, for the purposes of assessing the duty payable on the conveyance, treat the value of the estate or interest conveyed or transferred as being—
- (a) where the instrument creating the estate or interest already held was charged with ad valorem duty as a conveyance—the value of the estate or interest produced by the merger less the value of the estate or interest already held; or
 - (b) in any other case—the value of the estate or interest produced by the merger.
- (5) In subsection (1)—

 - (b) companies are related persons if they are related bodies corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth; and

- (c) trustees are related persons if any person is a beneficiary common to the trusts of which they are trustees; and

 - (e) a natural person and a trustee are related persons if the natural person is a beneficiary of the trust of which the trustee is a trustee; and

 - (i) the company, or a majority shareholder, director or secretary in or of the company, is a beneficiary of the trust of which the trustee is a trustee; or
 - (ii) a related body corporate of the company (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth) is a beneficiary of the trust of which the trustee is a trustee.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (4a), persons are not related persons if the Commissioner is satisfied that the persons were not acting together to achieve a common purpose.
- (8) In subsection (6)—

majority shareholder, in relation to a company, means a person who would have a substantial shareholding in the company as defined in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth if the reference to 5% in paragraph (a) of the definition of substantial holding in that section were replaced by a reference at 50%.

- (1) Where a party to an instrument of a kind that is registrable under the Real Property Act 1886 satisfies the Commissioner, upon application made to him not later than 5 years after execution of the instrument—
- (a) that he has paid duty upon the instrument; and
 - (b) that the transaction in respect of which the instrument was executed has been frustrated or avoided or has miscarried through failure of a party to comply with a condition, the applicant shall be deemed to be possessed of stamped material rendered useless by being inadvertently spoiled within the meaning of section 106, and the provisions of that section shall apply accordingly.

60C—Refund of duty on reconveyance of property subject to a common law mortgage

- (1) If—
- (a) ad valorem duty is paid on a conveyance of property (the prior conveyance); and
 - (b) the sole purpose of the conveyance is to secure a liability under a loan, indemnity or guarantee; and

- (c) a conveyance (the later conveyance) reconveys the property to the person by whom the security was given under the terms of the security or on extinguishment or termination of the secured liability, this section applies to the later conveyance.

- (2) If the Commissioner is satisfied that a conveyance is one to which this section applies—
 - (a) no stamp duty is payable on the conveyance; and
 - (b) the Commissioner must, on application by the person to whom the property is reconveyed, refund the duty paid on the prior conveyance.

61—Method or estimating value of consideration where consideration consists of shares

Where the consideration or part of the consideration for a conveyance chargeable with ad valorem duty consists of shares or debentures to be issued by a company, or a contract to issue such shares or debentures, the market value of the shares or debentures shall be taken as the value of the consideration or part.

Exceptions—

- (3) An instrument that gives effect to, or acknowledges, evidences or records a transaction that is dutiable under this section is dutiable as a conveyance of a notional interest in the land.
 - (4) The value of the notional interest acquired as a result of the transaction is determined as follows—
 - (a) if the person acquires a right to exclusive possession of land—the value of the notional interest is equivalent to the value of an unencumbered estate in fee simple in the land;

- (b) in any other case—the value of the notional interest is a proportion of the value of an unencumbered estate in fee simple in the land reflecting the more limited extent of the possessory right.

64—Consideration in case of lease

In the case of a lease for which any consideration other than the rent reserved may be paid or agreed to be paid, the amount of the other consideration shall be deemed the consideration for the conveyance on sale.

65—Where consideration consists of real or personal property

Where the consideration or any part of the consideration for a conveyance on sale consists of any real or personal property other than money, the market value of the real or personal property at the date of the sale shall be taken as the value of the consideration or part of the consideration.

66—Where consideration is payable in instalments

Where the consideration or any part of the consideration for a conveyance on sale consists of money payable periodically for a definite period, so that the total amount to be paid can be previously ascertained, the total amount shall be taken as the consideration or part of the consideration.

- (2) This section does not apply to the following instruments:

 - (b) a conveyance of stock, implements or other chattels in a case where section 31A applies;
 - (c) a conveyance on sale of any financial product;

- (3) Where two or more instruments to which this section applies—
 - (a) arise from a single contract of sale; or
 - (b) together form, or arise from, substantially one transaction or one series of transactions, the instruments are chargeable with ad valorem duty calculated on the sum of the amounts by reference to which ad valorem duty on each of the instruments would, but for this subsection, have been calculated, and that duty will be apportioned to the various instruments as determined by the Commissioner.

- (4) Where by instruments that have been, or appear to have been, executed within 12 months of each other a person conveys property or interests in property to the same person (whether that person takes alone or with the same or different persons), it will be presumed, unless the Commissioner is satisfied to the contrary, that the instruments form one transaction or one series of transactions.
- (7) This section does not operate to reduce the duty payable on an instrument.

68—Duty in certain cases

- (3) Where a person, having contracted for the purchase of any property but not having obtained a conveyance, contracts to sell it to any other person and the property is in consequence conveyed immediately to the subpurchaser, the conveyance shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty as a conveyance for the consideration for the sale to the original purchaser and also as a conveyance for the consideration for the sale by the original purchaser to the subpurchaser, in the same manner as if the considerations were specified in separate instruments.
- (4) Where a person, having contracted for the purchase of any property but not having obtained a conveyance, contracts to sell the whole or any part or parts thereof to any other person and the property is in consequence conveyed by the original seller to different persons in parts or parcels, the conveyance of each part or parcel shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty as a conveyance for the consideration for the sale to the original purchaser and also as a conveyance for the consideration for the sale by the original purchaser to the subpurchaser, in the same manner as if the considerations were specified in separate instruments. The consideration for the sale to the original purchaser in respect of each part or parcel shall, for the purposes of this subsection, be ascertained by determining the ratio which the value of the part or parcel in question bears to the value of the whole property and shall be specified in the instrument of conveyance.
- (5) Where a subpurchaser takes an actual conveyance of the interest of the person immediately selling to him, which is chargeable with ad valorem duty as a conveyance for the consideration moving from him and is duly stamped accordingly, any conveyance to be afterwards made to him of the same property by the original seller shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty as a conveyance for the consideration for the sale to the original purchaser.

70—Evasion of duty

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), an instrument executed in order, either directly or indirectly, to avoid or evade the payment of the duty payable upon a conveyance on sale is void.
- (2) Where a third party relying in good faith on an instrument that is void by virtue of subsection (1) purports to acquire an interest in property subject to the instrument, the instrument shall, for the purposes of that transaction, be treated as valid, provided that it is duly stamped as a conveyance on sale.

71—Instruments chargeable as conveyances

- (1) The value for the purposes of this Act of the property conveyed by any conveyance operating as a voluntary disposition inter vivos shall be declared in the conveyance.

