PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. These regulations may be cited as the Classification of Publications Regulations, 1985.

2. These regulations shall take effect from 1 April 1985.

3. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:

"the Act" means the Classification of Publications Act, 1974.

"A.C.T. law" means the Classification of Publications Ordinance 1983 of the Australian Capital Territory (including the regulations under that Ordinance) as in force from time to time.

"trailer" means a film that comprises or includes excerpts from another film and is designed to advertise that other film.

4. The Classification of Publications Regulations, 1982 (No. 157 of 1982) made under the Act on 19 August 1982 and published in the Government Gazette of the same day at page 521, as varied, are revoked.

Corresponding law

5. For the purposes of section 14 of the Act, the A.C.T. law is a corresponding law.

Corresponding classifications

5a. For the purposes of section 14 of the Act, a classification of a publication under a corresponding law as a category 1 or 2 restricted publication or a "G", "PG", "M", "MA" or "R" film corresponds to a classification in the same terms under the Act.

6. Where the Board considers the classification to be assigned to a publication that is a film at the request of any person such person shall pay to the Board a fee of $35.00 which is not refundable.

7. (1) An application pursuant to section 15 of the Act for the review of a classification assigned to a publication may be lodged with the Registrar of the Board and must be in the form set out in Schedule 1.

(2) An application referred to in subregulation (1) of this regulation must be accompanied by seven copies of the publication, where the publication is not a film, of which six copiers shall be returned to the applicant after the Board's decision in respect of the application has been made.

(3) An application for review by the Board, in respect of a publication that is a film, must be accompanied by a fee of $50 which is not refundable.

PART II

MARKING OF PUBLICATIONS OTHER THAN FILMS

Purpose of regs. 8 and 9

7a. Regulations 8 and 9 are made for the purposes of section 18(4) of the Act.

8. (1) A publication, other than a film, that is a category 1 restricted publication must be marked on its front:

- (a) with a symbol in the form of a capital letter "R" enclosed within but not touched by a diamond the letter being not less than 5 mm and not more than 10 mm in height; and
- (b) alongside the symbol referred to in paragraph (a) of this subregulation, with the words:

"Category 1 Restricted Publication—Not available to persons under 18 years. Not to be exhibited publicly unless in a sealed package."

(2) Where a category 1 restricted publication, other than a film, is displayed in a sealed package that is opaque such package must be marked on its front with the markings referred to in subregulation (1) of this regulation.

9. A publication, other than a film, that is a category 2 restricted publication must be marked on its front:

- (a) with a symbol in the form of a capital letter "R" enclosed within but not touched by a diamond the letter being not less than 5 mm and not more than 10 mm in height; and
- (b) alongside the symbol referred to in paragraph (a) of this regulation, with the words:

"Category 2 Restricted Publication—Not available to persons under 18 years. Not to be sold or exhibited except in a restricted publications area. To be delivered only on direct request and in opaque wrapping. Not to be advertised publicly."

* * * * *

11. (1) No person shall display, sell, deliver or otherwise deal with an unclassified publication, other than a film, if such publication is marked in a manner specified in this Division.

(2) Any person who is in breach of or fails to comply with this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding $2 000.

PART III

FILMS

DIVISION I—MARKING OF FILMS AND CONTAINERS

Application and interpretation

11a. (1) This Division applies to any film classified under the Act.

(2) In this Division—

(a) a reference to the classification symbol appropriate to a film is a reference to—

- (i) in the case of a "G" film—the symbol G ;
- (ii) in the case of a "PG" film—the symbol PG ;
- (iii) in the case of an "M" film—the symbol M 15+;
- (iiia) in the case of an "MA" film—the symbol MA 15+;
- (iv) in the case of an "R" film—the symbol R 18+;

(b) a reference to the classification description appropriate to a film is a reference to—

- (i) in the case of a "G" film—the description "for general exhibition";
- (ii) in the case of a "PG" film—the description "parental guidance recommended for persons under 15 years";
- (iii) in the case of an "M" film—the description "recommended for mature audiences 15 years and over";
- (iiib) in the case of an "MA" film—the description "restrictions apply to persons under the age of fifteen years";
- (iv) in the case of an "R" film—the description "restricted to adults 18 years and over";

(c) a reference to consumer advice appropriate to a film is a reference to a statement, if any, setting out a warning or advice about the contents of the film to be given to potential consumers included in the certificate of classification of the film issued by the Board or the Censorship Board within the meaning of the A.C.T. law.

