Legislative history

The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

This Act may be cited as the Summary Offences Act 1953.

4—Interpretation

(1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—the Commissioner means the Commissioner of Police or the person for the time being acting in the office of Commissioner of Police;

major offence means—

- (a) an offence attracting a penalty or maximum penalty of life imprisonment or imprisonment for at least seven years; or
- (b) an offence against section 86A(1) of the Criminal Law Consolidation Act 1935;

minor means a person under the age of 18 years;

motor vehicle has the same meaning as in the Motor Vehicles Act 1959;

prostitute includes any male person who prostitutes his body for fee or reward;

public place includes—

- (a) a place to which free access is permitted to the public, with the express or tacit consent of the owner or occupier of that place; and
- (b) a place to which the public are admitted on payment of money, the test of admittance being the payment of money only; and
- (c) a road, street, footway, court, alley or thoroughfare which the public are allowed to use, notwithstanding that that road, street, footway, court, alley or thoroughfare is on private property;

public venue means a place where members of the public are gathered for an entertainment or an event or activity of any kind, whether admission is open, procured by the payment of money or restricted to members of a club or a class of persons with some other qualification or characteristic, but does not include a church or place of public worship;

senior police officer means a police officer of or above the rank of inspector;

serious and organised crime offence has the same meaning as in the Criminal Law Consolidation Act 1935;

telephone includes any telecommunication device for the transmission of speech;

to tattoo means to insert into or through the skin any colouring material designed to leave a permanent mark.

- (2) In proceedings for an offence in which the court is authorised by this Act to award damages or compensation, or to order the forfeiture of property or the doing of any act, the award or order may be made in addition to the penalty (if any) imposed by the court.

5—Proof of lawful authority and other matters

Subject to any provision to the contrary, where this Act provides that an act done without lawful authority, without reasonable cause, without reasonable excuse, without lawful excuse or without consent constitutes an offence, the prosecution need not prove the absence of lawful authority, reasonable cause, reasonable excuse, lawful excuse or consent, and the onus is upon the defendant to prove any such authority, cause, excuse or consent upon which he or she relies.

Part 2—Offences with respect to police operations

6—Assaulting and hindering police

- (1) A person who assaults a police officer in the execution of the officer's duty is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for 2 years.
- (2) A person who hinders or resists a police officer in the execution of the officer's duty is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: $2 500 or imprisonment for 6 months.
- (3) Upon convicting a person for an offence against this section, the court may order the convicted person to pay to the police officer against whom the offence was committed such sum as the court thinks just as compensation for—
 - (a) damage caused by the defendant to property belonging to the officer or to the Crown;
 - (b) bodily injury caused by the defendant to the officer.
- (4) Compensation so awarded in respect of damage to property of the Crown must be paid by the police officer to the Treasurer in aid of the Consolidated Account.

- (1) A prosecution cannot be instituted under this Part without the written consent of the Commissioner or a senior police officer.
- (2) An apparently genuine document produced by the prosecutor and purporting to authorise a prosecution under this Part and purporting to be signed by the Commissioner or a senior police officer will be accepted, in the absence of proof to the contrary, as evidence of the consent of the Commissioner or senior police officer to the prosecution.

31—Determination of tenancy of brothels

- (1) Upon the conviction of the tenant, lessee or occupier of premises for permitting the premises, or a part of the premises, to be used as a brothel, the landlord or lessor may require the person so convicted to assign the lease or other contract under which the premises are held to some person approved by the landlord or lessor (which approval must not be unreasonably withheld).
- (2) If a person so convicted fails within one month to assign the lease or contract in accordance with a requirement made under subsection (1), the landlord or lessor may determine the lease or other contract, but without prejudice to any rights or remedies of a party to the lease or contract in respect of anything done or omitted before the determination of the lease or contract.
- (3) If the landlord or lessor, after such a conviction has been brought to his or her notice, fails to exercise the rights under subsection (1) and subsequently during the subsistence of the lease or contract the premises are again used as a brothel, the landlord or lessor will be taken to have permitted the premises to be used as a brothel.
- (4) Where a landlord or lessor determines a lease or other contract under the powers conferred by this section and subsequently grants another lease or enters into another contract of tenancy to, with or for the benefit of the same person, without causing to be inserted in the lease or contract reasonable and adequate provisions for preventing the premises from being used as a brothel, he or she will, if the premises are subsequently used as a brothel, be taken to have permitted the premises to be used as a brothel.

32—Power of police to enter suspected brothels

The Commissioner or a senior police officer, or any other police officer authorised in writing by the Commissioner or a senior police officer, may at any time enter and search premises which he or she suspects on reasonable grounds to be a brothel.

Part 7—Indecent or offensive material

33—Indecent or offensive material

(1) In this section—

Maximum penalty: $20 000 or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (4) In proceedings for an offence against this section, the circumstances of the production, sale, exhibition, delivery or possession of material to which the charge relates and its use or intended use may be taken into account in determining whether the material was indecent or offensive material, but, if the material was inherently indecent or offensive material, the circumstances of its production, sale, exhibition, delivery or possession or its use or intended use cannot be taken to have deprived it of that character.
- (5) Despite the preceding provisions of this section—
- (a) no offence is committed by reason of the production, sale, exhibition, delivery or possession of material in good faith and for the advancement or dissemination of legal, medical or scientific knowledge; and
 - (b) no offence is committed by reason of the production, sale, exhibition, delivery or possession of material that constitutes, or forms part of, a work of artistic merit if, having regard to the artistic nature and purposes of the work as a whole, there is no undue emphasis on its indecent or offensive aspects.
- (6) A prosecution for an offence against this section cannot be commenced without the written consent of the Minister.
- (7) In deciding whether to consent to a prosecution under this section, the Minister must have regard to any relevant decision of the South Australian Classification Council.
- (8) In proceedings for an offence against this section, an apparently genuine document purporting to be signed by the Minister and to be a consent to a prosecution under this section will be accepted by the court, in the absence of proof to the contrary, as proof of that consent.

- (9) Upon finding a person guilty of an offence against this section, a court may, upon the application of the prosecutor or on its own initiative, order that indecent or offensive material to which the proceedings relate be forfeited to the Crown.
- (10) This section does not derogate from the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Act 1995.

35—Restriction on reports of immorality etc

- (1) A person must not—
 - (a) print, or cause to be printed; or
 - (b) offer for sale or sell, or cause to be offered for sale or sold; or
 - (c) have possession of for sale or distribution, a newspaper in which any one report—
 - (d) relating to legal proceedings involving questions of sexual immorality, unnatural vice or indecent conduct; or
 - (e) containing other material descriptive of, or relating to, sexual immorality, unnatural vice or indecent conduct, occupies more than 50 lines of 13 ems wide, or an equivalent space, in any kind of type, or carries a heading composed of type larger than 10 point capitals.
Maximum penalty: $2 500 or imprisonment for 6 months.
- (2) In this section—

legal proceedings includes sittings of Royal and other commissions of inquiry and of select committees of Parliament; newspaper means a copy of a periodical publication which is published at intervals not exceeding three months, or any part of such a copy.

- (3) For the purposes of this section, separate articles in the same newspaper relating to the same matter will be taken to form the one report, and all photographs illustrative of, or connected with, a report will be taken to form part of the report.
- (4) Subsection (1)(b) and (c) prohibit, within the State, the sale, offering for sale, causing to be offered for sale or sold, or having in possession for sale or distribution, of a newspaper containing a report contrary to subsection (1), whether the newspaper was printed or published within or outside the State and whether the report relates to legal proceedings and other matters taking place within or outside the State.
- (5) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against this section for the defendant to prove that the report to which the charge relates—
 - (a) was published at the direction of a court or other body conducting legal proceedings; or
 - (b) forms part of a genuine series of law reports that does not form part of any other publication and consists solely of reports of proceedings in courts of law; or
 - (c) is a publication of a technical character genuinely intended for circulation among members of the legal or medical professions.

- (6) A prosecution for an offence against this section cannot be instituted without the written consent of the Commissioner.
- (7) An apparently genuine document purporting to authorise a prosecution under this section and to be signed by the Commissioner will, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, be accepted by a court as proof of the consent of the Commissioner to the prosecution.

Part 8—Fraud, unlawful possession etc

38A—Sale of books and educational matter

- (1) A person who, in order to induce another person to purchase or to agree to purchase books or other educational matter, states, holds out or represents, directly or indirectly, that he or she is a representative of, or is in any way connected with, or has the approval of, the Minister responsible for administration of the Education and Early Childhood Services (Registration and Standards) Act 2011 or the Education Act 1972, an administrative unit of the Public Service responsible to that Minister for the administration of those Acts or any educational institution under the control of, or connected with, the Government of the State is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $2 500 or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (2) If a person is induced to enter into an agreement to purchase books or other educational matter by unreasonable persuasion on the part of a person acting or appearing to act on behalf of the seller or the seller's agent, the agreement will be taken to have been induced by undue influence and is voidable at the option of the first mentioned person if repudiated by notice in writing given to the seller within a period of 28 days after the making of the agreement, and any affirmation of, or agreement purporting to waive any right to avoid, the agreement to purchase will, upon the giving of the notice, be void and of no effect.

