- (d) make any admission of liability; or
- (e) authorise the repair of the motor vehicle, or dismantle, or wilfully cause damage to, the motor vehicle, in respect of any claim in respect of which the person is insured with that insurer, but this provision does not prevent any person from truthfully answering any question reasonably asked of the person by any police officer.

127—Medical examination of claimants

- (b) the court may take that failure into account in assessing an award of compensation in favour of the claimant.

- (6a) Subsection (6) will not apply to any failure by a claimant to comply with subsection (2)(c) if the claimant has dealt with the medical report and taken other action in accordance with any rules of the court under which a party to proceedings may be relieved from the obligation to disclose to another party a medical report the disclosure of which would unfairly prejudice the party's case.
- (7) In deciding on an award of costs under subsection (6)(a) or a reduction in an award of compensation under subsection (6)(b), the court may take into account—
 - (a) the effect that the non-compliance with subsection (2)(b) or (c) has had on the proper conduct of the case by any other party to the action; and
 - (b) the effect that that non-compliance may have had on the possibility of settling the case before trial.
- (8) Where a written report is obtained by the insurer on the findings made, or the opinions formed, by a legally qualified medical practitioner on the examination of a claimant under subsection (2)(a), the insurer must, within 21 days of receiving the report, send a copy of the report to the claimant (or a legal practitioner engaged by the claimant).

- (7) Proceedings may not be commenced under subsection (6)(a) in relation to a charge for a prescribed service for which there is not a prescribed limit and to which a prescribed scale does not apply if, prior to the injured person being charged for the service, the insurer agreed to the amount of the charge.
- (8) Proceedings may not be commenced under subsection (6) unless the insurer has—
