Legislative history

The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

This Act may be cited as the Child Safety (Prohibited Persons) Act 2016.

2—Commencement

- (1) This Act will come into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.
- (2) Section 7(5) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1915 does not apply to this Act or to a provision of this Act.

Part 2—Objects, principles and guidelines

3—Object and principles

- (1) The primary object of this Act is to minimise the risk to children posed by persons who work with them.
- (2) In order to further the primary object, it is a further object of this Act to provide a framework for the prohibition of persons who pose an unacceptable risk to children from working with them.
- (3) The paramount consideration in respect of the administration, operation and enforcement of this Act must always be the best interests of children, having regard to their safety and protection.
- (4) The following principles must be taken into account in connection with the administration, operation and enforcement of this Act:
 - (a) a working with children check relating to a person is conducted by the central assessment unit to determine (based on an assessment of information available to the central assessment unit)—
 - (i) whether the person poses an unacceptable risk to children; and
 - (ii) whether the person should be prohibited from working with children;

- (b) persons who pose an unacceptable risk to children are to be prevented from working with children;
- (c) a working with children check is not a determination of a person's suitability to work with children and cannot be relied on as such, and in particular—
 - (i) a working with children check that does not result in a person being prohibited from working with children is not proof of good character; and
 - (ii) a working with children check that does not result in a person being prohibited from working with children is not proof that the person does not pose a risk to children;
- (d) a working with children check is an assessment of 1 person's prior conduct, and the fact that working with children checks are conducted in relation to employees does not, of itself, satisfy an employer's obligation to ensure that a workplace is safe for children;
- (e) organisations and employers must have in place comprehensive strategies to ensure child safe environments.

4—Guidelines

- (1) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, publish or adopt guidelines for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), guidelines must be published or adopted in relation to—
 - (a) procedures to be followed by the central assessment unit when conducting working with children checks; and
 - (b) standards to be applied by the central assessment unit when determining the weight to be given to evidence of a specified kind; and
 - (c) benchmarks for periods within which certain applications for working with children checks are to be processed by the central assessment unit; and
 - (d) the risk assessment criteria to be used by the central assessment unit in conducting working with children checks.
- (3) The Minister may, from time to time, by notice in the Gazette, vary, substitute or revoke guidelines published or adopted under this section.
- (4) A copy of any guidelines published or adopted under this section, as varied or substituted from time to time—
 - (a) must be published on a website determined by the Minister; and
 - (b) must be made available for inspection without charge at the place or places determined by the Minister.

- (4) A function or power delegated under this section may, if the instrument of delegation so provides, be further delegated.

Division 2—Working with children checks

25—Working with children checks to be conducted by central assessment unit

- (1) A working with children check under this Act must be conducted by the central assessment unit.
- (2) To avoid doubt, a criminal history report prepared by South Australia Police, CrimTrac or the Australian Crime Commission does not constitute a working with children check.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to an order of the South Australian Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

26—Nature of working with children check

- (1) A working with children check in respect of a person consists of the central assessment unit assessing assessable information relating to a person against the prescribed risk assessment criteria to determine whether or not the person poses an unacceptable risk to children.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) requires the central assessment unit to assess all assessable information relating to a person (and the fact that the central assessment unit did not assess all assessable information relating to a person in the course of a working with children check does not, of itself, invalidate the working with children check, or a decision of the central assessment unit made in relation to the working with children check).
- (3) In conducting a working with children check, the central assessment unit—
 - (a) is not bound by the rules of evidence; and
 - (b) may adopt, as in its discretion it considers appropriate, any findings, decision or judgment of a court or other tribunal; and
 - (c) may otherwise inform itself as it thinks fit.

- (4) A working with children check must be conducted in accordance with any other requirements set out in the regulations and the guidelines (however, a failure to comply with this subsection does not, of itself, invalidate a working with children check).
- (5) On completing a working with children check in respect of a person, the central assessment unit must determine whether the person is, or is not, to be prohibited from working with children.
- (6) To avoid doubt, a working with children check may be used in relation to any child-related work despite being conducted in relation to a particular position, service or activity or employer.
- (7) In this section—

prescribed risk assessment criteria means the risk assessment criteria set out in the guidelines.

26A—Certain persons presumed to pose unacceptable risk to children

- (1) Subject to this section, the following provisions apply in relation to the conduct of a working with children check in respect of a person who has been found guilty of a presumptive disqualification offence (whether the offence was committed, or the finding of guilt made, before or after the commencement of this section):
 - (a) the person will be presumed to pose an unacceptable risk to children;
 - (b) the central assessment unit need not consider or assess any further information in relation to an application for a working with children check made by the person;
 - (c) the central assessment unit must, for the purposes of section 26(5), determine that the person is to be prohibited from working with children unless the person satisfies the central assessment unit that—
 - (i) the circumstances of the presumptive disqualification offence are such that the offence should be disregarded in determining whether the person poses an unacceptable risk to children; or
 - (ii) such exceptional circumstances exist in relation to the person that the person does not appear, or no longer appears, to pose an unacceptable risk to children.
- (2) Nothing in this section limits section 27(3).
- (3) For the purposes of this section, a reference to a person who has been found guilty of a presumptive disqualification offence will be taken to include a reference to—
 - (a) a person in relation to whom, on a charge of a presumptive disqualification offence—
 - (i) there is a finding of a court under Part 8A of the Criminal Law Consolidation Act 1935 that the objective elements of a presumptive disqualification offence are established (whether or not the person was found not guilty of the offence, or was found to be mentally unfit to stand trial, pursuant to Division 2 or 3 of that Part); or
 - (ii) there is a finding of a court of another jurisdiction that corresponds to a finding referred to in subparagraph (i); and

- (b) a person who has been charged with a prescribed offence or presumptive disqualification offence, but where the charge has not yet been finally determined.
- (4) In this section—
presumptive disqualification offence means an offence, or class of offences, declared by the regulations to be a presumptive disqualification offence (but does not include an offence that is a prescribed offence).