- Maximum penalty: $5 000 or imprisonment for 1 year.
- (2) Upon convicting a person for an offence against this section, the court may order the convicted person to pay to the owner of the boat, equipment or article in respect of which the offence was committed such sum as the court thinks just by way of compensation for the loss caused to the owner by the convicted person.
- (3) In this section—
- boat* includes canoe, dinghy, yacht, raft, pontoon, ship and other similar vessel.

47—Interference with homing pigeons

- (1) A person who—
- (a) without lawful authority, kills, injures or takes any homing pigeon; or

- (b) enters upon any land for the purpose of killing, injuring or taking any homing pigeon without lawful authority,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $250.

- (2) Upon the conviction of a person for an offence against subsection (1), the court may order the convicted person to pay to the owner of the pigeon killed, injured or taken in contravention of that subsection a sum equal to the value of that pigeon.
- (3) It is a defence to a charge of killing, injuring or taking a homing pigeon contrary to subsection (1) to prove that the defendant was the owner or occupier of improved or cultivated land, or a person acting under the instructions of any such owner or occupier, and killed, injured or took the pigeon while it was actually upon that land or any building on that land.
- (4) In this section—

homing pigeon means a pigeon having a ring affixed or attached to either or both legs; take includes to ensnare or catch.

48—Posting bills

- (1) A person who, without lawful authority, posts a bill on property is guilty of an offence.
- Maximum penalty: $2 500 or imprisonment for 6 months.
- (2) Where a bill is posted without lawful authority, a person who distributed or authorised the distribution of such bills for posting is guilty of an offence unless it is proved—
- (a) that the person did not foresee and could not be reasonably expected to have foreseen the likelihood that such bills would be posted unlawfully; or
- (b) that the person took reasonable precautions to ensure that such bills were not posted unlawfully.

Maximum penalty: $2 500 or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (3) Where a person is convicted of an offence against subsection (1) or (2), the court may order the convicted person to pay to the owner or occupier of the property in relation to which the offence was committed such compensation for damage caused by the convicted person as the court consider just.
- (5) In this section—

property includes a building, structure, road, paved surface or object of any kind.

48A—Advertising rewards for the return of property stolen or lost

Where a person publicly advertises a reward for the return of any property that has been stolen or lost and by that advertisement indicates—

 - (b) if given by the mayor or chairman of a council, may apply only within the area of the council.
- (4) If a direction given by the Commissioner under this section is in conflict with a direction given by a mayor or chairman of a council, the direction of the Commissioner prevails.
- (5) The Commissioner may delegate the power to give directions under this section to a senior police officer, subject to any limitations or conditions which the Commissioner thinks it proper to impose.
- (6) A direction under this section must be given—
 - (a) by publication of the direction in a newspaper circulating generally throughout the State; or
 - (b) in such other manner as to ensure as far as reasonably practicable that, prior to the special occasion, the direction will come to the attention of those who, by their actions or presence, are likely to cause, or contribute to, the crowding of the street, road or public place.
- (7) Where a direction has been given under this section, a police officer may, upon the occurrence of the special occasion, give to any person, orally or in writing, such orders as are reasonably calculated to ensure compliance with the direction.
- (8) A person who fails to comply forthwith with an order under this section is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $750.
- (9) An allegation in a complaint for an offence against this section that a direction under subsection (6) was given or published and was given or published in a particular manner is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, proof that that direction was given or published and that it was given or published in that manner.

Part 12—Bribery of police

61—Bribery

- (1) A person who gives, or offers or promises to give, a bribe to, or makes any collusive agreement with, a police officer to induce the officer to neglect his or her duty, or to conceal or connive at an act by which a regulation or order relating to the appointment and duties of police officers may be evaded, is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) In this section—

bribe includes any form of inducement.

Part 13—False reports to police

62—False reports to police

- (1) Where—
 - (a) a person makes a false representation—
 - (i) to a police officer; or
 - (ii) to a person who is not a police officer knowing that it is likely that the representation will be communicated by that person to a police officer,knowing the representation to be false; and
 - (b) the representation is such as would reasonably call for investigation by the police, the person by whom the representation was made is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) Upon convicting a person of an offence against this section, the court may order the convicted person to pay to the complainant a reasonable sum for the expenses of or incidental to any investigation made by a police officer as a result of the false representation.
- (3) An amount received by the complainant under this section must be paid to the Treasurer in aid of the Consolidated Account.

Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for 2 years.
- (2) Upon convicting a person of an offence against this section, a court may order the convicted person to pay to the complainant a reasonable sum for the expenses of or incidental to any investigation made by a police officer as a result of the offence.
- (3) An amount received by the complainant under this section must be paid to the Treasurer in aid of the Consolidated Account.
- (4) In this section—
belief includes suspicion.

Part 14—Proceedings by councils for certain offences

65—Payment of certain fines

If—

- (a) a report is made by a police officer to a municipal or district council with respect to the commission of an offence and, arising out of that report, proceedings are taken in a court and a fine is imposed upon the offender; and
- (b) it is provided by an Act that the fine is to be paid to any municipal or district council, then, despite that Act, one-half of the fine must be paid to the Treasurer and will be credited to the Consolidated Account.

Part 14A—Consorting prohibition notices

66—Interpretation

(1) In this Part—

close personal relationship has the same meaning as in Part 3 of the Family Relationships Act 1975;

consorting prohibition notice means a notice issued by a senior police officer under section 66A(1);

Court means the Magistrates Court;

criminal intelligence means information relating to actual or suspected criminal activity (whether in this State or elsewhere) the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to prejudice criminal investigations, to enable the discovery of the existence or identity of a confidential source of information relevant to law enforcement or to endanger a person's life or physical safety;

offence of violence means an offence where the offender—

- (a) uses a weapon, or threatens to use a weapon, against another; or
- (b) inflicts serious harm on another, or threatens to inflict serious harm on another, for the purpose of committing the offence, or escaping from the scene of the offence;

prescribed offence means—

- (a) an offence against Part 5 Division 2 of the Controlled Substances Act 1984 or a corresponding offence against a previous enactment; or
- (b) an indictable offence against the Firearms Act 1977; or
- (c) an indictable offence of violence; or
- (d) a serious and organised crime offence; or
- (e) an offence involving extortion or money laundering; or
- (f) any attempt to commit, or assault with intent to commit, any of the foregoing offences; or
- (g) an offence against the law of another jurisdiction that would, if committed in this State, constitute any of the foregoing offences;

recipient—see section 66A(1);

senior police officer means a police officer of or above the rank of superintendent;

spouse—a person is the spouse of another if they are legally married.

(2) For the purposes of this Part—

- (a) a person may consort with another person by any means including by letter, telephone or fax or by email or other electronic means; and
- (b) a person is a close family member of another person if—

- (i) 1 is a spouse or former spouse of the other or is, or has been, in a close personal relationship with the other; or
- (ii) 1 is a parent or grandparent of the other (whether by blood or by marriage); or
- (iii) 1 is a brother or sister of the other (whether by blood or by marriage); or
- (iv) 1 is a guardian or carer of the other.

66A—Senior police officer may issue consorting prohibition notice

- (1) A senior police officer may issue a notice prohibiting a person (the recipient) from consorting with a specified person or specified persons if the officer is satisfied that—
 - (a) —
 - (i) the recipient is subject to a control order under the Serious and Organised Crime (Control) Act 2008; or
 - (ii) the specified person or each specified person—
 - (A) has, within the preceding period of 3 years, been found guilty of 1 or more prescribed offences; or
 - (B) is reasonably suspected of having committed 1 or more prescribed offences within the preceding period of 3 years; and
 - (b) the recipient has been habitually consorting with the specified person or specified persons; and
 - (c) the issuing of the notice is appropriate in the circumstances.
- (2) However, a consorting prohibition notice—
 - (a) does not prohibit associations between close family members; and
 - (b) does not prohibit associations occurring between persons—
 - (i) for genuine political purposes; or
 - (ii) while the persons are in lawful custody; or
 - (iii) while the persons are acting in compliance with a court order; or
 - (iv) while the persons are attending a rehabilitation, counselling or therapy session of a prescribed kind; and
 - (c) may specify other circumstances in which the notice does not apply.
- (3) A consorting prohibition notice issued by a police officer on the basis that he or she is satisfied that the recipient is subject to a control order will lapse—
 - (a) if—
 - (i) an application to vary the control order is made under the Serious and Organised Crime (Control) Act 2008 within the period ending 28 days after the day on which the consorting prohibition notice was issued; and

- (ii) the application is for the control order to be varied so that the person subject to the order is prohibited from associating with each person specified in the consorting prohibition notice as a person with whom he or she is prohibited from consorting, when the application is determined; or
- (b) if no such application is made—at the end of that 28 day period.

66B—Form of notice

- (1) A consorting prohibition notice—
 - (a) subject to subsection (2), must specify the grounds on which the notice has been issued; and
 - (b) must contain a statement advising the recipient of the effect of section 66A(2)(a) and (b); and
 - (c) must contain a statement advising the recipient that he or she is entitled to apply for a review of the notice in accordance with this Part.
- (2) A statement of the grounds on which a notice has been issued must not contain information that is classified by the Commissioner as criminal intelligence.

