Legislative history

1—Short title

These regulations may be cited as the Corporations (South Australia) Regulations 1990.

2—Interpretation

In these regulations—

the Act means the Corporations (South Australia) Act 1990;

prescribed reference means a reference to a co-operative scheme law or a Part, Division or provision of a co-operative scheme law.

3—Modification of application of Companies (South Australia) Code

The Companies (South Australia) Code has effect as if references in that Code to the Commission were references to the Corporate Affairs Commission.

4—Certain provisions in State laws not to include references to corresponding Corporations Laws

Section 90(2), (3) and (4) of the Act do not apply in relation to prescribed references in the following laws of the State:

- (a) Associations Incorporation Act 1985—section 41 and any regulation made pursuant to that section;
- (c) Co-operatives Act 1983—sections 13, 29(2), 31, 37(2), 59, 61, 69 and 76 and any regulation made pursuant to or for the purposes of any of those sections.

6—Staff—period of special leave without pay

For the purposes of section 82 of the Act, the prescribed period is—

- (a) in the case of a member of the Commission's staff appointed on 1 January 1991 who was, immediately before his or her appointment, employed in the office of the Corporate Affairs Commission as a Corporate Analyst—a period of three years commencing on 1 January 1991;
- (b) in the case of any other member of the Commission's staff appointed on 1 January 1991 who was, immediately before his or her appointment, employed in the office of the Corporate Affairs Commission—a period of two years commencing on 1 January 1991.