- (4) This subsection applies to any instrument that relates to land, a financial product or a unit under a unit trust scheme, or an interest in land, a financial product or a unit under a unit trust scheme.
- (4a) A reference in subsection (4) to a unit trust scheme does not include—

 - (c) the transfer, creation, surrender, renunciation, redemption, cancellation or extinguishment of a unit in a unit trust scheme that is taken under paragraph (a) to hold property beneficially is taken to be a transfer, creation, surrender, renunciation, redemption, cancellation or extinguishment (as appropriate) of a beneficial interest in that property.

- (5) Subject to subsection (6), an instrument effecting or acknowledging, evidencing or recording, any of the following transactions shall be deemed not to be a conveyance operating as a voluntary disposition inter vivos:
- (b) a transfer in specie of property of a company in liquidation made by the liquidator to a shareholder of the company;
 - (c) a transfer of any financial product issued by a public company to a person who takes as trustee, where—

 - (ii) the transfer is not in pursuance of a sale;
 - (d) a transfer of property for the purpose of effectuating the retirement of a trustee or the appointment of a new trustee, where the Commissioner is satisfied that the transfer is not part of a scheme for conferring a benefit, in relation to the trust property, upon the new trustee or any other person, whether as a beneficiary or otherwise, to the detriment of the beneficial interest of any person;
 - (da) a transfer of property subject to a registered managed investment scheme if the transfer is—
 - (i) from the responsible entity of the scheme to a person as primary custodian for the responsible entity; or
 - (ii) from a person as primary custodian for the responsible entity of the scheme to the responsible entity;

Exception to paragraph (da)—

Paragraph (da) does not apply to a transfer of property that is part of an arrangement under which—

 - (A) by virtue of an instrument duly stamped with ad valorem duty; or
 - (B) as a result of a transaction to which section 71E applies in relation to which a statement under that section has been lodged and ad valorem duty paid; or
 - (C) under 1 of the other paragraphs of this subsection (except paragraph (d)); and

- (iii) if the trust is a discretionary trust (other than a superannuation fund or a unit trust)—the person acquired the beneficial interest by virtue of a duly stamped instrument that is separate from the instrument under which he or she became an object of the trust;

Exception to paragraph (e)—

If v_1 exceeds $[v_2 - v_3]$, then the instrument is liable to ad valorem duty as if it were a transfer of property with a value equivalent to the excess. In this exception—v_1 is the net value of the property transferred;

v_2 is the value of the beneficiary's interest in the trust immediately before the transfer takes effect;

v_3 is the value of the beneficiary's interest in the trust immediately after the transfer takes effect.

- (f) a transfer to a natural person who is an object of a discretionary trust of property or a beneficial interest in property subject to the discretionary trust, where—

- (i) any variation of the terms of a trust, where the trust was created by an instrument that is duly stamped and the variation does not involve the creation or variation of any beneficial interest in property subject to the trust;
- (ia) a transaction under which there is a pro rata increase or diminution of the number of units held by the unitholders in a unit trust so that each unitholder's holding, expressed as a proportion of the aggregate number of units, remains unaffected by the transaction;
- (j) a voluntary disposition of property that is wholly for charitable or religious purposes;
- (k) a transfer of a prescribed class.

- (6) Subsection (5) does not apply in relation to a transfer of property or a beneficial interest in property to a person who has, prior to the transfer, a beneficial interest in the property but who takes the property or interest transferred to him as trustee under a further trust.
- (7) The following provisions apply for the purposes of subsection (5)(e) (including the exception to paragraph (e)):
- (a) the net value of property is calculated by subtracting from its unencumbered value the amount of any liability subject to which the property is transferred (other than a liability that is to be discharged after the transfer takes effect by the trustee or for some other reason is not finally assumed by the transferee);

 - (ii) land subject to the division is subsequently transferred to a beneficiary of the trust; and
 - (iii) the Commissioner is satisfied that the land the subject of the transfer was transferred to the beneficiary pursuant to the trust and is identifiable as property in which the beneficiary had a fixed beneficial interest contingent on, and arising from, the division,the transfer will be taken to have been a transfer to the beneficiary of property in which the beneficiary had a beneficial interest.
- (7a) An instrument effecting or acknowledging, evidencing or recording a transfer of property by a trustee to a self managed superannuation fund in the following circumstances will be taken not to be a conveyance operating as a voluntary disposition inter vivos:
- (a) the property was acquired for the trust or became subject to the trust—
 - (i) by virtue of an instrument duly stamped with ad valorem duty; or
 - (ii) as a result of a transaction to which section 71E applies in relation to which a statement under that section has been lodged and ad valorem duty paid; and
 - (b) the self managed superannuation fund financed the acquisition of the whole of the property by the trustee (either by providing money, obtaining a loan or other financial accommodation, or providing the consideration for the purchase in some other form); and
 - (c) the whole of the property being transferred has been held on trust for the benefit of the self managed superannuation fund.

- (8) A conveyance operating as a voluntary disposition inter vivos that transfers a potential beneficial interest in, or in relation to, property subject to a discretionary trust shall, subject to this Act, be chargeable with duty as if it transferred the beneficial interest in the property that the transferee would have if the discretion under the discretionary trust were so exercised as to confer upon him the greatest benefit in relation to that property that can be conferred upon him under the discretionary trust.
- (9) An instrument that acknowledges, evidences or records a transaction of a kind referred to in subsection (3)(a) (not being a copy within the meaning of section 19A that is duly stamped) shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have effected the transaction and to have been executed by the parties to the transaction at the same time as the transaction took place.
- (10) For the purposes of this Act, in determining the value of property transferred by a conveyance operating as a voluntary disposition inter vivos, no regard shall be had to the fact that the person to whom the property is transferred takes or is to hold the property subject to a trust or has a beneficial interest in the property.

- (a) where the private entity is a private company—a share or other interest that—

71EB—Direct interests

- (1) A person has a direct interest in a private entity if the person holds a share in the private entity.
- (2) A direct interest is to be expressed as a proportionate interest.

- (3) The proportionate interest is the highest of the following:
- (a) a percentage representing the proportion of votes that the person would be entitled to exercise (or control) at a general meeting of shareholders or unitholders assuming that all shareholders or unitholders exercised their voting rights;
 - (b) a percentage representing the extent the person is entitled to participate in dividends or distributions of income;
 - (c) a percentage representing the extent to which the person would be entitled to participate in distribution of assets on a winding up of the private entity.
- (4) The proportionate interest of a person is to be determined as if any power that the person has to increase the extent of an interest (by varying the constituent documents of the private entity or in any other way) had been exercised so as to maximise the relevant interest in the private entity.

71EC—Related entities

- (1) Two private entities are related entities if—
- (a) one has a direct interest in the other; or
 - (b) a series of such relationships can be traced between them through another or other related entities (intermediate entities).
- (2) If a private entity is related to another private entity by a relationship traced through an intermediate entity or intermediate entities, the private entity's proportionate interest in the other is calculated by multiplying the relevant fractions together and expressing the result as a percentage.

Example—

Entity A (a private company) holds a 75% proportionate interest in entity B (a private unit trust scheme) which in turn holds a 50% proportionate interest in entity C (a private company). In this case, the proportionate interest of entity A in entity C (insofar as it is traced through entity B) is 37.5%.