66C—Service of notice

- (1) Subject to the making of an order under subsection (3), a consorting prohibition notice must be served on the recipient personally and is not binding on the recipient until it has been so served.
- (2) If a police officer has reason to believe that a person is subject to a consorting prohibition notice that has not been served on the person, the officer may—
 - (a) require the person to remain at a particular place for—
 - (i) so long as may be necessary for the notice to be served on the person; or
 - (ii) 2 hours,whichever is the lesser; and
 - (b) if the person refuses or fails to comply with the requirement or the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the requirement will not be complied with, arrest and detain the person in custody (without warrant) for the period referred to in paragraph (a).
- (3) If a police officer satisfies the Court that all reasonable efforts have been made to effect personal service of a notice on a recipient in accordance with this section but that those efforts have failed, the Court may make such orders as it thinks fit in relation to substituted service (and the notice is not binding on the recipient until it has been so served).

66D—Application for review

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), a recipient on whom a consorting prohibition notice has been served may, within 4 weeks after service of the notice, lodge an application with the Court for review of the notice.

- (2) The Court may, on a review, consider the following matters:
 - (a) whether sufficient grounds exist to satisfy the Court that the notice was properly issued in accordance with section 66A(1);
 - (b) whether any person specified in the notice is a close family member of the recipient or there are otherwise good reasons why a particular person should not be so specified;
 - (c) whether the notice should specify particular circumstances in which it does not apply.
- (3) The grounds of the review must be stated fully and in detail in the application.
- (4) A copy of the application for review must be served by the recipient on the Commissioner personally or by registered post at least 7 days before the day appointed for conducting the review (and the Commissioner is a party to proceedings on the application).
- (5) The Court may, on a review, confirm, vary or revoke the notice.

66E—Variation or revocation of consorting prohibition notice

- (1) If, at any time, the Court is satisfied that, since a consorting prohibition notice was made or last varied, there has been a substantial change in the circumstances taken into account in accordance with section 66A(1)(c), the Court may grant the recipient permission to apply to the Court under this section.
- (2) The Court may, on an application under this section, vary or revoke a consorting prohibition notice.
- (3) A copy of the application for variation or revocation must be served by the recipient on the Commissioner personally or by registered post at least 7 days before the day appointed for hearing the application (and the Commissioner is a party to proceedings on the application).

66F—Appeal

- (1) The Commissioner or the recipient may appeal to the Supreme Court against a decision of the Court under this Part.
- (2) An appeal lies as of right on a question of law and with permission on a question of fact.
- (3) An appeal must be commenced within the time, and in accordance with the procedure, prescribed by rules of the Supreme Court.

66G—Revocation of notice by Commissioner

The Commissioner may, at any time, revoke a consorting prohibition notice by notice in writing to the recipient.

66H—Applications by or on behalf of child

An application to a court that could otherwise be made by a person under this Part may, if the person is a child, be made—

- (a) by the child with the permission of the court, if the child has attained the age of 14 years; or

- (b) on behalf of the child—
 - (i) by a parent or guardian of the child; or
 - (ii) by a person with whom the child normally or regularly resides.

66I—Evidence etc

- (1) In any proceedings under this Part, other than for an offence, the Court—
 - (a) is not bound by the rules of evidence but may inform itself as it thinks fit; and
 - (b) must act according to equity, good conscience and the substantial merits of the case without regard to technicalities and legal forms.
- (2) A fact to be proved in proceedings under this Part, other than for an offence, is sufficiently proved if proved on the balance of probabilities.

66J—Criminal intelligence

- (1) In any proceedings under this Part, a court—
 - (a) must, on the application of the Commissioner, take steps to maintain the confidentiality of information classified by the Commissioner as criminal intelligence, including steps to receive evidence and hear argument about the information in private in the absence of the parties to the proceedings and their representatives; and
 - (b) may take evidence consisting of or relating to information so classified by the Commissioner by way of affidavit of a senior police officer.
- (2) The Commissioner may not delegate the function of classifying information as criminal intelligence for the purposes of this Act except to a Deputy Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner of Police.

66K—Offence to contravene or fail to comply with notice

- (1) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with a consorting prohibition notice is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.
- (2) A person does not commit an offence against this section in respect of an act or omission unless the person knew that the act or omission constituted a contravention of, or failure to comply with, the notice or was reckless as to that fact.
- (3) In proceedings for an offence against this section, an apparently genuine document purporting to be signed by the Commissioner and to certify that at a specified time a consorting prohibition notice applied to, or was in force against, a specified person must, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be regarded as proof of the matter so certified.

Part 15—Police powers of entry, search etc

67—General search warrants

- (1) Despite any law or custom to the contrary, the Commissioner may issue general search warrants to such police officers as the Commissioner thinks fit.
- (2) Every such warrant must be in the form in the Schedule, or in a form to the same effect, and must be signed by the Commissioner.
- (3) Every such warrant will, subject to prior revocation by the Commissioner, remain in force for six months from the date of the warrant, or for a shorter period specified in the warrant.
- (4) The police officer named in any such warrant may, at any time of the day or night, exercise all or any of the following powers:
 - (a) the officer may, with such assistants as he or she thinks necessary, enter into, break open and search any house, building, premises or place where he or she has reasonable cause to suspect that—
 - (i) an offence has been recently committed, or is about to be committed; or
 - (ii) there are stolen goods; or
 - (iii) there is anything that may afford evidence as to the commission of an offence; or
 - (iv) there is anything that may be intended to be used for the purpose of committing an offence;
 - (b) the officer may break open and search any cupboards, drawers, chests, trunks, boxes, packages or other things, whether fixtures or not, in which he or she has reasonable cause to suspect that—
 - (i) there are stolen goods; or
 - (ii) there is anything that may afford evidence as to the commission of an offence; or
 - (iii) there is anything that may be intended to be used for the purpose of committing an offence;
 - (c) the officer may seize any such goods or things to be dealt with according to law.

68—Power to search suspected vehicles, vessels, and persons

- (1) A police officer may do any or all of the following things, namely, stop, search and detain—
 - (a) a vehicle or vessel in or upon which there is reasonable cause to suspect that—
 - (i) there are stolen goods; or
 - (ii) there is an object, possession of which constitutes an offence; or
 - (iii) there is evidence of the commission of an indictable offence;

- (b) a person who is reasonably suspected of having, on or about his or her person—
 - (i) stolen goods; or
 - (ii) an object, possession of which constitutes an offence; or
 - (iii) evidence of the commission of an indictable offence.

(2) In this section—

stolen goods includes goods obtained by the commission of an offence.

68A—Power to search land for stolen vehicles etc

A police officer may, if he or she has reasonable cause to suspect that a vehicle has been stolen or used without the consent of the owner and is on any land or premises, enter the land or premises and search for the vehicle, and, if it is found, examine it.

69—Power to board vessels

A police officer may, at any time of the day or night—

- (a) enter into or upon a vessel which is in any harbor, port, dock, river or creek and into or upon every part of the vessel; and
- (b) search and inspect the vessel; and
- (c) inspect and observe the conduct of all persons who are employed on board the vessel in or about the loading or unloading of the vessel; and
- (d) take all such measures as are necessary for providing against fire and other accidents; and
- (e) take all such measures as are necessary for preserving peace and good order and preventing or detecting the commission of offences on board the vessel.

70—Power to stop and search vessels

If a police officer in charge of a police station or holding a rank not lower than sergeant has reasonable cause to suspect—

- (a) that an offence has been, or is about to be, committed on board a vessel which is in any harbor, port, dock, river or creek; or
- (b) that a person who has committed an offence, or against whom a warrant has been issued by a justice, is on board a vessel, the officer may, at any time of the day or night, exercise all or any of the following powers:

- (c) the officer may stop and detain that vessel;
- (d) the officer may enter, at all times, with such constables as he or she thinks necessary, into and upon that vessel and every part of that vessel;
- (e) the officer may search and inspect that vessel and in doing so take all necessary measures for the effectual prevention or detection of any such suspected offence and for the apprehension of any such suspected person;
- (f) the officer may take into custody any person reasonably suspected of having committed an offence or liable to apprehension under paragraph (e);

- (g) the officer may take charge of all property suspected to be stolen or otherwise unlawfully obtained.

71—Power to apprehend persons committing offences on board ships

A police officer holding a rank not lower than sergeant, or a constable, when so ordered by any such police officer or called upon by the master or chief officer of the vessel concerned, may—

- (a) enter into and upon a vessel which is in any harbor, port, dock, river or creek; and
- (b) without any warrant, apprehend a person whom he or she finds drunk or committing an offence or whom he or she has reasonable cause to suspect of having committed an offence.

72—Interpretation

In sections 69, 70 and 71—

vessel means a ship, boat or other navigable vessel, not being a naval ship, boat or vessel.

73—Power of police to remove disorderly persons from public venues

- (1) A police officer may enter a public venue and—
 - (a) order any person who is behaving in a disorderly or offensive manner to leave; or
 - (b) use reasonable force to remove any person who is behaving in such a manner.
- (2) A person—
 - (a) who remains in a public venue after having been ordered to leave pursuant to this section; or
 - (b) who re-enters, or attempts to re-enter, a public venue within 24 hours of having left or having been removed from such a place pursuant to this section,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $2 500 or imprisonment for 6 months.

74—Power to enter licensed premises etc

- (1) A police officer, when called upon by the holder of a licence under the Liquor Licensing Act 1997, may—
 - (a) enter the premises to which the licence relates; and
 - (b) without any warrant, apprehend any person whom the officer finds drunk and behaving in a riotous or indecent manner or whom the officer finds fighting, or using threatening, abusive or insulting words, or behaving in a threatening, abusive or insulting manner.
- (2) The powers conferred by subsection (1) are additional to powers conferred on a police officer by or under any other Act.

