Citation

1. These regulations may be cited as the Conveyancers Regulations 1995.

Commencement

2. These regulations will come into operation on the day on which the Conveyancers Act 1994 comes into operation.

Interpretation

3. (1) In these regulations—

"Act" means the Conveyancers Act 1994.

(2) For the purposes of these regulations, a reference to a qualification or subject conferred by a particular institution includes a reference to a qualification or subject of a different name conferred or offered by that institution and certified by that institution to be an equivalent qualification or subject.

Note: For definition of divisional penalties (and divisional expiation fees) see Appendix 2.

Entitlement to be registered—qualifications

4. For the purposes of section 7(1)(a) of the Act, to be entitled to be registered as a conveyancer a natural person must hold at least one of the following qualifications:

- (a) Land Broking Certificate conferred by the Department for Employment, Training and Further Education;
- (b) degree of Bachelor of Business (Property) conferred by the University of South Australia, including satisfactory completion of (or status granted in) the following subjects:
 - (i) Law of Property; and
 - (ii) Conveyancing 1EF; and
 - (iii) Conveyancing 2EF; and
 - (iv) Conveyancing Law EF;
- (c) degree of Bachelor of Business in Property conferred by the University of South Australia, including satisfactory completion of (or status granted in) the following subjects:
 - (i) Law of Property; and
 - (ii) Conveyancing 1; and
 - (iii) Conveyancing 2; and
 - (iv) Conveyancing Law.

Annual fee and return

5. (1) For the purposes of section 8(2) of the Act, the date for payment of an annual fee and for lodging an annual return is—

- (a) in the case of a registered conveyancer who held a licence as a land broker under the Land Agents, Brokers and Valuers Act 1973 immediately before the commencement of these regulations—31 May in each year;
- (b) in the case of any other registered conveyancer—the last day of the month in each year that is the same month as the month in which the registration was granted.

(2) For the purposes of section 8(3) of the Act, the penalty for default in paying the annual fee or lodging the annual return is $94.

Notification of changes in circumstances

6. (1) If there is any change in—

- (a) the residential address of a registered conveyancer; or
- (b) the business or trading name under which a registered conveyancer carries on business; or
- (c) the address at which a registered conveyancer carries on business; or
- (d) the address of the registered corporate office of a registered conveyancer that is a company, the conveyancer must, within 14 days after that change, give written notice to the Commissioner of the new address or name (as the case may be).

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

Expiation fee: $160.

(2) A registered conveyancer must, within 14 days after ceasing to carry on business as a conveyancer, give written notice to the Commissioner of that fact.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

Expiation fee: $160.

(3) A registered conveyancer must, within 14 days after entering into partnership to carry on business as a conveyancer or ceasing to be in such a partnership, give written notice to the Commissioner of that fact, together with the names of the members of the new or former partnership.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

Expiation fee: $160.

Return of certificate of registration

7. If registration of a person as a conveyancer is suspended or cancelled, the person must, at the direction of the Court or the Commissioner, return the certificate of registration to the Commissioner.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

Expiation fee: $160.

Payment of interest on trust accounts to Commissioner

8. For the purposes of section 17 of the Act, the days on which a bank, building society or credit union must pay interest in respect of trust money held in a trust account to the Commissioner are 1 March, 1 June, 1 September and 1 December in each year.

Receipt of trust money

9. For the purposes of section 23(2)(a) of the Act, the receipt that a conveyancer must make available to a person making a payment of trust money—

- (a) must—
 - (i) be legibly written on a form comprised in a series of consecutively pre-numbered duplicate receipt forms marked with the name of the conveyancer and the words "Trust Account"; or
 - (ii) be in some other form approved in writing by the Commissioner on the application of the conveyancer; and
- (b) must contain the following information:
 - (i) the date of payment; and
 - (ii) the name of the person making the payment; and
 - (iii) whether the payment is by cash, cheque or bank draft and, if the payment is by cheque, the name of the drawer of the cheque; and
 - (iv) the name of the person for whom the money is received; and
 - (v) brief particulars of the purpose of the payment; and
 - (vi) the amount of the payment.

