The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

This Act may be cited as the Correctional Services (Accountability and Other Measures) Amendment Act 2021.

2—Commencement

This Act will come into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3—Amendment provisions

In this Act, a provision under a heading referring to the amendment of a specified Act amends the Act so specified.

Part 2—Amendment of Correctional Services Act 1982

4—Amendment of long title

Long title—after "care;" insert:

to provide for certain powers relating to the management of correctional services officers and employees;

5—Insertion of section 3

Before section 4 insert:

3—Objects and guiding principles

- (1) The primary object of this Act is the promotion of community safety.
- (2) The other objects of this Act are—
 - (a) to provide mechanisms for the establishment and proper administration of correctional institutions, probation and parole hostels and other facilities and services relating to persons who offend against the criminal law; and
 - (b) to provide for the safe and secure management of prisoners held in correctional institutions in the State; and
 - (c) to promote the rehabilitation of prisoners, probationers and parolees—
 - (i) by providing the necessary correction, guidance and management to assist in their reintegration into the community; and

- (ii) by providing for effective, planned and individualised management plans for prisoners, probationers and parolees, including by providing for the assessment of the risks they pose to the community, their needs and the development, implementation and review of management plans based on such assessments; and
- (d) to have regard to the rights of victims of crime; and
- (e) to have regard to the particular needs and circumstances relevant to the cultural identity and linguistic background of prisoners, probationers and parolees; and
- (f) to recognise the importance of family and community involvement and participation in the rehabilitation of prisoners, probationers and parolees; and
- (g) to recognise the particular importance of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community involvement in the rehabilitation of prisoners, parolees and probationers who are Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander persons, by ensuring so far as is reasonably practicable that—
 - (i) Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander persons are placed in a correctional institution as close as possible to their usual place of residence; and
 - (ii) an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person is entitled to seek a review of a decision to transfer the person from 1 correctional institution to another in relation to regional transfers where the person will be 200km or further from the correctional institution they are being transferred from; and
 - (iii) Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities are adequately consulted in relation to any community service projects that are regarded as having particular value to the relevant Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community; and
- (h) to support the reintegration of prisoners, probationers and parolees with the community as part of their rehabilitation; and
- (i) to facilitate, for the purpose of promoting the safety of the community, the sharing of information related to the administration or enforcement of this Act in accordance with the requirements of this Act; and
- (j) to make provision in relation to the management of officers and employees.

- (3) The Minister, the CE, the Department and other persons and bodies involved in the administration of this Act are to be guided by the following principles in the exercise of their functions:
- (a) in exercising powers under this Act, the paramount consideration must be the safety of the community;
 - (b) prisoners, probationers and parolees should be made aware of their obligations under the law, of the consequences of any breach of the law and of the importance of individual responsibility;
 - (c) the management of prisoners, probationers and parolees should be designed to assist in their rehabilitation and reintegration into the community;
 - (d) facilities and programs developed for the care, rehabilitation, imprisonment, training, therapeutic treatment or other treatment of prisoners, probationers and parolees should—
 - (i) be evidence based; and
 - (ii) be individually designed as much as reasonably practicable
 - (A) to take account of the prisoner, probationer or parolee's age, gender, gender identity, sexuality or sexual identity, cultural identity, developmental and cognitive capacity, ability or disability, and any special needs; and
 - (B) to address offending behaviours; and
 - (C) to address the physical and mental health of the prisoner, probationer or parolee; and
 - (D) to address the educational and vocational training needs of the prisoner, probationer or parolee; and
 - (iii) be governed by a comprehensive assessment and case plan developed in a multidisciplinary framework; and
 - (iv) support—
 - (A) a focus on connecting and reintegrating with the community; and
 - (B) recognition of the impact of offending on victims; and
 - (v) take into consideration the different traditions, cultural values and religious beliefs of ethnic or racial groups within the prisoner, probationer or parolee's community.