71ED—Indirect interests

- (1) If a person has a direct interest in a private entity (entity A) which is related to another private entity (entity B), the person has an indirect interest in entity B.
- (2) An indirect interest is to be expressed as a proportionate interest.
- (3) The proportionate interest is calculated by multiplying together—
- (a) a fraction representing the person's proportionate interest in entity A; and
 - (b) a fraction representing entity A's proportionate interest in entity B,
- and expressing the result as a percentage.

Example—

X holds a proportionate interest of $33\frac{1}{3}\%$ in entity A (a private company) which in turn holds a 75% proportionate interest in entity B (a private unit trust scheme) which in turn holds a 50% proportionate interest in entity C (a private company). In this case X's indirect interest in entity C is to be expressed as a proportionate interest of 12.5%

71EE—Notional interests

- (1) If a private entity owns a gaming machine business or an interest in a gaming machine business, a person who holds a direct or indirect interest in the private entity is taken to have a notional interest in the gaming machine business.
- (2) The value of the notional interest is calculated as follows:

$$V = p \times v_i$$

where—

p is a fraction representing the person's proportionate interest in the private entity;

v_i is the value of the gaming machine business or the interest in the gaming machine business (as the case requires).

71EF—Application of this Division

- (1) This Division applies to the following transactions—
 - (a) the transfer of an interest in a gaming machine business; or
 - (b) the transfer of a notional interest in a gaming machine business.
- (2) A transfer includes any transaction as a result of which the amount or value of the interest or notional interest of a person (the transferor) in a gaming machine business is diminished or extinguished and another person (the transferee) gains an interest or notional interest in the gaming machine business or the transferee's interest or notional interest increases in amount or value.

Example—

Suppose that a gaming machine business is operated by a private entity. The shares of a particular person in the private entity are redeemed or cancelled. This transaction is to be regarded as a transfer of the shareholder's notional interest to the remaining shareholders because their respective notional interests are increased by the value of the notional interest that has been extinguished by the redemption or cancellation.

- (3) However, a transfer does not include—
 - (a) a transaction by way of mortgage; or
 - (b) a transaction between members of the same family group by way of gift; or
 - (c) a transaction between members of the same family group for which there is no consideration of a commercial nature.

71EG—Imposition of surcharge

- (1) A gaming machine surcharge is imposed on a transaction to which this Division applies.
- (2) The surcharge is in addition to any other duty payable under this Act in respect of the transaction.
- (3) The surcharge is calculated as follows:

$$A = p \times 0.05 \times NGR$$

where—

A is the amount of the surcharge

p is —

- (a) if the whole of the gaming machine business is transferred—1;
- (b) in any other case—a fraction representing the relationship between the value of the interest or notional interest transferred and the value of the gaming machine business

NGR is the net gambling revenue derived from the business for the last 12 complete calendar months before the date of the transaction or, if the business was not carried on during that period or for the whole of that period, an amount determined by the Liquor and Gambling Commissioner to be reasonable having regard to net gambling revenue derived during that period from similar businesses.

71EH—Exempt transactions

- (1) A transaction is exempt from the surcharge if—
 - (a) no liability to duty is imposed (apart from this Division) in respect of the transaction (or an instrument by which it is effected); or
 - (b) the transaction is effected by a conveyance that is exempt from ad valorem duty under this Act.
- (2) The regulations may exempt transactions of a specified class from the surcharge.

Maximum penalty: $10 000.

- (2) The return must be in a form approved by the Commissioner and contain the following information—
 - (a) the names and addresses of the parties to the transaction; and
 - (b) the date of the transaction; and
 - (c) particulars of the transaction and the interest or notional interest transferred as a result of the transaction; and
 - (d) sufficient details to enable the calculation of the fraction representing the relationship between the value of the interest or notional interest transferred and the value of the gaming machine business; and
 - (e) details of the net gambling revenue for the last 12 calendar months before the date of the transaction; and
 - (f) other information required by the Commissioner.

71EJ—Recovery of duty

- (1) The Commissioner may recover a surcharge payable on a transaction to which this Division applies as a debt—
 - (a) from a party to the transaction; or

- (b) if the relevant gaming machine business is owned by a private entity—from the private entity.
- (2) If the Commissioner recovers the surcharge from a private entity, the private entity may recover the relevant amount from the parties to the transaction.

 - (iii) an interest in a partnership; and
 - (b) —
 - (i) the transaction is not effected, or not wholly effected, by an instrument on which ad valorem duty is chargeable; but
 - (ii) if the transaction had been effected, or wholly effected, by an instrument, the instrument would be chargeable with duty as a conveyance or as if it were a conveyance.
- (1a) For the purposes of this section (and for the calculation of the value of any property), a change in the ownership of a legal or equitable interest in a business will be taken to include a transfer of the goodwill of the business.

 - (c) a statement of the value of any property to which the transaction relates;
 - (d) a statement of any consideration that has passed or is to pass between the parties to the transaction.
- (4) Duty is payable on the statement as if it were a conveyance effecting the transaction to which it relates.
- (4a) A statement under this section will, for the purposes of this Act, be taken to be an instrument executed by the person required to lodge the statement on the date of the change in legal or equitable ownership of property effected by the transaction to which the statement relates.
- (5) Where a statement is lodged with the Commissioner under this section—
 - (a) any instrument that relates to the same transaction is not chargeable with duty to the extent to which duty has been paid on the statement; and

 - (a) a description of the property subject to the statutory transfer; and

- (b) the value of that property; and
 - (c) any other information required by the Commissioner.
- (3) Duty is payable on the statement as if it were a conveyance, executed by the parties to the statutory transfer, operating as a voluntary disposition inter vivos of the property subject to the statutory transfer.
- (4) If a statement is not lodged as required by this section within 2 months after the statutory transfer takes effect—
- (a) each party to the transfer is guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding $10 000; and

Division 10—Mortgages

Note—

No liability to duty arises in relation to the following:

- a mortgage, bond, debenture, covenant or warrant of attorney executed, or that first affects property in South Australia, on or after 1 July 2009;
- a mortgage executed, or that first affects property in South Australia, before 1 July 2009 if no advance secured under the mortgage is made before that day;
- an advance or further advance on or after 1 July 2009 under a mortgage first executed, or that first affects property in South Australia, before that day.

See Part 4A Division 2.

76—Interpretation

In this Act—

liability means a present, future or contingent monetary liability;

mortgage means—

- (a) an instrument creating, acknowledging, evidencing or recording a legal or equitable interest in, or charge over, real or personal property by way of security for a liability; or

- (b) an instrument creating, acknowledging, evidencing or recording a liability in respect of which an instrument of title is or is to be pledged or deposited by way of security.
- 1 A mortgage includes an instrument that would, assuming the fulfilment of a condition to which the instrument is subject, fall into one of the above categories.
 - 2 A mortgage includes an agreement that gives rise to a presumptive mortgage under section 9(3) of the National Credit Code in Schedule 1 to the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 of the Commonwealth.