74A—Power to require statement of name and other personal details

- (1) Where a police officer has reasonable cause to suspect—
- (a) that a person has committed, is committing, or is about to commit, an offence; or
 - (b) that a person may be able to assist in the investigation of an offence or a suspected offence, the officer may require that person to state all or any of the person's personal details.

- (2) Where a police officer has reasonable cause to suspect that a personal detail as stated in response to a requirement under subsection (1) is false, the officer may require the person making the statement to produce evidence of the correctness of the personal detail as stated.
- (3) A person who—
- (a) refuses or fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) or (2); or
 - (b) in response to a requirement under subsection (1) or (2)—
 - (i) states a personal detail that is false; or
 - (ii) produces false evidence of a personal detail,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $1 250 or imprisonment for 3 months.

- (4) A police officer who has required a person to state all or any of the person's personal details under this section is required to comply with a request to identify himself or herself, by—
- (a) producing his or her police identification; or
 - (b) stating orally or in writing his or her surname, rank and identification number.
- (5) In this section—

personal details, in relation to a person, means—

- (a) the person's full name; and
- (b) the person's date of birth; and
- (c) the address of where the person is living; and
- (d) the address of where the person usually lives; and
- (e) the person's business address.

74AB—Questions as to identity of drivers etc

- (1) A police officer may ask a person questions for the purpose of obtaining information that may lead to the identification of the person who was driving, or was the owner of, a vehicle on a particular occasion or at a particular time.
- (2) A person who—
- (a) refuses or fails, without reasonable excuse, to answer a question under subsection (1); or

- (b) in response to a question under subsection (1) gives an answer that is false or misleading in a material particular,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $1 250 or imprisonment for 3 months.

- (3) A police officer who has asked a person a question under this section is required to comply with a request to identify himself or herself, by—
 - (a) producing his or her police identification; or
 - (b) stating orally or in writing his or her surname, rank and identification number.

74B—Road blocks

- (2) Where a senior police officer believes on reasonable grounds that the establishment of a road block at a particular place would significantly improve the prospects of apprehending a person—
 - (a) suspected of having committed a major offence; or
 - (b) who has escaped from lawful detention,the officer may authorise the establishment of a road block at that place.
- (3) An authorisation under this section—
 - (a) operates for an initial period (not exceeding 12 hours) specified by the officer granting the authorisation; and
 - (b) may be renewed from time to time by a magistrate for a further period (not exceeding 12 hours).
- (4) An authorisation may be granted under this section orally or in writing but a written record must be kept of—
 - (a) the place at which the establishment of a road block was authorised;
 - (b) the period or periods for which the authorisation was granted or renewed;
 - (c) the grounds on which the authorisation was granted or renewed.
- (5) Where a road block is authorised under this section, a police officer—
 - (a) may establish a road block (consisting of any appropriate form of barrier or obstruction preventing or limiting the passage of vehicles) at the place to which the authorisation relates;
 - (b) may stop vehicles at or in the vicinity of the road block;
 - (c) may require any person in any such vehicle to state his or her full name and address;
 - (d) may search the vehicle for the purpose of ascertaining whether the person for whose apprehension the road block was established is in or on the vehicle and give reasonable directions to any person in the vehicle for the purpose of facilitating the search;
 - (e) may take possession of any object found in the course of such a search that the officer suspects on reasonable grounds to constitute evidence of an offence.

- (6) Where a police officer suspects on reasonable grounds that a name or address as stated in response to a requirement under subsection (5) is false, he or she may require the person making the statement to produce evidence of the correctness of the name or address as stated.
- (7) A person who—
- (a) fails, without reasonable excuse, to stop a vehicle at a road block when requested or signalled to do so; or
 - (b) fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a requirement or direction under subsection (5) or (6); or
 - (c) in response to a requirement under subsection (5) or (6)—
 - (i) states a name or address that is false; or
 - (ii) produces false evidence of his or her name or address,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $2 500 or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (8) In proceedings for an offence against this section, a certificate apparently signed by a senior police officer stating—
- (a) that an authorisation under this section was given or renewed for a specified period; and
 - (b) that the authorisation authorised the establishment of a road block at a specified place; and
 - (c) the grounds on which the authorisation was given or renewed, will be accepted, in the absence of proof to the contrary, as proof of the matters stated in the certificate.

- (9) The Commissioner must, as soon as practicable after each successive period of three months following the commencement of this section, submit a report to the Minister in relation to that period stating—
- (a) the number of authorisations granted under this section during that period;
 - (b) in relation to each authorisation granted during that period—
 - (i) the place at which the establishment of a road block was authorised;
 - (ii) the period or periods for which the authorisation was granted or renewed;
 - (iii) the grounds on which the authorisation was granted or renewed;
 - (c) any other matters the Commissioner considers relevant.

- (10) The Minister must cause copies of a report under subsection (9) to be laid before both Houses of Parliament within seven sitting days after receipt of the report if Parliament is in session, or if Parliament is not then in session, within seven sitting days after the commencement of the next session of Parliament.

74BAA—Vehicle immobilisation devices

- (1) If an authorised police officer believes on reasonable grounds that—
 - (a) —
 - (i) the driver of a motor vehicle has disobeyed, or is likely to disobey, a request or signal to stop given under this or any other Act; or
 - (ii) the use of a vehicle immobilisation device would significantly improve the prospects of apprehending a person—
 - (A) suspected of having committed a major offence; or
 - (B) who has escaped from lawful detention; and
 - (b) a vehicle immobilisation device can be used without undue risk to occupants of the vehicle or persons in the vicinity of the vehicle,the officer may use a vehicle immobilisation device.
- (2) The Governor may, by regulation made on the recommendation of the Minister, declare a device of a specified kind to be a vehicle immobilisation device.
- (3) The Minister must not recommend that a device be declared a vehicle immobilisation device unless satisfied that—
 - (a) the device has been adequately tested in the State or in conditions similar to those found in the State; and
 - (b) the device can, at an appropriate range of speeds, immobilise a target motor vehicle without undue risk to occupants of the vehicle or persons in the vicinity of the vehicle.

- (4) In this section—

authorised police officer means a police officer authorised by the Commissioner for the purposes of this section;

vehicle immobilisation device means a device declared by regulation to be a vehicle immobilisation device for the purposes of this section.

74BAAB—Use of drug detection dogs

- (1) A police officer may, in exercising powers under this Part, use a drug detection dog or an electronic drug detection system.
- (2) In this section—

drug detection dog has the same meaning as in the Controlled Substances Act 1984;

electronic drug detection system has the same meaning as in the Controlled Substances Act 1984.

Part 16—Fortifications

74BA—Interpretation

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears—

Court means the Magistrates Court of South Australia;

criminal intelligence means information relating to actual or suspected criminal activity (whether in this State or elsewhere) the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to prejudice criminal investigations, to enable the discovery of the existence or identity of a confidential source of information relevant to law enforcement or to endanger a person's life or physical safety;

declared organisation has the same meaning as in the Serious and Organised Crime (Control) Act 2008; fortification means any security measure that involves a structure or device forming part of, or attached to, premises that—

- (a) is intended or designed to prevent or impede police access to the premises; or
- (b) has, or could have, the effect of preventing or impeding police access to the premises and is excessive for the particular type of premises, and fortified has a corresponding meaning;

fortification removal order means an order under section 74BB;

member, in relation to a declared organisation, has the same meaning as in the Serious and Organised Crime (Control) Act 2008;

occupier, in relation to premises, means a person who has, or is entitled to, possession or control of the premises;

premises includes—

- (a) land; and
- (b) a building or structure on land; and
- (c) a part of premises;

serious criminal offence means—

- (a) an indictable offence; or
- (b) an offence prescribed by regulation for the purposes of this definition.

74BB—Fortification removal order

- (1) If, on the application of the Commissioner, the Court is satisfied that—
 - (a) premises named in the application are fortified; and
 - (b) —
 - (i) the fortifications have been created in contravention of the Development Act 1993; or
 - (ii) there are reasonable grounds to believe the premises are being, have been, or are likely to be, used—

- (A) for or in connection with the commission of a serious criminal offence; or
 - (B) to conceal evidence of a serious criminal offence; or
 - (C) to keep the proceeds of a serious criminal offence; or
- (iii) the premises—
- (A) are owned by a declared organisation or a member of a declared organisation; or
 - (B) are occupied or habitually used as a place of resort by members of a declared organisation, the Court may issue a fortification removal order in respect of the premises.

- (2) A fortification removal order is directed to the occupier of the premises or, if there is more than one occupier, any one or more of the occupiers of the premises, and requires the named occupier or occupiers to remove or modify the fortifications, as specified in the order.
- (3) A fortification removal order may be issued on an application made without notice to any person.
- (4) The grounds of an application for a fortification removal order must be verified by affidavit.

74BC—Content of fortification removal order

- (1) A fortification removal order must include—
 - (a) a statement to the effect that specified fortifications at the premises must be removed or modified, as directed by the Court, within a period of time fixed by the order (which may not be less than 14 days after service of the order); and
 - (b) subject to subsection (2)—a statement of the grounds on which the order has been issued; and
 - (c) an explanation of the right of objection under section 74BE; and
 - (d) an explanation of the Commissioner's power to enforce the order under section 74BI.
- (2) A statement of the grounds on which a fortification removal order has been issued must not contain information the disclosure of which would be inconsistent with a decision of the Court under section 74BGA.
- (3) A copy of the affidavit verifying the grounds on which the application was made must be attached to the fortification removal order unless disclosure of information included in the affidavit would be inconsistent with a decision of the Court under section 74BGA.
- (4) If disclosure of information included in the affidavit would be inconsistent with a decision of the Court under section 74BGA, an edited copy of the affidavit, from which the information that cannot be disclosed has been removed or erased, may be attached to the fortification removal order.

