An Act to enable the recognition of regulatory standards throughout Australia regarding goods and occupations, and for that purpose, to adopt the Mutual Recognition Act 1992 of the Commonwealth (and any amendments made to it before this Act commences) as a law of the State.

The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Mutual Recognition (South Australia) Act 1993.

Commencement

2. This Act will come into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

Interpretation

3. In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

"the Commonwealth Act" means the Mutual Recognition Act 1992 of the Commonwealth.

Adoption of Commonwealth Act

4. (1) The Commonwealth Act as originally enacted, together with any amendments made to that Act before the enactment of this Act, is adopted under paragraph (xxxvii) of section 51 of the Commonwealth Constitution.

(2) The adoption under this Act has effect for a period commencing on the day on which this Act commences (but not so as to give effect to any adopted provision before that provision commences under section 2 of the Commonwealth Act) and ending on 30 June 1999.

Regulations for temporary exemptions for goods

5. Without limiting any other power to make regulations under any other Act, the Governor may make regulations for the purposes mentioned in section 15 of the Commonwealth Act.

Expiry of Act

6. This Act expires at the end of the period for which the Commonwealth Act is adopted under section 4.
