 - (ii) the functions of the authority and the need for the authority to continue to perform those functions;
 - (iii) the net effect of the authority and its operations on the finances of the State;
 - (iv) whether the authority and its operations provide the most effective, efficient and economical means for achieving the purposes for which the authority was established;
 - (v) whether the structure of the authority is appropriate to its functions;
 - (vi) whether the functions or operations of the statutory authority duplicate or overlap in any respect the functions or operations of another authority, body or person;
- (b) to perform such other functions as are imposed on the Committee under this or any other Act or by resolution of both Houses.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

DIVISION 1—REFERENCES, REPORTS AND MINISTERIAL RESPONSE

References to Committee

16. (1) Any matter that is relevant to the functions of a Committee may be referred to the Committee—

- (a) by resolution of the Committee's appointing House or Houses, or either of the Committee's appointing Houses; or
- (b) by the Governor, by notice published in the Gazette; or
- (c) of the Committee's own motion.

(2) Subsection (1) is in addition to and does not derogate from a provision of this or any other Act by or under which a matter is or may be referred to a Committee.

Certain public works referred to Public Works Committee

16A. (1) A public work is referred to the Public Works Committee by force of this section if the total amount to be applied for the construction of the work will, when all stages of construction are complete, exceed $4 000 000.

(2) No amount may be applied for the actual construction of a public work referred to in subsection (1) unless the work has first been inquired into by the Public Works Committee under this Act and the final report of that Committee on the work has been presented to its appointing House or published under section 17(7).

Reports on matters referred

17. (1) A Committee must, after inquiring into and considering any matter referred to it by or under this or any other Act, report on the matter to its appointing House or Houses.

(2) A Committee's appointing House or Houses may, when referring a matter to the Committee, fix a period within which the Committee is required to present a final report to the House or Houses on that matter.

(3) A Committee must in carrying out its functions—

(a) give priority, so far as it is practicable to do so—

- (i) firstly, to the matters referred to it by this Act or by or under any other Act;
- (ii) secondly, to the matters referred to it by its appointing House or Houses;

and then deal with any other matters before the Committee in such order as it thinks fit; and

(b) comply with any limitation of time fixed under subsection (2).

(4) A Committee may, if it thinks fit, at any time prior to making a final report on a matter referred to it—

(a) make one or more interim reports on the matter to its appointing House or Houses;

(b) publish a document relating to the matter.

(5) A Committee may include in a report a draft Bill to give effect to any recommendation of the Committee.

(6) If requested to do so by a member of the Committee, a Committee must include in a report a minority report on behalf of that member.

(7) If more than 14 days would elapse from the day on which a report of a Committee (whether a final report or interim report) is adopted by the Committee until the next sitting day of the Committee's appointing House or Houses—

(a) the Committee may present the report to the Presiding Officer or Officers of the Committee's appointing House or Houses; and

(b) the Presiding Officer or Officers may, after consultation with the Committee, authorise the publication of the report prior to its presentation to the Committee's appointing House or Houses.

(8) A report of a Committee or other document that is published under this section will be taken for the purposes of any other Act or law to be a report or paper of Parliament published under the authority of the Committee's appointing House or Houses.

Matters may be remitted to Committee for further consideration

18. On a report being presented by a Committee to its appointing House or Houses, the House or Houses may, by resolution, remit the matter or any of the matters to which the report relates to the Committee for its further consideration and report and, in that event, the Committee must consider the matter and report on it accordingly.

Reference of Committee report to Minister for response

19. (1) On a report being presented by a Committee to its appointing House or Houses, the report or a part of the report is, if the report contains a recommendation to that effect, referred by force of this section to the Minister with responsibility in the area concerned for that Minister's response.

(2) Where a report, or part of a report, is referred to the responsible Minister under subsection (1), the Minister must, within four months, respond to the report or part of the report and include in the response statements as to—

(a) which (if any) recommendations of the Committee will be carried out and the manner in which they will be carried out; and

(b) which (if any) recommendations will not be carried out and the reasons for not carrying them out.

(3) The Minister must cause a copy of the Minister's response to a Committee report to be laid before the Committee's appointing House or Houses within 6 sitting days after it is made.

DIVISION 2—TERM OF OFFICE, PROCEEDINGS AND POWERS OF COMMITTEES

Term of office of members

20.

(2) The members of each Committee must be appointed as soon as practicable after the commencement of the first session of each new Parliament.

Parliamentary Committees Act 1991

(3) Subject to this Act, a member of a Committee holds office until the first sitting day of the member's appointing House following the next general election of members of the House of Assembly.

Removal from and vacancies of office

21. (1) A member of a Committee may be removed from office by the member's appointing House.

(2) A person ceases to be a member of a Committee if the person—

- (a) dies; or
- (b) resigns from the Committee by notice in writing to the Presiding Officer of his or her appointing House; or
- (c) completes a term of office and is not reappointed; or
- (d) ceases to be a member of his or her appointing House; or
- (e) becomes a Minister of the Crown; or
- (f) is removed from office by his or her appointing House.

(3) On the office of a member of a Committee becoming vacant otherwise than on the expiration of his or her term of office, the member's appointing House must, as soon as practicable, appoint one of its members to the Committee.

(4) Subject to this Act, a member of a Committee is eligible for reappointment to the Committee on the expiration of his or her term of office.

