PART I PRELIMINARY

Citation

1. These regulations may be cited as the Stamp Duties Regulations 1991.

Revocation

2. All regulations previously made under the Stamp Duties Act 1923 are revoked.

Commencement

3. These regulations will come into operation on 1 January 1992.

Interpretation

4. In these regulations—

"the Act" means the Stamp Duties Act 1923.

PART II STAMPS

Impressed stamps

5. (1) Unless the Commissioner otherwise determines, a person requiring an impressed stamp must—

(a) lodge with the Commissioner the instrument or other material to be stamped together with a requisition to the Commissioner;

and

(b) pay in advance to the Commissioner the value of the stamp to be impressed.

(2) The Commissioner may determine the manner in which the value of a stamp must be paid.

Certain persons are distributors of stamps

6. (1) For the purposes of section 7 of the Act, the following persons are appointed as distributors of stamps:

(a) postmasters;

(b) officers of the Australian Postal Corporation directed to act as distributors of stamps by the Australian Postal Corporation or by a postmaster;

(c) managers of financial institutions or of branches of financial institutions.

(2) This regulation does not limit the power of the Governor to appoint distributors of stamps otherwise than by regulation.

Security for distributors of stamps

7. The Commissioner may, before issuing stamps to a distributor of stamps, require the distributor to give such security as the Commissioner determines to be appropriate.

Distributor to keep stamps available

8. A distributor of stamps must make available for disposal to the public such adhesive stamps as the Commissioner has issued to the distributor for that purpose.

Commission or discount on sale of stamps or on cheque duty under section 7

9. The Commissioner may grant—

(a) to a distributor of stamps, a commission or discount in respect of the stamps purchased for disposal by the distributor;

(b) to a financial institution, a commission of 1.25 per cent on the duty payable in relation to each return lodged by the financial institution under section 44 of the Act.

Application for allowance for spoiled or unused stamps or cheque forms

11. (1) For the purposes of section 106 of the Act, an application for allowance for spoiled or unused stamps must be made in a form approved by the Commissioner and be accompanied by a statutory declaration setting out such information as the Commissioner may reasonably require to determine the application.

(2) An application for allowance for spoiled or unused cheque forms issued by a financial institution in respect of accounts held with the financial institution in South Australia must—

(a) be made by the head office for South Australia of the financial institution that paid the duty sought to be recovered;

and

(b) be accompanied by a statutory declaration in a form approved by the Commissioner made by the principal officer of the financial institution in South Australia, or by a senior officer of the financial institution who is approved by the Commissioner and authorized by the principal officer for the purpose, and setting out such information as the Commissioner may reasonably require to satisfy himself or herself that—

(i) duty has been paid on the cheque forms concerned;

(ii) the cheque forms have been unused or rendered useless by being inadvertently spoiled;

(iii) the cheque forms have been destroyed under the supervision of officers approved by the Commissioner;

(iv) the cheque forms were destroyed at the place and time and by the method stated in the application for allowance;

and

(v) the dutiable value of the cheque forms destroyed is correctly stated in the application for allowance.

Grant of application and deduction

12. (1) Subject to subregulations (2) and (3), upon the grant of an application under regulation 11, the Commissioner must—

(a) pay the amount allowed to the person entitled to the allowance;

or

(b) give other stamps to the equivalent value to the allowance in lieu of payment.

5.

(2) The Commissioner may, at his or her discretion, deduct 5 per cent or any lesser amount from—

(a) the payment;

or

(b) the value of the stamps given in lieu of payment.

(3) The minimum amount which will be paid or given as stamps in lieu of payment under this regulation is $4.

Disposal of spoiled or unused stamps

13. (1) Subject to subregulation (2), after the grant of an application for allowance for any spoiled or unused stamp or stamped material, the Commissioner must—

(a) cancel and retain or destroy the stamp or stamped material;

or

(b) at his or her discretion, in the case of a spoiled stamp affixed to an instrument, cancel or remove the spoiled stamp and return the instrument to the applicant.