27—Application for working with children check

- (1) Subject to this Act, an application for a working with children check—
 - (a) must be made to the central assessment unit by the person to whom the working with children check relates; and
 - (b) must be made in a manner and form determined by the central assessment unit; and
 - (c) must be accompanied by such information as may reasonably be required by the central assessment unit; and
 - (d) must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (2) The regulations may make further provision in relation to applications for working with children checks (including by allowing an application to be made for or on behalf of a person by their employer or another person).
- (3) The central assessment unit may refuse to consider an application if—
 - (a) the central assessment unit has conducted a working with children check in relation to the person to whom the application relates within the preceding 5 years; and
 - (b) on completion of that working with children check, the central assessment unit issued a prohibition notice to the person; and
 - (c) that prohibition notice has not been revoked.
- (4) The central assessment unit must, in accordance with any requirements set out in the regulations—
 - (a) issue a receipt in the prescribed form to each applicant for a working with children check; and
 - (b) if the person to whom the working with children check relates does not have a unique identifier—issue a unique identifier to the person in accordance with section 29.

28—Working with children check to be conducted even if application withdrawn

The central assessment unit must conduct a working with children check in relation to a person to whom an application under section 27 relates whether or not the application is subsequently withdrawn (and, to avoid doubt, this Act will continue to apply in respect of the application as if it were not so withdrawn).

29—Unique identifiers

- (1) The central assessment must (unless a unique identifier has already been issued to the person) issue a unique identifier to—
 - (a) each applicant for a working with children check; and
 - (b) each person to whom a prohibition notice is issued,and may issue a unique identifier to such other persons as the central assessment unit thinks appropriate.
- (2) The central assessment issues a unique identifier to a person by—
 - (a) assigning a unique number to the person by which the person can be identified and with which the records management system can be interrogated; and
 - (b) giving the person a notice in a manner and form determined by the central screening unit setting out the person's unique identifier.
- (3) A unique identifier may only be varied, substituted or revoked with the consent of the Minister.
- (4) The regulations may make further provision in respect of unique identifiers.

 - (a) on the application of an employer of the person; or
 - (b) on the application of a person prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph; or
 - (c) on the central assessment unit's own motion,and must be conducted if the Minister so directs.
- (3) An application under this section—

 - (c) must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

- (1) Despite any other Act or law, the central assessment unit may, in relation to any decision or determination under this Act, seek such medical, legal or other professional advice as it thinks necessary or appropriate to make the decision or determination.

- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may provide for the establishment of an advisory panel to advise or assist the central assessment unit in the performance of its functions under this Act.

32—Issue of prohibition notice

- (1) If the central assessment unit determines under section 26(5) that a person is to be prohibited from engaging in child-related work, the central assessment unit must, in accordance with the regulations, issue a notice to the person prohibiting the person from engaging in child-related work (a prohibition notice).
- (2) A prohibition notice—
- (a) must be in the form approved by the Minister; and
 - (b) must contain a statement in a form approved by the Minister stating that the person to whom the notice relates is prohibited from engaging in child-related work; and
 - (c) must set out the following information:
 - (i) the full name and date of birth of the person to whom the notice relates;
 - (ii) the unique identifier of the person to whom the notice relates;
 - (iii) the date of issue of the notice;
 - (iv) any other information required by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.
- (3) A prohibition notice remains in force until it is revoked in accordance with this Act.

33—Revocation of prohibition notice

- (1) The central assessment unit may, on the application of the prohibited person to whom a prohibition notice relates or on its own motion, revoke a prohibition notice if—
- (a) the only grounds on which the person is a prohibited person is the issue of the prohibition notice; and
 - (b) if the revocation is on the application of the prohibited person—the prohibited person satisfies the central assessment unit that—
 - (i) the prohibition notice was issued in error; or
 - (ii) there is fresh and compelling assessable information that, if assessed in the course of the original working with children check, would have materially affected the determination under section 26(5) to prohibit the person from working with children; and
 - (c) the central assessment unit conducts a further working with children check in relation to the prohibited person, and determines that the person is not to be prohibited from working with children.
- (2) An application under this section—
- (a) must be made in a manner and form determined by the central assessment unit; and

- (b) must be accompanied by such information or documents as the central assessment unit may reasonably require; and

 - (c) the person uses that working with children check to work with children other than as a volunteer,
- the person must, unless the fee is waived by the central assessment unit, pay to the central assessment unit the prescribed fee.
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a person who works with children other than as a volunteer on less than 7 days in any 12 month period (whether or not the person also works with children on a volunteer basis during that period).
- (3) A payment under subsection (1) must be made as soon as is reasonably practicable (and in any case within 28 days) after the person commences work with children other than as a volunteer.
- (4) A person who fails to comply with subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

- (2) The records management system must include—
