 - (c) must assist the person in considering the application of that information to the particular circumstances of the person; and
 - (d) must, in the case of an adoption of an Aboriginal child, ensure that the person is aware of the availability of further specialised counselling from Aboriginal organisations and help the person to obtain such counselling if the person so wishes.

 - (a) the implications of adoption and the consequences of consenting to adoption; and

- (2) A witness to an instrument of consent to adoption must, as soon as practicable after the execution of the instrument—
- (a) forward the original of the instrument to the Chief Executive; and
 - (b) give a copy of the instrument to the person giving consent.

Part 3—Prospective Adoptive Parents Register

6—Prospective Adoptive Parents Register

- (1) The Prospective Adoptive Parents Register continues in existence.
- (2) The register may be divided into subregisters, each relating to children of a particular kind.
- (3) A subregister may, for example, relate to children of a particular age group, sex or racial origin or to children with special needs.
- (4) Subject to this Part, a subregister will contain the names of persons registered as prospective adoptive parents in the order in which those persons lodged expressions of interest under regulation 7 in respect of adopting a child of the kind to which the subregister relates.
- (5) If—
- (a) a person is registered on a particular subregister following lodgement of an expression of interest under regulation 7; and
 - (b) while so registered, the person lodges another expression of interest under regulation 7 (in respect of adopting a child of a different kind),
- the latter expression of interest will be taken to have been lodged at the time that the former expression of interest was lodged.

- (6) The register is not available for public inspection.

7—Expressions of interest and applications for registration

- (1) A person may, by notice in writing to the Chief Executive, express an interest in adopting a child.
- (2) An expression of interest under subregulation (1) must specify the kind or kinds of child that the person is interested in adopting.
- (3) The Chief Executive may, from time to time, invite persons who have expressed an interest in adopting a child of a particular kind to apply for registration on the subregister relating to children of that kind.
- (4) The Chief Executive will not invite a person to apply for registration if satisfied that the person does not meet the minimum requirements for applicants for registration set out in regulation 8.
- (5) Subject to subregulation (6), an application for registration cannot be made except pursuant to an invitation given under this regulation.
- (6) Where a person who is cohabiting with another person in a marriage relationship proposes to make an application for registration, the application must be made jointly with that other person.

8—Minimum requirements for applicants for registration

- (1) A person cannot apply for registration as a prospective adoptive parent unless—
- (a) the person is 18 years of age or over but under 55 years of age; and
 - (b) the person is resident or domiciled in the State; and
 - (c) the person is a permanent resident of Australia and has been so resident for at least the last 3 years; and
 - (d) the person is an Australian citizen or, in the case of a joint application for registration, at least one of the applicants is an Australian citizen.
- (2) A person cannot apply for registration as a prospective adoptive parent if—
- (a) the person has previously been so registered (whether under these regulations or under the law of another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth) and that registration was cancelled on the ground that it was improperly obtained; or
 - (b) the person has, as an adult, been convicted of an offence involving violence towards a child, abuse of a child or abduction of a child.
- (3) A person cannot, except with the approval of the Chief Executive, apply for registration as a prospective adoptive parent if a child has, at any time, been removed from the care or custody of the person and become the subject of a care and protection order made under the Children's Protection Act 1993, or any other similar order made in this State or another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth.
- (4) A person cannot apply for registration on a subregister relating to children who are resident in a country outside Australia unless the person also complies with the minimum requirements of that country for adoption of a child by a person resident in Australia.

9—Assessment report

- (1) The Chief Executive must cause an assessment report to be prepared with respect to an application for registration.
- (2) The assessment report must contain an assessment of the suitability of the applicant to adopt a child of the kind in relation to which registration is sought and the capacity of the applicant to care adequately for such a child.
- (3) An assessment report must be prepared having regard to the following factors:
 - (a) the parenting skills or potential parenting skills of the applicant;
 - (b) the capacity of the applicant to provide the standard of care necessary to safeguard and promote the physical, intellectual and emotional welfare of a child of the kind in relation to which registration is sought;
 - (c) if the applicant has the care of any other child—the effect that may have on the welfare of an adopted child or on the applicant's ability to care for an adopted child;
 - (d) the emotional warmth, maturity and stability of the applicant;
 - (e) the physical and mental health of the applicant;
 - (f) the capacity of the applicant to deal with difficult or stressful situations;
 - (g) in the case of a joint application—the length and quality of the relationship between the applicants;
 - (h) the economic position and financial management skills of the applicant;
 - (i) the criminal record (if any) of the applicant;
 - (j) the nature of the childhood experiences of the applicant;
 - (k) if the applicant is infertile—the attitude of the applicant to that infertility or, in the case of a joint application, the attitude of each applicant to that infertility;
 - (l) the attitude of the applicant to children and in particular to the discipline of children;
 - (m) the attitude of the applicant to the status of an adopted child, to the birth parents of an adopted child and to an adopted child's access to information about the child's origin;
 - (n) the attitude to adoption of a child by the applicant of—
 - (i) any children of the applicant; and
 - (ii) any other parent or guardian of any children of the applicant; and
 - (iii) any other person (who is a relative of the applicant, a member of the applicant's household or a close acquaintance of the applicant) with whom the child, if adopted by the applicant, would be likely to come into regular contact;
 - (o) the motivation of the applicant to adopt a child;