6—Amendment of section 4—Interpretation

- (1) Section 4(1)—before the definition of alcotest insert:

Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person means a person who—

- (a) is descended from an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander; and
- (b) regards themself as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander; and
- (c) is accepted as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander by an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community;

- (2) Section 4(1), definition of Department—delete ", under the Minister, responsible for" and substitute:

responsible for assisting a Minister in

- (3) Section 4(1), definition of immediate family—delete "of a victim"

7—Amendment of section 6—Criminal intelligence

- (1) Section 6(1)—after "section 85A(1)(b)" insert:

, or in connection with providing information under section 85CB,

- (2) Section 6—after subsection (2) insert:

- (2a) If the CE decides to take action in relation to a relevant person (within the meaning of section 85CB) after receiving information provided by the Commissioner of Police in accordance with that section and the decision to do so is made because of information that is classified by the Commissioner of Police as criminal intelligence, the CE is not required to provide any grounds or reasons for the decision other than that it was made in the public interest or that it would be contrary to the public interest if the action were not to be taken.

- (3) Section 6—after subsection (3) insert:

- (3a) In any proceedings relating to a decision of the CE to take action in relation to a relevant person (within the meaning of section 85CB) after receiving information provided by the Commissioner of Police in accordance with that section, the CE and the court before which the proceedings are being heard—

- (a) must, on the application of the Commissioner of Police, take steps to maintain the confidentiality of information classified by the Commissioner of Police as criminal intelligence, including steps to receive evidence and hear argument about the information in private in the absence of the parties to the proceedings and their representatives; and
- (b) may take evidence consisting of or relating to information so classified by the Commissioner of Police by way of affidavit of a police officer of or above the rank of superintendent.

8—Amendment of section 7—Power of Minister and CE to delegate

- (1) Section 7(2) and (2a)—delete ", with the approval of the Minister," wherever occurring
- (2) Section 7(2) and (4)—before "employee" wherever occurring insert in each case:

9—Substitution of Part 3 Division 2

Part 3 Division 2—delete Division 2 and substitute:

Division 2—Official visitors

19A—Preliminary

For the purposes of this Division, a reference to a correctional institution includes a reference to—

- (a) a vehicle (including a police vehicle)—
 - (i) on the grounds of a correctional institution; or
 - (ii) used to transport prisoners to or from correctional institutions; and
- (b) a cell at a court being used to accommodate a prisoner.

19B—Review

- (1) The Minister must, within 5 years after the commencement of this section, cause a review of the operation of this Division to be undertaken.
- (2) A report on the review must be provided to the Minister who must cause a copy of the report to be laid before each House of Parliament within 3 months after receipt of the report.

20—Official visitors

- (1) The Governor may appoint for each correctional institution such number of official visitors as the Governor thinks necessary or desirable.
- (2) The Governor must, in making appointments under this section, ensure that—
 - (a) at least 1 official visitor for each correctional institution is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person; and
 - (b) at least 1 official visitor for each correctional institution is a legal practitioner; and
 - (c) at least 1 official visitor for each correctional institution is a woman.
- (3) A person who constitutes a Visiting Tribunal for a correctional institution cannot be appointed as an official visitor for the correctional institution.

- (4) An official visitor will be appointed on conditions determined by the Governor and for a term, not exceeding 5 years, specified in the instrument of appointment and, at the expiration of a term of appointment, will be eligible for reappointment.
- (5) The Governor may remove an official visitor from office—
 - (a) for breach of, or noncompliance with, a condition of appointment; or
 - (b) for misconduct; or
 - (c) for failure or incapacity to carry out official duties satisfactorily.
- (6) The position of an official visitor becomes vacant if the official visitor—
 - (a) dies; or
 - (b) resigns by written notice given to the Minister; or
 - (c) completes a term of appointment and is not reappointed; or
 - (d) is removed from the position by the Governor under subsection (5); or
 - (e) becomes bankrupt or applies as a debtor to take the benefit of the laws relating to bankruptcy; or
 - (f) is convicted of an indictable offence or sentenced to imprisonment for an offence; or
 - (g) becomes a member of the Parliament of this State or any other State or of the Commonwealth or becomes a member of a Legislative Assembly of a Territory of the Commonwealth.
- (7) Nothing in this section is to be taken to prevent the appointment of a person as an official visitor for more than 1 correctional institution.

