Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

These regulations may be cited as the Road Traffic (Miscellaneous) Variation Regulations 2004.

2—Commencement

These regulations come into operation on the day on which they are made.

3—Variation provisions

In these regulations, a provision under a heading referring to the variation of specified regulations varies the regulations so specified.

Part 2—Variation of Road Traffic (Miscellaneous) Regulations 1999

4—Variation of regulation 4—Interpretation

Regulation 4, definition of public place—delete the definition and substitute:

parking authority means an Authority within the meaning of Part 2 of the Act (other than the Commissioner of Highways, a council or the Passenger Transport Board) that has the care, control or management of a road on, above or near which the Authority has, with the approval of the Minister under section 17 of the Act, installed, maintained, altered or operated, or caused to be installed, maintained, altered or operated, traffic control devices for the purposes of Part 12 of the Australian Road Rules;

public place means land (that does not, disregarding regulation 5, constitute a road or road-related area)—

- (a) owned by or under the care, control or management of a council or parking authority; or
- (b) commonly used by the public; or
- (c) to which the public are permitted to have access,

including (without limitation) parklands, plantations, ornamental grounds and reserves.

5—Variation of regulation 21—Prohibition of parking in certain public places

Regulation 21(1)—delete subregulation (1) and substitute:

- (1) A person must not park a vehicle (other than a bicycle) in a public place owned by or under the care, control or management of a council or parking authority except in an area specifically set aside for parking by the council or parking authority.

Penalty: $500.

Note—

As required by section 10AA(2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1978, the Minister has certified that, in the Minister's opinion, it is necessary or appropriate that these regulations come into operation as set out in these regulations.