- (p) if the applicant has expressed an interest in adopting a child with special needs—the capacity of the applicant to provide the standard of care required to fulfil the needs of such a child;
 - (q) if the applicant has expressed an interest in adopting a child of a particular racial origin—the applicant's understanding of, and interest in, people of that racial origin and the applicant's attitude towards the retention by such a child of his or her cultural heritage.
- (4) A person preparing an assessment report may have regard to any other factor that the person considers relevant in the particular circumstances.
 - (5) The Chief Executive may rely on an assessment report prepared by an adoption agency in relation to an application if satisfied that the agency, in preparing that assessment report, has complied with the requirements of this regulation (and in such a case the Chief Executive is not obliged to cause any other assessment report to be prepared in relation to the application).

10—Registration

- (1) A decision on an application must be made within 18 months of the date on which the application was lodged.
- (2) If, after considering an assessment report prepared in relation to an application, the Chief Executive is satisfied that the applicant or, in the case of a joint application, each applicant is a fit and proper person to adopt a child of the kind in relation to which registration is sought, the Chief Executive will register the applicant or applicants on the appropriate subregister or subregisters.
- (3) Before the Chief Executive rejects an application, the applicant must be given an opportunity to make representations on the matter to the Chief Executive.
- (4) Written notice of the Chief Executive's decision under this regulation, together with a copy of the relevant assessment report, must be given to the applicant.
- (5) If the Chief Executive rejects an application, the notice of that decision must inform the applicant of the right to seek a review of the decision and must set out the procedures and time limits that apply in respect of seeking a review.

11—Transfer of registration from another State

- (1) A person who has been registered as a prospective adoptive parent under the law of another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth that substantially corresponds to the Act and these regulations may apply to the Chief Executive to have that registration transferred to this State.
- (2) If a person who is so registered duly applies for transfer of that registration under subregulation (1), the Chief Executive must enter the applicant's name in the register if satisfied that the applicant—
 - (a) is registered under that other law; and
 - (b) meets the minimum requirements for applicants for registration set out in regulation 8; and
 - (c) has given notice of the application for transfer of registration, in writing, to the authority administering the other law.

- (3) The Chief Executive may require a person transferring registration in accordance with this regulation to provide such information as is necessary to determine which subregister or subregisters the person's name should be entered in.
- (4) Where a person who has been registered under another law becomes registered pursuant to this regulation, the entry in the register will be taken to have been made on the day on which the person was registered under the other law.

12—Conversion of registration into joint registration

- (1) A person who is registered as a single prospective adoptive parent and who, following registration, commences cohabiting with another person in a marriage relationship may, if the other person meets the minimum requirements for applicants for registration set out in regulation 8, apply jointly with that other person to the Chief Executive to have the registration converted into joint registration.
- (2) The Chief Executive will treat an application for conversion of registration under this regulation in all respects as if it were a joint application for registration made under regulation 7.
- (3) Where a person's initial registration is converted into joint registration pursuant to this regulation, the entry in the register relating to that joint registration will be taken to have been made on the day on which the person's initial registration occurred.

