Legislative history

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

These regulations may be cited as the Fair Work (General) Regulations 2009.

2—Commencement

These regulations will come into operation on 1 September 2009.

3—Interpretation

In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—

Act means the Fair Work Act 1994.

4—Declared employer for public employees

The following are declared to be employers of public employees for the purposes of paragraph (a) of the definition of employer in section 4(1) of the Act:

- (a) in respect of employees of the Lotteries Commission of South Australia—that body;
- (b) in respect of employees of TransAdelaide—that body;
- (c) in respect of other public employees—the person for the time being holding or acting in the position of Chief Executive of the Department of the Premier and Cabinet.

5—Employment excluded from Act

- (1) Pursuant to section 6(b) of the Act, employment which consists of part-time or casual employment performed in or about a private residence is excluded from the ambit of the Act provided that the work is wholly or mainly performed for a domestic purpose.
- (2) In this regulation work is performed for a domestic purpose if it is not performed for the purpose of the employer's trade or business.

Part 2—Enterprise agreements

6—Notice to be given by association

- (1) Pursuant to section 75(2)(b) of the Act, an association which proposes to enter into an enterprise agreement on behalf of a group of employees must give notice of that proposal to the group of employees in accordance with this regulation.
- (2) An association acting under subregulation (1) must take reasonable steps to ensure—
 - (a) that a written notice is given to each employee currently constituting the group proposed to be bound by the enterprise agreement; and
 - (b) where practicable, that a written notice is displayed at the employees' workplace.
- (3) A notice prepared under this regulation—
 - (a) must be expressed in plain English; and
 - (b) must state the full name of the association; and
 - (c) must provide the name and the phone number of an officer of the association who can be contacted for further information in relation to the proposed enterprise agreement; and
 - (d) must identify the group of employees who would or might be bound by the proposed enterprise agreement with enough particularity to enable an employee to determine whether or not they are or might be in the group; and
 - (e) must contain a statement advising employees in the group—

- (i) that if the association is authorised by a majority of the employees constituting the group to negotiate on their behalf, the association may enter into an enterprise agreement under the Act which would bind all members of the group; and
 - (ii) that any employee within the group who is a member of the association will be taken to have given an authorisation for the purposes of the Act unless the employee, by written notice to the association, withdraws the authorisation; and
- (f) must provide details of the means by which an employee within the group who is not a member of the association may give an authorisation to the association for the purposes of the Act; and
- (g) must be signed by or on behalf of the association.
- (4) The association should, so far as is reasonably practicable, ensure that a notice displayed in a workplace under this regulation is in such languages as are appropriate for a significant number of the employees to whom the notice is addressed.
- (5) If an employee reasonably requests that a notice given to the employee under this regulation be supplied in a language other than English, the association must take reasonable steps to provide the employee with a copy of the notice in the language requested.

7—Notice to be given by employer

- (1) Pursuant to section 76(1) of the Act, an employer must give notice in accordance with this regulation that negotiations for an enterprise agreement are about to begin.¹
- (2) The employer must take reasonable steps to ensure—
 - (a) that a written notice is given to each employee currently constituting the group proposed to be bound by the enterprise agreement; and
 - (b) where reasonably practicable, that a written notice, in such languages as are appropriate for a significant number of the employees to whom the notice is addressed, is displayed at the employees' workplace.
- (3) A notice prepared under this regulation—
 - (a) must be expressed in plain language; and
 - (b) must include a statement that the employer proposes to begin negotiations on the terms of an enterprise agreement and propose a date and place for the commencement of those negotiations; and
 - (c) must identify the group of employees who would or might be bound by the proposed enterprise agreement with enough particularity to enable an employee to determine whether or not they are or might be in the group; and
 - (d) may outline the employer's proposed procedure for negotiations on the terms of the enterprise agreement, including the anticipated time frame for the negotiations and any proposed consultative arrangements; and
 - (e) may outline matters that the employer proposes to be subject to negotiations for an agreement; and
 - (f) must be signed by or on behalf of the employer; and

- (g) may take the form of the notice set out in Schedule 1.
- (4) If an employee reasonably requests that a notice given to the employee under this regulation be supplied in a language other than English, the employer must take reasonable steps to provide the employee with a copy of the notice in the language requested.
- (5) Two or more employers who may be involved in negotiations on the terms of the same enterprise agreement may, if they think fit, give a notice under this regulation jointly.

Note—

- 1 Under section 76(1) of the Act notice is not required if the agreement is negotiated to settle an industrial dispute, or the Commission determines that there is good reason in the circumstances of the case to exempt the employer from this requirement.

