Part 2—South Australian Employment Tribunal

Division 1—Establishment of Tribunal

5—Establishment of Tribunal

- (1) The South Australian Employment Tribunal is established.
- (2) The Tribunal will have a part that is the Tribunal in Court Session and, as so established by force of this Act, is a court of record.
- (3) The Tribunal in Court Session is to be the South Australian Employment Court.
- (4) The Tribunal will also have a part that is the Tribunal acting as an industrial relations commission.

6—Jurisdiction of Tribunal

- (1) Subject to this or any other Act, the Tribunal will have the jurisdiction (including the jurisdiction to try a charge for an offence) conferred on it by or under this or any other Act.
- (2) Matters within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal will be assigned to the South Australian Employment Court as follows:
  - (a) an Act conferring jurisdiction on the Tribunal may specifically assign matters to the South Australian Employment Court;
  - (b) the rules may (unless to do so is inconsistent with a provision of a relevant Act) assign matters to the South Australian Employment Court;
  - (c) the jurisdiction to try a charge for an offence is assigned to the South Australian Employment Court.
- (2a) If a matter is assigned to the South Australian Employment Court, the Court may direct, or an Act or the rules may provide, that the matter be the subject of a compulsory conference (within the meaning of section 43) in the part of the Tribunal that is acting as an industrial relations commission.
- (3) Matters within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal (and not assigned to the South Australian Employment Court) and dealt with by the Tribunal acting as an industrial relations commission do not need to be specifically assigned to such a commission.

Note—

The Tribunal will also have any jurisdiction conferred on it under a law of the Commonwealth (and in such a case the procedural provisions of this Act will apply in relation to the conferred jurisdiction except to the extent such provisions are excluded by, or are otherwise inconsistent with, the Commonwealth law).

6A—Conferral of jurisdiction—criminal matters

- (1) Subject to this section, the criminal jurisdiction of the South Australian Employment Court does not include jurisdiction in respect of major indictable offences.
- (2) In addition to any jurisdiction conferred by or under another Act, the regulations may confer on the South Australian Employment Court jurisdiction in respect of a summary or minor indictable offence against a specified Act or statutory provision.

- (3) If jurisdiction is conferred on the South Australian Employment Court under this or any other Act in respect of a summary or minor indictable offence, any proceedings for the offence must be commenced in the Court.
- (4) The South Australian Employment Court will deal with a charge of a summary or minor indictable offence in the same way as the Magistrates Court deals with such a charge (and in accordance with the procedures that would apply if the Magistrates Court were dealing with such a charge) and the Summary Procedure Act 1921 (including the provisions of that Act allowing an award of costs for or against a party to criminal proceedings) applies to the South Australian Employment Court subject to any exclusions or modifications prescribed by the regulations as if references to the Magistrates Court extended to the South Australian Employment Court.
- (5) For the avoidance of doubt, if a person charged with a minor indictable offence elects, in accordance with the Summary Procedure Act 1921, for a trial in a superior court, the South Australian Employment Court must commit the defendant for trial by jury in the District Court.
- (6) Where proceedings for a minor indictable offence are dealt with by a magistrate of the South Australian Employment Court—
  - (a) the magistrate cannot impose a fine that exceeds the maximum fixed by the relevant Act or $1 500 000 (whichever is the lesser); and
  - (b) the magistrate cannot impose a sentence of imprisonment that exceeds the maximum fixed by the relevant Act or 5 years (whichever is the lesser).
- (7) If a magistrate of the South Australian Employment Court is of the opinion in any particular case that a sentence should be imposed that exceeds the limit prescribed by subsection (6), the magistrate may remand the defendant to appear for sentence before a judge of the South Australian Employment Court.
- (8) In the exercise of the criminal jurisdiction to which this section applies, summary proceedings will be heard by a Deputy President of the South Australian Employment Court who is also a magistrate unless the President determines that the proceedings should be heard by a judge of the Court.

6AB—Diversity proceedings

- (1) Despite the provisions of this or any other Act, if—
  - (a) the determination of a matter that is within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal involves the exercise of federal diversity jurisdiction; or
  - (b) the determination of a matter would be within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal but for the fact that the exercise of the jurisdiction would involve the exercise of federal diversity jurisdiction, then the jurisdiction must be exercised by the Tribunal sitting as the South Australian Employment Court.