77—Where mortgage consists of several instruments

If several instruments are necessary to make a mortgage and duty would, but for this section, be chargeable on more than one of those instruments, the duty shall be chargeable upon the principal instrument only and the other instruments shall not be liable to any duty, and the parties, with the approval of the Commissioner, may decide which is the principal instrument.

78—Security for stock, how to be charged

A security for the transfer or retransfer of any stock shall be chargeable with the same duty as a similar security for a sum of money equal in amount to the value of the stock; and a transfer or assignment of any such security shall be chargeable with the same duty as an instrument of the same description relating to a sum of money equal in amount to the value of the stock.

79—Mortgage securing future and contingent liabilities

- (1) A mortgage that extends to future or contingent liabilities is, if limited to a particular amount, chargeable with duty as if it were a security for that amount.
- (2) A mortgage that extends to future or contingent liabilities is, if not limited to a particular amount, chargeable with duty as follows:
 - (a) the mortgage is chargeable, in the first instance, with duty on the basis of an estimate of the highest amount to be secured (to be made on the assumption that all contingencies to which the mortgage or the liability is subject will actually happen); and
 - (b) if the amount of the liability secured by the mortgage subsequently exceeds the amount for which the mortgage has been previously stamped, the mortgage becomes chargeable with further duty as from the date when the liability was first exceeded and the amount of that further duty is to be calculated as follows:
 - (i) a fresh estimate is to be made in accordance with this section of the highest amount to be secured; and
 - (ii) duty is then to be calculated on the basis of that estimate and in all other respects as if the mortgage were a new and separate instrument made on the date when the liability was first exceeded; and

- (iii) the further duty is then to be calculated by subtracting the amount of duty already paid from the amount of duty calculated under subparagraph (ii).

Exceptions—

- 1 Paragraph (b) does not apply if the liability is wholly or partly denominated in a foreign currency and the amount for which the mortgage has been previously stamped is extended solely because of fluctuations in the rate of exchange.
 - 2 If a mortgage becomes chargeable with further duty under paragraph (b), and the rate of duty payable on the mortgage has increased since it was previously stamped, then the further duty is to be calculated by subtracting from the amount of duty calculated under paragraph (b)(ii) the amount that would have been already paid if duty had then been calculated and paid at the higher rate.
 - 3 If a mortgage becomes chargeable with further duty under paragraph (b), and the rate of duty payable on the mortgage has decreased since it was previously stamped, then the further duty is to be calculated by subtracting from the amount of duty calculated under paragraph (b)(ii) the amount that would have been already paid if duty had then been calculated and paid at the lower rate.
 - 4 If—
 - (a) a further advance is made under—
 - (i) a mortgage that is, until the further advance, wholly exempt from duty; or
 - (ii) a mortgage that would, assuming it had been submitted for stamping immediately before the further advance, have been wholly exempt from duty; and
 - (b) in consequence of the further advance, the mortgage ceases to be of a type that is, or has become, wholly exempt from duty, duty (or further duty) is calculated on the mortgage as if it secured only the further advance and, if duty was paid before the exemption took effect, as if no such payment had been made.

- (3) If a mortgage is chargeable with duty under subsection (2), the parties must, on submitting the mortgage for stamping or further stamping, make a fair estimate of the highest amount to be secured (to be made on the assumption that all contingencies to which the mortgage or the liability is subject will actually happen).
- (4) The Commissioner may accept the parties' estimate of the highest amount to be secured or, if dissatisfied with that estimate, substitute the Commissioner's own estimate of that amount, for the purposes of determining the amount of duty or further duty with which the mortgage is chargeable.

- (5) The Commissioner has a discretion, in the case of a mortgage securing a contingent liability, to permit the mortgage to be stamped for an amount that is less than the full amount of that liability, but, if the contingency subsequently happens, further duty becomes chargeable on the mortgage as from the date of the happening of the contingency and the amount of that further duty is to be calculated as follows:
- (a) duty is to be calculated on the mortgage on the basis of the full amount of the liability as if the mortgage were a new and separate instrument made on the date of the happening of the contingency; and
 - (b) the further duty is then to be calculated by subtracting the amount of duty already paid from the amount of duty calculated under paragraph (a).
- (8) In this section references to an amount secured or to be secured by a mortgage are, if the mortgage secures both principal and interest or principal, interest, and rates taxes or other recurrent charges in respect of land, to be read as references to the principal only.

80—Security for repayment by periodical payments, how to be charged

A security for the payment of any rentcharge, annuity or other periodical payment, by way of repayment or in satisfaction or discharge of any loan, advance or payment intended to be so repaid, satisfied or discharged, shall be chargeable with the same duty as a similar security for the payment of the sum of money so lent, advanced or paid.

81—Transfers and further charges

- (1) No transfer of a duly stamped security and no security by way of further charge for money or stock added to money or stock previously secured by a duly stamped instrument shall be chargeable with any duty by reason of containing any further or additional security for the money or stock transferred or previously secured, or the interest or dividends thereon, or any new covenant, proviso, power, stipulation or agreement in relation thereto or any further assurance of the property comprised in the transferred or previous security.
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if the security is over, or relates to, land that is subject to the provisions of the Real Property Act 1886.

81B—Duty chargeable proportioned to value of South Australian property

- (1) A security that creates a charge on property in South Australia and property outside South Australia may, subject to this section, be stamped for less than the full amount ad valorem duty otherwise appropriate to the amount secured.
- (2) The amount for which the security is stamped must however be sufficient to satisfy the following formula:

$$\frac{A_1}{A_2} \geq \frac{V_1}{V_2}$$

Where

A_1 is the amount for which the security is stamped

A_2 is the amount on which ad valorem duty would, apart from this section, be chargeable

V_1 is the value of property situated in South Australia

V_2 is the total value of the property subject to the security.

- (3) A security stamped under this section is available as a security on property situated in South Australia for such amount only as the ad valorem duty denoted on the security extends to cover.
- (4) If a security does not create a charge on property in South Australia it may be stamped with a stamp indicating that no ad valorem duty is payable.

81C—Duty paid on one mortgage may be denoted as having been paid on another mortgage

- (1) The Commissioner may, upon the application of a party to a mortgage upon which duty has been paid, authorise the whole or a part of the duty paid upon the mortgage to be denoted as having been paid upon some other mortgage or mortgages if he is satisfied, upon the basis of such evidence as he may require—
 - (a) that the duty was paid upon the first mentioned mortgage instead of the other mortgage or mortgages as a result of an error on the part of a party to the mortgage or his agent; and
 - (b) that the parties to the first mentioned mortgage are the same as the parties to the other mortgage or mortgages; and
 - (c) that the first mentioned mortgage has not been acted upon or relied upon in any way as a security.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) must—
 - (a) be made in a form approved by the Commissioner; and
 - (b) be made not later than three months after the date on which duty was paid upon the first mentioned mortgage; and
 - (c) be accompanied by the prescribed charge.
- (3) The Commissioner may, upon an application under subsection (1), if he thinks it just to do so, waive payment of the prescribed charge.
- (4) The Commissioner may require any evidence given in support of an application under subsection (1) to be verified by statutory declaration.
- (5) Duty shall not be denoted as having been paid upon the other mortgage or mortgages in pursuance of subsection (1) unless the original and every copy of the first mentioned mortgage stamped under this Act has been produced to the Commissioner and dealt with in accordance with the regulations.
- (6) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) mortgagees that are related corporations shall be regarded as one and the same person; and
 - (b) corporations are related if they are related for the purposes of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