Validity of acts of Committee despite vacancy

22. An act or proceeding of a Committee is not invalid by reason of a vacancy in its membership.

Presiding Member

23. Each Committee must from time to time appoint one of its members to be the Presiding Member of the Committee.

Procedure at meetings

24. (1) The Presiding Member of a Committee must preside at meetings of the Committee or, in the absence of the Presiding Member from a meeting, the members present must decide who is to preside at the meeting.

(2) Four members of a Committee constitute a quorum of the Committee and no business may be transacted at a meeting of the Committee unless a quorum is present.

(3) A decision carried by a majority of the votes of the members present at a meeting of a Committee is a decision of the Committee.

(4) The Presiding Member or any other member presiding at a meeting of the Committee has, in addition to a deliberative vote, a casting vote in the event of an equality of votes.

(5) Subject to this Act and any other Act, the Committee is to conduct its business—

- (a) to the extent that the Standing Orders of its appointing House or Joint Standing Orders (as the case may be) apply—in accordance with those Orders; and
- (b) otherwise in such manner as the Committee thinks fit.

Sittings of Committee

25. (1) A Committee may sit and transact business during any recess or adjournment of Parliament and during an interval between Parliaments but may not sit while the appointing House or either of the appointing Houses for the Committee is sitting except by the leave of that House.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), a Committee may sit at any time and at any place and may adjourn its meetings from time to time and from place to place.

Admission of public

26. Except where the Committee otherwise determines, members of the public may be present at meetings of a Committee while the Committee is examining witnesses but may not be present while the Committee is deliberating.

Minutes

27. A Committee must ensure that full and accurate minutes are kept of its proceedings.

Privileges, immunities and powers

28. (1) All privileges, immunities and powers that attach to or in relation to a committee established by either House attach to and in relation to each Committee established by this Act.

(2) Without limiting the effect of subsection (1), the powers of each Committee include power to send for persons, papers and records.

(3) Any breach of privilege or contempt committed or alleged to have been committed in relation to a Committee or its proceedings may be dealt with in such manner as is resolved by the Committee's appointing House or Houses.

Members not to take part in certain Committee proceedings

29. A member of a Committee must not take part in any proceedings of the Committee relating to a matter in which the member has a direct pecuniary interest that is not shared in common with the rest of the subjects of the Crown.

Committee may continue references made to previously constituted Committee

30. Where the composition of a Committee changes before it completes its inquiry, consideration or report in respect of a matter referred to it by or under this or any other Act, the newly constituted Committee may continue and complete the proceedings and may consider and report on the matter as if all evidence given in respect of the matter had been given before the Committee as newly constituted.

Immunity from judicial review

31. The proceedings of a Committee or any report or recommendation of, or document published by, a Committee may not give rise to any cause of action or be made the subject of, or in any way be called into question in, any proceedings before a court.

Parliamentary Committees Act 1991

DIVISION 3—MISCELLANEOUS

Co-ordination of Committees

32. (1) The Presiding Officers of both Houses are responsible for—

- (a) avoiding duplication by one Committee of the work of another Committee;
- (b) arranging for each Committee adequate staff and facilities for the performance of its functions;
- (c) ensuring the efficient functioning of the Committees generally.

(2) The Presiding Officers of both Houses must, in discharging their responsibilities under subsection (1), consult with the Presiding Members of the Committees.

Other assistance and facilities

33. (1) A Committee may, with the prior authorisation of the Presiding Officer or Presiding Officers of the Committee's appointing House or Houses, with the approval of the Minister administering an administrative unit of the Public Service and on terms mutually arranged, make use of employees or facilities of that administrative unit.

(2) A Committee may, with the prior authorisation of the Presiding Officer or Presiding Officers of the Committee's appointing House or Houses, commission any person to investigate and report to the Committee on any aspect of any matter referred to the Committee.

Office of Committee member not office of profit

34. The office of a member of a Committee (including the office of Presiding Member) is not an office of profit under the Crown.

Financial provision

35. The money required for the purposes of this Act is to be paid out of money appropriated by Parliament for the purpose.

Powers of Parliament to establish other committees

36. This Act does not limit or derogate from the power of either House or both Houses to establish committees in addition to the Committees established by this Act.

(2) The Committee must inquire into and consider all regulations referred to it.

(3) The Committee must consider all regulations as soon as conveniently practicable after they are referred to the Committee and, if Parliament is then in session, must do so before the end of the period within which any motion for disallowance of the regulations may be moved in either House of Parliament.

(4) If the Committee forms the opinion that any regulations ought to be disallowed—

- (a) it must report the opinion and the grounds for the opinion to both Houses of Parliament before the end of the period within which any motion for disallowance of the regulations may be moved in either House; and
- (b) if Parliament is not in session, it may, before reporting to Parliament, report the opinion and the grounds for the opinion to the authority by which the regulations were made.

PART 3
TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

(1) A matter that was the subject of inquiry by a former committee may, if that committee had not completed its inquiry or reported on the matter before the commencement of this Act, be referred to a Committee under this Act.

(2) Where a matter is referred to a Committee as referred to in subclause (1), the Committee may continue and complete the proceedings and consider and report on the matter under this Act as if all the evidence given in respect of the matter before the former committee had been given before the Committee under this Act.

Parliamentary Committees Act 1991

(3) In subclauses (1) and (2)—

"former committee" means—

- (a) the Joint Committee on Subordinate Legislation;
- (b) the Public Accounts Committee;
- (c) the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Public Works.