(2) This regulation does not apply where the stamped material is a cheque form destroyed under the supervision of officers approved by the Commissioner.

Disallowed applications for spoiled stamps or material

14. Where the Commissioner refuses to grant an application for allowance for spoiled stamps or stamped material, the spoiled stamp or material on which it is affixed or impressed must be marked with the word "Disallowed" and the date on which it is disallowed, and be returned to the applicant.

PART IV RENTAL BUSINESS

Exempted business under section 31b

15a. The following class of business is exempted from the ambit of the definition of "rental business" contained in section 31b of the Act:

The business of providing floor plan financing where each item of trading stock covered by a floor plan financing agreement is identified by a unique number.

Election and statements under section 31f

16. (1) For the purposes of section 31f(2) of the Act—

(a) an election to lodge an annual statement must be notified in a form approved by the Commissioner;

and

(b) an annual statement lodged by a person who has made an election must be in a form approved by the Commissioner.

(2) For the purposes of section 31f(4) of the Act, a cancellation of election must be in a form approved by the Commissioner.

Monthly statement of rent received where alternative calculation is accepted

17. For the purposes of section 31k of the Act, where the Commissioner agrees to accept a statement—

(a) in which an amount is calculated on a basis different from that required under section 31f of the Act;

or

(b) at a time, or relating to a period, otherwise than in accordance with that section, that statement must be in a form approved by the Commissioner.

7.

PART V
ANNUAL LICENCES

Time for application for annual licence

18. For the purposes of section 34 of the Act, an application for an annual licence must be lodged not later than 31 January in each year, or within any further period, not exceeding one month, allowed by the Commissioner.

PART VI PRINTED CHEQUE FORMS

Interpretation

19. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires—

"authorized printer" means a person who is authorized by the Commissioner to print cheque forms pursuant to this Part and includes a printer authorized to print cheques immediately before the commencement of these regulations.

* * * * *

Authority to print cheque forms

21. (1) On application by a financial institution, the Commissioner may in writing authorize a specified printer or other person to print cheque forms for and at the request of the financial institution.

(2) The Commissioner may at any time and for any reason revoke the authority of an authorized printer.

(3) A revocation under subregulation (2)—

(a) must be made by notice in writing forwarded by certified mail to the last known address of the authorized printer;

and

(b) becomes effective immediately on the expiry of seven days from the date of posting of the notice.

(4) The Commissioner must forward a copy of a notice of revocation to the financial institution for which the printer or other person is authorized to print cheque forms.

Restrictions on printing of cheque forms

22. A person must not—

* * * * *

(b) print a cheque form except pursuant to a request in writing from a financial institution;

or

(c) print a cheque form while not being an authorized printer.

Restrictions on delivery of printed cheque forms

23. (1) Except in accordance with this regulation or with the written approval of the Commissioner, an authorized printer must not deliver a cheque form to any person other than the financial institution at whose request the cheque form has been printed.

(2) An authorized printer who has printed a cheque form may forward that cheque form to another authorized printer ("the second printer"), to enable a code line or other particulars to be printed on the cheque form.

(3) The second printer may deliver the cheque form to—

(a) the authorized printer from whom the cheque form was received, for delivery to the financial institution;

(b) the financial institution at whose request the cheque form has been printed;

or

(c) another person authorized in writing by the Commissioner to receive the cheque form.

(4) Where the second printer delivers a cheque form printed by another authorized printer to a financial institution or other person authorized by the Commissioner to receive it, the second printer is responsible for completing the return referred to in regulation 26.

Authorized printer to keep records

24. An authorized printer must keep records of—

(a) the number of cheque forms that the authorized printer—

(i) prints;

or

(ii) receives as the second printer;

(b) the name of the financial institution or person to whom the cheque forms are sent including, if the cheque forms are sent to a financial institution, the relevant office, department or branch of that financial institution;

(c) the date on which the cheque forms are sent;

and

(d) the number of cheque forms sent.