20A—Independence

- (1) In exercising functions and powers under this Act, an official visitor must act independently, impartially and in the public interest.
- (2) Neither the Minister nor the CE can—
 - (a) control how an official visitor is to exercise the visitor's statutory functions and powers; or
 - (b) give any direction in relation to the exercise of powers or functions under this Division by an official visitor, including with respect to the content of any report prepared by an official visitor.

Note—

This provision does not derogate from any express power of the Minister or CE under this Act.

20B—Remuneration

- (1) An official visitor is entitled to remuneration, allowances and expenses determined by the Remuneration Tribunal.
- (2) Jurisdiction is, by force of this section, conferred on the Remuneration Tribunal to make a determination or perform any other functions required by this section.

20C—Staff and resources

Official visitors must be provided with the resources reasonably required for exercising their functions.

20D—Functions of official visitors

- (1) The functions of an official visitor in relation to the correctional institution in respect of which the visitor is appointed include the following:
 - (a) to receive any complaint of a prisoner in the correctional institution;
 - (b) to act as an advocate for prisoners in the correctional institution to promote the proper resolution of issues relating to the care, treatment or control of the prisoners;
 - (c) to conduct visits to the correctional institution as required or authorised under this Division;
 - (d) to conduct inspections of the correctional institution as required or authorised under this Division;
 - (e) to promote the best interests of prisoners in the correctional institution;
 - (f) to inquire into, investigate and provide advice to the Minister or the CE on any matter relating to the management of the correctional institution, or the care, treatment or control of the prisoners, either on the official visitor's own initiative or on referral by the Minister or the CE;
 - (g) to make recommendations to the Minister or the CE on any matter for the purposes of improving the quality of care, treatment or control of prisoners in the correctional institution;
 - (h) any other functions assigned to the official visitor under this or any other Act.
- (2) An official visitor has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of the official visitor's functions and may have free and unfettered access to a correctional institution in respect of which the visitor is appointed.

- (3) In exercising functions under this Division, an official visitor—
 - (a) must encourage prisoners in the correctional institution to express their own views and give proper weight to those views; and
 - (b) must have regard to relevant legislation and other material, including international conventions and treaties, with a view to promoting the high quality care, treatment and control of prisoners in the correctional institution; and
 - (c) must pay particular attention to the needs and circumstances of prisoners in the correctional institution who—
 - (i) are Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander persons; or
 - (ii) have a physical, psychological or intellectual disability; and
 - (d) may receive and consider information, reports and materials relevant to exercising the official visitor's statutory functions.
- (4) Despite any other provision of this Division, an official visitor may conduct a visit to or inspection of any correctional institution (whether or not the official visitor is appointed in respect of the institution) if the official visitor considers it necessary to do so to investigate systemic issues relating to prisoners or the provision of correctional services.
- (5) An official visitor may receive and consider information, reports and materials, and interview a prisoner or other person, including in accordance with a requirement under section 20E(2), in private.
- (6) In exercising functions and powers under this Division, an official visitor must, so far as is reasonably practicable, ensure that those functions and powers are exercised in a manner that is not likely to—
 - (a) adversely affect the good order and security of a correctional institution or the safety of any person at, or whose work is connected with, a correctional institution; or
 - (b) adversely affect the protection from disclosure of criminal intelligence or the protection of the health, safety and welfare of a victim of an offence committed by a prisoner.

20E—Provision of information to official visitor

- (1) A government or non-government organisation that is involved in the provision of services under this or any other Act must, at an official visitor's request, provide the official visitor with free and unfettered access to information relevant to the exercise of the official visitor's functions.