Payment of trust money

10. (1) A conveyancer must not make a payment of trust money in cash.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

- (2) When a conveyancer makes a payment of trust money by cheque, the conveyancer—
 - (a) must ensure that the cheque is marked with the name of the conveyancer and the words "Trust Account"; and
 - (b) must—
 - (i) cause the cheque to be crossed and endorsed "Not negotiable"; or
 - (ii) obtain from the person receiving the cheque a receipt that complies with subregulation (3) and keep the receipt as part of the conveyancer's records; and
 - (c) must prepare and keep as part of the conveyancer's records a cheque stub or voucher containing the following information:
 - (i) the date and reference number of the cheque;

- (ii) the name of the payee;
- (iii) the client name or reference and brief particulars of the purpose of the payment;
- (iv) the amount of the cheque.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

(3) The receipt must be legible and contain the following information:

- (a) the date and reference number of the cheque; and
- (b) particulars identifying the trust account against which the cheque is drawn; and
- (c) the name of the payee; and
- (d) brief particulars of the purpose of the payment; and
- (e) the amount of the cheque.

Keeping of records

11. (1) Subject to subregulation (2), for the purposes of section 23(1)(c) of the Act, the detailed accounts of receipts and disbursements of trust money to be compiled by a conveyancer must comply with the following requirements:

- (a) a cash receipt book (or some other form of record approved in writing by the Commissioner on the application of the conveyancer) must be kept in which the conveyancer records the following information in respect of each receipt of trust money:
 - (i) the date and reference number of the receipt; and
 - (ii) the name of the person from whom the money is received; and
 - (iii) the client name or reference to which the transaction relates; and
 - (iv) brief particulars of the purpose of the receipt; and
 - (v) the amount of the receipt;
- (b) a cash payments book (or some other form of record approved in writing by the Commissioner on the application of the conveyancer) must be kept in which the conveyancer records the following information in respect of each payment of trust money:
 - (i) the date and reference number of the cheque by which the payment was made; and
 - (ii) the name of the payee; and
 - (iii) the client name or reference to which the transaction relates; and
 - (iv) brief particulars of the purpose of the payment; and
 - (v) the amount of the cheque;

- (c) trust ledger accounts must be kept separately—
 - (i) in respect of each of the conveyancer's clients; and
 - (ii) if the conveyancer performs services for a client in respect of a number of transactions between different parties—in respect of each such transaction; and
- (d) each of the separate accounts must contain the following details:
 - (i) the name and address of the client to whom the accounts relate;
 - (ii) a brief description of the service provided and the transaction to which the accounts relate;
 - (iii) in respect of each receipt or payment of trust money—
 - (A) the date and reference number of the receipt or the cheque by which the payment is made;
 - (B) the name of the person from whom the money is received or to whom the money is paid;
 - (C) brief particulars of the purpose of the receipt or payment;
 - (D) the amount received or paid;
- (e) if the conveyancer transfers money between any of the separate accounts, the transfer must be clearly recorded—
 - (i) in both accounts; and
 - (ii) in a transfer journal,in sufficient detail that the transfer may be clearly understood;
- (f) at the end of each month, reconciliation statements must be prepared—
 - (i) reconciling the balance of the conveyancer's cash books (or other records approved under paragraph (a) or (b)) with the balance of the conveyancer's trust account; and
 - (ii) reconciling the balances of the ledgers comprised in the conveyancer's trust ledger accounts with the balance of the conveyancer's trust account,

(however, the conveyancer is not required to set out in the statement a list of individual balances, or the names of the clients on whose behalf money is held).

(2) A registered conveyancer who held a licence as a land broker under the Land Agents, Brokers and Valuers Act 1973 immediately before the commencement of these regulations is not required to compile detailed accounts of receipts and disbursements of trust money that take place in the first audit period ending after commencement of these regulations in accordance with subregulation (1) if they are compiled in accordance with regulation 20 of the Land Agents, Brokers and Valuers Regulations 1986 as in force immediately before the commencement of these regulations (but subregulation (1) must be complied with in respect of trust money subsequently received or disbursed).