13—Duration and renewal of registration

- (1) Registration of a person as a prospective adoptive parent—
 - (a) has effect, subject to these regulations, for a period of 3 years; and
 - (b) may be renewed from time to time in accordance with this regulation; and
 - (c) ceases—
 - (i) on written notice of withdrawal being given to the Chief Executive by the registered person or, in the case of persons with joint registration, on the written notice of either of the registered persons; or
 - (ii) on the death of the registered person; or
 - (iii) on cancellation of the registration by the Chief Executive under these regulations.
- (2) Subject to subregulation (3), an application for renewal of registration must be lodged with the Chief Executive not more than 3 months and not less than 1 month before the period of registration expires.
- (3) The Chief Executive may, in his or her discretion, accept a late application for renewal of registration.
- (4) A person may only apply for renewal of registration if the person meets the minimum requirements for applicants for registration set out in regulation 8.
- (5) On receipt of an application for renewal of registration, the Chief Executive must cause the assessment report relating to the applicant to be reviewed having regard to any changes in circumstances of the applicant in the period since that report was prepared or was last reviewed.

- (6) However, the Chief Executive may rely on a review of an assessment report undertaken by an adoption agency if satisfied that the agency, in undertaking the review, has had proper regard to any changes in circumstances of the applicant in the period since that report was prepared or was last reviewed.
- (7) If, after considering the review of the assessment report, the Chief Executive is satisfied that the applicant or, in the case of a joint application, each applicant is still a fit and proper person to adopt a child of the kind in relation to which renewal of registration is sought, the Chief Executive will renew the registration for a further period of 3 years.
- (8) Before the Chief Executive rejects an application for renewal of registration, the applicant must be given an opportunity to make representations on the matter to the Chief Executive.
- (9) Written notice of the Chief Executive's decision under this regulation, together with a copy of the review of the assessment report, must be given to the applicant.
- (10) If the Chief Executive rejects an application for renewal of registration, the notice of that decision must inform the applicant of the right to seek a review of the decision and must set out the procedures and time limits that apply in respect of seeking a review.

14—Cancellation of registration

- (1) The registration of a person as a prospective adoptive parent will be cancelled if a child is placed for adoption with that person.
- (2) The registration of a person as a prospective adoptive parent will be cancelled by the Chief Executive if—
 - (a) the person attains the age of 55 years; or
 - (b) the person ceases to be resident or domiciled in the State; or
 - (c) the person ceases to be permanently resident in Australia; or
 - (d) the person ceases to be an Australian citizen and, in the case of joint registration, the person with whom he or she is jointly registered is not an Australian citizen; or
 - (e) a child is removed from the care or custody of that person and becomes the subject of a care and protection order made under the Children's Protection Act 1993, or any other similar order made in this State or another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth; or
 - (f) the person is convicted of an offence involving violence towards a child, abuse of a child or abduction of a child; or
 - (g) the person's registration is transferred to another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth; or
 - (h) the registration was improperly obtained.
- (3) If a person is registered on a subregister relating to children who are resident in a country outside Australia and the person ceases to satisfy the minimum requirements of that country for adoption of a child by a person resident in Australia, the person's registration on that subregister will be cancelled by the Chief Executive.

- (4) If the registration of a person is cancelled or otherwise ceases in accordance with these regulations, the Chief Executive will, unless satisfied that special reasons exist for not doing so, cancel the registration of a person jointly registered with that person.
- (5) If persons who are jointly registered cease cohabiting in a marriage relationship, the Chief Executive will, unless satisfied that special reasons exist for not doing so, cancel the registration of both persons.
- (6) A person registered as a prospective adoptive parent must, within 28 days of that registration becoming liable to cancellation under this regulation, inform the Chief Executive of that fact.
Maximum penalty: $250.
- (7) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subregulation (5) for the defendant to prove that—
 - (a) the defendant's registration only became liable to cancellation because, due to a change in the law of a country outside Australia, the person ceased to satisfy the minimum requirements of that country for adopting a child; and
 - (b) the defendant did not know that the law of that country had so changed.
- (8) The Chief Executive may, at any time, review the registration of a person and may, if the Chief Executive finds that the person is no longer a fit and proper person to adopt a child of the kind in relation to which the person is registered or, in the case of joint registration, that either person is no longer a fit and proper person to adopt such a child, cancel the registration of the person or persons.
- (9) Before the Chief Executive cancels the registration of a person under this regulation (other than under subregulation (1) or (2)), the person must be given an opportunity to make representations on the matter to the Chief Executive.
- (10) Written notice of the Chief Executive's decision to cancel registration under this regulation, together with a brief description of the reasons for that decision, must be given to each person affected by the decision.
- (11) A notice under subregulation (9) must inform the person of the right (if any) to seek a review of the decision and must set out the procedures and time limits that apply in respect of seeking a review.
- (12) A decision to cancel the registration of a person under subregulation (1) or (2) may not be the subject of a request for a review under regulation 16.

