Legislative history

1—Short title

These regulations may be cited as the Local Government (General) Regulations 1999.

4—Interpretation

- (1) In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—
Act means the Local Government Act 1999.
- (2) In these regulations, a reference to a form of a particular number is a reference to a form of that number set out in Schedule 1.

5—Public initiated submissions before Panel—prescribed notice

For the purposes of section 28(21) of the Act, public notice of a proposal must comply with the form set out as Form 1.

6—Member's declaration

For the purposes of section 60 of the Act—

- (a) a member must make an undertaking under that section in the form set out as Form 2; and
- (b) the undertaking must be made before a Justice of the Peace or some other person authorised to take declarations under the Oaths Act 1936.

7—Register of interests—members

- (1) For the purposes of clause 2(1) of Schedule 3 of the Act, a primary return under section 65 of the Act must be in the form set out as Form 3.
- (2) For the purposes of clause 2(2) of Schedule 3 of the Act, an ordinary return under section 66 of the Act must be in the form set out as Form 4.

8—Register of interests—officers

- (1) A word or expression used in this regulation that is defined in subclause (1) of clause 1 of Schedule 3 of the Act has the same meaning in this regulation as in that subclause (and as if any reference in that subclause to a member were a reference to an officer to whom Division 2 of Part 4 of Chapter 7 of the Act applies).
- (2) For the purposes of this regulation, a person who is an object of a discretionary trust is to be taken to be a beneficiary of that trust.
- (3) For the purpose of this regulation, a person is an investor in a body if—
 - (a) the person has deposited money with, or lent money to, the body that has not been repaid and the amount not repaid equals or exceeds $10 000; or
 - (b) the person holds, or has a beneficial interest in, shares in, or debentures of, the body or a policy of life insurance issued by the body.
- (4) For the purposes of this regulation, in relation to a return by an officer—
 - (a) two or more separate contributions made by the same person for or towards the cost of travel undertaken by the officer or a member of the officer's family during the return period are to be treated as one contribution for or towards the cost of travel undertaken by the officer;
 - (b) two or more separate gifts received by the officer or a person related to the officer from the same person during the return period are to be treated as one gift received by the officer;

- (c) two or more separate transactions to which the officer or a person related to the officer is a party with the same person during the return period under which the officer or a person related to the officer has had the use of property of the other person (whether or not being the same property) during the return period are to be treated as one transaction under which the officer has had the use of property of the other person during the return period.
- (5) For the purposes of section 115 of the Act, a primary return must be in the form set out as Form 5 and contain the following information:
- (a) a statement of any income source that the officer required to submit the return or a person related to the officer has or expects to have in the period of 12 months after the date of the primary return; and
 - (b) the name of any company, or other body, corporate or unincorporate, in which the officer or a member of his or her family holds any office whether as director or otherwise; and
 - (c) the information required by subregulation (7).
- (6) For the purposes of section 115 of the Act, an ordinary return must be in the form set out as Form 6 and contain the following information:
- (a) if the officer required to submit the return or a person related to the officer received, or was entitled to receive, a financial benefit during any part of the return period—the income source of the financial benefit; and
 - (b) if the officer or a member of his or her family held an office whether as director or otherwise in any company or other body, corporate or unincorporate, during the return period—the name of the company or other body; and
 - (c) the source of any contribution made in cash or in kind of or above the amount or value of $750 (other than any contribution by the council, by the State, by an employer or by a person related by blood or marriage) for or towards the cost of any travel beyond the limits of South Australia undertaken by the officer or a member of his or her family during the return period, and for the purposes of this paragraph cost of travel includes accommodation costs and other costs and expenses associated with the travel; and
 - (d) particulars (including the name of the donor) of any gift of or above the amount or value of $750 received by the officer or a person related to the officer during the return period from a person other than a person related by blood or marriage to the officer or to a member of the officer's family; and
 - (e) if the officer or a person related to the officer has been a party to a transaction under which the officer or person related to the officer has had the use of property of the other person during the return period and—
 - (i) the use of the property was not acquired for adequate consideration or through an ordinary commercial transaction or in the ordinary course of business; and
 - (ii) the market price for acquiring a right to such use of the property would be $750 or more; and