Transfer of money from trust account to office account

12. A conveyancer who becomes entitled to money held in the conveyancer's trust account in or towards satisfaction of the conveyancer's commission, fees, costs or disbursements must, as soon as practicable and in any event within three months, transfer the money to an account maintained by the conveyancer for receipts other than trust money.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

Audit of trust accounts

13. (1) For the purposes of section 24(1)(a) of the Act, the audit period in respect of which a conveyancer must have the accounts and records audited is the period from—

- (a) the end of the conveyancer's last audit period (whether under the Act or the repealed Land Agents, Brokers and Valuers Act 1973); or
- (b) in the case of a conveyancer being granted registration—the date of registration, until—

- (c) two months before the date next occurring on which the conveyancer must lodge an annual return; or
- (d) if the Commissioner fixes some other date at the request of the conveyancer—the date next occurring fixed by the Commissioner.

(2) In carrying out an audit, the auditor must—

- (a) make checks that will enable the auditor to give an opinion as to whether the conveyancer has, during the period covered by the audit, complied with the Act and these regulations relating to the conveyancer's accounts and records; and
- (b) ascertain whether a trust account under Division 2 of Part 4 of the Act was kept by the conveyancer during that period; and
- (c) make a general test examination of any trust account kept by the conveyancer and of the pass books and statements relating to any such account during that period; and
- (d) make a comparison as to no fewer than two dates (one to be the last day of the period of the audit and one other to be a date within that period selected by the auditor) between—
 - (i) the liabilities of the conveyancer to the conveyancer's clients as shown by the conveyancer's trust ledger accounts and the records kept under these regulations; and
 - (ii) the aggregate of the balances standing to the credit of the conveyancer's trust account; and
- (e) ask for such information and explanations as the auditor may require for the purposes of this regulation.

(3) For the purposes of section 24(1)(b) of the Act, the statement relating to the audit must be prepared by the auditor and must include all matters relating to the conveyancer's accounts and records that should, in the auditor's opinion, be communicated to the Commissioner and, in particular, deal with each of the following matters:

- (a) whether the accounts and records appear to have been kept regularly and properly written up at all times;
- (b) whether the accounts and records have been ready for examination at the periods appointed by the auditor;
- (c) whether the conveyancer has complied with the auditor's requirements;
- (d) whether, at any time during the period of the audit, the conveyancer's trust account was overdrawn and, if so, the full explanation for that given by the conveyancer;
- (e) whether the conveyancer has, or has had, any debit balances in his or her trust account and the explanation or reason for such a debit given by the conveyancer;
- (f) whether the auditor has received and examined the notice given to the auditor under regulation 14 and the result of that examination;
- (g) whether the conveyancer has complied with section 15 of the Act.

(4) The auditor must attach to the auditor's statement a copy of the conveyancer's notice delivered to the auditor under regulation 14(1).

(5) The auditor must verify the statement by statutory declaration and give a signed copy of the statement to the conveyancer.

(6) If the auditor in the course of auditing the conveyancer's accounts and records discovers—

- (a) that they are not kept in a manner that enables them to be properly audited; or
- (b) a matter that appears to the auditor to involve dishonesty or a breach of the law by the conveyancer; or
- (c) a loss or deficiency of trust money or a failure to pay or account for trust money; or
- (d) a failure to comply with the Act or these regulations, the auditor must, as soon as possible, give a report in respect of the discovery to the Commissioner and the conveyancer concerned.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

(7) For the purposes of section 24(3)(b) of the Act, a conveyancer must lodge an audit statement or declaration within two months after the end of each audit period.

(8) For the purposes of section 24(4) of the Act, the civil penalty for default in lodging the audit statement or declaration within the time allowed is $300.