74BD—Service of fortification removal order

- (1) A fortification removal order must be served on the occupier or occupiers named in the order.
- (2) If the owner of the premises in relation to which a fortification removal order has been made is not named in the order, a copy of the order must be served on the owner.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), service of a fortification removal order must be effected personally or by registered post.
- (4) If service cannot be promptly effected, it will be sufficient service for the Commissioner to affix a copy of the fortification removal order to the premises at a prominent place at or near to the entrance to the premises.

74BE—Right of objection

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person on whom a fortification removal order has been served may, within 14 days of service of the order, lodge a notice of objection with the Court.
- (2) A notice of objection cannot be lodged if a notice has previously been lodged in relation to the fortification removal order (unless proceedings in relation to the earlier notice have been discontinued).
- (3) The grounds of the objection must be stated fully and in detail in the notice of objection.
- (4) A copy of the notice of objection must be served by the objector on the Commissioner personally or by registered post at least 7 days before the day appointed for hearing of the notice.

74BF—Procedure on hearing of notice of objection

- (1) In any proceedings in relation to a notice of objection, the Court must, if convenient to the Court, be constituted of the Magistrate who issued the fortification removal order to which the notice of objection relates.
- (2) The Court must, when determining a notice of objection, consider whether, in the light of the evidence presented by both the Commissioner and the objector, sufficient grounds exist to satisfy the Court as to the requirements of section 74BB(1).
- (3) The Court may, on hearing a notice of objection, confirm, vary or withdraw the fortification removal order.
- (4) If, on the hearing of a notice of objection, the fortification removal order is confirmed or varied, the period of time allowed for compliance with the order, as fixed by the order, is (unless the Court specifies otherwise) taken to commence on the day of the Court's determination.

74BG—Appeal

- (1) The Commissioner or an objector may appeal to the Supreme Court against a decision of the Court on a notice of objection.
- (2) An appeal lies as of right on a question of law and with permission on a question of fact.

- (3) An appeal must be commenced within the time, and in accordance with the procedure, prescribed by rules of the Supreme Court.
- (4) If an appeal is commenced under this section, enforcement of the fortification removal order is stayed until proceedings in relation to the appeal are finalised.
- (5) If an appeal under this section results in confirmation or variation of the fortification removal order, the period of time allowed for compliance with the order, as fixed by the order, is (unless the Supreme Court specifies otherwise) taken to commence on the day of the Supreme Court's decision.

74BGA—Criminal intelligence

In any proceedings under this Part, the court determining the proceedings—

- (a) must, on the application of the Commissioner, take steps to maintain the confidentiality of information classified by the Commissioner as criminal intelligence, including steps to receive evidence and hear argument about the information in private in the absence of the parties to the proceedings and their representatives; and
- (b) may take evidence consisting of, or relating to, information that is so classified by the Commissioner by way of affidavit of a police officer of or above the rank of superintendent.

74BH—Withdrawal notice

- (1) If the Commissioner determines that a fortification removal order will not be enforced, the Commissioner must lodge a withdrawal notice with the Court.
- (2) The withdrawal notice must identify the premises, refer to the fortification removal order and state that the Commissioner has decided not to enforce the order.
- (3) The withdrawal notice must be served on the occupier or occupiers named in the order and all persons on whom a copy of the fortification removal order was served.
- (4) The withdrawal notice may be served in any way that section 74BD would enable a fortification removal order to be served.

74BI—Enforcement

- (1) If, in relation to a fortification removal order—
 - (a) a withdrawal notice is not lodged; and
 - (b) —
 - (i) a notice of objection is not lodged; or
 - (ii) the fortification removal order is confirmed or varied by the Court under section 74BF and an appeal in relation to the decision of the Court is not commenced; or
 - (iii) an appeal under section 74BG results in confirmation or variation of the fortification removal order; and

- (c) the fortifications at the premises are not, within the period of time specified in the fortification removal order or any further time allowed by the Commissioner under subsection (2), removed or modified to the extent necessary to satisfy the Commissioner that there has been compliance with the order, the Commissioner may cause the fortifications to be removed or modified to the extent required by the order.

- (2) The Commissioner may extend the time allowed by the order if, before the time allowed elapses, application is made to the Commissioner for it to be extended.
- (3) For the purposes of causing fortifications to be removed or modified, the Commissioner, or any police officer authorised by the Commissioner for the purposes of this section, may do one or more of the following:
 - (a) enter the premises without warrant;
 - (b) obtain expert or technical advice;
 - (c) make use of any person or equipment he or she considers necessary.
- (4) The Commissioner may seize anything that can be salvaged in the course of removing or modifying fortifications under this section, and may sell or dispose of it as the Commissioner considers appropriate.
- (5) The proceeds of any sale under subsection (4) are forfeited to the State and, to the extent that they are insufficient to meet the costs incurred by the Commissioner under this section, the Commissioner may recover those costs as a debt from any person who caused the fortifications to be created.

74BJ—Hindering removal or modification of fortifications

- (1) A person must not do anything with the intention of preventing, obstructing, interfering with or delaying the removal or modification of fortifications in accordance with a fortification removal order.

Maximum penalty: $2 500 or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (2) Subsection (1) applies to the removal or modification of fortifications by a person who—
 - (a) is, or is acting for or on the instructions of, an occupier or owner of the premises; or
 - (b) is acting under section 74BI.

74BK—Liability for damage

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), no action lies against the Crown or any person for damage to property resulting from enforcement of a fortification removal order.
- (2) However, an owner of premises may recover the reasonable costs associated with repair or replacement of property damaged as a result of creation of fortifications or enforcement of a fortification removal order as a debt from any person who caused the fortifications to be created.

74BL—Delegation

The Commissioner may delegate any of the Commissioner's functions or powers under this Part to any police officer holding a rank not lower than that of inspector, subject to any limitations or conditions that the Commissioner thinks it proper to impose.

74BM—Application of Part

- (1) If the provisions of this Part are inconsistent with any other Act or law, the provisions of this Part prevail.
- (2) No application for approval is required under the Development Act 1993 for work required by a fortification removal order.

Part 17—Recording of interviews

74C—Interpretation

In this Part—

interview includes—

- (a) a conversation; or
- (b) part of a conversation; or
- (c) a series of conversations;

investigating officer means—

- (a) a police officer; or
- (b) a person authorised under an Act to investigate offences and arrest suspected offenders.

74D—Obligation to record interviews with suspects

- (1) An investigating officer who suspects, or has reasonable grounds to suspect, a person (the suspect) of having committed an indictable offence and who proposes to interview the suspect must ensure the following requirements are complied with:
 - (a) if it is reasonably practicable to record the interview on videotape, a videotape recording of the interview must be made;
 - (b) if it is not reasonably practicable to record the interview on videotape but it is reasonably practicable to record the interview on audiotape, an audiotape recording of the interview must be made;
 - (c) if it is neither reasonably practicable to record the interview on videotape nor reasonably practicable to record the interview on audiotape—
 - (i) a written record of the interview must be made at the time of the interview or as soon as practicable after the interview; and
 - (ii) as soon as practicable after the interview, the record must be read aloud to the suspect and the reading must be recorded on videotape; and
 - (iii) when the videotape recording begins (but before the reading begins) the suspect must be invited to interrupt the reading at any time to point out errors or omissions in the record; and
 - (iv) if the suspect in fact interrupts the reading to point out an error or omission, the suspect must then be allowed a reasonable opportunity to do so; and
 - (v) at the end of the reading, but while the videotape recording continues, the suspect must again be invited to point out errors or omissions in the record and allowed a reasonable opportunity to do so; and

- (vi) if the investigating officer agrees that there is an error or omission in the record, the officer must amend the record to correct the error or omission and if the officer does not agree that there is an error or omission in the record, the officer must nevertheless make a note of the error or omission asserted by the suspect in an addendum to the record of interview.
- (2) If the suspicion, or a reasonable ground for suspicion, arises during the course of an interview, the investigating officer's obligations under subsection (1) arise at that point and apply to the interview from that point.
- (3) In deciding whether it is reasonably practicable to make a videotape or audiotape recording of an interview, the following matters must be considered:
 - (a) the availability of recording equipment within the period for which it would be lawful to detain the person being interviewed;
 - (b) mechanical failure of recording equipment;
 - (c) a refusal of the interviewee to allow the interview to be recorded on videotape or audiotape;
 - (d) any other relevant matter.
- (4) As soon as practicable after a videotape or an audiotape recording is made under this Part, the investigating officer must give the suspect a written statement of the suspect's right—
 - (a) if a videotape recording was made—
 - (i) to have the videotape played over to the suspect or the suspect's legal adviser (or both); and
 - (ii) to obtain an audiotape recording of the sound track of the videotape; or
 - (b) if an audiotape recording (but no videotape recording) of the interview was made—to obtain a copy of the audiotape.
- (5) Arrangements must be made, at the request of a suspect, for the playing of a videotape at a reasonable time and place to be nominated by an appropriate investigating officer.
- (6) A suspect must be provided, on request and on payment of the fee fixed by regulation, with—
 - (a) an audiotape of the soundtrack of a videotape recording of an interview with the suspect under this Part; or
 - (b) a copy of an audiotape recording of an interview with the suspect under this Part.