- (iii) the person granting the use of the property was not related by blood or marriage to the officer or to a member of the officer's family, the name and address of that person; and
 - (f) the information required by subregulation (7).
- (7) For the purposes of this regulation, a return (whether primary or ordinary) must contain the following information:
 - (a) the name or description of any company, partnership, association or other body in which the officer required to submit the return or a person related to the officer is an investor; and
 - (b) a concise description of any trust (other than a testamentary trust) of which the officer or a person related to the officer is a beneficiary or trustee (including the name and address of each trustee); and
 - (c) the address or description of any land in which the officer or a person related to the officer has any beneficial interest other than by way of security for any debt; and
 - (d) any fund in which the officer or a person related to the officer has an actual or prospective interest to which contributions are made by a person other than the officer or a person related to the officer; and
 - (e) if the officer or a person related to the officer is indebted to another person (not being related by blood or marriage to the officer or to a member of the officer's family) in an amount of or exceeding $7 500—the name and address of that other person; and
 - (f) if the officer or a person related to the officer is owed money by a natural person (not being related to the officer or a member of the officer's family by blood or marriage) in an amount of or exceeding $10 000—the name and address of that person; and
 - (g) any other substantial interest whether of a pecuniary nature or not of the officer or of a person related to the officer of which the officer is aware and which he or she considers might appear to raise a material conflict between his or her private interest and the duty that he or she has or may subsequently have as an officer of the council.
- (8) An officer is required by this regulation only to disclose information that is known to the officer or ascertainable by the officer by the exercise of reasonable diligence.
- (9) Nothing in this regulation requires an officer to disclose information relating to a person as trustee of a trust unless the information relates to the person in the person's capacity as trustee of a trust by reason of which the person is related to the officer.
- (10) An officer may include in a return such additional information as the officer thinks fit.
- (11) Nothing in this regulation will be taken to prevent an officer from disclosing information required by this regulation in such a way that no distinction is made between information relating to the officer personally and information relating to a person related to the officer.
- (12) Nothing in this regulation requires disclosure of the actual amount or extent of a financial benefit, gift, contribution or interest.

9—Annual reports

- (1) Pursuant to section 131(5)(b) of the Act, the South Australian Local Government Grants Commission is a prescribed body.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (5) of section 131 of the Act, the relevant day by which an annual report must be submitted by a council under that subsection is 31 December in the financial year immediately following the end of the financial year to which the annual report relates.

9A—Service rates and charges

- (1) In this regulation—

CWMS Property Units Code means the Code for Establishing and Applying Property Units as a Factor for the Imposition of Annual Service Charges for Community Wastewater Management Systems published by the LGA on 20 April 2006, as in force at the time that this regulation is made.
- (2) For the purposes of this regulation—
 - (a) the LGA is declared to be a prescribed body under section 303(4) of the Act; and
 - (b) the Code is adopted by these regulations pursuant to section 303(4) of the Act; and
 - (c) the principal office of the LGA (at 16 Hutt Street, Adelaide, 5000 or, if the LGA moves its principal office, at that new address) is specified for the purposes of section 303(7)(c) of the Act.
- (3) Pursuant to section 155(3)(b) of the Act, the following factors are prescribed:
 - (a) any category of land use declared as a permissible differentiating factor under regulation 10;
 - (b) in respect of a service for the collection, treatment or disposal of wastewater or effluent—the number of property units that apply with respect to the relevant land, as determined under the CWMS Property Units Code.

10—Differentiating factors

- (1) In this regulation—

Development Regulations means the Development Regulations 1993;

zone means an area defined as a zone, precinct or locality by a Development Plan under the Development Act 1993.
- (2) For the purposes of section 156 and 167 of the Act, the following categories of land use are declared as a permissible differentiating factors:
 - 1 Residential comprising the use of land for a detached dwelling, group dwelling, multiple dwelling, residential flat building, row dwelling or semi-detached dwelling within the meaning of the Development Regulations.
 - 2 Commercial—Shop comprising the use of land for a shop within the meaning of the Development Regulations.
 - 3 Commercial—Office comprising the use of land for an office within the meaning of the Development Regulations.

