Legislative history

1—Short title

These regulations may be cited as the Volunteers Protection Regulations 2004.

2—Commencement

These regulations come into operation on the day on which they are made.

3—Interpretation

In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—

Act means the Volunteers Protection Act 2001.

4—Definition of voluntary basis

- (1) A person works on a voluntary basis for the purposes of the definition of voluntary basis in section 3 of the Act if the person is remunerated within the following limits:

- (a) the person is reimbursed for any expenses incurred during the course of carrying out the work;
- (b) the person is given a true honorarium in respect of the work.

- (2) In this regulation—

true honorarium means a monetary gift made to a person in recognition of the person's work as a volunteer.

Note—

It follows that a true honorarium is not—

- (a) subject to pay-as-you-go withholding or instalment tax; or
- (b) paid as a consequence of the person's employment; or
- (c) legally required to be paid to the person; or
- (d) an amount that is relied on or expected by the person as a source of income.