- (2) If an official visitor has reason to believe that a person is capable of providing information or producing a document that may be relevant to the exercise of the official visitor's functions, the official visitor may, by notice in writing provided to the person, require the person to do 1 or more of the following:
 - (a) to provide that information to the official visitor in writing signed by that person or, in the case of a body corporate, by an officer of the body corporate;
 - (b) to produce that document to the official visitor;
 - (c) to attend before a person specified in the notice and answer relevant questions or produce relevant documents.
- (3) A notice under subsection (2) is to specify the period within which, or the time, day and place at which, the person is required to provide the information or document, or to attend.
- (4) A notice under subsection (2) must provide a period of time for compliance with a requirement under that subsection that has been determined by the official visitor to be reasonable in the circumstances.
- (5) A person must comply with a requirement under subsection (2).
Maximum penalty: $5 000.
- (6) However, information or a document is not required to be provided or produced under this section if to do so would involve the disclosure (directly or indirectly) of information in relation to or connected with a matter that forms or is the subject of a complaint, report, assessment, investigation, referral or evaluation under the Independent Commissioner Against Corruption Act 2012.
- (7) In addition, information or a document is not required to be provided or produced under this section if to do so would involve the disclosure (directly or indirectly) of—
 - (a) criminal intelligence; or
 - (b) information in relation to or connected with a victim of an offence committed by a prisoner.
- (8) If a document is produced in accordance with a requirement under this section, the official visitor may take possession of, make copies of, or take extracts from, the document.

20F—Requests to contact official visitor

A prisoner in a correctional institution may make a request to contact an official visitor in respect of the correctional institution.

20G—Reporting obligations of official visitor

- (1) An official visitor may, at any time, provide a report to the Minister on any matter arising out of the performance of the official visitor's functions.

- (2) An official visitor must, not later than 31 October in each year, provide a report to the Minister on the work of the official visitor during the previous financial year.
- (3) The Minister must, within 6 sitting days after receiving a report under this section, have copies of the report laid before both Houses of Parliament.
- (4) If a report laid before Parliament under this section includes recommendations on any matter relating to the management of a correctional institution or for the purposes of improving the quality of care, treatment or control of prisoners, the Minister must, within 8 sitting days of the expiration of 6 months after the report was laid before Parliament, cause a report to be laid before each House of Parliament giving details of any action taken or proposed to be taken in consequence of those recommendations.

20H—Confidentiality of information

Information about individual cases disclosed to an official visitor is to be kept confidential and is not liable to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act 1991.

20I—Offences

- (1) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, hinder, resist or threaten an official visitor in the exercise of powers or functions under this Division.
Maximum penalty: $10 000.
- (2) A person must not make a statement that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular to an official visitor in the provision of information under this Division.
Maximum penalty: $10 000.
- (3) A person must not deliberately mislead or attempt to mislead an official visitor in relation to the exercise of powers or functions under this Division by the official visitor.
Maximum penalty: $10 000.
- (4) A person must not—
 - (a) prejudice, or threaten to prejudice, the safety or career of; or
 - (b) intimidate or harass, or threaten to intimidate or harass; or
 - (c) do any act that is, or is likely to be, to the detriment of, either of the following:
 - (d) another person because the other person has provided, is providing or will or may in the future provide information to an official visitor in the exercise of powers or functions under this Division;

- (e) an official visitor in relation to the exercise of powers or functions under this Division by the official visitor.

Maximum penalty: $10 000.

20J—Conflict of interest

- (1) An official visitor must inform the Minister in writing of any direct or indirect interest that the official visitor has or acquires that conflicts or may conflict with the official visitor's functions under this Division (including, for example, if the official visitor has been an officer or employee of the Department or another public sector agency, or a member of a Minister's staff).
- (2) An official visitor must take steps to resolve a conflict or possible conflict between a direct or indirect interest and the official visitor's functions in relation to a particular matter and, unless the conflict is resolved to the Minister's satisfaction, the official visitor is disqualified from acting in relation to the matter.