74E—Admissibility of evidence of interview

- (1) In proceedings for an indictable offence, evidence of an interview between an investigating officer and the defendant is inadmissible against the defendant unless—
 - (a) the investigating officer complied with this Part; or
 - (b) the court is satisfied that the interests of justice require the admission of the evidence despite the investigating officer's non-compliance.

- (2) If, in the course of a trial by jury, the court admits evidence of an interview under subsection (1)(b), the court must—
- (a) draw the jury's attention to the non-compliance by the investigating officer; and
 - (b) give an appropriate warning in view of the non-compliance,
- unless the court is of the opinion that the non-compliance was trivial.

74F—Prohibition on playing tape recordings of interviews

A person must not play to another person a videotape or audiotape containing an interview or part of an interview recorded under this Part except where the videotape or audiotape is played—

- (a) for purposes related to the investigation of an offence; or
- (b) for the purposes of, or purposes related to, legal proceedings, or proposed legal proceedings, to which the interview is relevant; or
- (c) with the permission of a court before which the videotape or audiotape has been tendered in evidence¹.

Note—

- 1 For example, the court might permit the use of a videotape or audiotape for the purpose of instructing investigating officers in relation to duties under this Division.

74G—Non-derogation

This Part does not—

- (a) make evidence admissible that would otherwise be inadmissible; or
- (b) affect the court's discretion to exclude evidence.

Part 18—Arrest

75—Power of arrest

A police officer, without any warrant other than this Act, at any hour of the day or night, may apprehend any person whom the officer finds committing, or has reasonable cause to suspect of having committed, or being about to commit, an offence.

76—Arrest by owner of property or by servant or agent of owner

- (1) If the owner of any property, or the servant or agent of the owner of any property, finds a person committing an offence on, or with respect to, that property, the owner, or the servant or agent, may apprehend the offender and deliver the offender forthwith into the custody of a police officer to be dealt with according to law.

- (2) In this section—

owner, in relation to property consisting of land, a building or other premises, includes an occupier of, and a person resident on or in, the land, building or premises.

77—Arrest of persons pawning or selling stolen goods

- (1) If a person to whom any property is offered (for sale, as a pawn or in some other kind of commercial transaction) has reasonable cause to suspect that the person offering the property has stolen it, or obtained it by unlawful means, the person may—
 - (a) apprehend and detain that other person until he or she can be delivered into the custody of a police officer; and
 - (b) seize and detain the property until it can be delivered into the custody of a police officer.
- (2) A person who exercises a power of apprehension or seizure under this section must take the necessary action to have the person or property delivered into the custody of a police officer as soon as practicable.

78—Person apprehended without warrant, how dealt with

- (1) Subject to this section, a person who is apprehended without warrant must be forthwith delivered into the custody of the police officer in charge of the nearest police station.
- (2) Where a person is apprehended, without warrant, on suspicion of having committed a serious offence, a police officer may, for the purpose of investigating the suspected offence—
 - (a) detain that person, prior to delivering him or her into custody at the nearest police station, for so long as may be necessary to complete the investigation of the suspected offence, or for the prescribed period, whichever is the lesser; and
 - (b) take that person, or cause him or her to be taken, during the course of detention under this subsection, to places connected with the suspected offence.

- (3) Where a person has been delivered into custody at a police station in pursuance of this section, the person may, on the authorisation of a magistrate, be temporarily removed from that custody to the custody of a police officer for a purpose related to the investigation of an offence.
- (4) An application to a magistrate for an authorisation under this section may be made by telephone and, where an application is so made, a written record must be made in the prescribed form stating—
- (a) the grounds on which the application was made; and
 - (b) whether the application was granted and, if so, the terms and conditions on which it was granted, and the record must be confirmed by the signature of the magistrate to whom the application was made.

- (5) Where it is decided not to charge a person who is apprehended on suspicion of having committed an offence, the police officer who is in charge of the investigation of the suspected offence must ensure that the person is, if the person so requires—
- (a) returned to the place of apprehension; or
 - (b) delivered to another place that may be reasonably nominated by the person.

- (6) In this section—

the nearest police station, in relation to a person apprehended without warrant, means—

- (a) the police station nearest the place of apprehension at which facilities are continuously available for the care and custody of the person apprehended; or
- (b) in the case of a person apprehended within a radius of 30 kilometres from the General Post Office at Adelaide—
 - (i) the police station at Adelaide known as the City Watch House; or
 - (ii) any other police station within that radius at which facilities are continuously available for the care and custody of the person apprehended;

the prescribed period, in relation to the detention of a person apprehended without warrant, means a period (calculated from the time of apprehension) of four hours or such longer period (not exceeding eight hours) as may be authorised by a magistrate, but in determining whether the prescribed period has elapsed since apprehension—

- (a) any delays occasioned by arranging for a solicitor or other person to be present during the investigation will not be taken into account; and
- (b) the time that would have been reasonably required to convey the person apprehended from the place of apprehension to the nearest police station, assuming that the person had been taken forthwith to that police station, will be subtracted from the time that has actually elapsed from the time of apprehension;

serious offence means an indictable offence or an offence punishable by imprisonment for two years or more.

78A—Power of arrest in cases of certain offences committed outside the State

- (1) This section applies to an offence—
 - (a) that is an offence against the law of a State (other than this State) or a Territory of the Commonwealth; and
 - (b) that consists of an act or omission which, if it occurred in this State, would constitute—
 - (i) an indictable offence; or
 - (ii) an offence punishable by imprisonment for two years or more.
- (2) Any police officer may, without any warrant other than this Act, at any hour of the day or night, apprehend a person whom the officer has reasonable cause to suspect of having committed an offence to which this section applies.
- (3) Subject to section 78, a person apprehended pursuant to this section must be brought as soon as practicable before the Magistrates Court and the Court—
 - (a) may discharge the person; or
 - (b) may—
 - (i) admit the person to bail on such conditions and guarantees as the Court thinks fit; or
 - (ii) commit the person to custody, pending the issue of a warrant for the person's apprehension under the law of the State or Territory in which he or she is alleged to have committed the offence, and the execution of that warrant.
- (4) Where a person has been detained or admitted to bail pursuant to subsection (3) and a warrant for the person's apprehension is not issued and executed within a reasonable time (not exceeding seven days), that person must be discharged from custody or released from bail (as the case may require) by the Court.
- (5) The provisions of the Summary Procedure Act 1921 apply, with any necessary modifications, in relation to proceedings under this section.

79—Arrest without warrant where warrant has been issued

- (1) A police officer may, without a warrant, take into custody a person whom the officer has reasonable cause for believing or suspecting to be a person for whose apprehension or commitment a warrant has been issued by a justice.
- (2) If a police officer, without a warrant, takes into custody a person whom the officer has reasonable cause for believing or suspecting to be a person for whose committal a warrant has been issued by a justice, the officer must forthwith deliver that person into the custody of the police officer in charge of the nearest police station and must, as soon as conveniently may be, produce or cause to be produced to the person taken into custody the warrant of commitment (if any), and the person must then be dealt with as required by the warrant.

79A—Rights upon arrest

- (1) Subject to this section, where a person is apprehended by a police officer (whether with or without a warrant)—
- (a) the person is entitled to make, in the presence of a police officer, one telephone call to a nominated relative or friend to inform the relative or friend of his or her whereabouts; and
 - (b) where the person is apprehended on suspicion of having committed an offence—
 - (i) the person is entitled to have a solicitor, relative or friend (in the case of a minor the relative or friend must be an adult) present during any interrogation or investigation to which the person is subjected while in custody; and
 - (ii) if English is not the person's native language—the person is entitled, if he or she so requires, to be assisted at an interrogation by an interpreter; and
 - (iii) the person is, while in custody, entitled to refrain from answering any question (unless required to answer the question under this or any other Act or law).
- (1a) Where a minor has been apprehended on suspicion of having committed an offence and—
- (a) the minor does not nominate a solicitor, relative or friend to be present during an interrogation or investigation relating to the suspected offence; or
 - (b) the solicitor, relative or friend nominated by the minor is unavailable or unwilling to attend the interrogation or investigation,
- then, subject to subsection (1b), the minor must not be subjected to an interrogation or investigation until the police officer in charge of the investigation of the suspected offence has secured the presence of—
- (c) a person nominated by the Chief Executive Officer within the meaning of the Family and Community Services Act 1972 to represent the interests of children subject to criminal investigation; or
 - (d) where no such person is available, some other person (not being a minor, a police officer or an employee of the Police Department) who, in the opinion of the police officer, is a suitable person to represent the interests of the minor.
- (1b) An interrogation or investigation may proceed despite subsection (1a) if—
- (a) the suspected offence is not an offence punishable by imprisonment for two years or more; and
 - (b) it is not reasonably practicable to secure the presence of a suitable representative of the child's interests as contemplated by that subsection.