15—Additional requirements relating to applications

The Chief Executive may, for the purposes of determining an application under this Part, require the applicant—

- (a) to provide further information on any matter specified; or
- (b) to participate in specified workshops or seminars; or
- (c) to provide a medical report as to any specified matter from a medical practitioner nominated by the Chief Executive; or
- (d) to provide written consent authorising a third party to release information relating to the applicant to the Chief Executive.

Part 4—Review

16—Application for review and constitution of adoption board

- (1) A person who is dissatisfied with a decision of the Chief Executive under Part 3 may, within 30 days of receipt of notice of the decision, request the Minister to refer the matter to an adoption board for review.
- (2) The Minister must, on receipt of such a request, constitute an adoption board for the purposes of hearing the review and refer the matter to that board unless the Minister is satisfied—
 - (a) that the request for the review is frivolous or vexatious; or
 - (b) that the matter has already been the subject of review.
- (3) An adoption board constituted for the purpose of hearing a review will consist of one or more members appointed by the Minister.
- (4) If an adoption board consists of more than one member, the following provisions apply:
 - (a) the Minister will appoint one of the members of the board to be the presiding member;
 - (b) a decision in which a majority of the members concurs is a decision of the board;
 - (c) if a member, other than the presiding member, dies or is for any reason unable to continue with the review proceedings, the board may continue to conduct the review with the remaining members (but, if there are only two remaining members, a decision of the board must be unanimous).

17—Proceedings

- (1) An adoption board must give the Chief Executive and the party seeking the review reasonable notice of the time and place at which it intends to conduct the review.
- (2) An adoption board must give the party seeking the review a reasonable opportunity to call or give evidence, to examine or cross-examine witnesses and to make oral or written submissions to the board.
- (3) If a person to whom notice has been given under subregulation (1) does not attend at the time and place fixed by the notice, the adoption board may hold the review in that person's absence.
- (4) An adoption board is not bound by the rules of evidence and may inform itself on any matter in such manner as it thinks fit.
- (5) An adoption board must act according to equity, good conscience and the substantial merits of the case.
- (6) Subject to these regulations, the procedure at a review will be as determined by the adoption board hearing the review.
- (7) The Chief Executive must make available to an adoption board any relevant assessment report and any other records or information as the board requests relating to the matter which is the subject of the review.

- (8) The party seeking the review is entitled to appear personally or by counsel or, by leave of the adoption board hearing the review, by some other representative.
- (9) The Chief Executive may appear personally in proceedings before an adoption board or may be represented at such proceedings by counsel or an officer of the Public Service.

- (b) remit any matter arising in the proceedings to the Chief Executive for further consideration; or
- (c) make such incidental or ancillary orders as it considers appropriate (including orders relating to entries in the register, to the assessment report relevant to the person who sought the review or to the documentation to be sent overseas for the purposes of adoption).

Part 5—Selection of applicants for adoption orders

19—Order in which registered persons selected to be applicants for adoption orders

- (1) Subject to this regulation, persons whose names are included in the register will be selected to be applicants for an adoption order in the order in which the persons' names appear in the subregister relating to children of the same kind as the child to be adopted.
- (2) A person is excluded from selection as an applicant for an order for adoption of a particular child in accordance with the order prescribed by subregulation (1) if the Chief Executive is satisfied that—
 - (a) the adoption of the child by the person would be inconsistent with a limitation of the consent to the adoption of a parent or guardian of the child; or
 - (b) the adoption of the child by the person would be contrary to—
 - (i) the wishes of the child's birth parent or guardian; or
 - (ii) in relation to a child who is resident in a country outside Australia—the requirements of the law of that country governing the adoption of children; or
 - (c) the adoption of the child by another person whose name is included in the register would, in the particular circumstances of the child, better safeguard and promote the welfare and interests of the child; or is excluded from selection as an applicant for an order for adoption of a particular child in accordance with the order prescribed by subregulation (1) unless the Chief Executive is satisfied that there are special circumstances that would justify the making of an adoption order in favour of the person.

- (4) The selection of a person under this regulation as an applicant for an order for adoption of a child may be cancelled if the Chief Executive becomes aware of circumstances that, if known or in existence at the time of the selection, would have resulted in the person being excluded from selection as an applicant for the order.
- (5) If the selection of a person is cancelled under subregulation (4), the Chief Executive must notify the person in writing of the cancellation.

Part 6—Register of births

20—Court to notify Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages of adoption order etc
