- (2) For the purposes of this clause, the financial years of an employer are successive periods, not exceeding 12 months, determined by the employer to be the employer's financial years or, in the absence of such a determination, each period of 12 months ending on the thirtieth day of June.
- (3) In this clause—

- (2) The amount guaranteed by a guarantee entered into for the purposes of subclause (1)—
- (a) must be an amount, at least equal to the prescribed sum, determined by the Corporation to be reasonable for the purposes of this provision after taking into account the principle that the prescribed scaling factor should be applied to—

- (4) A financial institution cannot give a guarantee under subclause (1) if the financial institution and the employer are related corporations.

(5) The Corporation and an employer may agree to enter into and maintain an arrangement that will apply in substitution for a guarantee under this clause if the Corporation is satisfied that the arrangement provides adequate and appropriate security to the Corporation in case the employer becomes insolvent or ceases to be an exempt employer and, in the event of such an agreement, the employer is not (while the agreement remains in force) required to comply with a preceding subclause.

(6) In this clause—

financial institution means—

related corporations has the same meaning as in section 60(9) of the Act.

11 The employer must ensure that there is in force at all times a contract of insurance, in a form approved by the Corporation, for an amount approved by the Corporation, in excess of an amount approved by the Corporation, against any liability of the employer that may arise under the Act as a result of the occurrence of one event or series of events during the period of the contract.

12 In relation to an employer that is a company incorporated under the Corporations Law—

- (2) The employer should, as far as reasonably practicable, ensure that information provided for use in the workplace is in a language and form appropriate for those expected to make use of it.
- 15 This Schedule applies to—

- (a) take over and control any proceedings in respect of a claim on behalf of the employer;

  - (c) settle any claim or proceedings against the employer;
  - (d) issue and conduct proceedings in the name of the employer against any other person who may also be liable in respect of the compensable disability.
- 8 To the extent that the Corporation acts on behalf of the employer in any proceedings, the employer is indemnified by the Corporation against all costs and expenses of or incidental to the proceedings.
- 9 If at the time of the occurrence of the compensable disability other insurance also covers the liability in respect of which the Corporation provides insurance pursuant to section 105 of the Act, the Corporation is only liable to pay a pro rata share of any amount recoverable from the employer in respect of the disability (and may, if it is appropriate, exercise a right of contribution against any other insurer).