Images to be displayed on film or trailer

11b. (1) Each film must include an image (displayed before the film or contemporaneously with the title of the film) of—

- (a) the appropriate classification symbol;
- (b) the appropriate classification description;

(c) the appropriate consumer advice, if any.

(2) Subject to subregulation (3), a trailer must include an image (displayed before the film or contemporaneously with the title of the film) of the classification symbol appropriate to the film advertised in the trailer.

(3) In the case of a trailer advertising an "M" film or an "MA" film the numerals and plus sign forming part of the classification symbol need not be displayed.

(4) The design for the image required to be included in a film or trailer and the length of time for which it is displayed must be such as to ensure that the image is clearly legible to a person viewing the film or trailer.

(5) A person who sells, displays or delivers on sale a film or trailer that does not comply with this regulation is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $2 000.

Marking of video cassette and cover

11c. (1) This regulation is made for the purposes of section 18(4) of the Act.

(2) The spine of a video cassette must be marked with the classification symbol appropriate to the film contained in the cassette.

(3) Subject to subregulation (4), a video cassette cover that includes written or pictorial matter relating to the film it contains must be marked as follows:

(a) on a band, 20 mm in width, across the base of the front of the cover there must be displayed—

(i) at the left hand edge, the classification symbol appropriate to the film contained in the cassette;

(ii) immediately to the right of that symbol, the appropriate classification description;

and

(iii) directly beneath that description, the appropriate consumer advice (if any);

(b) the appropriate classification symbol must also be displayed—

(i) on a band, 20 mm in width, across the base of the spine of the cover;

and

(ii) on a rectangular space, 30 mm × 20 mm, at the right hand edge of the base of the back of the cover (the shorter measurement being taken from the bottom edge of the cover);

6.

- (c) no further information may be displayed on the parts of the cover referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b).

Marking of film container other than video cassette or video cassette cover

11d. For the purposes of section 18(4) of the Act, any package, container, wrapping or casing (other than a video cassette or video cassette cover) that is designed or used to hold a film and that contains a film and includes written or pictorial matter relating to the film must be marked in a prominent position with—

- (a) the appropriate classification symbol;
- (b) the appropriate classification description;
- and
- (c) the appropriate consumer advice, if any.

Standards for markings under this Division

11e. (1) Any marking required to be displayed under this Division must be of a size not less than that specified in schedule 4.

(2) The typeface and colours used for any markings required to be displayed under this Division must be such as to ensure that the markings are clearly visible.

Films classified before 1 June, 1990

11f. Where a film has been assigned a classification under the Act before 1 June, 1990, and that classification has not subsequently been altered, the film and any package, container, wrapping or casing containing such a film may, instead of being marked in accordance with these regulations, be marked in accordance with the regulations as in force immediately prior to that date.

12. (1) No person shall display, sell, deliver or otherwise deal with an unclassified publication that is a film if such film is marked in the manner specified in this Division.

(2) Any person who is in breach of or fails to comply with this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding $2 000.

DIVISION II—ADVERTISEMENTS

Offence relating to advertisements

13. (1) A person who publishes a printed advertisement of a film that has been classified under the Act is guilty of an offence if the advertisement does not comply with this Division.

Penalty: $2 000.

(2) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subregulation (1) if the defendant proves—

- (a) that he or she took no part in determining the contents of the advertisement;
- and

- (b) that he or she could not reasonably be expected to have known that the advertisement did not comply with the Division.

Markings to be displayed in printed advertisements

13a. (1) Subject to subregulation (2), each printed advertisement of a film that has been classified under the Act must display the classification symbol, classification description and consumer advice (if any) appropriate to the film advertised.

(2) In the case of a printed advertisement for an "M" film or an "MA" film that occupies an area of less than 150 cm², the numerals and plus sign forming part of the classification symbol need not be displayed.