- (2) If, in proceedings before the Tribunal (other than the Tribunal sitting as the South Australian Employment Court), whether commenced before or after the commencement of this section, the Tribunal considers that the determination of the matter involves, or may involve, the exercise of federal diversity jurisdiction, the Tribunal must refer the proceedings to the South Australian Employment Court for determination.

- (3) A proceeding—
  - (a) that is before the South Australian Employment Court in the exercise of jurisdiction under subsection (1); or
  - (b) referred to the South Australian Employment Court under subsection (2), is a diversity proceeding.
- (4) If proceedings are referred to the South Australian Employment Court under subsection (2), the proceedings may be continued and completed, subject to the direction of the Court, as if steps taken in the proceedings prior to the referral had been taken in the Court.
- (5) In respect of diversity proceedings under this section and despite anything to the contrary in a relevant Act—
  - (a) the South Australian Employment Court may not be constituted of supplementary panel members; and
  - (b) in the case of proceedings referred to the Court under subsection (2) that prior to the referral involved 1 or more supplementary panel members, the proceedings may be continued and completed in the absence of the panel members.
- (6) The South Australian Employment Court may, if the Court is satisfied that the matter does not involve the exercise of federal diversity jurisdiction—
  - (a) remit the proceedings to the Tribunal as originally constituted; and
  - (b) make such orders that the Court considers appropriate to facilitate the determination of the proceedings.
- (7) The South Australian Employment Court has, and may exercise, all of the jurisdiction, powers and functions in relation to diversity proceedings that the Tribunal (other than in Court Session) would have had if it could exercise federal diversity jurisdiction, including jurisdiction, powers and functions conferred or imposed on the Tribunal by or under this Act or a relevant Act.
- (8) The practices and procedures under this Act (including the rules) or a relevant Act that apply to the Tribunal (other than in Court Session) will apply to the South Australian Employment Court in respect of diversity proceedings unless, and to such extent as, the Court determines otherwise.
- (9) The amount specified in a purported monetary order made by the Tribunal may be recovered in the appropriate court (within the meaning of section 86) by the person in favour of whom the order was made as if it were a debt.
- (10) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with the terms of a purported order of the Tribunal (other than a purported monetary order) is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: $50 000 or imprisonment for 2 years.
- (11) If a person seeks a variation or revocation of a purported order or purported monetary order, the person may apply to the South Australian Employment Court, and such a matter will be a diversity proceeding for the purposes of this section.
- (12) No action undertaken, or purportedly undertaken, by a person pursuant to, or for the purposes of enforcing, a purported order or a purported monetary order, in good faith, gives rise to any liability against the person or the Crown.

- (13) In this section, a reference to a purported order or a purported monetary order is a reference to an order purportedly made by the Tribunal other than in Court Session (whether before or after the commencement of this section) that is invalid because determination of the matter that gave rise to the order involved the exercise of federal diversity jurisdiction and that, on the commencement of this section, is to be made by the South Australian Employment Court.
- (14) The provisions of this section prevail to the extent of any inconsistency between those provisions and any other provisions of this Act or any other Act.
- (15) In this section—
federal diversity jurisdiction means jurisdiction of the kind referred to in section 75(iii) or (iv) of the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

6B—Conferral of jurisdiction—related matters

- (1) Without limiting any other provision, if a provision of an Act specifically enables an application to be made to the Tribunal, or a claim to be brought before the Tribunal, the Act will be taken to confer jurisdiction on the Tribunal to deal with the matter concerned.
- (2) Without limiting any other provision, Divisions 6 and 7 provide for additional jurisdiction, powers and other matters relating to the conferral of jurisdiction on the Tribunal or the Tribunal in Court session.

7—Tribunal to operate throughout State

- (1) The Tribunal is to facilitate access to its services throughout the State and may sit at any place (either within or outside the State).
- (2) Registries of the Tribunal will be at the places determined by the President after consultation with the Minister.

7A—Seals

- (1) The Tribunal will have such seals as are necessary for the transaction of its business.
- (2) The Tribunal must have a seal for the South Australian Employment Court.
- (3) A document apparently sealed with a seal of the Tribunal (including with respect to the South Australian Employment Court) will, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, be taken to have been duly issued under the authority of the Tribunal.

26J—Application of Division

- (1) This Division applies if—
  - (a) the Tribunal is dealing with a matter that involves the review of a decision made under an Act (including in a case that constitutes an appeal under a relevant Act); or
  - (b) a relevant Act provides for the Tribunal to deal with a matter under this Division; or
  - (c) the rules apply this Division to a matter within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal.
- (2) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply in any circumstances prescribed by the regulations.