- (2) The police officer who is in charge of the investigation of a suspected offence in relation to which a person has been apprehended may decline to permit—
- (a) the person in custody to make a telephone call to a particular person (being a relative or friend); or
 - (b) a particular person (being a relative or friend of the person who has been taken into custody) to be present at an interrogation or investigation,
- if the officer has reasonable cause to suspect that communication between the person in custody and that particular person would result in an accomplice taking steps to avoid apprehension or would prompt the destruction or fabrication of evidence.
- (3) A police officer must, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the apprehension of a person—
- (a) inform that person of his or her rights under subsection (1); and
 - (b) warn the person that anything that he or she may say may be taken down and used in evidence.

79B—Removal and storage of vehicle in case of arrest of driver

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a police officer arrests the driver of a motor vehicle, the officer may remove, or arrange for the removal of, the motor vehicle to a place at which it may be safely and conveniently stored.
- (2) A police officer may not remove, or arrange for the removal of, a motor vehicle under subsection (1) if—
 - (a) the driver referred to in subsection (1) is being accompanied by another person who is lawfully entitled to drive the vehicle; and
 - (b) the driver authorises that other person to remove the vehicle; and
 - (c) the vehicle is removed within a reasonable period.
- (3) No liability attaches to a police officer in relation to any damage to a motor vehicle caused while the motor vehicle is being removed or stored under this section.
- (4) A liability that would, but for subsection (3), lie against a police officer lies against the Crown.
- (5) A police officer who removes, or arranges for the removal of, a motor vehicle under this section must notify the driver in writing of the place to which the vehicle has been removed.
- (6) A vehicle removed and stored under this section must be returned to a person entitled to possession of the vehicle upon payment of the reasonable costs of removal and storage calculated in accordance with a scale in force under subsection (7).
- (7) The Commissioner may prepare and from time to time revise a scale of costs for the purposes of subsection (6).
- (8) If no application for the return of the vehicle is made within 2 months after it was taken into storage, it may be dealt with as unclaimed property under the Police Act 1998.

80—Power of entry and search in relation to fires and other emergencies

A police officer may, at any time of the day or night, with or without assistance—

- (a) enter and inspect land, premises or an object for the purpose of determining the cause of a fire or other emergency; or
- (b) remove an object or material that may tend to prove the cause of a fire or other emergency; or
- (c) retain possession of an object or material for the purpose of an investigation or inquiry into the cause of the fire or other emergency.

81—Power to search, examine and take particulars of persons

- (1) A person who is taken into lawful custody may be searched in accordance with this section and anything found as a result of the search may be removed.
- (2) The following provisions apply to a search under this section:
 - (a) the search may only be carried out by a police officer or a medical practitioner or registered nurse acting at the request of a police officer, but an intrusive search may only be carried out by such a medical practitioner or registered nurse;
 - (b) the person carrying out the search may use such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose and may be assisted by a police officer or other person;
 - (c) where a medical practitioner or registered nurse is to carry out an intrusive search, the detainee must be allowed a reasonable opportunity to arrange for the attendance, at the detainee's expense, of a medical practitioner or registered nurse of his or her choice to witness the search.
- (3) The following further provisions apply to an intimate search:
 - (a) if an intimate search is to be carried out on a detainee who is a minor, the search must not be carried out unless a solicitor or adult relative or friend, nominated by the minor, is present (but this paragraph need not be complied with if, in the opinion of a police officer, it is not reasonably practicable to do so in view of the urgency of the search);
 - (b) if an intimate search is to be carried out on a detainee whose native language is not English and who is not reasonably fluent in English, the detainee must be informed that he or she may request the assistance of an interpreter;
 - (c) if a detainee requests the assistance of an interpreter under paragraph (b), the search must not be carried out unless an interpreter is present (but paragraph (b) and this paragraph need not be complied with if, in the opinion of a police officer, it is not reasonably practicable to do so in view of the urgency of the search);
 - (d) except where it is not reasonably practicable to do so, an intimate search must be carried out by a person of the same sex as the detainee (unless the detainee requests otherwise);
 - (e) except where it is not reasonably practicable to do so, an intimate search must be recorded on videotape (but that part of an intimate search that consists of an intimate intrusive search will not be recorded if the detainee objects);

- (f) if, apart from the question of whether or not the detainee objects to the recording, it is otherwise reasonably practicable to record an intimate search on videotape, the police officer supervising the search must, before the search is carried out—
- (i) give the detainee a written statement in a form approved by the Minister outlining—
 - (A) the value of recording the search on videotape; and
 - (B) that the detainee may object to the search being so recorded; and
 - (C) where relevant, that if the detainee objects to an intimate intrusive search being recorded, the intimate intrusive search will not be recorded; and
 - (ii) read the statement to the detainee (with the assistance of an interpreter if one is to be present during the search);
- (g) if an intimate search, or that part of an intimate search that consists of an intimate intrusive search, is not to be recorded on videotape, the police officer must ensure—
- (i) that a written record of the search is made at the time of or as soon as practicable after the search, documenting all items found on the detainee and everything said and done by all persons present; and
 - (ii) that, as soon as practicable after the search, the record is read aloud to the detainee and the reading is recorded on videotape; and
 - (iii) that, when the videotape recording begins (but before the reading begins) the detainee is invited to interrupt the reading at any time to point out errors or omissions in the record; and
 - (iv) that, if the detainee in fact interrupts the reading to point out an error or omission, the detainee is then allowed a reasonable opportunity to do so; and
 - (v) that, at the end of the reading, but while the videotape recording continues, the detainee is again invited to point out errors or omissions in the record and allowed a reasonable opportunity to do so; and
 - (vi) that, if the police officer agrees that there is an error or omission in the record, the officer amends the record to correct the error or omission and if the officer does not agree that there is an error or omission in the record, the officer nevertheless makes a note of the error or omission asserted by the detainee in an addendum to the record.
- (3a) In deciding whether it is reasonably practicable to make a videotape recording under this section, the following matters must be considered:
- (a) the availability of recording equipment within the period for which it would be lawful to detain the detainee;
 - (b) mechanical failure of recording equipment;

- (c) any objections made to the recording by the detainee;
 - (d) any other relevant matter.
- (3b) If a videotape recording is made under this section, the police officer must, as soon as is reasonably practicable, give the detainee a written statement of his or her right—
- (a) to have the videotape played over to the detainee or his or her legal adviser (or both); and
 - (b) to obtain a copy of the videotape recording.
- (3c) Arrangements must be made, at the request of a detainee, for the playing of a videotape at a reasonable time and place to be nominated by the police officer.
- (3d) A detainee must be provided, on request and on payment of the fee fixed by regulation, with a copy of a videotape recording made under this section.
- (3e) A person (other than the detainee) must not play, or cause to be played, a videotape recording made under this section except—
- (a) for purposes related to the investigation of an offence or alleged misconduct to which the person reasonably believes the recording may be relevant; or
 - (b) for the purposes of, or purposes related to, legal proceedings, or proposed legal proceedings, to which the recording is relevant.

Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (3f) A videotape recording made under this section or a written record of an intimate search must be destroyed—
- (a) if the Commissioner of Police is satisfied that it is not likely to be required for any of the purposes referred to in subsection (3e); or
 - (b) if a court or tribunal so orders.
- (3g) The Governor may, by regulation, provide for the storage, control, movement or destruction of videotape recordings and written records made of intimate searches under this section.
- (4) Where a person is in lawful custody on a charge of committing an offence, a police officer may, if the officer believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to do so for the purpose of identifying that person or identifying that person as the person who committed an offence—
- (a) take, or cause to be taken, photographs of that person and prints of the hands, fingers, feet or toes of that person, and may use, or cause to be used, such reasonable force as is necessary for that purpose;
 - (c) make a recording of the voice of that person;
 - (d) request that person to supply a sample of his or her handwriting.
- (4a) A police officer may not exercise a power under subsection (4) for the purpose of identifying a person in lawful custody as the person who committed an offence unless—
- (a) the person has been charged with the offence; or
 - (b) the police officer is acting upon the authorisation of a magistrate given under this section.

- (4b) For the purposes of subsection (4a), a police officer may obtain the authorisation of a magistrate upon application made in person or, if it is impracticable to do so in person, upon application made by telephone.
- (4c) A magistrate to whom application is made under subsection (4b) may give the authorisation if the magistrate thinks it proper to do so in all the circumstances of the case.
- (4d) Where application is made under subsection (4b) in person, the magistrate must give an authorisation in writing and where application is made under that subsection by telephone, the magistrate must, as soon as is practicable after giving the authorisation, cause a written memorandum of the authorisation to be forwarded to the police officer who made the application.
- (4e) A person who refuses or fails to comply with the reasonable directions of a person who seeks to obtain a sample of his or her voice or handwriting under subsection (4) is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $1 250 or imprisonment for 3 months

- (4g) A procedure under this section—
- (a) must be carried out humanely and with care—
 - (i) to avoid, as far as reasonably practicable, offending genuinely held cultural values or religious beliefs; and
 - (ii) to avoid inflicting unnecessary physical harm, humiliation or embarrassment; and
 - (b) must not be carried out in the presence or view of more persons than are necessary for properly carrying out the procedure and satisfying any relevant statutory requirements.
- (5) The powers given by this section are in addition to, and do not derogate from, any other powers of police officers.
- (5a) No civil or criminal liability is incurred by a person who carries out, or assists in carrying out, a procedure under this section for an act or omission if—
- (a) the person genuinely believes that the procedure is authorised under this section; and
 - (b) the act or omission is reasonable in the circumstances.

