PART 2

THIS NOTICE CONTAINS IMPORTANT INFORMATION PLEASE READ IT
CAREFULLY AND KEEP IT FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

The Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995 provides for a duty to repair second-hand vehicles sold for more than $3 000. (There are some exceptions, but any passenger vehicle with a year of first registration not more than 15 years ago and that has not been driven more than 200 000 km will be covered.)

The period during which there is a duty to repair depends on the price you paid for the vehicle. There is a summary of these periods on the other side of this form. If a "defect" appears in the vehicle in the period during which there is a duty to repair, the dealer must arrange for it to be repaired. However, if you fail, without reasonable excuse, to give the dealer proper notice of the defect within that period, or to deliver (or make reasonable efforts to deliver) the vehicle for repair within 5 business days of the end of the period, the dealer may no longer be under a duty to repair the defect.

If you want the dealer to repair your vehicle, you must deliver it to the agreed place of repair listed at the end of Part B on the other side of this form, or if no place has been so agreed on, to any registered premises of the dealer. In some cases you might not have to return the vehicle to that address, and you might be able to have it repaired by someone else. However, you should seek advice about this before you do anything.

Not every fault is a defect covered by the duty to repair. For example, if there are problems with the paintwork or upholstery that you should have noticed when you inspected the vehicle, these are not covered. Some accessories (for example radios, tape players and airconditioners) are not covered if the dealer has listed them on the other side of this form. A brochure available from the Office of Consumer and Business Affairs gives a full list of those accessories which the dealer may list on the other side of this form. It also explains what other defects arising after sale may not be covered by a duty to repair.

If a vehicle is sold for $3 000 or less, the duty to repair does not apply, but the vehicle must be in roadworthy condition. There may also be other duties or remedies available under other legislation.

The only way you can give away your warranty rights under the Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995 is if you have signed a waiver document in accordance with regulation 23 of the Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Regulations 1995.

Some disputes between dealers and purchasers can be resolved by a conference convened by the Commissioner for Consumer Affairs or, if a conciliation conference fails to resolve the matter, by an order of the Civil (Consumer and Business) Division of the Magistrates Court. Before making any application to the Commissioner, you should seek advice from the Office of Consumer and Business Affairs.

The Office will assist with any enquiries about your purchase. It can also give you the brochure mentioned above which explains everything in much more detail than is possible in this notice. Check under "Consumer and Business Affairs" in your telephone book for the address and telephone number of the nearest office.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS UNDER SECOND-HAND VEHICLE DEALERS ACT 1995

IMPORTANT. THIS IS AN IMPORTANT DOCUMENT.
IT TAKES AWAY SOME OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS. READ IT CAREFULLY.

THIS FORM MUST BE COMPLETED IN DUPLICATE.

PART 1

Under the Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995, you have a number of legal rights and protections. These rights and protections cannot be taken away from you unless you agree. One of the rights and protections you have is that a second-hand vehicle dealer is under a duty to repair certain defects that are present, or that may occur, in the vehicle during the statutory warranty period (which varies according to the price of the vehicle).

You may only give up your rights to have the vehicle you are thinking of purchasing repaired by the dealer under warranty by completing the form set out in Part 2 of this document and obtaining the completed certificate of the witness.

If you complete the form set out in Part 2 of this document, YOU will be responsible for repairs to the vehicle after purchase. If the vehicle develops a serious fault, you may have rights and remedies under other legislation, but you will have no rights to have the vehicle repaired under the Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995.

It is recommended that you arrange for an independent inspection of the vehicle BEFORE you complete the form set out in Part 2 of this document.

If you do not understand this document, you should seek advice from the Office of Consumer and Business Affairs. (Check under "Consumer and Business Affairs" in your telephone book for the address and telephone number of the nearest office.)

DO NOT SIGN THE FORM SET OUT IN PART 2 IF THERE IS SOMETHING IN THIS DOCUMENT THAT YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND.

[*Note: If you understand that you are giving away your repair rights under the Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995 by signing this document and you still want to purchase the vehicle for the price set out in Part 2 of the document, then you should sign it before a Justice of the Peace, a legal practitioner or a proclaimed manager. Give one copy of the completed and signed document to the dealer and keep the other copy for your records.*]
