- (a) a legal practitioner; or
- (b) a registered conveyancer; or
- (c) if the applicant is not represented by a legal practitioner or registered conveyancer—the applicant; or
- (d) if a party to an instrument is not represented by a legal practitioner or registered conveyancer—that party; or
- (e) if a provision of this Act requires or permits some other person to provide certification under subsection (1)—that person.

86—Insertion of section 273AA

After section 273 insert:

273AA—Proof of authority of unrepresented parties to enter into transaction

- (1) If a party to an instrument is not represented by a legal practitioner or registered conveyancer, the Registrar-General must not register or record the instrument in the Register Book or the Register of Crown Leases unless the party has satisfied the Registrar-General that he or she is authorised to enter into the transaction to which the instrument relates.
- (2) A party to an instrument who is not represented by a legal practitioner or registered conveyancer referred to in subsection (1) must retain a copy of any document used for the purpose of fulfilling his or her obligations under subsection (1) for the period prescribed by the regulations.
Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for 2 years.
- (3) In this section—
party to an instrument has the same meaning as in section 273A.

87—Amendment of section 273A—Verification of identity requirements

- (1) Section 273A(1)—delete subsection (1) and substitute:
 - (1) The identity of—
 - (a) a party to an instrument; or
 - (b) a person executing a document for the purposes of this Act (other than a legal practitioner or registered conveyancer acting under a client authorisation),must be verified in accordance with any prescribed requirements (the verification of identity requirements).
- (2) Section 273A(4)(b)—delete ", specified in the requirements, not exceeding 10 years" and substitute:
specified in the requirements
- (3) Section 273A—after subsection (5) insert:
 - (5a) In civil proceedings (other than review proceedings under this Act) where it is alleged that a person failed to comply with a requirement under the verification of identity requirements, that person bears the onus of proving his or her compliance with the requirement.
- (4) Section 273A(6)—delete subsection (6) and substitute:
 - (6) In this section—
party to an instrument includes a person executing an instrument on behalf of another (whether pursuant to a power of attorney or otherwise) but does not include a legal practitioner or registered conveyancer acting under a client authorisation.

88—Insertion of section 273B

After section 273A insert:

273B—Verification of authority guidelines

- (1) The Registrar-General may issue guidelines (the verification of authority guidelines) to be observed by a party to a transaction, or the legal practitioner or registered conveyancer representing a party to a transaction, where the party, practitioner or conveyancer is required under this Act to verify his or her authority, or the authority of a party to the transaction, to enter into the transaction or to execute an instrument or document in connection with the transaction.
- (2) The Registrar-General may from time to time cancel, vary or replace the verification of authority guidelines.
- (3) The Registrar-General must ensure that current and superseded versions of the verification of authority guidelines are publicly available on a website maintained by the Registrar-General and in any other manner the Registrar-General considers appropriate.
- (4) A reference in this Act to the verification of authority guidelines, in relation to an instrument or other document, is a reference to the verification of authority guidelines in force under this section at the time the authority of a party to enter into a transaction is verified (or purportedly verified).

89—Insertion of section 276A

After section 276 insert:

276A—Evidence of instruments lodged electronically

- (1) A document certified by the Registrar-General that reproduces the contents of an instrument lodged electronically under this Act or the Electronic Conveyancing National Law (South Australia) (whether in its registered or recorded form or in some other form) must be accepted in legal proceedings as evidence of that instrument.
- (2) A document referred to in subsection (1) that purports to have been certified by the Registrar-General must be taken in legal proceedings, in the absence of proof to the contrary, to have been so certified.

90—Substitution of section 277

Section 277—delete the section and substitute:

277—Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make such regulations as are contemplated by this Act or as are necessary or convenient for the purposes of this Act.

- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may—
- (a) provide that a document or record required to be produced or retained by a person under this Act must be retained by the person for a particular period; and
 - (b) provide for and prescribe fees and charges payable for or in respect of the following:
 - (i) the doing of an act or thing under this Act or the Electronic Conveyancing National Law (South Australia);
 - (ii) doing an act or thing in respect of the Register Book or the Register of Crown Leases required under any other Act;
 - (iii) searching—
 - (A) the Register Book or the Register of Crown Leases (whether electronically or in any other manner); or
 - (B) a document deposited or registered in the Lands Titles Registration Office, for information recorded under this or any other Act;
 - (iv) obtaining copies of material searched for under subparagraph (iii);
 - (v) charges recoverable by solicitors and registered conveyancers for transacting business under the provisions of this Act;
 - (vi) the provision of lodgement support services by the Registrar-General.
- (3) Fees or charges prescribed under subsection (2) for registering a transfer of land may be based on the consideration for the transfer, the value of the land transferred or any other basis whether or not the fee or charge exceeds the administrative cost of registering the transfer.
- (4) A regulation prescribing fees or charges for registering a transfer of land may also provide that the Registrar-General may recover an amount (including interest) as a debt if the assessed value of the transferred land is increased as a result of a reassessment by the Commissioner under the Taxation Administration Act 1996.
- (5) Regulations under this Act—
- (a) may be of general application or limited application; and
 - (b) may make different provision according to the matters or circumstances to which they are expressed to apply; and

- (c) may exempt, or empower the Registrar-General to exempt, persons or classes of persons, or instruments or classes of instruments, from the application of this Act or provisions of this Act, absolutely or subject to conditions.
- (6) The Governor may, by regulation, make provisions of a saving or transitional nature consequent on the amendment of this Act by another Act.
- (7) A provision of a regulation made under subsection (6) may, if the regulation so provides, take effect from the commencement of the amendment or from a later day.
- (8) To the extent to which a provision takes effect under subsection (7) from a day earlier than the day of the regulation's publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate to the disadvantage of a person by—
 - (a) decreasing the person's rights; or
 - (b) imposing liabilities on the person.
- (9) Without limiting the operation of subsections (6), (7) or (8), the regulations may, for transitional purposes—
 - (a) provide that this Act or specified provisions of this Act will not apply in relation to a particular person or thing, or a class of person or thing, until a specified day; or
 - (b) modify the application of this Act or provisions of this Act in relation to a particular person or thing, or a class of person or thing, until a specified day.