- (6) In this section—

intimate intrusive search means an intrusive search of the rectum or vagina;

intimate search means a search of the body that involves exposure of, or contact with the skin of, the genital or anal area, the buttocks or, in the case of a female, the breasts, and includes an intimate intrusive search;

intrusive search means an internal search involving the introduction of anything into a bodily orifice;

medical practitioner means a person registered under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law to practise in the medical profession (other than as a student);

registered nurse means a person registered under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law—

- (a) to practise in the nursing and midwifery profession as a nurse (other than as a student); and
- (b) in the registered nurses division of that profession.

82—General powers, privileges, duties etc of police

A police officer has, in addition to the powers, privileges, duties and responsibilities conferred or imposed by this or any other Act, all such powers, privileges, duties and responsibilities as a constable has by the common law.

Part 19—Right to an interpreter

83A—Right to an interpreter

- (1) Where—
 - (a) a person whose native language is not English is suspected of having committed an offence; and
 - (b) the person is not reasonably fluent in English,the person is entitled to be assisted by an interpreter during any questioning conducted by an investigating officer in the course of an investigation of the suspected offence.
- (2) Where it appears that a person may be entitled to be assisted by an interpreter under subsection (1), an investigating officer must not proceed with any questioning, or further questioning, until the person has been informed of the right to an interpreter that exists under subsection (1).
- (3) If a person who is entitled to be assisted by an interpreter under subsection (1) requests the assistance of an interpreter, an investigating officer must not proceed with any questioning, or further questioning, until an interpreter is present.
- (4) In this section—

investigating officer means—

 - (a) a police officer;
 - (b) a person authorised by or under an Act to investigate the suspected offence.

Part 20—Miscellaneous

83B—Dangerous areas

- (1) Where a senior police officer believes on reasonable grounds that it would be unsafe for members of the public to enter a particular area, locality or place because of conditions temporarily prevailing there, the officer may declare the area, locality or place to be dangerous.
- (2) A declaration under this section—
 - (a) comes into force when it is made but should be broadcast as soon as practicable after that time by public radio or published in any other manner the senior police officer thinks appropriate in the circumstances of the case; and
 - (b) remains in force for a period (not exceeding 2 days) stated in the declaration.
- (3) Where a declaration is in force under this section, a police officer may—
 - (a) warn any person apparently proceeding towards, or in the vicinity of, the dangerous area, locality or place against entering it; and
 - (b) require or signal the driver of a motor vehicle to stop so that such a warning may be given to the occupants of the vehicle.
- (4) A warning under this section lapses—
 - (a) when the relevant declaration expires; or
 - (b) at some earlier time specified by a senior police officer.
- (5) A person who—
 - (a) enters a dangerous area, locality or place contrary to a warning under this section; or
 - (b) fails, without reasonable excuse, to stop a vehicle when required or signalled to do so under this section,is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: $2 500 or imprisonment for 6 months.
- (6) Subsection (5)(a) does not apply to—
 - (a) a person if it is reasonably necessary for the person to enter the area, locality or place in order to protect life or property; or
 - (b) a representative of the news media, unless the police officer who gave the warning believes on reasonable grounds that the entry of the representative into the area, locality or place would give rise to a risk of death or injury to any person other than the representative and advises the representative accordingly.
- (7) If—
 - (a) a person enters a dangerous area, locality or place contrary to a warning under this section; and
 - (b) the person is found guilty of an offence against subsection (5)(a), the person is liable to compensate the Crown for the costs of operations reasonably carried out for the purpose of finding or rescuing that person.

- (8) In civil or criminal proceedings under this section, a certificate apparently signed by a senior police officer stating—
- (a) that a declaration was made under this section in relation to a particular area, locality or place; and
 - (b) that the declaration was in force for a specified period; and
 - (c) the grounds on which the declaration was made,
- will be accepted, in the absence of proof to the contrary, as proof of the matters stated in the certificate.
- (9) The Commissioner must, as soon as practicable after each successive period of three months following the commencement of this section, submit a report to the Minister in relation to that period stating—
- (a) the number of declarations made under this section during that period;
 - (b) in relation to each declaration made during that period—
 - (i) the area, locality or place in relation to which the declaration was made;
 - (ii) the period for which the declaration was in force;
 - (iii) the grounds on which the declaration was made;
 - (c) any other matters the Commissioner considers relevant.
- (10) The Minister must cause copies of a report under subsection (9) to be laid before both Houses of Parliament within seven sitting days after receipt of the report if Parliament is in session, or if Parliament is not then in session, within seven sitting days after the commencement of the next session of Parliament.
- (11) A declaration may not be made under this section in relation to circumstances arising in an emergency for which a declaration under the Emergency Management Act 2004 or Part 11 of the South Australian Public Health Act 2011 is in force.

83BA—Overcrowding at public venues

- (1) A police officer may enter and inspect a public venue to determine whether there is overcrowding such that there is serious risk of injury or damage.
- (2) Where a senior police officer forms the opinion that there is serious risk of injury or damage due to overcrowding at a public venue, the officer may do one or more of the following:
- (a) order persons to leave the place immediately;
 - (b) order the occupier of the place immediately to remove persons from the place;
 - (c) order the occupier of the place to take other specified action to rectify the situation immediately or within a specified period;
 - (d) if an order under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) is not obeyed, take action to carry out the order;

- (e) if satisfied that the safety of persons cannot reasonably be ensured by other means, order the occupier of the place to close the place immediately and for such period as the officer considers necessary (but not exceeding 12 hours) for the alleviation of the danger;
 - (f) if a closure order under paragraph (e) cannot for any reason be given to the occupier, or if a closure order, having been given to the occupier, is not immediately obeyed, take action to close the place for such period as the officer considers necessary (but not exceeding 12 hours) for the alleviation of the danger.
- (3) An order under this section may be given orally or by notice in writing served on the occupier of the place.
 - (4) If a closure order under this section is given orally, the officer must as soon as practicable cause a written notice containing the order to be served on the occupier of the place.
 - (5) If a person given an order under this section refuses or fails to obey the order, the person is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: $2 500 or imprisonment for 6 months.
 - (6) When a senior police officer is satisfied that the danger has been alleviated, he or she may rescind an order under this section.
 - (7) A senior police officer may authorise another police officer to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by subsection (2) if satisfied (whether on the basis of his or her own observations or the report of another police officer) that urgent action is required.
 - (8) A police officer may use such force to enter a place, or to take other action under this section, as is reasonably necessary for the purpose.
 - (9) The Commissioner must include in the Commissioner's annual report to the Minister to whom the administration of the Police Act 1998 is for the time being committed a record of the authorisations issued under subsection (7) during the period to which the report relates.

83C—Special powers of entry

- (1) Where a senior police officer suspects on reasonable grounds—
 - (a) that an occupant of premises has died and his or her body is in the premises; or
 - (b) that an occupant of premises is in need of medical or other assistance,the officer may authorise a police officer to enter the premises for the purpose of investigating the matter and taking such action as the circumstances of the case may require.
- (2) An authorisation under subsection (1) must be in writing unless the authorising officer has reason to believe that in the circumstances urgent action is required, in which case, the authorisation may be given orally.

- (3) Where a person has died and the Commissioner considers it necessary or desirable to do so, the Commissioner may issue to a police officer a warrant in the prescribed form authorising the officer to enter the premises in which the person last resided before death and—
- (a) search the premises for material that might identify or assist in identifying the deceased or relatives of the deceased;
 - (b) take property of the deceased into safe custody.
- (4) A police officer may, if necessary, exercise reasonable force for the purpose of obtaining entry to premises, or carrying out a search, under this section.
- (5) The Commissioner is responsible for ensuring that a proper record is kept of property taken from premises under this section and must, if satisfied that a person has a proper interest in the matter, allow that person to inspect the record.
- (6) The Commissioner must, as soon as practicable (but not later than three months) after each 30 June, submit a report to the Minister in relation to the year ended on that 30 June stating—
- (a) the number of authorisations and warrants granted under this section during that year;
 - (b) the nature of the grounds on which the authorisations and warrants were granted;
 - (c) the type of property taken from premises pursuant to warrant under this section;
 - (d) any other matters the Commissioner considers relevant.
- (7) The Minister must cause copies of a report under subsection (6) to be laid before both Houses of Parliament within seven sitting days after receipt of the report if Parliament is in session, or if Parliament is not then in session, within seven sitting days after the commencement of the next session of Parliament.

85—Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may—
- (a) declare any specified articles or things, or articles or things of a specified class, to be dangerous articles or prohibited weapons for the purposes of section 15;
 - (b) declare a person or a class of persons to be an exempt person or class for the purposes of section 15(1e) in the circumstances specified in the regulation;
 - (c) impose fees in relation to the administration of this Act;
 - (d) impose a penalty (not exceeding a fine of $2 500) for contravention of, or non-compliance with, a regulation.

Provisions amended since 3 February 1976

- Legislative history prior to 3 February 1976 appears in marginal notes and footnotes included in the consolidation of this Act contained in Volume 8 of The Public General Acts of South Australia 1837-1975 at page 429.
- Certain textual alterations were made to this Act by the Commissioner of Statute Revision when preparing the reprint of the Act that incorporated all amendments in force as at 8 July 1985. A Schedule of these alterations was laid before Parliament on 1 August 1985.

New entries appear in bold.

Entries that relate to provisions that have been deleted appear in italics.