- 4 Commercial—Other comprising any other commercial use of land not referred to in categories 2 or 3.
 - 5 Industry—Light comprising the use of land for a light industry within the meaning of the Development Regulations.
 - 6 Industry—Other comprising any other industrial use of land not referred to in category 5.
 - 7 Primary Production comprising—
 - (a) farming within the meaning of the Development Regulations; and
 - (b) horticulture within the meaning of the Development Regulations; and
 - (c) the use of land for horse keeping or intensive animal keeping within the meaning of the Development Regulations; and
 - (d) in respect of a dairy situated on a farm—the use of land for a dairy within the meaning of the Development Regulations; and
 - (e) commercial forestry.
 - 8 Vacant land comprising the non-use of vacant land.
 - 9 Other comprising any other use of land not referred to in a previous category.
- (3) For the purposes of section 156(7) of the Act, a differentiating factor based on the locality of land must comply with the following principles:
- (a) there may be differentiation according to the zone in which the land is situated;
 - (b) there may be differentiation according to whether the land is situated within or outside a township (with, at the discretion of the council, a separate differentiation according to zones);
 - (c) if there are 2 or more townships in the area—there may be differentiation according to the township in which the land is situated (with, at the discretion of the council, a separate differentiation in relation to land outside the townships and, at the discretion of the council, a separate differentiation according to zones).

11—Notice of valuation

For the purposes of section 168(3)(c) of the Act, notice of a valuation made by a valuer employed or engaged by the council must be given to the principal ratepayer in respect of the land to which the valuation relates—

- (a) by showing the valuation in an account for the payment of rates in respect of the land sent to the principal ratepayer at his or her address shown in the assessment record; or
- (b) by sending a notice to the principal ratepayer at his or her address shown in the assessment record in which the council—
 - (i) identifies the land to which the valuation relates; and
 - (ii) sets out the valuation.

12—Objections to valuations made by a council

- (1) For the purposes of subsection (9)(a) of section 169 of the Act, a request under subsection (8) of that section must be made in the form set out as Form 7.
- (2) For the purposes of section 169 of the Act, the fees set out as items 1 and 2 in Schedule 2 are prescribed.

13—Rates notice

- (1) Pursuant to subsection (2) of section 180 of the Act, a rates notice under that section must incorporate, or be accompanied by, the following information:
 - (a) the location or address of the land; and
 - (b) the relevant assessment number; and
 - (c) the basis on which the rate or charge is declared (see especially section 151 of the Act); and
 - (d) the valuation method used for the purposes of valuing the relevant land and the valuation adopted for the land; and
 - (e) in the case of a differential rate—the differentiating factor including—
 - (i) if the differentiating factor is or includes the use of the land—that land use;
 - (ii) if the differentiating factor is or includes the locality of the land—that locality; and
 - (f) the date on which the rate or charge was declared; and
 - (g) if relevant, the rate in the dollar that has been declared; and
 - (h) the date or dates on which a payment or payments of the rate or charge will fall due under the Act; and
 - (i) if relevant, details of any minimum amount that has been fixed under section 158 of the Act as part of the declaration of a rate; and
 - (j) details of any rebate, remission, concession or deduction that applies with respect to the imposition of the rate or charge in relation to the relevant land; and
 - (k) the total amount payable by the ratepayer; and
 - (l) the options and arrangements that are available for payment of the rate or charge; and
 - (m) a brief description of the processes that apply under the Act—
 - (i) to object to the attribution of a particular land use (if relevant);
 - (ii) to object to the valuation adopted for the relevant land; and
 - (n) a contact telephone number for ratepayer enquiries; and
 - (o) a brief summary of the penalties that apply under the Act if an instalment of rates, or a charge, is not paid on or before the date on which it falls due (see especially section 181(8) of the Act); and

- (p) a brief statement concerning the entitlement of ratepayers to be included on the voters roll for the relevant area.
- (2) A rates notice may relate to more than one rate or charge (or to a combination of one or more rates and one or more charges).
- (3) Subregulation (1)(m) does not apply with respect to a second or subsequent rates notice sent to a ratepayer in a particular financial year where at least 60 days have elapsed since service on the ratepayer of the first rates notice for that financial year.

