PART 1
PRELIMINARY

Citation

1. These regulations may be cited as the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Regulations 1996.

Commencement

2. These regulations will come into operation on the day on which the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1996 comes into operation.

Revocation

3. All regulations previously made under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1966 are revoked.

Interpretation

4. In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—

"Act" means the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1996;

"place" of a birth, marriage or death means—

- (a) where the birth, marriage or death (as the case may be) occurs at a place that has an address—that address;
- (b) where the birth, marriage or death (as the case may be) occurs at a place that does not have an address—a statement identifying the general location in which the birth, marriage or death occurred.

PART 2
REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS

Particulars required in notification of birth

5. A notice of the birth of a child to be given under section 12(1) of the Act must include the following particulars:

- (a) whether the child was born alive;
- (b) the date and place of the birth;
- (c) the child's sex;
- (d) the name and usual residential address of the child's mother;
- (e) the name and usual residential address of the doctor or midwife responsible for the professional care of the mother at the birth.

Information to be included in birth registration statement

6. A birth registration statement required to be lodged under section 14 of the Act in relation to the birth of a child must include the following information:

- (a) whether the child was born alive and, if not, the period of gestation of the child (in weeks);
- (b) the date and place of the birth;
- (c) the child's sex;
- (d) the child's weight at birth (in grams);
- (e) if the child was born alive—the child's name¹;
- (f) if the child was the product of a multiple birth—the total number of children born as a result of the multiple birth and the number of those children born before this child;
- (g) the name of the child's mother and, if it is different to her current name, the mother's name at birth (or on adoption);
- (h) the date of birth (or age in years if the date of birth is not available), place of birth, occupation and usual residential address of the child's mother;
- (i) the name of the child's father and, if it is different to his current name, the father's name at birth (or on adoption);
- (j) the date of birth (or age in years if the date of birth is not available), place of birth, occupation and usual residential address of the child's father;

¹In the case of a still-born child the birth registration statement may, but need not, state the name of the child—see section 21 of the Act.

- (k) if the father or mother of the child was born overseas—his or her period of residence in Australia or, if he or she has had more than one period of residence in Australia, the aggregate of those periods;
- (l) if the child's mother and father are married—the date and place of the marriage;
- (m) the name, sex and date of birth of each previous child of the child's mother and father;
- (n) the sex and date of birth of each previous child of the child's mother and a person other than the child's father;
- (o) whether the child's mother or father is of Aboriginal or Torres Straight Islander descent;
- (p) the name and usual residential address of the doctor or midwife responsible for the professional care of the mother at the birth.
