PART 1
PRELIMINARY

Citation

1. These regulations may be cited as the Security and Investigation Agents Regulations 1996.

Commencement

2. (1) Subject to subregulation (2), these regulations will come into operation on 31 March 1996.

(2) Part 4 will come into operation on 30 April 1996.

Revocation

3. The Commercial and Private Agents Regulations 1989 (see Gazette 16 February 1989 p. 460), as varied, are revoked.

Interpretation

4. In these regulations—

"Act" means the Security and Investigation Agents Act 1995;

"auditor" means a registered company auditor within the meaning of the Corporations Law;

"collection agent" means an investigation agent who is authorised by a licence to perform one or more of the following functions:

- (a) ascertaining the whereabouts of or repossessing goods that are subject to a security interest;
- (b) collecting or requesting the payment of debts;
- (c) executing legal process for the enforcement of a judgment or order of a court;
- (d) executing distress for the recovery of rates, taxes or money;

"former collection agent" includes an agent who held a licence with the endorsement 1 or commercial agent under the Commercial and Private Agents Act 1986;

"record" includes information kept by computer, microfilm or other process;

"trust account" means an account in which trust money is required to be deposited by an agent;

"trust money", in relation to a collection agent, means money—

- (a) that is received by the agent when acting as an agent; and
- (b) to which the agent is not wholly entitled in law and in equity, but does not include money received on behalf of—

- (c) a person by whom the agent is employed under a contract of service; or
- (d) a person who is also a collection agent.

Security and Investigation Agents Regulations 1996

Offences preventing persons being licensed agents or process servers

5. Schedule 1 sets out classes of offences for the purposes of section 9 (entitlement to be licensed) and section 23 (entitlement to be process server) of the Act.

Fees

6. (1) The fees fixed by Schedule 2 are payable to the Commissioner for the purposes set out in that schedule.

(2) The Commissioner may waive, reduce or refund a fee (or part of a fee) payable under these regulations if satisfied that it is appropriate to do so in a particular case.

PART 2
APPLICATION OF ACT

Exemption for loss adjusters and accountants—prescribed qualifications

7. (1) For the purposes of section 4(e) of the Act, the prescribed qualification in loss adjusting is membership of the Chartered Institute of Loss Adjusters (Australasian Division) or the Institute of Loss Adjusters of Australia Limited.

(2) For the purposes of section 4(f)(ii) of the Act, the prescribed qualification in accountancy is a current practising certificate issued by either the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia or the Australian Society of Accountants.

Other exemptions

8. (1) A person is exempt from the requirement to hold a licence authorising the performance of the function of providing advice on security alarm or surveillance systems if—

- (a) the person is registered as an architect under the Architects Act 1939; or
- (b) the person holds the qualifications necessary for membership of the Institute of Engineers Australia; or
- (c) the person is employed under a contract of service and provides advice on security alarm or surveillance systems only to his or her employer in relation to premises owned or occupied by the employer.

(2) A person employed in connection with the casino licensed under the Casino Act 1983 is exempt, while acting in the ordinary course of that employment, from the requirement to hold a licence authorising the performance of one or more of the following functions:

- (a) protecting or guarding a person or property or keeping a person or property under surveillance;
- (b) preventing, detecting or investigating the commission of an offence in relation to a person or property;
- (c) controlling crowds.

(3) A person is exempt from the requirement to hold a licence authorising the performance of the function of controlling crowds if the person is not employed or engaged to deal with persons who behave in a disorderly manner or create a nuisance.

PART 3
OBLIGATIONS OF LICENSEES

Periodic fees and returns

9. (1) For the purposes of section 12(2) of the Act, the fee must be paid and a return lodged on or before—

- (a) in the case of a collection agent—31 October in each year;
- (b) in the case of an agent who held a licence, other than a licence with the endorsement 1 or commercial agent, under the Commercial and Private Agents Act 1986 immediately before the commencement of these regulations—30 June 1996 and then the last day of the month in each subsequent year nominated in writing to the agent by the Commissioner;
- (c) in the case of any other licensed agent—the last day of the month in each year nominated in writing to the agent by the Commissioner.

(2) For the purposes of section 12(3) of the Act, the penalty for default in paying the fee or lodging the return is $180.

Notification of changes in circumstances

10. (1) If there is any change in the residential address or the address for service of a licensed agent, the agent must, within 14 days after that change, give written notice to the Commissioner of the new address.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

Expiation fee: $210.

