APPENDIX LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

PART 1
PRELIMINARY

Citation

1. These regulations may be cited as the Stock Foods Regulations 1996.

Commencement

2. These regulations will come into operation on 1 September 1996.

Revocation

3. All regulations previously made under the Stock Foods Act 1941 are revoked.

Interpretation

4. In these regulations—

"Act" means the Stock Foods Act 1941;

"agricultural chemical" has the same meaning as in the Agricultural Chemicals Act 1955;

"mammalian material" means any material derived from a mammal but does not include—

- (a) milk or products derived from milk; or
- (b) tallow; or
- (c) gelatine; or
- (d) blood or any extract or derivative of blood; or
- (e) meat, or a meat product, that was originally sold for human consumption in accordance with the Meat Hygiene Act 1994 and, after being cooked for the purpose of human consumption, was found not to be needed for that purpose and has subsequently undergone further heat treatment in the process of being produced as food for livestock; or
- (f) porcine, equine or macropod material;

"stock medicine" has the same meaning as in the Stock Medicines Act 1939.

PART 2
STANDARDS UNDER SECTION 7

Standards under s. 7

5. This Part is made for the purposes of section 7 of the Act.

Foreign ingredients

6. The following are foreign ingredients relative to stock food:

- (a) stock medicines;
- (b) agricultural chemicals;
- (c) the substances listed in Schedule 1;
- (d) the substances listed in Schedule 2.

Stock medicines

7. (1) Stock food must not contain stock medicine unless administration of the medicine in stock food to stock of a kind or species for which the stock food is intended is within the purposes in respect of which the stock medicine is registered under the Stock Medicines Act 1939.

(2) If stock medicine is added to stock food, the stock food must contain the appropriate proportion or amount of stock medicine determined in accordance with the directions for use of the medicine.

Agricultural chemicals

8. Stock food must not be contaminated with an agricultural chemical of a kind prescribed for the purposes of section 24(8) of the Agricultural Chemicals Act 1955 to a level of contamination that exceeds that prescribed in relation to the chemical under that section.

Schedule 1 substances

9. (1) Stock food must not contain any of the substances listed in Schedule 1.

(2) Subregulation (1) does not apply in relation to stock food intended for stock of a kind or species expressly excepted in Schedule 1.

Schedule 2 substances

10. (1) If a substance in respect of which a minimum permitted level is specified in Schedule 2 is added to stock food, the stock food must contain at least that minimum level of the substance.

(2) Stock food must not contain more of a substance in respect of which a maximum permitted level is specified in Schedule 2 than that maximum level.

PART 3
LABELLING OF STOCK FOODS

Application of Part

10A. This Part only applies to stock food—

- (a) that consists of or contains material from animals other than fish or birds; and
- (b) that is not supplied as food for dogs or pigeons.

Label or invoice on sale of stock food

10B. (1) For the purposes of section 5(2)(d) of the Act, if a label or certificate relating to stock food to which this Part applies does not contain a statement indicating that it is only for consumption by non-ruminant species, the label or certificate must include—

- (a) a statement about whether or not the stock food consists of or contains mammalian material; and
- (b) if it does consist of or contain such material—a statement indicating that it must not be fed to ruminants.

(2) A statement referred to in subregulation (1) must be displayed prominently on the label or invoice certificate.

PART 4
OFFENCES

Offences

11. (1) A person must not sell, offer or expose for sale, or have in his or her possession for sale stock food that does not comply with these regulations.

(2) A person must not mark or deface an invoice certificate so as to obscure the statement it is required by Part 3 to contain.

7.
