- under the prescribed age in relation to that person
- (6) Section 63B—after subsection (3) insert:
- (4) It is a defence to a charge under subsection (1)(a), (1)(b)(i) or (3) (other than where the defendant was in a position of authority in relation to the child) if the defendant proves that—
- (a) the child was, on the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed, of or above the age of 16 years; and
- (b) the accused—
- (i) was, on the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed, under the age of 17 years; or
- (ii) believed on reasonable grounds that the child was of or above the age of 17 years.
- (5) This section does not apply if the person and the child are legally married to each other.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, a person is in a position of authority in relation to a child if the person is—
- (a) a teacher (within the meaning of the Education Act 1972) engaged in the education of the child; or
- (b) a foster parent, step-parent or guardian of the child; or
- (c) a religious official or spiritual leader (however described and including lay members and whether paid or unpaid) providing pastoral care or religious instruction to the child; or
- or

- (d) a medical practitioner, psychologist or social worker providing professional services to the child; or
 - (e) a person employed or providing services in a correctional institution (within the meaning of the Correctional Services Act 1982) or a training centre (within the meaning of the Young Offenders Act 1993), or any other person engaged in the administration of those Acts, acting in the course of his or her duties in relation to the child; or
 - (f) an employer of the child or other person who has the authority to determine significant aspects of the child's terms and conditions of employment or to terminate the child's employment (whether the child is being paid in respect of that employment or is working in a voluntary capacity).
- (7) For the purposes of this section, the prescribed age of a child in relation to a person is—
- (a) if the person is in a position of authority in relation to the child—18 years; or
 - (b) in any other case—17 years.