(2) If a licensed agent carries on business as an agent, the agent must notify the Commissioner of changes as follows:

- (a) if there is any change in—
 - (i) the business or trading name under which the licensed agent carries on business; or
 - (ii) the address at which the licensed agent carries on business; or
 - (iii) the address of the registered corporate office of a licensed agent that is a body corporate, the agent must, within 14 days after that change, give written notice to the Commissioner of the new name or address;

- (b) within 14 days after ceasing to carry on business as an agent, the agent must give written notice to the Commissioner of that fact;
- (c) within 14 days after entering into partnership to carry on business as an agent or ceasing to be in such a partnership, the agent must give written notice to the Commissioner of that fact, together with the names of the members of the new or former partnership.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

Expiation fee: $210.

PART 4
IDENTIFICATION OF CROWD CONTROLLERS

Duty of person who carries on business or promotes event to provide crowd controllers with identification card and keep register

11. (1) A person who carries on a business or promotes an event at a place and employs (whether under contract of service or otherwise) one or more licensed security agents to perform the function of controlling crowds at the place must—

- (a) ensure that each agent who personally performs the function of controlling crowds at the place is issued with an identification card in accordance with this regulation; and
- (b) ensure that a register is kept for the place in accordance with this regulation.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

Expiation fee: $210.

(2) The identification card—

(a) must legibly display in black characters on a white background—

- (i) a one or two digit number not less than 4 cm in height and comprised of lines not less than 5 mm in thickness; and
- (ii) the word "security" in letters not less than 5 mm in height; and
- (iii) the name of the place or the event in respect of which the card is issued in letters not less than 5 mm in height;

(b) may be issued to the agent on a permanent basis or periodically, before the agent commences each period of duty.

(3) If more than one agent is to perform the function of controlling crowds at the same place at the same time, the identification card issued to each agent must display a different number.

(4) The register must—

(a) contain the following information:

- (i) the full name and address of the person who carries on the business or promotes the event;
- (ii) the name and address of the place in respect of which the register is kept;
- (iii) the licence number and full name and address of each agent who personally performs the function of controlling crowds at the place;
- (iv) in relation to each period of duty performed by each agent—
 - (A) the time at which the agent starts and finishes the period of duty; and
 - (B) the number displayed on the identification card worn by the agent during the period of duty; and

Security and Investigation Agents Regulations 1996

- (b) be kept—
 - (i) while the person carrying on the business or promoting the event continues to use the place in respect of which the register is kept—at that place;
 - (ii) in any other case—at some other place of business or residence of the person who carries on the business or promotes the event;
- (c) be retained for at least 6 months, or for such longer period as a member of the police force, the Commissioner or an authorised officer under the Fair Trading Act 1987 requests by notice in writing.

(5) The person who carries on the business or promotes the event must ensure that the register is readily available for inspection (and copying) at the request of a member of the police force, an authorised officer under the Fair Trading Act 1987 or a person authorised by the Commissioner.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

- (6) In this regulation—

"period of duty", in relation to an agent, means any period during which the agent is to or may perform the function of controlling crowds, and includes meal or rest breaks.

Duty of crowd controller to wear identification

12. For the purposes of section 20(2) of the Act, a licensed security agent who is issued with an identification card under regulation 11 must, while performing the function of controlling crowds at the place in respect of which the card is issued, wear the identification card on his or her chest securely attached to the outside of his or her clothing so that at all times the numbers on the card are clearly visible to other persons.

PART 5
TRUST ACCOUNTS OF COLLECTION AGENTS

Requirement to keep trust account

13. (1) A collection agent must, as soon as practicable after receiving trust money, deposit the money in an account (in the name of the agent) at a bank, building society or credit union.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

(2) A collection agent must not pay any other money into the agent's trust account.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

(3) A collection agent must, when applying to open a trust account, inform the bank, building society or credit union that the account is to be a trust account for the purposes of this Part.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

Keeping of records

14. (1) A collection agent must keep detailed records of all trust money received by the agent and of any disbursement of, or other dealing with, that money and must compile detailed accounts of those receipts and disbursements that—

- (a) accurately disclose the state of the trust account maintained by the agent; and
- (b) enable the receipt and disposition of trust money to be conveniently and properly audited; and
- (c) comply with the requirements set out in this regulation.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

(2) A cash receipt book (or some other form of record approved in writing by the Commissioner on the application of the agent) must be kept in which the agent records the following information in respect of each receipt of trust money:

- (a) the date and reference number of the receipt; and
- (b) the name of the person from whom the money is received; and
- (c) the client name or reference to which the transaction relates; and
- (d) brief particulars of the purpose of the receipt; and
- (e) the amount of the receipt.

