The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

This Act may be cited as the Statutes Amendment (New Rules of Civil Procedure) Act 2006.

2—Commencement

- (1) This Act will come into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.
- (2) Section 7(5) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1915 does not apply in relation to the commencement of this Act or any provision of this Act.

3—Amendment provisions

In this Act, a provision under a heading referring to the amendment of a specified Act amends the Act so specified.

Part 2—Amendment of Supreme Court Act 1935

4—Amendment of section 5—Interpretation

- (1) Section 5(1), definition of petitioner—delete the definition
- (2) Section 5(1), definition of plaintiff—delete the definition and substitute:

plaintiff means a person who brings any form of proceeding in the court (other than an appeal)—

 - (a) asserting a right to any form of relief against another; or
 - (b) asking the court to exercise a power or discretion, and includes a defendant making a claim against another by way of counterclaim or third-party claim;

- (3) Section 5(1), definition of pleading—delete "petition or"

5—Amendment of section 21—Equities of plaintiff

Section 21—delete "or petitioner" wherever occurring

- (1) The court constituted of a single judge or a master may reserve a question of law for the consideration of the Full Court.

11—Substitution of section 50

Section 50—delete the section and substitute:

50—Appeals

- (1) Subject to this section—
 - (a) an appeal lies to the Full Court against a judgment of the court constituted of a single judge; and
 - (b) an appeal lies against a judgment of the court constituted of a master.
- (2) An appeal against a judgment of a master lies, if the rules so provide, to the Full Court and otherwise to the court constituted of a single judge.
- (3) No appeal lies against—
 - (a) an order allowing an extension of time to appeal from a judgment; or
 - (b) an order giving unconditional permission to defend an action; or
 - (c) a judgment that is, by statute, under the rules, or by agreement of the parties, final and without appeal.
- (4) An appeal lies only with the permission of the court—
 - (a) from a judgment of any of the following classes:
 - (i) a judgment given by consent of the parties;
 - (ii) a judgment given by a single judge on appeal from a judgment of the Magistrates Court; or
 - (b) if the rules provide that the appeal lies by permission of the court.
- (5) The rules cannot, however, require the court's permission for an appeal if the judgment under appeal—
 - (a) denies, or imposes conditions on, a right to defend an action; or
 - (b) deals with the liberty of the subject or the custody of an infant; or
 - (c) grants or refuses relief in the nature of an injunction or the appointment of a receiver; or
 - (d) is a declaration of liability or a final assessment of damages under section 30B; or

- (e) makes a final determination of a substantive right.

Exception—

If a judgment is given by a single judge on appeal from some other court or tribunal, the rules may require the court's permission for a further appeal to the Full Court even though the judgment makes a final determination of a substantive right.

- (6) In this section—

judgment includes—

- (a) an order or direction; and
(b) a decision not to make an order or direction.

12—Repeal of section 51
