- (4) To the extent that licensees share the same premises as referred to in subsection (3)—
- (a) the part of the premises that is shared is referred to as a collective outlet; and

- (5) The licensing authority may endorse a liquor production and sales licence with an authorisation to sell or supply liquor on a site specified in the endorsement during an event specified in the endorsement for consumption on or off the site as specified in the endorsement (a production and sales event endorsement), except if the licensing authority is of the opinion that the trade to be authorised by the endorsement would, in view of the likely scale or nature of the event or for any other reason, be better authorised by a short term licence or licence of some other category.
- (6) A liquor production and sales licence with a production and sales event endorsement authorises the licensee to sell or supply liquor in accordance with the endorsement and the licensed premises are, for the period for which the licensee is so authorised to sell or supply liquor, to be regarded as including any site specified in the endorsement.

Liquor Licensing (Licence Fees) Amendment Act 1998

14—Exclusion of liability to liquor licence fees on and from 5 August 1997

Despite the provisions of the Liquor Licensing Act 1985, no liability to licence fees is to be taken to have accrued under that Act in respect of sales or purchases of liquor made on or after 5 August 1997.

Statutes Amendment (Liquor, Gambling and Security Industries) Act 2005, Sch 1—Transitional provisions

2—Liquor Licensing Act 1997

- (1) An amendment to the Liquor Licensing Act 1997 effected by a provision of this Act applies in respect of an application under that Act if the application is determined after the commencement of that provision irrespective of whether the application was lodged before or after that commencement.
- (2) An amendment to the Liquor Licensing Act 1997 effected by a provision of this Act applies in respect of a licence or approval granted under that Act, or a person licensed or approved under that Act, whether the licence or approval was granted before or after the commencement of that provision.

Liquor Licensing (Producers, Responsible Service and Other Matters) Amendment Act 2009, Sch 1—Transitional provisions

1—Certain existing special circumstances licences

- (1) If a special circumstances licence in force under the Liquor Licensing Act 1997 immediately before the commencement of section 6 of this Act authorises the licensee to sell the licensee's product (within the meaning of section 39 of the Liquor Licensing Act 1997) on the licensed premises at any time for consumption off the licensed premises, the licence will lapse 2 years after that commencement unless within that period the licensing authority, on application by the licensee—
 - (a) converts the licence into a producer's licence; or
 - (b) confirms that the licence may continue in force as a special circumstances licence.
- (2) The licensing authority may not confirm that a licence may continue in force as a special circumstances licence unless satisfied by the licensee that—
 - (a) a producer's licence (either with or without an extended trading authorisation) could not adequately cover the kind of business authorised by the licensee's special circumstances licence; and
 - (b) the licensee's business would be substantially prejudiced if the licensee's trading rights were limited to those possible under a producer's licence.

Liquor Licensing (Miscellaneous) Amendment Act 2011, Sch 1—Transitional provisions

1—Amendments apply to existing licences, approvals and authorisations

- (1) An amendment to the Liquor Licensing Act 1997 effected by a provision of this Act applies in respect of a licence, approval or extended trading authorisation granted under that Act, or the holder of a licence, approval or authorisation under that Act, whether the licence, approval or authorisation was granted before or after the commencement of that provision (and any existing licence, approval or authorisation is taken to be modified accordingly).
- (2) However, the trading rights under a special circumstances licence in respect of which a decision was made under clause 3(10)(b) of the Schedule of the Liquor Licensing Act 1997 as in force before its repeal by this Act are not diminished by reason of subclause (1) and to the extent that an extended trading authorisation or other special licence condition would be required to replicate those trading rights, the licence will, on the commencement of this clause, be taken to include such an authorisation or condition.

2—Issue of replacement licence, approval or authorisation

The Commissioner may issue to the holder of a licence, approval or extended trading authorisation under the Liquor Licensing Act 1997 in force immediately before the commencement of a provision of this Act a replacement copy of the licence, approval or authorisation in order to take account of modifications effected by the provision or, in the case of a licence, to include on the licence a statement of the trading hours or the classification of the licence for the purposes of the Commissioner's codes of practice.

3—Consequential modification of gaming machine licence

The Commissioner must, in relation to each gaming machine licence that is in force under the Gaming Machines Act 1992 at the commencement of this clause, vary the condition fixing the hours during which gaming operations may be conducted on the licensed premises to such extent (if any) as is necessary to ensure the hours are not outside the hours during which the licensed premises are authorised to be open for the sale of liquor.

Statutes Amendment (Budget 2011) Act 2011

15—Transitional provision

- (1) The regulations first made under section 50A as inserted in the Liquor Licensing Act 1997 by this Act may provide—
 - (a) for the first annual fee period to be longer or shorter than 12 months; and
 - (b) for the payment of 2 fees within the first 12 months (so that licensees have a longer period within which to make the first payment); and
 - (c) for the first annual fee period to commence at any time on or after 1 July 2011.

- (2) If, after the day on which this Act is assented to by the Governor and before the day fixed by the Commissioner for the payment of the first annual fee, an application is made under the Liquor Licensing Act 1997 for a reduction in trading hours authorised by a licence so that, following the reduction, the licence authorises only the hours during which it is proposed the licensed premises will be open for trade—
 - (a) no fee is payable for the application; and
 - (b) section 52 of the Liquor Licensing Act 1997 does not apply to the application.

Liquor Licensing (Miscellaneous) Amendment Act 2013, Sch 1—Transitional provisions

- (2) The requirements of section 11A(4a) do not apply in relation to a code of practice referred in to subclause (1).

(3) However, no action may be taken under the Liquor Licensing Act 1997 in respect of a person's refusal or failure to comply with a provision of the Late Night Trading Code of Practice during the period commencing on 1 October 2013 and concluding on the day on which this clause comes into operation.

- (3) Despite subclause (2), the Commissioner may, on the Commissioner's own initiative or on application by the licensee, issue the holder of a special circumstances licence under old Part 3 Division 2 a licence of a class under new Part 3 Division 2 that the Commissioner considers appropriate taking into account the trade authorised under the licence.

4—Trading hours

- (1) Except as notified by the Commissioner under subclause (2), the trading hours authorised under the conditions of a licence under old Part 3 Division 2 (taking into account the operation of section 42A of the principal Act (as inserted by section 24 of this Act) and any regulations made under section 137C of the principal Act) will remain in force as the trading hours authorised under the conditions of a licence under new Part 3 Division 2 (and will have effect despite any provision of the principal Act until varied under this clause).