82—Unregistered mortgages protected by caveats

- (1) A caveat under the Real Property Act 1886 to protect an interest arising under an unregistered mortgage is, if the unregistered mortgage is liable to stamp duty and has not been produced for stamping, liable to stamp duty.
- (2) The amount of duty chargeable on a caveat to which subsection (1) applies is the same as would be payable on the mortgage if produced for stamping.
- (3) If—
 - (a) stamp duty is paid on a caveat in respect of a mortgage that has not been stamped; and
 - (b) the mortgage is subsequently produced for stamping, the mortgage is not chargeable with duty to the extent to which duty in respect of the mortgage has been paid on the caveat.

82A—Repeal of Division

- (1) After 1 July 2009, the Governor may, by proclamation, fix a date for the repeal of this Division and Schedule 2 clause 11.

 - (b) unless the instrument is duly stamped under this Act or is, under subsection (3), taken to have been duly stamped.

 - (ii) determine that the proportionate share of a partner will be represented in some other manner; and
 - (b) if paragraph (b) of subsection (5) applies, determine not to take loan capital into account if the Commissioner is satisfied that the loan was entered into as part of a genuine business arrangement and not as an arrangement to avoid or reduce duty under this Part.
- (7) Subsections (4) and (5) do not limit the operation of any other section of this Act (but not so as to impose double duty with respect to the same transaction).

 - (b) if the Commissioner is satisfied that the location of the goods has been changed in order to obtain a reduction in duty under this Part—the circumstances that existed immediately before the change in location.

92—Land assets

- (1) A land asset is an interest in land other than—
 - (a) a mortgage, lien or charge; or
 - (b) an interest under a warrant or writ.
- (2) A local land asset is a land asset consisting of an interest in land in South Australia.
- (3) A relevant entity's interest in land will be taken to include an interest in anything fixed to the land, including anything—
 - (a) separately owned from the land other than where the separation of ownership occurs by virtue of or as a result of the operation of another Act or law; or
 - (b) fixed to the land but notionally severed or considered to be legally separate to the land by virtue of or as a result of the operation of another Act or law (so that a separation by another Act for the purposes of that Act will not affect the operation of this paragraph for the purposes of the imposition and calculation of duty under this Part).
- (4) In connection with the operation of subsection (3)—
 - (a) the subsection applies to all items fixed to the land whether or not they constitute fixtures at law; and
 - (b) all fixtures at law will be taken to be within the application of the subsection.
- (5) In addition—
 - (a) in connection with the operation of subsection (3)(a), if the Commissioner is satisfied that, at a relevant time, it was not part of an arrangement to avoid duty under this Part that an item was separately owned from the land, the Commissioner may determine that an entity's interest in land will not be taken to include an interest in the item; and
 - (b) in connection with the operation of subsection (3)(b), an entity's interest in land will not be taken to include an interest in an item which is owned by another entity unless—
 - (i) the relevant entity and the other entity are related entities and—
 - (A) the relevant entity holds a significant interest in the other entity or vice versa; or

- (B) a chain of significant interest can be traced between the relevant entity and the other entity; or
- (ii) a person or group holds a significant interest in both the relevant entity and the other entity.

93—Direct interests

- (1) A person has a direct interest in a relevant entity if the person holds a share or unit in the entity.
- (2) A direct interest that a person or group has in a relevant entity is to be expressed as a proportionate interest.
- (3) The proportionate interest is the highest of the following:
 - (a) a percentage representing the proportion of votes that the person or members of the group would be entitled to exercise (or control) at a general meeting of shareholders or unitholders assuming that all shareholders or unitholders exercised their voting rights;
 - (b) a percentage representing the extent the person or members of the group are entitled to participate in dividends or distributions of income;
 - (c) a percentage representing the extent to which the person or members of the group would be entitled to participate in the distribution of assets on a winding up of the relevant entity.
- (4) The proportionate interest of a person or group in a relevant entity is to be determined as if any power that the person has, or the members of the group or any of them have, to increase the extent of an interest (by varying the constituent documents of the relevant entity or in any other way) had been exercised so as to maximise the relevant interest in the relevant entity.

94—Related entities

- (1) Two relevant entities are related entities if—
 - (a) 1 has a direct interest in the other; or
 - (b) a series of such relationships can be traced between them through another or other related entities (intermediate entities).
- (2) If a relevant entity is related to another relevant entity by a relationship traced through an intermediate entity or intermediate entities, the relevant entity's proportionate interest in the other is calculated by multiplying the relevant fractions together and expressing the result as a percentage.

Example—

Entity A (a listed company) holds a 75% proportionate interest in entity B (a private unit trust scheme) which in turn holds a 50% proportionate interest in entity C (a private company). In this case the proportionate interest of entity A in entity C (insofar as it is traced through entity B) is 37.5%.

95—Indirect interests

- (1) If a person or group has a direct interest in a private company or a private unit trust scheme (entity A) which is related to another private company or a private unit trust scheme (entity B), the person or group has an indirect interest in entity B.

- (2) An indirect interest that a person or group has in an entity is to be expressed as a proportionate interest.
- (3) The proportionate interest is calculated by multiplying together—
 - (a) a fraction representing the proportionate interest of the person or group in entity A; and
 - (b) a fraction representing entity A's proportionate interest in entity B, and expressing the result as a percentage.

Example—

X holds a proportionate interest of 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ % in entity A which in turn holds a 75% proportionate interest in entity B which in turn holds a 50% proportionate interest in entity C. In this case the X's indirect interest in entity C is to be expressed as a proportionate interest of 12.5%.

96—Notional interest in assets of related entity

- (1) A relevant entity has a notional interest in an asset held beneficially by a private company or a private unit trust scheme if—
 - (a) the relevant entity holds a significant interest in the private company or private unit trust scheme; or
 - (b) a chain of significant interests can be traced between the relevant entity and the private company or private unit trust scheme.

Example—

Entity A holds a 75% proportionate interest in entity B which in turn holds a 60% proportionate interest in entity C which in turn holds a 40% proportionate interest in entity D. In this case entity A has a notional interest in the assets held beneficially by entity B and entity C but not in the assets held by entity D.

- (2) The value of the notional interest is calculated as follows:

$$V = V_1 \times P$$

Where—

V_1 is the unencumbered value of the asset

P is a fraction representing the proportionate interest of the relevant entity in the private company or private unit trust scheme.