13A—Postponement of rates—Seniors

- (1) For the purposes of section 182A(1) of the Act, the prescribed proportion of rates is any amount in excess of $500.
- (2) For the purposes of section 182A(2), the manner and form of an application will be determined by the council.
- (3) For the purposes of section 182A(3), a council may reject an application for the postponement of rates if it appears to the council that the maximum principal or other capital liability that may be or become payable or due under a mortgage, encumbrance or charge registered over the land (assuming no default) may exceed 50 per cent of the capital value of the land.
- (4) However—
 - (a) subregulation (3) does not apply in relation to a postponement for the benefit of the same person with respect to the same land in a second or subsequent year; and
 - (b) subregulation (3) does not apply in relation to a mortgage, encumbrance or charge registered after the commencement of section 182A of the Act.
- (5) For the purposes of section 182A(8), the period of 6 months from the day on which the entitlement to the postponement ceases to exist is prescribed.
- (6) Pursuant to section 182A(10), where a postponement of the payment of rates has occurred under section 182A of the Act—
 - (a) the council must inform the prescribed ratepayer that an entitlement to receive a remission of rates under the Rates and Land Tax Remission Act 1986 may be applied, at the prescribed ratepayer's discretion, towards the proportion of rates that has not been postponed; and
 - (b) any subsequent rates notice that relates to rates of the same kind must (while the same person remains entitled to a postponement of rates) include or be accompanied by:
 - (i) information about the amount of rates outstanding under the postponement; and
 - (ii) information about the amount of interest that has accrued under the postponement, as at the end of the immediately preceding quarter; and
 - (iii) a statement concerning the person's entitlements with respect to a postponement of rates without the need to make a further application; and

- (iv) a statement to the effect that to the extent that an amount is not paid in accordance with the notice but is capable of being the subject of a postponement under section 182A of the Act will be taken to be subject to postponement under that section; and
- (v) a statement concerning the requirement of the owner of the land to inform the council if or when the entitlement to the postponement ceases to exist.

14—Certificates of liabilities—fee

For the purposes of section 187(3)(e) of the Act, the fee set out as item 3 in Schedule 2 is prescribed.

15—Compulsory acquisition of land

Pursuant to section 191(2) of the Act, the following are classified as approved purposes for which Ministerial approval is not required for the compulsory acquisition of land:

- (a) a purpose for which the compulsory acquisition of land is approved or authorised under an Act;
- (b) for the acquisition of land required for the construction of a septic tank effluent drainage scheme;
- (c) for the acquisition of land required for the purpose of carrying out work for the prevention or mitigation of floods.

15A—Exemption of certain leases or licences over community land from consultation requirements

- (1) Pursuant to section 202(3)(b) of the Act, a council is not required to comply with its public consultation policy with respect to a lease or licence over community land if—
 - (a) the lease or licence is being granted to the Crown, or to a Minister or other agency or instrumentality of the Crown; and
 - (b) it is a term of the lease or licence that there is to be no substantial change in the use of the land (disregarding trifling, insignificant or subsidiary uses).
- (2) Pursuant to section 202(3)(b) of the Act, The Corporation of the City of Adelaide is not required to comply with its public consultation policy with respect to a lease or licence over land within the Central Market Complex.
- (3) In this regulation—

Central Market Complex means the area within the Certificate of Title Register Book Volume 5307 Folio 824 or Volume 5574 Folio 706.