(3) The markings required to be displayed in an advertisement under this regulation must be displayed as close as practicable to the title of the film advertised.

Standards for markings under this Division

13b. (1) Subject to this regulation, any marking required to be displayed under this Division must be of a size not less than that specified in schedule 4.

(2) Where a printed advertisement of a film classified under the Act occupies an area of less than 150 cm², the markings required to be displayed in that advertisement must be not less than half the height of the general character size in the main title of the film advertised.

(3) The typeface and colours used for any marking required to be displayed under this Division must be such as to ensure that the markings are clearly visible.

DIVISION III—SIGNS

Signs to be displayed at film outlets

13c. (1) For the purposes of section 18(4aa) of the Act, at least one sign complying with subregulation (2) must be displayed in a conspicuous place where, and in such form that, the sign may be conveniently read by any person on the premises.

(2) The sign must contain the following information, printed in characters not less than 15 mm high and in a dark colour on a light coloured background:

SYMBOLS EXPLANATION

- (a) the interior of such area cannot be seen from without and is equipped at each entrance with a gate or similar device capable of being fastened to exclude persons when such area is not in use; and
- (b) a notice bearing the words "RESTRICTED PUBLICATIONS AREA—PERSONS UNDER EIGHTEEN YEARS OF AGE MAY NOT ENTER. THE PUBLIC ARE WARNED THAT SOME PUBLICATIONS DISPLAYED HEREIN MAY CAUSE OFFENCE" is displayed prominently at all entrances to such area; and
- (c) the person selling, displaying or exhibiting the restricted publications or an adult employed by him is in attendance in such area at all times when the public are permitted access to that area.

(2) No person shall establish, construct or manage a restricted publications area except in accordance with this regulation.

(3) Any person who is in breach of or fails to comply with this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding $1 000.

15. (1) A person who is in charge of or in attendance at a restricted publications area shall not knowingly permit a minor to enter the restricted publications area.

(2) Any person who is in breach of or fails to comply with this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding $1 000.

16. (1) A person who is a minor shall not enter a restricted publications area.

(2) Any person who is in breach of or fails to comply with this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding $1 000.

PART V

MISCELLANEOUS

Alteration of films

17. (1) Pursuant to and for the purposes of section 14(4) of the Act a classified publication that is a film may be altered:

- (a) to the extent that material is deleted so far as is necessary to effect repairs to the film;
- (b) to the extent that material contained in a trailer is deleted; and
- (c) to the extent of adding, in the form of a trailer, excerpts from another film which has previously been given the same classification as or a lower classification than the classified film concerned.

(2) For the purposes of subregulation (1) of this regulation "G" is the lowest classification, "PG" is the second lowest classification, "M" is the third lowest classification, "MA" is the fourth lowest classification and "R" is the highest classification.

18. (1) A person shall not advertise a film that is not classified.

(2) Any person who is in breach of or fails to comply with this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding $2 000.

19. (1) A person or body specified, or of a class specified, in the first column of Schedule 2 is, subject to any applicable condition set out in the second column of Schedule 2, exempt from the provisions of the Act in respect of the distribution, delivery or exhibition of, or other dealing with, restricted publications.

(2) A person or body specified, or of a class specified, in the first column of Schedule 3 is, subject to any applicable condition set out in the second column of Schedule 3, exempt from the provisions of the Act in respect of the distribution, delivery or exhibition of, or other dealing with, films.

(3) A person ceases to have the benefit of an exemption under subregulation (2) if the person deals with a film pursuant to the exemption and the Board subsequently—

- (a) classifies the film otherwise than as "G";

or

- (b) refrains from classifying the film.

(4) For the purposes of Schedule 2 and Schedule 3—

"council" means a municipal or district council and includes a body exercising the powers of a municipal or district council:

"institute" has the same meaning as in the Libraries Act, 1982:

"sporting club" means a club, association or other body formed to promote participation in, or the enjoyment of, sport:

"sporting film" means a film that is solely or predominantly devoted to depicting a sport or instruction in, or training for, a sport.
