1. These Regulations may be cited as the Financial Institutions Duty Act Regulations, 1984.

1A. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires: "Act" means the Financial Institutions Duty Act, 1983.

2. The following are prescribed persons for the purposes of section 5(1)(l) of the Act:

- (a) Credit Union Financial Services (Australia) Limited;
- (b) Funds Transfer Services (Australia) Limited.

* * * * *

* * * * *

4. The following are prescribed States or Territories for the purpose of paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of section 32 of the Act:

- (a) New South Wales;
- (b) Victoria;
- (c) Western Australia;
- (d) Tasmania;
- (e) the Northern Territory;
- (f) the Australian Capital Territory.

5. (a) in paragraph (b) of this regulation:

"client" means:

- (i) a person who conducts an account with an institution and also conducts an account with the Reserve Bank; and
- (ii) credits in the first instance, to an account with that institution the receipts from his normal commercial operations.

"institution" means a registered financial institution defined in Section 3 of the Act.

"Reserve Bank" means the Rural Credits Department of the Reserve Bank of Australia.

(b) Receipts by an institution which:

- (i) are payments to that institution by the Reserve Bank;
- (ii) are to be credited to accounts of clients at the institution;

3.

- (iii) and are receipts which would, but for this regulation, be dutiable receipts in the hands of the institution, are hereby declared to be a non-dutiable class of receipts for the purposes of paragraph (r) of subsection (2) of section 7 of the Act.

6. (1) Pursuant to and for the purposes of section 7(2) of the Act the following classes of receipt are declared to be non-dutiable:

- (a) a receipt of money by a foreign exchange dealer being a receipt that forms part of a transaction entered into by the dealer pursuant to a general authority granted and issued to the dealer, but not including, where the dealer is a bank, a receipt by the bank for the credit of an account of a customer of the bank with the whole or any part of the proceeds of any such transaction;
- (ab) a receipt of money resulting from the transfer of an account where the transfer of the account occurs as a result of a merger or transfer of engagements under Part 7 of the Financial Institutions (South Australia) Code or as a result of a conversion under Part 8 of that Code;
- (ac) a receipt of money by a credit union that is a registered financial institution from Credit Union Financial Services (Australia) Limited, being a receipt for the purpose of settling a balance due to the credit union from another credit union in accordance with general clearing arrangements carried out between credit unions;
- (b) a receipt of money by a bank, that is a registered financial institution from another such bank, being a receipt for the purpose of settling a balance due to the bank from the other bank in accordance with general clearing arrangements carried out between banks;
- (c) a receipt of money by a financial institution in respect of the repayment of an advance under the Defence Service Homes Act 1918 of the Commonwealth;
- (d) a receipt of money by a registered financial institution in relation to any one of, or a combination of, the following transactions (not being a receipt comprising the crediting of an account of a customer of a registered financial institution with the proceeds of any such transaction or transactions):
- (i) an interest rate, currency or commodity swap;
 - (ii) an interest rate, currency or commodity option;
 - (iii) a forward exchange rate agreement;
 - (iv) a forward interest rate agreement;
 - (v) a futures contract traded on a Futures Exchange within the meaning of the Corporations Law;

4.

- (e) a receipt of money by a registered financial institution that is an offshore banking unit (within the meaning of Division 11A of Part III of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the Commonwealth as amended from time to time) in relation to an offshore banking activity (within the meaning of section 121D of that Act of the Commonwealth).

(2) In this regulation, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) "foreign exchange dealer" means a person who is the holder of a general authority that is in force;
- (b) "general authority" means a general authority to engage in foreign currency transactions granted and issued under regulation 38A of the Banking (Foreign Exchange) Regulations of the Commonwealth to a person named in that authority.

7. (1) The following are prescribed as non-bank financial institutions for the purposes of section 31(11)(i) of the Act:

- (a) any person who is a futures broker within the meaning of the Corporations Law;
- (b) Credit Union Financial Services (Australia) Limited;
- (c) Funds Transfer Services (Australia) Limited;

* * * * *

- (da) SA Produce Credit Pty. Ltd.;
- (e) Thomas Cook Pty Ltd.

(2) For the purposes of section 31(9) of the Act, the following amounts are prescribed—

- (a) in relation to a futures broker—any amount received from a client that is required to be deposited in a clients' segregated account under the Futures Industry (South Australia) Code;
- (ab) in relation to SA Produce Credit Pty. Ltd.—any amount received in the course, or for the purposes, of its business as a credit service;
- (b) in relation to Thomas Cook Pty. Ltd.—any amount received in the course of the banking business carried on by Thomas Cook Pty. Ltd. under an order of exemption granted by the Commonwealth Treasurer and published in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette of 23 May, 1968.

* * * * *

9. Pursuant to section 37 of the Act the form of certificate set out in the Schedule is the prescribed form of certificate for the purposes of subsection (1) of that section.

Direct credits of pensions etc. non-dutiable

10. (1) For the purposes of section 7(2) of the Act, a direct credit of a prescribed payment to an account kept by a financial institution is declared to be a class of receipt that is non-dutiable.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation, a payment is directly credited to an account if the authority making the payment pays it directly to the financial institution and the financial institution credits the payment to an account nominated by the person for whom the payment is intended.

(3) In this regulation—

"prescribed payment" means—

- (a) a pension, benefit, allowance or other payment under the Social Security Act 1991 of the Commonwealth, as amended from time to time;
- (b) a pension, benefit, allowance or other payment under the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 of the Commonwealth, as amended from time to time;
- (c) a payment known as a Domiciliary Nursing Care Benefit made by the Commonwealth Government;
- (d) a payment made by the Commonwealth Government as part of the scheme known as the Farm Household Support Scheme;
- (e) a payment from a source outside Australia approved by the Commissioner under this regulation as a prescribed payment.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (e) of the definition of "prescribed payment", the Commissioner may approve a payment as a prescribed payment if satisfied—

- (a) that the payment corresponds to a payment referred to in another paragraph of that definition; and
- (b) that satisfactory arrangements have been made to enable financial institutions to recognise a direct credit of such a payment as a non-dutiable receipt; and
- (c) that financial institutions have been given at least one month's notice of the impending approval.

Section 32(5): Amounts not to be debited against short-term dealing account

11. (1) Pursuant to section 32(5) of the Act, an amount must not be debited against a short-term dealing account kept by a bank in the name of a registered short-term money market operator unless the amount—

- (a) is an amount paid by that operator in the course of short-term dealings; or
- (b) is an amount paid from that account to another account kept in the name of that operator in South Australia or in a prescribed State or Territory by that bank or by another bank that is a registered financial institution.

6.

(2) In this regulation—

"a prescribed State or Territory" means a State or Territory prescribed for the purposes of section 32(4)(b) of the Act.