97—Widely held trusts

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a widely held trust is a unit trust scheme which has not less than 300 unitholders none of whom, individually or together with any associated person, is entitled to more than 20% of the units in the trust.
- (2) If a registered unitholder in a unit trust scheme holds units as a trustee for 2 or more trusts, the unitholder is to be treated as a separate registered unitholder in relation to each of those trusts and the units held under each trust are to be treated as a separate unit holding.
- (3) However, a trustee is not to be treated as a separate registered unitholder in relation to 2 or more trusts if, as separate unitholders in relation to those trusts, they would be associated with each other.

98—Land holding entity

A relevant entity is a land holding entity if the unencumbered value of the underlying local land assets of the relevant entity is $1 000 000 or more.

99—Determination of value

- (1) In this section—
relevant asset means any underlying land assets or any South Australian goods.
- (2) The value of any relevant asset under this Part is to be determined according to the market value of the relevant asset at the time that the question of value falls to be determined.
- (3) Where no evidence of the value of a relevant asset or interest acquired or held is furnished to the Commissioner for the purposes of this Part, or the evidence so furnished is, in the Commissioner's opinion, unsatisfactory, the Commissioner may cause a valuation of the asset or interest to be made by some person appointed by the Commissioner and may apply any such valuation for the purposes of this Part.
- (4) The Commissioner may, having regard to the merits of the case, charge the whole or a part of the expenses of, or incidental to, the making of a valuation pursuant to subsection (3) to any person liable to pay duty under this Part in relation to an acquisition of the relevant asset or any interest.
- (5) A reference in this section to the acquisition of an asset or interest extends to a notional acquisition under this Part.
- (6) Any determination of market value under this Part must be based on the unencumbered value.
- (7) In addition, when determining the value of an asset or interest—
 - (a) it is to be assumed that a hypothetical purchaser would, when negotiating the price for any asset or interest, have knowledge of all existing information relating to the asset or interest; and
 - (b) no account is to be taken of any amount that a hypothetical purchaser would have to expend to reproduce, or otherwise acquire a permanent right of access to and use of, existing information relating to the asset or interest.

Division 2—Dutiable transactions

100—General principle of liability to duty

- (1) A person or group that acquires a prescribed interest, or increases a prescribed interest, in a land holding entity notionally acquires an interest in the underlying local land assets of the entity and is liable to duty in respect of the notional acquisition.
- (2) The following transactions are therefore dutiable:
 - (a) a transaction as a result of which a person or group acquires or has a prescribed interest in a land holding entity; or
 - (b) a transaction as a result of which a person or group that has a prescribed interest in a land holding entity increases its prescribed interest in the entity.

- (3) A transaction is dutiable under this Part even though the person or group that has a prescribed interest, or increases a prescribed interest, in the land holding entity as a result of the transaction—
- (a) is not a party to the transaction; or
 - (b) has a passive role in the transaction.
- (4) For example, any of the following is capable of being a dutiable transaction:
- (a) an allotment of shares in a company or units in a unit trust scheme; or
 - (b) the variation or abrogation of rights attaching to shares in a company or units in a unit trust scheme; or
 - (c) the redemption, surrender or cancellation of shares in a company or units in a unit trust scheme; or
 - (d) the addition or retirement of a partner in a partnership with assets comprising shares in a company or units in a unit trust scheme.
- (5) However, if a relevant entity acquires a local land asset and, as a result of the acquisition, becomes a land holding entity, and conveyance duty is paid in respect of the transaction, the transaction is not dutiable under this Part.
- (6) If a person who acquires or holds an interest in a land holding entity is a trustee for 2 or more trusts, any interest in the entity acquired or held by the person for different trusts are to be treated as if they were acquired or held by separate persons.

101—Aggregation of interests

- (1) If a person or group acquires an interest in a land holding entity that, when aggregated with an interest in the entity acquired by another person as a result of an associated transaction on the same day or within the preceding 3 years, amounts to a prescribed interest in the entity, then for the purposes of this Part—
- (a) the person or group acquires that prescribed interest in the entity; and
 - (b) the person or group and any other person acquiring an interest in the entity as a result of the associated transaction are jointly and severally liable for the payment of duty in respect of the acquisition.
- (2) In this section—
- associated transaction, in relation to the acquisition of an interest in a land holding entity by a person or associated person, means an acquisition of an interest in the entity by another person in circumstances in which—
- (a) those persons are acting in concert; or
 - (b) the acquisitions form, evidence, give effect to or arise from substantially 1 arrangement, 1 transaction or 1 series of transactions.

102—Value of notional interest acquired as a result of dutiable transaction

- (1) If a person or group has, as a result of a dutiable transaction, a prescribed interest in a land holding entity, the value of the notional interest acquired in the entity's underlying local land assets is determined as follows:

$$NV = TV \times P$$

Where—

NV is the value to be of the notional interest acquired

TV is the total unencumbered value of all the entity's underlying local land assets

P is the fraction representing the proportionate interest of the person or group in the entity.

- (2) If a person or group that has a prescribed interest in a land holding entity increases its prescribed interest as a result of a dutiable transaction, the value of the notional interest acquired in the entity's underlying local land assets is determined as follows:

Where—

NV is the value to be ascertained

TV is the total unencumbered value of all the entity's underlying local land assets

P₁ is the fraction representing the proportionate interest in the entity before the increase

P₂ is the fraction representing the proportionate interest in the entity after the increase.

102A—Calculation of duty

- (1) The duty in respect of a transaction under which a person or group acquires a prescribed interest in a land holding entity is to be equivalent to—
- (a) in the case of an entity that is a private company or a private unit trust—the duty payable on a conveyance of land with an unencumbered value equivalent to—
 - (i) the value of the acquirer's notional interest in the entity's underlying local land assets; plus
 - (ii) the value of the acquirer's notional interest in the entity's underlying South Australian goods (on the assumption that this interest corresponds to the interest in the entity's underlying local land assets);
 - (b) in the case of an entity that is a listed company or a public unit trust scheme—10% of the duty payable on a conveyance of land with an unencumbered value equivalent to—
 - (i) the value of the acquirer's notional interest in the entity's underlying local land assets; plus
 - (ii) the value of the acquirer's notional interest in the entity's underlying South Australian goods (on the assumption that this interest corresponds to the interest in the entity's underlying local land assets).
- (2) Duty on a dutiable transaction under which a person or group increases its prescribed interest in a land holding entity is to be calculated as follows:

$$D = d_1 - d_2$$

Where—

D is the amount of the duty

d_1 is the amount that would have been payable if the person or group had acquired the whole of its interest in a single transaction at the time of the increase d_2 is the amount that would have been payable if the person or group had acquired its pre-existing interest in a single transaction at the time of the increase.

- (3) To avoid doubt, duty under subsection (2) is to include duty that relates to land plus duty that relates to goods.
- (4) If—
- (a) a person or group holds an interest in a relevant entity; and
 - (b) the relevant entity then acquires land so as to become a land holding entity; and
 - (c) the acquisition under paragraph (b) was subject to ad valorem duty that has been duly paid; and
 - (d) the person or group acquires a prescribed interest in the entity as a land holding entity, the duty calculated under subsection (1) is to be reduced in accordance with the following formula:

$$D = d_1 - d_2$$

Where—

D is the amount of the duty to be paid on account of this subsection

d_1 is the amount that would have been payable if the person or group had acquired the whole of its interest in a single transaction at the time of the acquisition

d_2 is the amount that would be payable on a conveyance of an interest in the relevant land corresponding to the interest held by the person or group at the time of the acquisition under paragraph (b) relevant land is the total amount of land in South Australia that is held by the land holding entity at the time that the person or group acquires the prescribed interest under paragraph (d).

