- (2) A notice under subsection (1) must be in a form determined or approved by the Minister.
- (3) An agreement to waive the benefit of an exemption—
 - (a) must be in writing; and
 - (b) takes effect on the expiry of the cooling-off period (unless earlier rescinded).
- (4) A person who has entered into an agreement with a mining operator to waive the benefit of an exemption may, by giving the operator written notice before the expiration of the cooling-off period of the person's intention not to be bound by the agreement, rescind the agreement.
- (5) A notice rescinding an agreement may be given—
 - (a) by giving it to the mining operator personally; or
 - (b) by posting it by registered post to the operator's ordinary place of business (in which case the notice is taken to have been given when the notice is posted); or
 - (c) by leaving it for the operator at the operator's ordinary place of business with someone apparently over the age of 16 years; or
 - (d) by transmitting it by fax or email to a fax number or email address provided by the operator (in which case the notice is taken to have been given at the time of transmission).
- (6) If in legal proceedings the question arises whether a notice rescinding an agreement has been given in accordance with this section, the onus of proving the giving of the notice lies on the person rescinding the agreement.
- (7) If a mining operator has been unable to reach an agreement to waive the benefit of an exemption with a person to whom the operator has given a notice under this section, the mining operator may apply to the ERD Court for an order waiving the benefit of the exemption for the person (the respondent).
- (8) The ERD Court may refuse to determine an application unless the mining operator satisfies the Court that—
 - (a) the notice requesting the respondent to enter into an agreement complied with subsection (2); and

- (b) the operator provided the respondent with information prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section; and
 - (c) the operator made a reasonable attempt to reach agreement with the respondent.
- (9) On an application, the ERD Court may—
 - (a) if the mining operator satisfies the Court that any adverse effects of the proposed mining operations on the respondent can be appropriately addressed by the imposition of conditions on the mining operator (including the payment of compensation to the respondent), make an order waiving the benefit of the exemption for the respondent and imposing conditions on the mining operator; or
 - (b) if the Court is not so satisfied—refuse the application.
- (10) The ERD Court may not make an order for costs against the respondent unless the Court considers that it is appropriate to do so on the ground that the respondent—
 - (a) has obstructed or unnecessarily delayed the proceedings; or
 - (b) has failed to attend any proceedings or failed to comply with a rule, order or direction of the Court.
- (11) If an agreement or order to waive the benefit of an exemption takes effect under this section in respect of exempt land, the land ceases to be exempt land, but the exemption revives on completion of the mining operations in respect of which the agreement or order was made or at such earlier time as may be stipulated in that agreement or order.

 - (a) successors in title to those owners of land who had the benefit of the former exemption; and
 - (b) the holders from time to time of any mining tenement under which mining operations (being mining operations in respect of which the agreement or order was made) are carried out.

- (14) A mining operator is liable to indemnify a person to whom the operator gives a notice under this section for the reasonable costs of obtaining legal assistance relating to the operation of this section up to $500 or, if some other amount is prescribed by regulation, that amount.

- (c) so as to prevent a person establishing a mineral claim (identified in any manner allowed or approved under this Act) after the notice takes effect on account of a right to carry out exploratory operations under an exploration licence in force at the time the notice takes effect, or under a subsequent tenement under paragraph (b), where the holder of the tenement has reported to the Director of Mines the discovery on the relevant land of minerals that are potentially capable of economic production (including so as to allow a person to apply for (and being granted) a mining tenement on account of the establishment of the mineral claim), but otherwise a person does not have a right to apply for a mining tenement in respect of land subject to the operation of the declaration unless specifically authorised to do so by the Minister (either under the terms of the notice under subsection (1) or under a specific authorisation granted by the Minister in connection with the operation of this section).

- (5) While land is subject to the operation of a declaration under subsection (1), the land, to the extent of the exemption, may be dealt with by the Minister in accordance with this section and to that extent is not subject to the other provisions of this Act.

 - (c) provide for the management of the land, or any mining right or interest (or potential right or interest) in respect of the land, in such other manner as the Minister thinks fit.
- (7) If the Minister calls for applications under subsection (6)(a)—
 - (a) a person applying to the Minister in response to the call must do so in such manner as the Minister may require; and
 - (b) the Minister may, on reviewing any application received in response to the call—
 - (i) grant a mining tenement under this Act, subject to such terms and conditions as the Minister thinks fit; or
 - (ii) refuse the application.

- (8) A declaration under subsection (1) has effect until it is revoked under subsection (3) or until it expires under subsection (9), whichever first occurs.
- (9) A declaration under subsection (1) will expire at the end of the period of 2 years from its date of operation unless it is extended for a period or periods, not exceeding 2 years at a time, by further notice published by the Minister in the Gazette.
- (10) The Minister must cause copies of a notice of extension published under subsection (9) to be laid before both Houses of Parliament.
- (11) If either House of Parliament passes a resolution disallowing a notice laid before it under subsection (10) then the declaration under subsection (1) will immediately cease to have effect.
- (12) A resolution is not effective for the purposes of subsection (11) unless passed in pursuance of a notice of motion given within 14 sitting days (which need not fall within the same session of Parliament) after the day on which the notice under subsection (9) was laid before the House.