10—Amendment of section 29—Work by prisoners

- (1) Section 29(1)—delete "(other than a remand prisoner)"
- (2) Section 29(2)—delete subsection (2)

- (b) may, if the parole conditions will now be accepted by or on behalf of the prisoner, order the release of the prisoner on that acceptance.

(10) Section 68—after subsection (5) insert:

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (1aa)(b)(i), the presiding member of the Board must determine from time to time a set of conditions to which release on parole under section 66 will be subject.
- (7) The presiding member of the Board must ensure that an up to date copy of the prescribed conditions is published in the Gazette and on a website determined by the presiding member.
- (8) In this section—
prescribed conditions means the conditions determined by the presiding member of the Board under subsection (6).

29—Amendment of section 74—Board may take action for breach of parole conditions

(1) Section 74(1)—delete subsection (1) and substitute:

- (1) If the Board is satisfied that—
 - (a) in the case of a person released on parole who is serving a sentence of life imprisonment—the person has, while on parole, breached a condition of the parole; or
 - (b) in the case of any other person released on parole—the person has, while on parole, breached a condition of the parole that is constituted by the commission of an offence or that is, in the opinion of the Board, a serious breach, the Board may, by order, direct that the person serve in prison the balance of the sentence, or sentences, of imprisonment in respect of which the person was on parole, being the balance unexpired as at the day on which the breach was committed.

- (2) Section 74(4)—delete subsection (4)
- (3) Section 74(4b) and (5)—delete subsections (4b) and (5) and substitute:
 - (5) If a person who is returned to prison under this section is released on parole, that release will be taken to be under the order of the Board in force immediately prior to the return of the person to prison.

30—Insertion of section 74AAA

After section 74 insert:

74AAA—Board may suspend release on parole or take other action for certain breaches of parole conditions

- (1) If the Board is satisfied that a person who has been released on parole (not being a person serving a sentence of life imprisonment) has, while on parole, breached a condition of the parole (other than a breach of a kind referred to in section 74(1)(b)), the Board may, by order—
 - (a) direct that the person serve in prison a period of their remaining balance that the Board considers appropriate, but not exceeding—
 - (i) the period between the day on which the breach occurred and the date of expiry of the parole; or
 - (ii) 6 months,whichever is the lesser; or
 - (b) vary the conditions of, or impose further conditions on, the person's release on parole.
- (2) Subsection (1)(a) applies despite the fact that, at the time of finding the breach proved, the parole has expired or been discharged.
- (3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1)(b), a condition imposed under subsection (1)(b) may require the person—
 - (a) to reside at specified premises (including premises declared under this Act to be a probation and parole hostel); and
 - (b) to undertake at specified places such activities and programs as are determined by the Board from time to time.
- (4) The Board cannot make an order under this section in relation to a person who is under the supervision of a community corrections officer unless it has obtained and considered a report from the CE.
- (5) If a person who has been returned to prison pursuant to this section commits an offence while in prison and a sentence of imprisonment is imposed for the offence, the person is liable to serve in prison the balance of the sentence, or sentences, unexpired as at the day on which the offence was committed.

- (6) The following provisions apply to the parole of a person in respect of whom the Board makes an order under subsection (1)(a):
 - (a) the parole is suspended for the duration of the period served in prison under the order;
 - (b) on release from prison, the suspension of parole ceases (so that the person will be on parole under the order of the Board in force immediately prior to the return of the person to prison).
- (7) Despite subsection (6)(b), the release of a person from prison will not be release on parole if the period of their parole has expired.
- (8) For the purposes of this section, a person's parole will be taken to expire if the date of expiry of the parole occurs while the person is in prison in accordance with an order made under subsection (1)(a) (despite the suspension of the parole under this section).
- (9) Any period for which the person is detained in custody or in prison after breaching a condition of parole is to be counted as or towards the period that the person is liable to serve in prison under this section (and any date on which the period to be served is to be taken to have commenced will be fixed accordingly).
- (10) In this section—
remaining balance, in relation to a person who has breached a condition of parole, means the balance of the sentence, or sentences, of imprisonment in respect of which the person was on parole (being the balance unexpired as at the day on which the breach was committed).