- (5) If any part of a prescribed interest in a land holding entity was acquired by the relevant person or group more than 3 years before the date of a dutiable transaction (the earlier acquisition), the duty calculated under subsection (1) is to be rebated by a percentage representing the extent of the earlier acquisition as a proportion of the prescribed interest as a whole.
- (6) Insofar as subsections (4) and (5) may both apply to the acquisition of a prescribed interest in a particular land holding entity by a person or group, the provision that provides the higher benefit to the person or group will apply.

- (7) If a person or group acquires or increases a prescribed interest in a land holding entity through the acquisition of financial products or units in a private unit trust scheme and duty has been paid under this Act or a corresponding law in respect of the transaction for the acquisition of the financial products or units (the relevant transaction), the duty calculated under this section is to be reduced by the sum of the amounts severally calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$R = \frac{A}{B} \times C$$

Where—

R is the amount of the reduction

A is the total unencumbered value of all of the entity's underlying local land assets and underlying South Australian goods

B is the total unencumbered value of all of the entity's assets held in South Australia, a corresponding jurisdiction or any other place

C is the sum of the duty paid under this Act or a corresponding law in respect of the relevant transaction.

- (8) In subsection (7)—
corresponding jurisdiction means any jurisdiction where a corresponding law applies.
- (9) The Commissioner may, if the Commissioner considers it to be fair and reasonable to do so, in the circumstances of a particular case, exclude specified goods, or specified classes of goods, from the calculation of duty under this section.

Division 3—Payment and recovery of duty

102B—Acquisition statement

- (1) If a dutiable transaction occurs, the person or group that acquires or increases its prescribed interest in the land holding entity must, within 2 months after the date of the dutiable transaction—
- lodge a return with the Commissioner in a manner and form determined by the Commissioner; and
 - pay the relevant amount of duty.
- Maximum penalty: $10 000.
- (2) The return must contain the following information:
- the name and address of the person, or the name and address of each member of the group, that has the prescribed interest or has increased its prescribed interest as a result of the transaction; and
 - the date of the transaction; and
 - particulars of—
 - the interest acquired as a result of the transaction; and
 - any other interest held and the dates and circumstances of their acquisition; and

- (iii) the underlying land assets and the underlying local land assets of the land holding entity as at the date of the transaction; and
 - (iv) the underlying assets of the land holding entity as at the date of the transaction; and
 - (v) the underlying South Australian goods of the land holding entity; and
 - (vi) amounts of duty paid under this Act or a corresponding law in relation to the acquisition of the prescribed interest in the land holding entity; and
- (d) other information required by the Commissioner.

102C—Recovery from entity

- (1) If a person or group fails to pay duty as required under this Part, the Commissioner may recover the duty, as a debt, from the relevant entity.
- (2) Instead of, or as well as, proceeding against the relevant entity for recovery of duty as a debt, the Commissioner may register a charge on any of its land for the amount of the unpaid duty.
- (3) The Commissioner must give written notice of the registration of a charge under this section to—
 - (a) the registered proprietor of the land; and
 - (b) the person in default, or each member of the group in default.
- (4) A charge under this section will rank as a first charge on the relevant land.
- (5) If the duty remains unpaid 6 months after the registration of the charge, the Commissioner may apply to the District Court for an order for the sale of the land.
- (6) On an application under subsection (5), the Court may make an order for sale of the land by public auction and, in that event, the proceeds of sale are to be applied as follows:
 - (a) firstly—in payment of the costs of the sale and other costs of proceeding under this section; and
 - (b) secondly—in discharging the liability to duty; and
 - (c) thirdly—in discharging other liabilities secured by registered instrument; and
 - (d) fourthly—in discharging other liabilities as directed by the Court; and
 - (e) fifthly—in payment to the registered proprietor of the land immediately before the completion of the sale.
- (7) If the Commissioner recovers duty under this section, the relevant entity may recover the amount paid to, or recovered from, the entity from the person or persons principally liable for the payment of the duty.

Division 4—Miscellaneous

102D—Valuation of interest under contract or option to purchase land

If an interest in land consists of an interest arising under a contract or option to purchase the land, the interest is to be valued, for the purposes of this Part, by subtracting from the market value of the land the amount that the purchaser under the contract or the holder of the option would be required to pay in order to complete the purchase.

102E—Separation of statutory funds held by life companies

- (1) If a person who acquires an interest in a land holding entity is a life company, any interests in the land holding entity acquired or held by the life company for different statutory funds are to be treated as if they were acquired or held independently by separate persons.
- (2) If a life company acquires or holds an interest in a land holding entity otherwise than for a statutory fund, that interest is to be treated as if it were acquired or held independently of, and by a separate person to, any interest acquired or held by the life company for a statutory fund.
- (3) For the purposes of this Part, a life company, its statutory funds, and any trustee, are not to be treated as associates except in a case where the Commissioner determines that particular dealings between them (in any combination) form substantially 1 arrangement.
- (4) In this section—

life company has the same meaning as in the Life Insurance Act 1995 of the Commonwealth; statutory fund has the same meaning as in the Life Insurance Act 1995 of the Commonwealth.

102F—Exempt transactions and related matters

- (1) A transaction under which a person or a group acquires an interest in a land holding entity is exempt from duty under this Part if it takes place in circumstances in which a conveyance of an interest in the underlying local land assets would not attract ad valorem duty.

Example—

Suppose that A is entitled under the will of B to 60% of the shares in X Pty Ltd, a land holding entity, owning land in the State valued at $2m. A's acquisition of the shares on distribution of the estate is exempt from duty because a conveyance of the land itself would, if it occurred in these circumstances (ie on distribution of the estate), be exempt from ad valorem duty.

- (2) The following transactions are exempt from duty under this Part:
 - (a) an acquisition of an interest in a land holding entity that takes place solely as a result of the making of a compromise or arrangement with the creditors of the land holding entity under Part 5.1 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth;
 - (b) a transaction exempted by regulation from duty under this Part.

- (3) If—
- (a) a transaction provides for—
 - (i) the acquisition of all shares or units in a relevant entity from a person who holds, or from members of a group who together hold, those shares or units; or
 - (ii) the acquisition of shares or units in a relevant entity where the parties to the transaction are the members of the same group; and
 - (b) the underlying land assets are used wholly or mainly for the business of primary production; and
 - (c) the Commissioner is satisfied—
 - (i) in a case where paragraph (a)(i) applies—that the transaction forms part of a sale as a going concern of the undertaking carried out on the land; and
 - (ii) in a case where paragraph (a)(ii) applies—that the undertaking carried out on the land is to continue without any change, or any significant change, then the value of any underlying South Australian goods held or used in connection with the undertaking carried out on the land that would be dutiable under this Part on account of the transaction but for this subsection will not be taken into account for the purposes of the calculation and imposition of duty under this Part.