(3) A cash payments book (or some other form of record approved in writing by the Commissioner on the application of the agent) must be kept in which the agent records the following information in respect of each payment of trust money:

- (a) the date and reference number of the cheque by which the payment was made; and
- (b) the name of the payee; and
- (c) the client name or reference to which the transaction relates; and

Security and Investigation Agents Regulations 1996

(d) brief particulars of the purpose of the payment; and

(e) the amount of the cheque.

(4) Trust ledger accounts must be kept separately in respect of each of the agent's clients.

(5) Each of the separate accounts must contain the following details:

(a) the name and address of the client to whom the accounts relate;

(b) a brief description of the service provided and the transactions to which the accounts relate;

(c) in respect of each receipt or payment of trust money—

(i) the date and reference number of the receipt or the cheque by which the payment is made;

(ii) the name of the person from whom the money is received or to whom the money is paid;

(iii) brief particulars of the purpose of the receipt or payment;

(iv) the amount received or paid.

(6) If the agent transfers money between any of the separate accounts, the transfer must be clearly recorded—

(a) in both accounts; and

(b) in a transfer journal, in sufficient detail that the transfer may be clearly understood.

(7) At the end of each month, reconciliation statements must be prepared—

(a) reconciling the balance of the agent's cash books (or other records approved under subregulation (2) or (3)) with the balance of the agent's trust account; and

(b) reconciling the balances of the ledgers comprised in the agent's trust ledger accounts with the balance of the agent's trust account,

(however, the agent is not required to set out in the statement a list of individual balances, or the names of the clients on whose behalf money is held).

(8) An agent who held a licence as a commercial agent under the Commercial and Private Agents Act 1986 immediately before the commencement of these regulations is not required to compile detailed accounts of receipts and disbursements of trust money that take place in the first audit period ending after commencement of these regulations in accordance with subregulations (2) to (7) if they are compiled in accordance with regulation 17 of the Commercial and Private Agents Regulations 1989 as in force immediately before the commencement of these regulations (but subregulations (2) to (7) must be complied with in respect of trust money subsequently received or disbursed).

Receipt of trust money

15. (1) A collection agent must, in respect of the receipt of trust money—

- (a) make available to the person making payment a receipt that complies with this regulation; and
- (b) make and retain a copy of the receipt as part of the agent's records.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

(2) The receipt—

(a) must—

- (i) be legibly written on a form comprised in a series of consecutively pre-numbered duplicate receipt forms marked with the name of the agent and the words "Trust Account"; or
- (ii) be in some other form approved in writing by the Commissioner on the application of the agent; and

(b) must contain the following information:

- (i) the date of payment; and
- (ii) the name of the person making the payment; and
- (iii) whether the payment is by cash, cheque or bank draft and, if the payment is by cheque, the name of the drawer of the cheque; and
- (iv) the name of the person for whom the money is received; and
- (v) brief particulars of the purpose of the payment; and
- (vi) the amount of the payment.

Withdrawal of trust money

16. (1) A collection agent must not withdraw, or permit another person to withdraw, money from a trust account except—

- (a) for payment to the person entitled to the money or in accordance with the directions of that person; or
- (b) in satisfaction of a claim for commission, fees, costs or disbursements that the agent has against the person on behalf of whom the money is held; or
- (c) to satisfy an order of a court against the person on behalf of whom the agent is holding the money; or
- (d) for payment into a court before which proceedings have been instituted in relation to the money; or
- (e) for the purpose of dealing with the money in accordance with the Unclaimed Moneys Act 1891; or

Security and Investigation Agents Regulations 1996

- (f) for making any other payment authorised by law.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

- (2) A collection agent must not make a payment of trust money in cash.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

- (3) When a collection agent makes a payment of trust money by cheque, the agent—

- (a) must ensure that the cheque is marked with the name of the agent and the words "Trust Account"; and

- (b) must—

- (i) cause the cheque to be crossed and endorsed "not negotiable"; or

- (ii) obtain from the person receiving the cheque a receipt that complies with subregulation (4) and keep the receipt as part of the agent's records; and

- (c) must prepare and keep as part of the agent's records a cheque stub or voucher containing the following information:

- (i) the date and reference number of the cheque;

- (ii) the name of the payee;

- (iii) the client name or reference and brief particulars of the purpose of the payment;

- (iv) the amount of the cheque.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

- (4) The receipt must be legible and contain the following information:

- (a) the date and reference number of the cheque; and

- (b) particulars identifying the trust account against which the cheque is drawn; and

- (c) the name of the payee; and

- (d) brief particulars of the purpose of the payment; and

- (e) the amount of the cheque.

