ACT 1931

Recreation Grounds Regulations 1996

being

No. 197 of 1996: Gaz. 29 August 1996, p. 856¹

PART 1
PRELIMINARY

Citation

1. These regulations may be cited as the Recreation Grounds Regulations 1996.

Commencement

2. These regulations will come into operation on 1 September 1996.

Revocation

3. All regulations previously made under the Recreation Grounds (Regulations) Act 1931 are revoked.

Interpretation

4. (1) In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—

"authorised person", in relation to a recreation ground, means a person authorised by the controlling body of that recreation ground for the purposes of these regulations and includes a member of the police force and a special constable;

"controlling body", in relation to a recreation ground, means the body listed in the schedule against the name of the recreation ground.

(2) A reference in these regulations to a recreation ground is a reference to a recreation ground specified in the schedule.

Delegation

5. (1) The controlling body of a recreation ground may, by instrument executed by the controlling body, delegate to a person or body any power or function of the controlling body under these regulations other than this power of delegation.

(2) A delegation under this regulation may be given subject to conditions and limitations specified in the instrument of delegation.

(3) A delegation under this regulation is revocable at will and does not prevent the controlling body from acting in any matter.

PART 2
USE OF RECREATION GROUNDS

Entry to and exit from grounds

6. (1) A person must not enter a recreation ground except by an entrance provided by the controlling body.

Maximum penalty: $200.

(2) A person must not leave a recreation ground except by an exit provided by the controlling body.

Maximum penalty: $200.

Entrance fees

7. A person must not enter a recreation ground, or a part of a recreation ground to which access is restricted by the controlling body, unless the person—

- (a) pays the entrance fee (if any); or
- (b) is otherwise authorised by the controlling body to enter.

Maximum penalty: $200.

Behaviour of persons on grounds

8. (1) A person must not, while on a recreation ground—

- (a) obstruct or interfere with the conduct of a sporting or other event on the recreation ground or the reasonable enjoyment of a spectator of such an event; or
- (b) smoke in an area where smoking is prohibited by the controlling body by signs erected with the authority of the controlling body; or
- (c) except as authorised by the controlling body, climb or be on a fence, tree, building, wall or other structure; or
- (d) except as authorised by the controlling body, carry or be in possession of a flare, firework, explosive device or missile; or
- (e) misuse or damage any property of the controlling body or of a person or body that has been granted a right to occupy the recreation ground (or part of it), whether under a lease, licence, contract for hire or any other agreement for the occupancy of land; or
- (f) remain in a walkway or on stairs after having been requested to move from that position by an authorised person.

Maximum penalty: $200.

4.

(2) A person must not—

- (a) deposit litter, refuse or waste matter in any place (other than a receptacle provided for that purpose); or
- (b) distribute any printed matter; or
- (c) erect a sign; or
- (d) offer any article for sale; or
- (e) take up a collection; or
- (f) drive or ride any vehicle; or
- (g) bring a dog or, if the owner or person in charge of a dog, allow the dog to remain, on a recreation ground except as authorised by the controlling body or these regulations.

Maximum penalty: $200.

(3) A person who needs the assistance of a guide dog may bring the dog onto a recreation ground if at all times it is restrained on a lead not exceeding three metres in length.

(4) A person must not, except as authorised by the controlling body—

- (a) bring an intoxicating beverage onto a recreation ground; or
- (b) drink an intoxicating beverage on a recreation ground.

Maximum penalty: $200.

(5) A person must not enter onto or be on an oval or playing field or other area within a recreation ground used for the staging of sporting or other events on a day on which such an event is scheduled to occur unless—

- (a) the person is a player, competitor, umpire, official, medical attendant, performer or technician or is otherwise officially involved in the event or in the preparations for the event; or
- (b) the person has been authorised by the controlling body so to enter.

Maximum penalty: $200.

Removal of person from grounds

9. A member of the police force or special constable may remove from a recreation ground any person reasonably suspected of having committed an offence while on the recreation ground and a person who has been so removed on a particular day must not re-enter the recreation ground on that day.

Maximum penalty: $200.

Powers of authorised persons

10. (1) If an authorised person reasonably suspects that a vehicle or dog (other than a guide dog)—

- (a) has been brought onto a recreation ground or a part of a recreation ground in breach of these regulations; or
- (b) is obstructing or interfering with, or is likely to obstruct or interfere with, the conduct of a sporting or other event on the recreation ground or the reasonable enjoyment of a spectator of such an event, the authorised person may require the owner or person in charge of the vehicle or dog to remove the vehicle or dog from the recreation ground (or from a part of it) or, if the owner or person in charge of the vehicle or dog cannot be located in the vicinity, may remove the vehicle or dog from the recreation ground (or part of it).

(2) An authorised person may require a person who the authorised person reasonably suspects of having breached these regulations to state truthfully the person's full name and usual place of residence.

(3) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a requirement of an authorised person under this regulation.

Maximum penalty: $200.