102G—Multiple incidences of duty

- (1) If it is possible under this Part to assess the incidence of duty in different ways in respect of the same transaction, duty will be assessed so as to maximise the return to the revenue but not so as to extend the incidence of duty beyond a single person or group identified in the assessment.
- (2) If a person or a group acquires a prescribed interest in a land holding entity, and another person or group later acquires a prescribed interest in the land holding entity without diminishing the former prescribed interest, the Commissioner may, if satisfied that it is just and equitable to do so, exempt the later acquisition, wholly or partly, from duty under this Part.

Example—

Suppose the shares of X Pty Ltd, a land holding entity, are divided into Class A and Class B. The Class A shares confer rights to dividends but no rights to share in the distribution of assets on winding up of the company. The Class B shares confer no rights to dividends but do confer rights to share in the distribution of assets on the winding up of the company. Suppose that A acquires all the Class A shares and pays duty under this Part on the acquisition of a prescribed interest in the company. Suppose that B then acquires all the Class B shares. In this case, the Commissioner could, if satisfied that it would be just and equitable to do so, grant relief under the above subsection.

- (3) If—
- (a) a person holds a prescribed interest in a land holding entity and a group of which the person is a member acquires all or part of that prescribed interest from that person; or

- (b) a person who is a member of a group acquires an interest in a land holding entity from another member of the group who holds a prescribed interest in the land holding entity, the Commissioner may, if satisfied that it is just and equitable to do so, exempt the later acquisition, wholly or partly, from duty under this Part.

- (4) If a group holds a prescribed interest in a land holding entity and a person or group that is a member or subgroup of the group acquires all or part of that prescribed interest from the group, the Commissioner may, if satisfied that it is just and equitable to do so, exempt the later acquisition, wholly or partly, from duty under this Part.

Part 4A—Abolition of various duties

Division 1—Abolition of duty on rental business

103—Abolition of duty on rental business (1 July 2009)

- (1) No liability to duty arises in relation to an amount received in respect of rental business (within the meaning of Part 3 Division 2) after 30 June 2009.
- (2) Despite the provisions of Part 3 Division 2, registration under that Division is not required or to be granted on or after 22 July 2009 and the registration of a person who is registered immediately before 22 July 2009 is to be taken to have been cancelled on that date.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt, a person is not entitled to a refund of duty paid in relation to an amount received in respect of rental business before 1 July 2009 only because the contract or agreement under which the amount was received expires on or after that date.

Division 2—Abolition of duty on mortgages

104—Abolition of duty on mortgages (1 July 2009)

- (1) No liability to duty arises under Schedule 2 clause 11 in relation to—

 - (b) a mortgage executed, or that first affects property in this State, before 1 July 2009 if no advance secured under the mortgage is made before that day; or
 - (c) an advance or further advance on or after 1 July 2009 under a mortgage executed, or that first affects property in this State, before that day.
- (2) Despite section 16, if a mortgage, bond, debenture, covenant or warrant of attorney executed before 1 July 2009 but produced to the Commissioner for the purpose of being stamped on or after that day is dutiable under Schedule 2 clause 11, the duty will be calculated according to the rates in force as at the day on which the instrument became liable to duty (or further duty).

Part 5—Miscellaneous provisions

106—Spoiled or unused stamps

- (1) Subject to any regulations made under this Act, the Commissioner may, on the application of any person in possession of stamps or stamped material unused or rendered useless by being inadvertently spoiled, give to that person, in lieu of the stamps or stamped material so spoiled or unused, other stamps (of the same or another denomination) of the same value or, at his discretion, money of the same value, deducting the proper allowance on purchase of stamps of the same description; but the Commissioner may, if he thinks it just to do so, refrain from making any such deduction.
- (2) For the purposes of Part 4 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996—
 - (a) an application under this section is to be taken to be an application for a refund; and
 - (b) the giving of stamps or money under this section is to be taken to be the making of a refund.
- (3) In this section—

stamp includes an adhesive stamp purchased or otherwise obtained from the Commissioner or a distributor of stamps under this Act before the commencement of Part 5 of the Statutes Amendment and Repeal (Taxation Administration) Act 2008; stamped includes having an adhesive stamp affixed before the commencement of Part 5 of the Statutes Amendment and Repeal (Taxation Administration) Act 2008.

107—Transfer of property to correct error

- (1) If the Commissioner is satisfied, on application by a party to an instrument submitted for stamping, that the sole purpose of the instrument is to reverse or correct a disposition of property resulting from an error in an earlier instrument, the Commissioner may grant relief from stamp duty under this section.
- (2) The Commissioner may require the applicant to provide such information (verified if the Commissioner thinks fit by statutory declaration) as the Commissioner thinks necessary to decide the application.
- (3) If the Commissioner grants relief from stamp duty under this section, the duty chargeable on the instrument is the amount (if any) by which the duty that would have been paid on the earlier instrument if it had been correctly made in the first instance exceeds the amount of duty actually paid on that instrument.

108—Penalties for certain offences

- (1) Any person who—
 - (a) forges any die or stamp;
 - (b) impresses any material with a forged die;
 - (c) cuts, tears or in any way removes from any material any stamp with intent to make fraudulent use of the stamp or of any part thereof;
 - (d) mutilates any stamp with intent to make fraudulent use of any part thereof; shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment for a term of not less than one year and not more than seven years.

- (2) Any person who causes to be done, or knowingly assists in doing, any of the acts mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (h) shall be deemed to be guilty of the principal offence and shall be punishable accordingly.

111—Remedy for misappropriation

- (1) The Supreme Court may, upon application by, or on behalf of, the Commissioner, grant a rule requiring any person who has received money payable by way of duty, or the executor or administrator of any such person, to show cause why he should not deliver to the Commissioner an account upon affidavit of any duty or sum of money received by that person, executor or administrator and why it should not be forthwith paid to the Commissioner.
- (2) The Court may make absolute such a rule and enforce by attachment or otherwise the payment of any such duty or sum of money as appears to be due, together with costs.

112—Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make such regulations as are contemplated by, or necessary or expedient for the purposes of, this Act.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may—
 - (a) be of general or limited application; and
 - (b) require the use of forms approved by the Commissioner for documents required or authorised to be used for the purposes of this Act or the regulations; and
 - (c) leave any other matter to be determined, varied or regulated according to the discretion of the Commissioner; and

2—No refund of duty on cheque forms

Despite any other provision of this Act or the Taxation Administration Act 1996, no refund of duty on cheque forms is allowed.

- (6) An interest acquired in a land holding entity on or after 1 July 2011 as a result of an agreement entered into, or option executed, before 1 July 2011 is to be treated, for the purposes of this section, as if it were acquired before 1 July 2011 (and accordingly old Part 4 will apply to the relevant acquisition but the acquisition may still be counted for the purposes of determining whether a prescribed interest is acquired or held under new Part 4 on or after 1 July 2011).