27—General nature of proceedings

- (1) Subject to a relevant Act, a matter under this Division will be dealt with by the Tribunal as a review of the decision that constitutes the matter.
- (2) Where the review of a decision is to be undertaken, the person or body that made or is taken to have made the decision is the decision-maker for the purposes of these provisions.
- (3) Subject to subsections (4), (5) and (6), the Tribunal will examine the decision of the decision-maker by way of rehearing.
- (4) On a rehearing, the Tribunal must reach the correct or preferable decision but in doing so must have regard to the decision of the original decision-maker.
- (5) A procedure on a rehearing will include—
  - (a) an examination of the evidence or material before the decision-maker (unless any such evidence or material is to be excluded under another provision of this Act or under any other law); and
  - (b) a consideration of any further evidence or material that the Tribunal decides, in the circumstances of the particular case, to admit for the purposes of rehearing the matter.
- (6) In dealing with a matter under this Division, the Tribunal is to deal with the matter in accordance with this Act and any relevant Act.
- (7) Furthermore, a relevant Act may modify the operation of this Act in relation to a matter that comes within the exercise of the Tribunal's jurisdiction under this Division.

28—Decision-maker must assist Tribunal

- (1) In proceedings for a review of a decision, the decision-maker must use his or her best endeavours to help the Tribunal so that it can make its decision on the review.

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the decision-maker must provide the following to the Tribunal within a reasonable period and in any event within the time prescribed by the regulations:
  - (a) a written statement of the reasons for the decision;
  - (b) any document or thing in the decision-maker's possession or control that may be relevant to the Tribunal's review of the decision.
- (3) The decision-maker must, in providing any document or thing under subsection (2), take reasonable steps to identify the documents or things that were taken into account in making the relevant decision.
- (4) If the Tribunal considers that there are additional documents or things in the decision-maker's possession or control that may be relevant to the Tribunal's review of the reviewable decision, the Tribunal may, by written notice, require the decision-maker to provide the documents or things.
- (5) If the Tribunal considers the statement of reasons given under subsection (2)(a) is not adequate, the Tribunal may, by written notice, require the decision-maker to give the Tribunal an additional statement containing stated further particulars.
- (6) The decision-maker must comply with a notice given under subsection (4) or (5) within the period stated in the notice.
- (7) A requirement under this section that the decision-maker give the Tribunal information or a document or thing applies despite any provision in another Act prohibiting or restricting the disclosure of the information or the information contained in the document or thing.
- (8) The Tribunal may examine any document or thing provided under this section and draw any conclusions of fact it considers proper.

29—Effect of review proceedings on decision being reviewed

- (1) The commencement of proceedings for a review of a decision does not affect the operation of the decision or prevent the taking of action to implement the decision unless—
  - (a) the relevant Act states otherwise; or
  - (b) an order is made under subsection (2).
- (2) On or after the commencement of proceedings for a review of a decision, the Tribunal or the decision-maker may, on application or on its own initiative, make an order staying or varying the operation or the implementation of the whole or a part of the decision pending the determination of the matter, or until such time (whether before or after the determination of the matter) as the Tribunal or the decision-maker may specify, if the Tribunal, or the decision-maker, is satisfied that it is just and reasonable in the circumstances to make the order.
- (3) An order by the Tribunal or the decision-maker under this section—
  - (a) is subject to such conditions as are specified in the order; and
  - (b) may be varied or revoked—
    - (i) in any case—by further order of the Tribunal; or

and, in any case, may make any order the Tribunal considers appropriate (including any interim order pending the reconsideration and determination of the matter by the decision-maker, or any ancillary or consequential order, that the Tribunal considers appropriate).

- (2) The fact that a decision is made on reconsideration under subsection (1)(c)(ii) does not prevent the decision from being open to review by the Tribunal.
- (3) The decision-maker's decision as affirmed or varied by the Tribunal or a decision that the Tribunal substitutes for the decision-maker's decision—
  - (a) is to be regarded as, and given effect as, a decision of the decision-maker; and
  - (b) unless the relevant Act states otherwise or the Tribunal orders otherwise, is to be regarded as having effect, from the time when the decision reviewed would have, or would have had, effect.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3)(a), the decision-maker has power to do anything necessary to implement the Tribunal's decision.
- (5) Despite subsection (3)(a), the decision as affirmed, varied or substituted is not again open to review before the Tribunal as a decision of the decision-maker (but may be subject to appeal under this Act).