Transfer of money from trust account to office account

17. A collection agent who becomes entitled to money held in the agent's trust account in or towards satisfaction of the agent's commission, fees, costs or disbursements must, as soon as practicable and in any event within three months, transfer the money to an account maintained by the agent for receipts other than trust money.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

Statement of dealings to be provided to interested person

18. A collection agent must, at the request of a person who has an interest in trust money, provide that person with a statement setting out details of dealings by the agent with the money.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

Retention of accounts and records

19. A collection agent must keep the accounts and records referred to in this Part (or the repealed Commercial and Private Agents Act 1986 or regulations made under that Act in relation to a commercial agent) in a legible written form, or so as to be readily convertible into such a form, for at least five years.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

Audit of trust accounts

20. A collection agent who maintains a trust account must have the accounts and records kept under this Part audited by an auditor in each year in respect of the period from—

- (a) the end of the agent's last audit period (whether under this Part or the repealed Commercial and Private Agents Act 1986); or
- (b) in the case of an agent being granted a licence—the date of the grant of the licence, until—

- (c) two months before the date next occurring on which the agent must lodge an annual return; or
- (d) if the Commissioner fixes some other date at the request of the agent—the date next occurring fixed by the Commissioner.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

Requirement to submit audit statement or declaration if no trust account kept

21. (1) A collection agent who maintains a trust account must, within 2 months after the end of each audit period, lodge with the Commissioner a statement relating to the audit prepared by the auditor in accordance with these regulations.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

(2) A collection agent who did not maintain a trust account during a particular audit period, must make and lodge with the Commissioner a declaration in accordance with this regulation setting out the reasons for not maintaining a trust account during that period.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

(3) The declaration—

- (a) must be in the form approved by the Commissioner; and
- (b) must be lodged within 2 months after the end of the audit period.

(4) Where a collection agent fails to lodge the audit statement or declaration within the time allowed, the Commissioner may, by notice in writing, require the agent to make good the default and, in addition, to pay to the Commissioner $300 as a civil penalty for the default.

Security and Investigation Agents Regulations 1996

(5) Where the agent fails to comply with the notice within 28 days after service of the notice, the agent's licence is cancelled.

(6) The Commissioner must notify the agent of the cancellation of the agent's licence.

(7) A collection agent is not liable to both a civil penalty and a criminal penalty in respect of the same default under this regulation and, consequently, payment of the civil penalty exonerates the agent from liability to a criminal penalty and payment of a criminal penalty exonerates the agent from liability to the civil penalty.

Agent's statement to auditor

22. (1) A collection agent who is required to have accounts and records audited must, before the completion of the audit, certify—

(a) under his or her hand; or

(b) in the case of a firm of agents—under the hands of not less than two partners of the firm; or

(c) in the case of a body corporate agent—under the hands of not less than two directors of the body, and deliver to the auditor a notice verified in accordance with this regulation setting out in detail, as of the last day of the period to which the audit relates, particulars of—

(d) the names of all persons on whose behalf the agent is holding trust money and the amount of the credit of each such person; and

(e) all negotiable or bearer securities or deposit receipts in the name of the agent which represent money drawn from the agent's trust account and which were held by the agent on that day; and

(f) —

(i) the names of the trust accounts in which the balance of the agent's trust money is lodged and the balances on that date of those accounts; and

(ii) if the trust account balances are not in agreement with the balances of the agent's ledger accounts—a statement reconciling those balances.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

(2) The notice must be verified by statutory declaration—

(a) of the agent; or

(b) in the case of a firm of agents—of not less than two of the partners of the firm; or

(c) in the case of a body corporate agent—of not less than two directors of the body.

