(2) For the purposes of this clause, the financial years of an employer are successive periods, not exceeding 12 months, determined by the employer to be the employer's financial years or, in the absence of such a determination, each period of 12 months ending on the thirtieth day of June.

(3) In this clause—

10. (1) The employer must ensure that there is in force at all times a guarantee given by a financial institution to or in favour of the Corporation which—

- (a) guarantees the payment of an amount to the Corporation in the event that the employer becomes insolvent or ceases to be an exempt employer; and
- (b) complies with subclause (3).

(2) The amount guaranteed by a guarantee entered into for the purposes of subclause (1)—

- (a) must be an amount, at least equal to the prescribed sum, determined by the Corporation to be reasonable for the purposes of this provision after taking into account the principle that a scaling factor of 1.5 should be applied to—
 - an actuarial estimate of the value of the current and contingent liabilities of the employer under the Act at the time of the determination (whether or not claims have been made with respect to those disabilities); plus
 - an actuarial estimate of the value of the liabilities of the employer as an exempt employer under the Act in respect of compensable disabilities attributable to traumas expected to arise from employment by the employer over the ensuing period of 12 months; less

- (b) must be reviewed annually.

(3) A guarantee complies with this subclause if—

- (b) the guarantee is in a form, and for a term, approved by the Corporation.

(4) A financial institution cannot give a guarantee under subclause (1) if the financial institution and the employer are related corporations.

(5) The Corporation and an employer may agree to enter into and maintain an arrangement that will apply in substitution for a guarantee under this clause if the Corporation is satisfied that the arrangement provides adequate and appropriate security to the Corporation in case the employer becomes insolvent or ceases to be an exempt employer and, in the event of such an agreement, the employer is not (while the agreement remains in force) required to comply with a preceding subclause.

(6) In this clause—

"financial institution" means—

- (a) an ADI; or
- (b) a person whose sole or principal business is the provision of financial services;

11. The employer must ensure that there is in force at all times a contract of insurance, in a form approved by the Corporation, for an amount approved by the Corporation, in excess of an amount approved by the Corporation, against any liability of the employer that may arise under the Act as a result of the occurrence of one event or series of events during the period of the contract.

12. In relation to an employer that is a company incorporated under the Corporations Law—

- (a) the employer must immediately give the Corporation written notice of the commencement of any procedure to liquidate or wind up the employer; and

13. The employer must ensure that all documentation that relates to a claim against the employer under the Act is retained for at least six years after the claim is finalised.

14. (1) The employer must, in carrying out its functions under the Act, take into account the racial, ethnic and linguistic diversity of the employer's workforce, the interests of both sexes, and the interests of those who may be physically, mentally or intellectually impaired, and must ensure that those of the employer's workers who are entitled to benefits under the Act are not disadvantaged because of their origins or background, their sex, or some physical, mental or intellectual impairment.

(2) The employer should, as far as reasonably practicable, ensure that information provided for use in the workplace is in a language and form appropriate for those expected to make use of it.

15. This schedule applies to—

(a) investigating, determining, defending or settling a claim;

(b) preparing, conducting, defending or settling any proceedings in respect of a claim, (and if the employer fails to sign the authority or other document, the Corporation may do so on the employer's behalf).

6. The employer must not incur any expense, enter into any litigation, make any settlement or admit any liability in respect of a claim without the written authority of the Corporation.

7. The Corporation may, for any purpose related to any liability or potential liability pursuant to section 105 of the Act—

(a) take over and control any proceedings in respect of a claim on behalf of the employer;

(b) conduct and defend any proceedings, and, if appropriate, admit liability, in the name of, and on behalf of, the employer;

(c) settle any claim or proceedings against the employer;

(d) issue and conduct proceedings in the name of the employer against any other person who may also be liable in respect of the compensable disability.

8. To the extent that the Corporation acts on behalf of the employer in any proceedings, the employer is indemnified by the Corporation against all costs and expenses of or incidental to the proceedings.

9. If at the time of the occurrence of the compensable disability other insurance also covers the liability in respect of which the Corporation provides insurance pursuant to section 105 of the Act, the Corporation is only liable to pay a pro rata share of any amount recoverable from the employer in respect of the disability (and may, if it is appropriate, exercise a right of contribution against any other insurer).