31—Tribunal may invite decision-maker to reconsider decision

- (1) At any stage of proceedings for the review of a decision, the Tribunal may invite the decision-maker to reconsider the decision.
- (2) On being invited by the Tribunal to reconsider the decision, the decision-maker may—
  - (a) affirm the decision; or
  - (b) vary the decision; or
  - (c) set aside the decision and substitute a new decision.
- (3) If the decision-maker varies the decision or sets it aside and substitutes a new decision, unless the proceedings for a review are withdrawn, the proceedings will then be taken to be for—
  - (a) the review of the decision as varied; or

- (b) the review of the substituted decision.
- (4) The Tribunal may specify a period within which the decision-maker should act under this section (and if the decision-maker does not take action within that period then the Tribunal may resume its proceedings under this Part in such manner as it thinks fit).

Division 2—Application of Division

31A—Application of Division

- (1) This Division applies in cases where Division 1 does not apply.
- (2) Subject to a relevant Act, a matter under this Division will, depending on the nature of the matter, be dealt with by the Tribunal—
  - (a) acting as the original decision-maker in the matter (and according to those principles which, according to law, are to be applied to bodies that make such decisions according to statute); or
  - (b) resolving a dispute between the parties to the relevant proceedings (according to law and including, if appropriate, by giving a judgment, making a declaration or providing any other remedy); or
  - (c) adopting any other course of action and providing any other relief, decision or determination that the Tribunal considers appropriate to deal with the matter.
- (3) In dealing with a matter under this Division, the Tribunal is to deal with the matter in accordance with this Act and any relevant Act.

Division 3—Procedures

36—Practice and procedure generally

  - (a) to ensure that the parties to any proceedings have a reasonable opportunity to understand the nature of the matter under consideration; and
  - (b) to ensure that the parties to any proceedings understand the nature of any assertions made in the proceedings and the legal implications of those assertions; and

- (c) to explain to the parties, if requested to do so, any aspect of the procedure of the Tribunal, or any decision or ruling made by the Tribunal; and
  - (d) to ensure that the parties have the opportunity in any proceedings to be heard or otherwise have their submissions received.
- (2) The Tribunal—
- (a) is to take all practicable steps to ensure that all relevant material is disclosed to the Tribunal so as to enable it to determine all the relevant facts in issue in any proceedings; and
  - (b) may require evidence or argument to be presented in writing and decide on the matters on which it will hear oral evidence or argument; and
  - (c) may limit the time available for presenting the respective cases of parties before it at a hearing to an extent that it considers would not impede the fair and adequate presentation of the cases; and
  - (d) may require a document to be served outside the State; and
  - (e) may adjourn any proceedings at any time and to any place (including for the purpose of enabling the parties to negotiate a settlement or for the purpose of reconsideration of a decision by the decision-maker); and
  - (f) may proceed to hear and determine proceedings in the absence of a party.
- (3) To the extent that the practice or procedure of the Tribunal is not prescribed by or under this Act or a relevant Act, it is to be as the Tribunal determines.

37—Directions for conduct of proceedings

- (1) The Tribunal may give directions at any time in any proceedings and do whatever is necessary for the speedy and fair conduct of the proceedings.
- (2) The Tribunal may give directions on its own initiative or at the request of a party.
- (3) A directions hearing may be held for the purposes of this section before any other hearing in any proceedings.

  - (a) be consolidated into 1 proceeding; or
  - (b) remain as separate proceedings but be heard and determined together.
- (2) If proceedings are consolidated, evidence given in the consolidated proceedings is admissible in relation to matters involved in either of the proceedings that were consolidated.
- (3) The Tribunal may direct—
  - (a) that any aspect of any proceedings be heard and determined separately;
  - (b) that proceedings commenced by 2 or more persons jointly be split into separate proceedings.

39—More appropriate forum

The Tribunal may, at any time, make an order striking out all, or any part, of any proceedings if it considers that the matter, or any aspect of it, would be more appropriately dealt with by another tribunal, a court, or any other person.