(3) The agent must give the auditor making the next succeeding audit of the agent's accounts and records—

(a) at the request of the auditor, a copy of the notice, together with a signed copy of the auditor's statement of the last preceding audit of the agent's accounts and records; or

- (b) if the agent's accounts and records are being audited for the first time or, if for any other reason a copy of the notice cannot be produced for the purpose of the audit—before completion of the audit, a notice containing the same particulars as to money, negotiable or bearer securities and deposit receipts held on the first day of the period to which the audit relates.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

Requirements of audit

23. (1) In carrying out an audit, the auditor must—

- (a) make checks that will enable the auditor to give an opinion as to whether the agent has, during the period covered by the audit, complied with these regulations relating to the agent's accounts and records; and
- (b) ascertain whether a trust account under these regulations was kept by the agent during that period; and
- (c) make a general test examination of any trust account kept by the agent and of the pass books and statements relating to any such account during that period; and
- (d) make a comparison as to no fewer than two dates (one to be the last day of the period of the audit and one other to be a date within that period selected by the auditor) between—
 - (i) the liabilities of the agent to the agent's clients as shown by the agent's trust ledger accounts and the records kept under these regulations; and
 - (ii) the aggregate of the balances standing to the credit of the agent's trust account; and
- (e) ask for such information and explanations as the auditor may require for the purposes of this regulation.

(2) The statement prepared by the auditor for lodging with the Commissioner must set out all matters relating to the agent's accounts and records that should, in the auditor's opinion, be communicated to the Commissioner and, in particular, deal with each of the following matters:

- (a) whether the accounts and records appear to have been kept regularly and properly written up at all times;
- (b) whether the accounts and records have been ready for examination at the periods appointed by the auditor;
- (c) whether the agent has complied with the auditor's requirements;
- (d) whether, at any time during the period of the audit, the agent's trust account was overdrawn and, if so, the full explanation for that given by the agent;
- (e) whether the agent has, or has had, any debit balances in his or her trust account and the explanation or reason for such a debit given by the agent;
- (f) whether the auditor has received and examined the notice given to the auditor under regulation 22 and the result of that examination.

(4) The auditor must attach to the auditor's statement a copy of the agent's notice delivered to the auditor under regulation 22(1).

(5) The auditor must verify the statement by statutory declaration and give a signed copy of the statement to the agent.

(6) If the auditor in the course of auditing the agent's accounts and records discovers—

- (a) that they are not kept in a manner that enables them to be properly audited; or
- (b) a matter that appears to the auditor to involve dishonesty or a breach of the law by the agent; or
- (c) a loss or deficiency of trust money or a failure to pay or account for trust money; or
- (d) a failure to comply with this Part,

the auditor must, as soon as possible, give a report in respect of the discovery to the Commissioner and the agent concerned.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

Audit when agent ceases to carry on business

24. (1) If a collection agent ceases to carry on business as a collection agent, the agent, or, if the agent has died, the agent's personal representative, must—

- (a) cause the agent's accounts and records kept under these regulations to be audited and reported on by an auditor for the period from the previous audit up to the date on which the agent's affairs are wound up; and
- (b) submit a copy of the auditor's statement to the Commissioner within four months of the winding up of the agent's affairs or within such further period as the Commissioner may allow.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

(2) The relevant provisions of this Part apply (subject to such modifications as may be necessary) to the audit and statement required by this regulation.

(3) The collection agent, or his or her personal representative, must continue to comply with these regulations as if the agent had not ceased to carry on business until the agent's affairs (so far as they relate to trust money and other matters required to be recorded under these regulations) are properly and finally wound up.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

(4) The preceding provisions of this regulation do not apply to a collection agent who, before ceasing to carry on business, was a member of a firm if all continuing members of the firm and (unless the agent is dead) the agent certify to the Commissioner that the trust money and other matters in respect of which records are required to be kept under these regulations are under the proper administration and control of the continuing partners or some of them.

(5) In this regulation—

"agent" or "collection agent" includes a former collection agent.

Audit and report, etc., for firm operates for each partner

25. An audit of accounts and records kept by a firm of collection agents and the auditor's statement and attached notice relating to the firm's accounts and records will be taken to operate as an audit, statement and notice in respect of each agent who is a member of the firm.

Certain persons may not audit accounts and records of agent

26. A person must not audit the accounts and records of a collection agent if the person—

- (a) is, or has been within two years, an employee or partner of the agent; or
- (b) is an employee of another collection agent actually carrying on business as a collection agent; or
- (c) is, himself or herself, a collection agent carrying on business as a collection agent.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

Obtaining information for purposes of audit

27. (1) An auditor employed by a collection agent to make an audit of the trust accounts of the agent may require the agent or any other person in a position to do so—

- (a) to produce all the accounts (including accounts that are not trust accounts) relating to the business of the agent and all documents and records relating to those accounts, including written records that reproduce in a readily understandable form information kept by computer, microfilm or other process; and
- (b) to provide any relevant information relating to the operation of the accounts.