Conveyancer's statement

14. (1) A conveyancer who is required to have accounts and records audited under Division 2 of Part 4 of the Act must, before the completion of the audit, certify—

- (a) under his or her hand; or
- (b) in the case of a firm of conveyancers—under the hands of not less than two partners of the firm; or
- (c) in the case of a conveyancer that is a company—under the hands of not less than two directors of the company, and deliver to the auditor a notice setting out in detail, as of the last day of the period to which the audit relates, particulars of—

- (d) the names of all persons on whose behalf the conveyancer is holding trust money and the amount of the credit of each such person; and
- (e) all negotiable or bearer securities or deposit receipts in the name of the conveyancer which represent money drawn from the conveyancer's trust account and which were held by the conveyancer on that day; and
- (f) —
 - (i) the names of the trust accounts in which the balance of the conveyancer's trust money is lodged and the balances on that date of those accounts; and
 - (ii) if the trust account balances are not in agreement with the balances of the conveyancer's ledger accounts—a statement reconciling those balances.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

(2) The notice must be verified by statutory declaration—

- (a) of the conveyancer; or
- (b) in the case of a firm of conveyancers—of not less than two of the partners of the firm; or
- (c) in the case of a conveyancer that is a company—of not less than two directors of the company.

(3) The conveyancer must give the auditor making the next succeeding audit of the conveyancer's accounts and records—

- (a) at the request of the auditor, a copy of the notice, together with a signed copy of the auditor's statement of the last preceding audit of the conveyancer's accounts and records; or

- (b) if the conveyancer's accounts and records are being audited for the first time or, if for any other reason a copy of the notice cannot be produced for the purpose of the audit—before completion of the audit, a notice containing the same particulars as to money, negotiable or bearer securities and deposit receipts held on the first day of the period to which the audit relates.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

Audit when conveyancer ceases to carry on business

15. (1) If a conveyancer ceases to carry on business as a conveyancer, the conveyancer, or, if the conveyancer has died, the conveyancer's personal representative, must—

- (a) cause the conveyancer's accounts and records kept under Division 2 of Part 4 of the Act to be audited and reported on by an auditor for the period from the previous audit up to the date on which the conveyancer's affairs are wound up; and
- (b) submit a copy of the auditor's statement to the Commissioner within four months of the winding up of the conveyancer's affairs or within such further period as the Commissioner may allow.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

(2) The relevant provisions of the Act and these regulations apply (subject to such modifications as may be necessary) to the audit and statement required by this regulation.

(3) The conveyancer, or his or her personal representative, must continue to comply with the Act and these regulations as if the conveyancer had not ceased to carry on business until the conveyancer's affairs (so far as they relate to trust money and other matters required to be recorded under these regulations) are properly and finally wound up.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

(4) The preceding provisions of this regulation do not apply to a conveyancer who, before ceasing to carry on business, was a member of a firm if all continuing members of the firm and (unless the conveyancer is dead) the conveyancer certify to the Commissioner that the trust money and other matters in respect of which records are required to be kept under these regulations are under the proper administration and control of the continuing partners or some of them.

(5) In this regulation—

"conveyancer" includes a former conveyancer.

Audit and report, etc., for firm operates for each partner

16. An audit of accounts and records kept by a firm of conveyancers and the auditor's statement and attached notice relating to the firm's accounts and records will be taken to operate as an audit, statement and notice in respect of each conveyancer who is a member of the firm.

Certain persons may not audit accounts and records of conveyancer

17. A person must not audit the accounts and records of a conveyancer if the person—

- (a) is, or has been within two years, an employee or partner of the conveyancer; or
- (b) is an employee of another conveyancer actually carrying on business as a conveyancer; or

- (c) is, himself or herself, a conveyancer carrying on business as a conveyancer.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.

Indemnity fund

18. For the purposes of section 31(2)(c) of the Act, money standing to the credit of the indemnity fund may be applied in payment of amounts approved by the Minister towards the cost of—

- (a) the advisory service relating to trust accounts conducted by the Australian Institute of Conveyancers South Australian Division Inc. for the benefit of conveyancers, including the preparation and publication of manuals and other materials as part of that service;
- (b) the advisory service relating to conveyancing conducted by the Australian Institute of Conveyancers South Australian Division Inc. for the benefit of members of the public, including the preparation and publication of brochures and other materials as part of that service;
- (c) the educational program known as the Professional Development Program conducted by the Australian Institute of Conveyancers South Australian Division Inc. for the benefit of conveyancers;
- (d) a review of the curriculum of the Land Broking Certificate course offered by the Department for Employment, Training and Further Education.

Claimant's entitlement to compensation and interest

19. For the purposes of section 39(2) of the Act, the rate of interest by which a claimant's entitlement to compensation is to be increased is 5% per annum.
