Citation

1. These regulations may be cited as the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Regulations, 1988.

Commencement

2. These regulations will come into operation on 1 January, 1989.

Interpretation

3. In these regulations—

"the Act" means the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act, 1988:

"the schedule" means the schedule to these regulations.

Forms

4. The forms set out in the schedule are prescribed for the purposes of the Act.

Enforcement of bonds and guarantees

5. (1) If, pursuant to section 57(1) of the Act, a probative court decides to issue a summons or a warrant of arrest to bring a probationer before the court on a written application made by the Crown alleging breach of bond, the court must endorse the application accordingly.

(2) A summons or warrant issued under section 57 must be in the form of Forms 6 and 7 of the schedule.

(3) The court should first issue a summons to a probationer alleged to have breached a bond unless the court has reasonable grounds to believe—

(a) that service of a summons is not likely to be effected;

or

(b) that the probationer is not likely to comply with a summons.

(4) A summons must be served on the probationer—

(a) personally;

or

(b) if personal service is not practicable or the probationer cannot, after reasonable enquiries, be found in such other manner as the court may direct,

not later than two clear working days before the date specified in the summons for the hearing of the matter.

(5) If a probationer fails to appear before the probative court in compliance with a summons and the court is satisfied that the summons was duly served on the probationer, the court may, deal with the application in the absence of the probationer instead of issuing a warrant to bring the probationer before the court.

(6) If a guarantor fails to appear before the probative court in compliance with a summons and the court is satisfied that the summons was duly served on the guarantor, the court may make orders in relation to enforcing the guarantee in the absence of the guarantor.

(7) If a probationer is found guilty of an offence committed during the term of a bond by a court that has jurisdiction to deal with proceedings for breach of the bond, the court may, on an oral application by the Crown, proceed to hear and determine the application forthwith if it is satisfied that the probationer has had adequate notice of the intention of the Crown to make such an application.

Reminder notice fees

5A. For the purposes of section 60a(2) of the Act the prescribed cost for issuing a reminder notice is $13.00.

Driver's licence disqualification notice fees

5B. For the purposes of section 61A(2a) of the Act, the prescribed cost of issuing a notice of disqualification is $17.00.

Suspension of motor vehicle registration notice fees

5C. For the purposes of section 61B(2a) of the Act, the prescribed cost of issuing a notice of an order suspending registration is $17.00.

Enforcement of community service orders

6. (1) If it appears to an appropriate officer, on an application supported by an affidavit that a person ("the defendant") has refused or neglected to comply with an order of the court requiring performance of community service, the appropriate officer must issue a notice (to which a copy of the affidavit is attached) to the defendant requiring the defendant to attend before the appropriate officer to show cause why he or she should not be dealt with according to law for the alleged non-compliance.

(2) A notice issued under subregulation (1) must be served on the defendant—

(a) personally;

(b) if personal service is not practicable or the defendant cannot, after reasonable enquiries, be found, in such other manner as the appropriate officer may direct, not later than two clear working days before the date specified in the notice for the hearing of the matter.

(3) If a defendant fails to attend before an appropriate officer in compliance with a notice under subregulation (1) and the appropriate officer is satisfied that the notice was duly served on the defendant, the appropriate officer may deal with the application for enforcement in the absence of the defendant.

(4) An appropriate officer may adjourn proceedings under this regulation at any time.

(5) The right of appeal conferred by section 71(5) of the Act against a decision of an appropriate officer to direct, or not to direct, that a sentence of imprisonment imposed under that subsection be cumulative is exercisable within one month of the making of the decision.

Enforcement of certain other court orders

7. (1) If it appears to an appropriate officer, on written advice supported by an affidavit, that a person ("the defendant") has refused or neglected to comply with an order of a court to which section 71(3) of the Act applies, the appropriate officer must apply to the court for enforcement of the order.

(2) On making an application under subregulation (1), the appropriate officer must give notice of the application to the defendant requiring the defendant to appear before the court to show cause why he or she should not be dealt with according to law for the alleged non-compliance.

(3) A notice under subregulation (2) must be served on the defendant—

(a) personally;

or

(b) if personal service is not practicable or the defendant cannot, after reasonable enquiries, be found, in such other manner as the appropriate officer may direct,

not later than two clear working days before the date specified in the notice for the hearing of the matter.

(4) If a defendant fails to appear before the court in compliance with a notice under subregulation (2) and the court is satisfied that the notice was duly served on the defendant, the court may deal with the application for enforcement in the absence of the defendant.

To the Sheriff and all members of the police force:

The defendant named in this warrant has been dealt with on a charge, ordered by a court to pay a pecuniary sum and has been in default of payment for more than one month.

The defendant has been served with a notice warning that this warrant would be issued, and failed within ten days of that service to either pay in full the pecuniary sum, or to make some further application in relation to it.

You are directed to provide the defendant with an opportunity to pay forthwith the amount in respect of which this warrant was issued (together with the costs of issuing and executing the warrant) and if payment in full is not made, to seize forthwith such of the defendant's goods (being goods that could be taken in bankruptcy proceedings) as would be necessary, if sold, to satisfy that amount or substantially reduce it.

And if within five clear days next after the making of such seizure (unless the defendant consents in writing to an earlier sale) the amount in respect of which this warrant was issued (together with any costs associated with the execution of this warrant) is not paid in full, or unless notice has been received to stay sale of the goods pending a determination of the court as to ownership, you are to sell the goods and pay the proceeds of that sale to the officer of the court who issued this warrant. If no such goods can be seized you are to certify accordingly to that officer.

The defendant has been served with a notice warning that this warrant would be issued, and failed within ten days of that service to either pay in full the pecuniary sum, or to make some further application in relation to it.

You are directed to provide the defendant with an opportunity to pay forthwith the amount in respect of which this warrant was issued (together with the costs of issuing and executing the warrant) and if payment in full is not made, to seize forthwith the defendant's land (being land at..... comprised in certificate of title volume..... folio.....) which would be likely if sold to yield that amount or substantially reduce it.

And if within five clear days next after the making of such seizure (unless the defendant consents in writing to an earlier sale) the amount in respect of which this warrant was issued (together with any costs associated with the execution of this warrant) is not paid in full, or unless notice has been received to stay sale of the land pending a determination of the court as to its ownership, you are to sell the land and pay the proceeds of that sale to the officer of the court who issued this warrant. If no such land can be seized you are to certify accordingly to that officer.