40—Dismissing proceedings on withdrawal or for want of prosecution

- (1) The applicant in any proceedings may withdraw or agree to the withdrawal of the proceedings or a part of the proceedings.
- (2) Unless otherwise provided by the rules, an applicant can only act under subsection (1) with the leave of the Tribunal.
- (3) The Tribunal may make an order dismissing or striking out all, or any part, of any proceedings if the applicant withdraws or agrees to the withdrawal of the proceedings or that part of it.
- (4) At any time, the Tribunal may make an order dismissing or striking out all, or any part, of any proceedings for want of prosecution.
- (5) The Tribunal's power to make an order under subsection (4) is exercisable only by a legally qualified member of the Tribunal.
- (6) The Tribunal may make an order under this section on the application of a party or on its own initiative.

41—Fivolous, vexatious or improper proceedings

- (1) This section applies if the Tribunal believes that a proceeding—
  - (a) is frivolous, vexatious, misconceived or lacking in substance or involves a trivial matter or amount; or
  - (b) is being used for an improper purpose; or
  - (c) is otherwise an abuse of process.
- (2) If this section applies, the Tribunal may order that the proceeding be dismissed or struck out and may make any related or ancillary order.
- (3) The Tribunal may act under subsection (2) on the application of a party or on its own initiative.
- (4) If a proceeding is dismissed or struck out under this section, another proceeding of the same kind in relation to the same matter cannot be commenced before the Tribunal without the leave of a Presidential member.

42—Proceedings being conducted to cause disadvantage

- (1) This section applies if the Tribunal believes that a party to any proceedings is conducting the proceedings in a way that unnecessarily disadvantages another party to the proceedings by conduct such as—
  - (a) failing to comply with an order or direction of the Tribunal without reasonable cause; or
  - (b) failing to comply with this Act or a relevant Act; or
  - (c) asking for an adjournment the need for which is attributable to a failure described in paragraph (a) or (b); or

- (d) attempting to deceive another party or the Tribunal; or
  - (e) vexatiously conducting the proceedings; or
  - (f) failing to attend any hearing in the proceedings.
- (2) If this section applies, the Tribunal may—
- (a) if the party causing the disadvantage is the applicant, order that the proceedings be dismissed or struck out; and
  - (b) if the party causing the disadvantage is not the applicant—
    - (i) determine the proceedings in favour of the applicant and make any appropriate orders; or
    - (ii) order that the party causing the disadvantage be struck out of the proceedings.
- (3) The Tribunal may act under subsection (2) on the application of a party or on its own initiative.
- (4) If any proceedings are dismissed or struck out under this section, another proceeding of the same kind in relation to the same matter cannot be commenced before the Tribunal without the leave of a Presidential member.

Division 4—Conferences, mediation and settlement

Subdivision 1—Conferences

43—Compulsory conciliation conferences

- (1) The Tribunal may, at an initial directions hearing or at any other time, require parties to any proceedings to attend a compulsory conciliation conference (a compulsory conference).
- (2) The Tribunal must, if so required by the rules or a relevant Act, require parties to attend a compulsory conference.
- (3) However, subject to a relevant Act, the Tribunal may dispense with a conference in prescribed circumstances.
- (4) A conference must be commenced within the time fixed by the rules.
- (5) The purpose of a compulsory conference is to identify, clarify and narrow the issues in the proceedings and to promote the resolution of the matters by a settlement between the parties.
- (5a) The parties to a compulsory conference must ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that the conference is attended by persons with sufficient decision-making authority to fully participate in settlement discussions.
- (6) A compulsory conference may, at the discretion of the member of the Tribunal presiding at the conference, be adjourned or reconvened from time to time.
- (7) However—
  - (a) proceedings constituting a compulsory conference under the Return to Work Act 2014 should not run over a period exceeding 10 weeks; and