8—Requirements for signing an enterprise agreement

- (1) Pursuant to section 77(1)(g) of the Act, an enterprise agreement must be signed—
 - (a) on behalf of an employer, by—
 - (i) the employer; or
 - (ii) a person duly authorised by the employer to sign on the employer's behalf;
 - (b) on behalf of the employees, by—
 - (i) those employees currently constituting the group proposed to be bound by the enterprise agreement and who approve of the agreement; or
 - (ii) an authorised officer of an association which has been authorised to enter into the agreement on behalf of the employees under section 75(2) of the Act; or
 - (iii) a person duly authorised by those employees currently constituting the group proposed to be bound by the enterprise agreement, and who approve of the agreement, to sign the agreement on their behalf.
- (2) If an enterprise agreement contains a provision authorised under section 77(1)(d) of the Act, the agreement must also be signed by an authorised officer of the association of employees that has been given the right to represent the industrial interests of the employees to the exclusion of another association of employees.

Part 3—Miscellaneous

9—Unfair dismissal

Pursuant to section 105A(2) of the Act, the following classes of employees are excluded from the ambit of Part 6 of Chapter 3 of the Act:

- (a) employees serving a period of probation or a qualifying period of employment, provided that the duration of the period or the maximum duration of the period—
 - (i) is determined in advance; and

- (ii) is reasonable, having regard to the nature and circumstances of the employment;
- (b) casual employees, except where—
 - (i) the employee has been engaged by the employer on a regular and systematic basis for a sequence of periods of employment during a period of at least six months; and
 - (ii) the employee has, or would have had, a reasonable expectation of continuing employment by the employer;
- (c) employees whose conditions of employment are governed by an award, enterprise agreement or contract of employment that makes specific arrangements concerning unfair dismissal that, when considered as a whole, provide protection that is at least equivalent to the protection afforded to employees under Part 6 of Chapter 3 of the Act.

10—Awards relating to disabled workers

- (1) Pursuant to section 113(1)(c) of the Act, the bodies or organisations listed in Schedule 2 are declared to be recognised organisations for the purposes of section 113 of the Act.
- (2) Pursuant to section 113(3) of the Act, an award under section 90 of the Act cannot regulate the wages or salary payable to a person to whom section 113 of the Act applies.
- (3) For the purposes of subregulation (2), wages or salary do not include—
 - (a) amounts payable by way of rates or shift premiums; or
 - (b) amounts payable for overtime; or
 - (c) allowances.

11—Continuous service

- (1) Pursuant to section 1(3) of Schedule 8 of the Act, in ascertaining whether an employee's period of service is continuous the following events or matters are to be disregarded:
 - (a) a—
 - (i) suspension, stand down or other interruption; or
 - (ii) termination,
by the employer of the employee's employment for the purpose of avoiding the employer's obligations under section 1 of Schedule 8 of the Act;
 - (b) an absence from work by the employee on authorised leave;
 - (c) subject to subregulation (2), an absence from work by the employee due to—
 - (i) the employee's illness; or
 - (ii) an accident to the employee;
 - (d) subject to subregulation (3), an absence from work by the employee, if there was reasonable cause for the absence;

- (e) subject to subregulation (4), an absence from work by the employee due to concerted or collective industrial action;
 - (f) any other absence from work, unless notice is given under subregulation (5) in relation to that absence.
- (2) Subregulation (1)(c) does not apply to an absence from work unless—
- (a) if the employee is required by the terms of an award or order of a court or tribunal that has power to fix wages and other terms and conditions of employment, or an agreement certified or approved by such a body, to—
 - (i) notify the employer of an absence from work; and
 - (ii) substantiate the reason for that absence,the employee complies with those terms; or
 - (b) in any other case—the employee informs the employer within 24 hours after the commencement of the absence, or within such longer period as is reasonable in the circumstances, as to—
 - (i) the employee's absence and inability to attend work; and
 - (ii) whether the absence is due to illness or accident; and
 - (iii) the likely duration of the absence.
- (3) Subregulation (1)(d) does not apply to an absence from work unless—
- (a) if the employee is required by the terms of an award or order of a court or tribunal that has power to fix wages and other terms and conditions of employment, or an agreement certified or approved by such a body, to—
 - (i) notify the employer of an absence from work; and
 - (ii) substantiate the reason for that absence,the employee complies with those terms; or
 - (b) in any other case—the employee informs the employer within 24 hours after the commencement of the absence, or within such longer period as is reasonable in the circumstances, of—
 - (i) the employee's absence and inability to attend work; and
 - (ii) the reason for the absence; and
 - (iii) the likely duration of the absence.
- (4) Subregulation (1)(e) does not apply to an absence from work if the Commission has determined that, for the purpose of determining the employee's entitlement to notice of termination of the employee's employment or to compensation instead of notice, the absence is to be taken as breaking the employee's continuity of service.
- (5) For the purposes of subregulation (1)(f), the employer may give to the employee notice in writing in accordance with subregulation (6) that the absence from work is to be taken as breaking the employee's continuity of service with the employer.
- (6) A notice under subregulation (5) (if any) must be given—
- (a) by delivering it to the employee personally or posting it to the employee's last known address; and

- (b) during, or within 14 days after the end of, the period of absence.
- (7) A notice given by an employer under subregulation (5)—
 - (a) may be withdrawn by the employer; and
 - (b) if withdrawn, is taken not to have been given.