- (2) If the Magistrates Court, on application by the CE, or any court hearing proceedings for an offence against section 87A, finds that a seized remotely piloted aircraft was the subject of an offence against section 87A, the court may, by order, forfeit the seized remotely piloted aircraft to the Crown.
- (3) A seized remotely piloted aircraft that is the subject of an order for forfeiture under this section may be sold, destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the CE directs.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), if a seized remotely piloted aircraft has not been forfeited to the Crown in proceedings commenced within the prescribed period after its seizure, a person from whose lawful possession the remotely piloted aircraft was seized, or a person with legal title to it, is entitled to recover the seized remotely piloted aircraft from the CE (if necessary, by action in a court of competent jurisdiction).
- (5) Despite subsection (4), a court hearing proceedings under that subsection in relation to a seized remotely piloted aircraft may, if it thinks fit, make an order under subsection (2) for forfeiture of the seized remotely piloted aircraft to the Crown.
- (6) Nothing in this section affects the operation of the Criminal Assets Confiscation Act 2005.
- (7) In this section—
aircraft has the meaning given by section 87A(2); prescribed period means 2 years or such longer period as the Magistrates Court may, on application by the CE, allow.

Schedule 1—Related amendment and transitional provisions

Part 1—Amendment of Public Sector Act 2009

1—Amendment of section 59—Right of review

Section 59(2)—after paragraph (b) insert:

- (ba) to a decision by the CE of the Correctional Services Act 1982 to refuse an application in accordance with section 85CB(4) of that Act (to the extent that the refusal of the application involves an employment decision for the purposes of this Act); or

Part 2—Transitional provisions

2—Visiting inspectors

A visiting inspector holding office on the commencement of this clause will cease to hold office on that commencement.

3—Allowances and expenses of members of Parole Board to continue

On the commencement of this clause, the allowances and expenses payable to a member of the Parole Board will continue to be determined in accordance with the Correctional Services Act 1982 as if this Act had not been enacted until any required determinations of the Remuneration Tribunal have come into operation.

4—Review of release on parole relating to prisoners of a prescribed class

- (1) The amendments to the Correctional Services Act 1982 made by sections 27(4) and (6) to (8) (inclusive), 34 and 35 of this Act do not apply to a prisoner of a prescribed class if, prior to the commencement of this clause, the prisoner has been released on parole.
- (2) However, if, after the commencement of this clause, the release on parole of a prisoner of a prescribed class is cancelled, the amendments to the Correctional Services Act 1982 made by sections 27(4) and (6) to (8) (inclusive), 34 and 35 of this Act will apply to the prisoner (including any application for release on parole made by the prisoner after that commencement).
- (3) For the purposes of this clause—prisoner of a prescribed class has the same meaning as in Part 6 Division 4 of the Correctional Services Act 1982 (as amended by section 35 of this Act).

5—General

- (1) An amendment effected by a provision of this Act (other than a provision referred to in clause 4) applies in relation to a prisoner serving a sentence of imprisonment or on parole on or after the commencement of the provision (regardless of when the prisoner was sentenced).
- (2) However, section 68(1aa)(b)(i) of the Correctional Services Act 1982 (as inserted by section 28(1) of this Act) does not affect the conditions of parole of a prisoner released on parole prior to the commencement of section 28(1).

6—Other matters

To avoid doubt, Part 6A of the Correctional Services Act 1982 (as inserted by section 36 of this Act) applies on and after the commencement of this clause to a person appointed as an officer or employee of the Department (regardless of when the officer or employee was appointed).