16—Register of community land

For the purposes of subsection (2)(a) of section 207 of the Act, a register of community land under that section must contain, in respect of each piece of community land in the area:

- (a) the legal description of the land (being, in the case of land that has been brought under the provisions of the Real Property Act 1886, the Certificate of Title Register Book Volume and Folio Numbers); and

- (b) the street address of the land (if any); and
- (c) the name of the locality or suburb in which the land is situated; and
- (d) the name by which the land is commonly known (if any); and
- (e) the area of the land; and
- (f) the name of the owner of the land (see sections 4 and 189 of the Act); and
- (g) the following details concerning any lease or licence granted over the land:
 - (i) the name of the lessee or licensee; and
 - (ii) the term of the lease or licence (including information on the term of any extension or renewal stated in the lease or licence); and
 - (iii) the actual land to which the lease or licence relates (which may be identified by a plan kept in conjunction with the register); and
 - (iv) the purpose for which the lease or licence has been granted.¹

Note—

- 1 The register must also contain copies of current management plans—see section 207(2)(b) of the Act.

16A—Minor alterations of roads—section 221

- (1) Pursuant to section 221(3)(c) of the Act, the installation, maintenance, replacement or removal of a telecommunication subscriber connection is classified as a minor alteration to a road.

- (2) In subregulation (1)— telecommunication subscriber connection means any pipes, wires, cables, optical fibre or other material suspended above the ground and used to connect a subscriber to a telecommunications or electronic network, and includes any fixture or fitting directly associated with making such a connection.

17—Public consultation—section 223

- (1) Pursuant to section 223(1)(c) of the Act, public consultation is required in relation to a proposal—

- (a) to authorise the use of a road for cultivation purposes under section 222(1) of the Act where any part of the road is to be fenced; or
- (b) to authorise the use of a road for any other business purpose under section 222(1) of the Act where any part of the road is to be fenced, enclosed or partitioned so as to impede the passage of traffic to a material degree.

- (2) Pursuant to subsection (2) of section 223 of the Act—

- (a) the Office of Recreation and Sport; and
- (b) Planning SA in the Department of Transport, Urban Planning and the Arts, must be notified of any proposal to grant an authorisation within the ambit of subregulation (1)(a), other than in relation to a road that has been formed and surfaced.

18—Register of public roads

For the purposes of subsection (2) of section 231 of the Act, a register of public roads under that section must include, in respect of each public road, the following information:

- (a) the name of the public road; and
- (b) the situation of the public road; and
- (c) the approximate extent of the public road; and
- (d) the approximate width of the public road; and
- (e) within the public road—the approximate width of the carriageway, including any associated kerbing, verges or footpaths (where formed).

18A—By-laws—roads

Pursuant to section 239(1)(g) of the Act, a council is authorised to make by-laws about the use of roads for camping.

19—By-laws—certificate of legal practitioner

For the purposes of section 249(4) of the Act, the form set out as Form 8 is prescribed.

20—Review of an order

- (1) For the purposes of section 256(2) of the Act, the following information is prescribed:
 - (a) a statement that it is possible for the person to whom the order is directed to apply for a review of the order under the Act; and
 - (b) a statement that an application for review is made to the District Court and should be made within 14 days after service of the order; and
 - (c) a statement that the operation of the order continues pending the determination of an application for review unless the District Court, or the council, makes an interim order suspending the operation of the order; and
 - (d) a statement that the District Court has the power, if satisfied that it is appropriate and just in the circumstances to do so, to vary or set aside the order on an application for review.
- (2) A statement under section 256(1) of the Act may also include—
 - (a) a statement about the ability of the council to vary or revoke the order if satisfied that it is appropriate to do so; and
 - (b) a warning that if the order is not complied with within the time fixed for compliance or, if relevant, within 14 days after the completion of any review, then the council may—
 - (i) take the action required by the order (subject to the outcome of any review); and
 - (ii) recover the reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the council in taking that action from a person who fails to comply with the requirements of the order.

21—Prescribed percentage rate—section 257(5)(a)

For the purposes of section 257(5)(a) of the Act, the prescribed percentage rate per annum will be the cash advance debenture rate for the financial year in which the period within which the relevant amount must be paid expires.

22—Local government indemnity schemes

For the purposes of clause 2(1)(b)(iii) of Schedule 1 of the Act, the following are prescribed bodies:

Southern Success Business Enterprise Centre Inc

Northern Regional Development Board

Fleurieu Regional Development Corporation