Financial institution to keep records

25. (1) A financial institution must keep records at its head office in South Australia of—

(a) all requests placed with its authorized printers for the printing of cheque forms;

(b) the number of cheque forms delivered to it by authorized printers and the date and place of each such delivery;

(c) the number of cheque forms transferred from one office or branch to another office or branch of the financial institution, the date of that transfer and the offices or branches to which the cheque forms are transferred;

10.

(d) the number of cheque forms (if any) destroyed before issue to a customer of the financial institution and the office or branch at which those cheques are destroyed;

and

(e) where another person has been authorized by the Commissioner to receive cheque forms from the financial institution's authorized printer, the number of cheque forms delivered by the printer to that person.

(2) A financial institution must keep at each office or branch of the financial institution records recording the matters required under subregulation (1) to be recorded at its head office in relation to those cheque forms requested by, received or destroyed at or transferred from that office or branch.

(3) A financial institution must keep at each of its offices and branches chronological records of the number of cheque forms issued to each customer by that office or branch showing the name of the customer and the date of issue.

Returns by printers

26. (1) An authorized printer must make a monthly return of all cheque forms printed by the printer for a financial institution, including a nil return for any month in which no cheque forms were printed for the financial institution.

(2) A return under subregulation (1) must—

(a) be in a form approved by the Commissioner and contain the information required by the Commissioner;

(b) be verified by a statutory declaration in a form approved by the Commissioner made by the authorized printer or a person employed by the printer who is approved by the Commissioner and authorized by the printer for the purpose;

and

(c) be provided to the financial institution within seven days after the end of the month to which the return relates.

* * * * *

Cheque form is stamped material

30. For the purposes of section 106 of the Act and these regulations, a cheque form on which duty has been paid is stamped material.

Exemptions

31. (1) The Commissioner may exempt any financial institution from compliance with any of these regulations.

(2) An exemption under subregulation (1)—

(a) must be in writing;

and

(b) may be subject to such terms and conditions as the Commissioner thinks fit.

(3) A financial institution to which an exemption has been granted must comply with the terms and conditions of that exemption.

PART VII
CONVEYANCES

Certain transactions excluded for purposes of s. 71E

32. (1) For the purposes of section 71E(2)(e) of the Act, the following transactions are transactions of a prescribed class:

* * * * *

- (b) the vesting of property or a right (whether certain or contingent) in a registered co-operative by virtue of section 17 or 60 of the Co-operatives Act 1983.

* * * * *

* * * * *

PART VIII
PRIVATE COMPANIES AND UNIT TRUST SCHEMES

Corresponding laws—assessment of duty

33. (1) For the purposes of the definition of "private company" in section 91(1) of the Act, the Corporations Law is prescribed as a corresponding law.

(2) For the purposes of sections 95(2)(b) and 97(2)(b) of the Act, the following laws are corresponding laws:

The Stamp Duties Act 1920 of New South Wales;
The Stamps Act 1958 of Victoria;
The Stamp Act 1921 of Western Australia;
The Stamp Act 1894 of Queensland;
The Stamp Duties Act 1931 of Tasmania;
The Stamp Duties Act 1978 of the Northern Territory;

and

COMMISSIONER OF STAMPS

- NOTES:
1. If a percentage servicing cost deduction has been approved OR where there is no servicing cost deduction allowable please proceed to Section B.
 2. Where a servicing cost deduction is to be claimed please complete Section A before proceeding to Section B.
 3. Pursuant to Section 31f(1)(b) of the Stamp Duties Act, 1923, rental duty is not payable on the first $2 000 rental income received in each month ($24 000 p.a)
 4. When rental income exceeds the non dutiable amounts under paragraph 1, servicing costs can only be deducted against the excess.
 5. Servicing Costs—Where a registered person received in excess of $2 000/month for or in relation to the use of goods under a lease, bailment, licence or other agreement which provides for the registered person to be responsible for servicing the goods, a deduction is allowable from the rent which is dutiable. When claiming such deduction, a schedule should accompany this statement detailing all costs and expenses incurred in deriving the deduction.

If the Commissioner has previously given his consent in writing to a percentage deduction, no schedule is required.
