Administrative Arrangements (References to Ministers) Proclamation 2003

under section 8 of the Administrative Arrangements Act 1994

1—Short title

This proclamation may be cited as the Administrative Arrangements (References to Ministers) Proclamation 2003.

2—Commencement

This proclamation comes into operation on the day on which it is made.

3—Interpretative provision

- (1) A reference to the Minister for Industry and Investment in an Act or a statutory instrument under an Act will, if the Act was on the day immediately before the effective date, committed to the administration of that Minister, have effect as if it were a reference to the Minister to whom the administration of the Act is for the time being committed.
- (2) A reference to the Minister for Industry and Investment in a statutory instrument or any other kind of instrument, or a contract, agreement or other document, made or entered into before the effective date (other than a reference to which subclause (1) is applicable) will have effect as if it were a reference to the Minister for Economic Development, the Deputy Premier, the Minister Assisting the Premier in Economic Development, the Minister for Industry, Trade and Regional Development or the Minister for Science and Information Economy according to the distribution of Ministerial responsibilities and functions between the relevant Ministers so that the reference will have effect as if it were a reference to the Minister to whom the relevant responsibilities or functions are currently assigned.
- (3) A reference to the Minister for Government Enterprises in an Act or a statutory instrument under an Act will, if the Act was on the day immediately before the effective date, committed to the administration of that Minister, have effect as if it were a reference to the Minister to whom the administration of the Act is for the time being committed.
- (4) A reference to the Minister for Government Enterprises in a statutory instrument or any other kind of instrument, or a contract, agreement or other document, made or entered into before the effective date (other than a reference to which subclause (3) is applicable) will have effect as if it were a reference to the Minister for Infrastructure, the Minister for Forests, the Minister for Administrative Services or the Treasurer according to the distribution of Ministerial responsibilities and functions between the relevant Ministers so that the reference will have effect as if it were a reference to the Minister to whom the relevant responsibilities or functions are currently assigned.

- (5) A reference to the Minister for Trade and Regional Development in an Act, a statutory instrument, or any other kind of instrument, or a contract, agreement or other document, will have effect as if it were a reference to the Minister for Industry, Trade and Regional Development.
- (6) A reference to a Minister not referred to in a preceding subclause in a statutory instrument or any other kind of instrument, or a contract, agreement or other document, made or entered into before the effective date, that is being administered, managed or held under or pursuant to a Ministerial responsibility or function that is, from the effective date, to be assumed by another Minister, will have effect as if it were a reference to that other Minister.
- (7) In this clause—effective date means the date on which this proclamation is made.