(2) The manager or other principal officer of a bank or other financial institution with which a collection agent has deposited money, whether in his or her own account or in a general or separate trust account, must, on being required to do so by an auditor employed or appointed to make an audit under this Part, disclose every such account (including all deposit slips, cancelled cheques and other documents relating to the operation of the account) to the auditor.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

(3) A person who is required by this regulation to produce documents to an auditor must permit the auditor to make a copy of the whole, or any part, of those documents.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

(4) In this regulation—

"account" includes a record required to be kept under this Part in relation to the receipt and disposition of trust money;

"agent" or "collection agent" includes a former collection agent.

Banks, etc., to report deficiencies in trust accounts

28. A bank, building society or credit union with which a trust account has been established must, as soon as practicable, and in any event within 14 days, after becoming aware of a deficiency in that account, report the deficiency to the Commissioner.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

Security and Investigation Agents Regulations 1996

Confidentiality

29. (1) An auditor must not divulge information that has come to his or her knowledge in the course of performing functions under these regulations or the repealed Commercial and Private Agents Act 1986 except—

- (a) to the collection agent; or
- (b) to the Commissioner; or
- (c) as otherwise required by law.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

(2) A person engaged in the administration of the Act or these regulations, must not divulge information disclosed in a report provided under this Part or the repealed Commercial and Private Agents Act 1986 except—

- (a) for the purpose of confidential consideration of the report by the Minister or the Commissioner; or
- (b) as is otherwise necessary for the proper administration of the Act or these regulations; or
- (c) as is otherwise permitted or required by law.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

Banks, etc., not affected by notice of trust

30. (1) Subject to subregulation (2), a bank, building society or credit union is not affected by notice of a specific trust to which money deposited in a trust account is subject, and is not bound to satisfy itself of the due application of that money.

(2) This regulation does not relieve a bank, building society or credit union of liability for negligence.

Failing to comply with requirement of auditor

31. A person must not—

- (a) refuse or fail to comply with a requirement of an auditor under this Part; or
- (b) hinder, delay or obstruct an auditor in the performance of functions under this Part by altering or destroying relevant documents or by any other means.

Maximum penalty: $2 500.

SCHEDULE 1

Offences preventing persons being licensed agents or process servers

Licences—section 9(1)(b) and 9(2)(b)(i)

1. (1) For the purposes of section 9(1)(b) and 9(2)(b)(i) of the Act, the following offences are prescribed in relation to any function to be authorised by a licence:

- (a) an indictable offence;
- (b) if the conviction was within the previous 5 years—a schedule 3 offence within the meaning of the Summary Procedure Act 1921 (an offence of dishonesty), other than a first offence of simple larceny;
- (c) common assault or any offence of violence, other than a first offence of common assault;
- (d) an offence against the Controlled Substances Act 1984 involving a prohibited substance, other than a simple possession offence within the meaning of that Act;
- (e) an offence against the Police Act 1952;
- (f) an offence against the Listening Devices Act 1972;
- (g) an offence against the Telecommunications (Interception) Act 1979 of the Commonwealth;
- (h) an offence against the Act or these regulations or the repealed Commercial and Private Agents Act 1986 or regulations made under that Act;
- (i) an offence substantially similar to any of the above offences against the law of another place.

(2) Paragraphs (f) and (g) of subclause (1) do not apply in relation to a licence subject to a condition limiting the functions that may be performed under the authority of the licence to controlling crowds.

Process servers—section 23(1)(d)

2. For the purposes of section 23(1)(d) of the Act, the offences specified in clause 1(1) are prescribed in relation to a process server.

SCHEDULE 2

Fees

1. Application fee for licence $143 plus

Additional fee:

- if licence subject to employee condition or employee (supervision condition) $97
- in any other case $245

If the period between the grant of the licence and the next date for payment of a fee under section 12 of the Act is less than or more than 12 months, a pro rata adjustment is to be made to the amount of the additional fee by applying the proportion that the length of that period bears to 12 months.

2. Annual licence fee—

- if licence subject to employee condition or employee (supervision condition) $97
- in any other case $245

If the period between the first date for payment of a fee under section 12 of the Act after the commencement of these regulations and the next date for payment of a fee under that section (as nominated by the Commissioner) is more than 12 months, a pro rata adjustment is to be made to the amount of the fee by applying the proportion that the length of that period bears to 12 months.

3. Application fee for alteration to conditions of licence $143

4. Issue of a replacement licence $30