- (b) if the rules fix a period of time in relation to proceedings constituting a compulsory conference under another relevant Act, those proceedings should not run over a period exceeding the period so fixed,
- unless the member of the Tribunal presiding at the conference is satisfied that an extension of time is justified on the basis that there is a substantial likelihood the proceedings will resolve by settlement if the extension occurs.
- (8) If the period in which proceedings constituting a compulsory conference are conducted is extended in accordance with subsection (7), the member of the Tribunal presiding at the conference must notify the parties in writing of the decision to extend the period.
- (9) Unless the member of the Tribunal presiding at the conference directs otherwise, a compulsory conference is to be held in private.
- (10) Subject to this section and except to the extent to which the rules may specify the procedure for a compulsory conference, the member of the Tribunal presiding at a compulsory conference may determine the procedure for the conference.
- (11) The member of the Tribunal presiding at a compulsory conference may—
- (a) require a party to the proceedings to furnish particulars of his or her case;
  - (b) determine who, apart from the parties to the proceedings (and their representatives), may be present at the conference;
  - (c) subject to subsection (15), record any settlement reached at a conference and make any determination or order (including an order under, or for the purposes of, a relevant Act) necessary to give effect to a settlement;
  - (ca) enlarge the scope of the proceedings in accordance with section 65;
  - (d) on his or her own initiative, close the conference at any time if, in his or her opinion, settlement cannot be reached;
  - (e) advise the Tribunal if the conference does not reach a settlement within a reasonable time;
  - (f) permit a party to withdraw from the proceedings (and make any consequential order that is appropriate in the circumstances);
  - (g) determine a matter against any party who obstructs or delays the conference, fails to attend the conference, or fails to comply with a rule or order of the Tribunal and, in so doing, make any order as the member of the Tribunal thinks fit (including an order as to costs);
  - (h) do such other things as the rules of the Tribunal so provide.
- (12) Despite section 22, the member of the Tribunal presiding at a compulsory conference may not refer a question of law to a Full Bench of the Tribunal.
- (13) If settlement of a matter is not reached at a compulsory conference, the member of the Tribunal presiding at the conference—
- (a) must give to the parties an assessment of the merits of the party's case; and
  - (b) must seek to recommend ways to resolve any matter in dispute.

- (14) Evidence of anything said or done in the course of a compulsory conference under this section is inadmissible in proceedings before the Tribunal except by consent of all parties to the proceedings.
- (15) The member of the Tribunal presiding at a compulsory conference—
  - (a) must not accept a settlement that appears to be inconsistent with a relevant Act (but he or she may adjourn the proceedings to enable the parties to explore the possibility of varying the settlement to comply with a relevant Act); and
  - (b) may decline to accept a settlement on the basis that the settlement may materially prejudice any person who was not represented at the conference but who has a direct or material interest in the matter.
- (16) If the member of the Tribunal presiding at a conference is unable to continue with the conference, another member of the Tribunal may be appointed to continue and complete the conference.
- (17) Unless all parties to the proceedings agree to his or her continued participation, the member of the Tribunal who presided at the conference is disqualified from sitting as a member of the Tribunal for the purpose of hearing and determining the matter.
- (18) A registrar is expressly authorised to constitute the Tribunal for the purposes of this section.
- (19) The rules may set out circumstances where the outcome of any proceedings under this section (including details of a settlement) are to be available to members of the public.

44—Referral of matters for hearing and determination

If a compulsory conciliation conference under this Subdivision does not result in an agreed settlement of the matter, the member of the Tribunal presiding at the conference must (unless a relevant Act provides otherwise) refer the matter for hearing and determination.

45—Pre-hearing conferences

- (1) Before the Tribunal proceeds with the hearing of a matter, a pre-hearing conference must be held before a Presidential member of the Tribunal.
- (2) The Presidential member presiding at the conference—
  - (a) must—
    - (i) make an assessment of the matter; and
    - (ii) for the purpose of making the assessment—
      - (A) inquire into and consider the steps taken, and the steps that should be taken, to explore, or further explore, possible settlement of the matter (including referral of the matter to a Presidential member of the Tribunal for mediation); and
      - (B) seek to identify and narrow the issues in dispute; and
  - (b) may give such directions or orders as he or she considers appropriate.
- (3) This section applies to and in relation to—
  - (a) proceedings under the Return to Work Act 2014; and

- (b) any other proceedings prescribed by the regulations.

Subdivision 2—Mediation

46—Mediation

- (1) The Tribunal may, at an initial directions hearing, a compulsory conciliation conference or at any other time, refer the matter, or any aspect of the matter, for mediation by a person specified as a mediator by the Tribunal.
- (2) The person specified as a mediator must be a person who has been approved by the President of the Tribunal to act as a mediator.
- (3) The referral may be made with or without the consent of the parties.
- (4) The purpose of a mediation is to achieve the resolution of the matters by a settlement between the parties or, if a settlement is not achievable through this process, to further refine or narrow the issues in dispute.
- (5) The rules may specify how notice of the mediation is to be given, how the mediation is to be conducted, and the fees to be paid by a party to the mediation.
- (6) Unless the mediator directs otherwise, the mediation is to be held in private.
- (7) Subject to this section and except to the extent to which the rules may specify the procedure for a mediation, the mediator may determine the procedure for the mediation.
- (8) If the mediator is a member of the Tribunal and a settlement is reached at the mediation, the mediator may reduce the terms of the settlement to writing and make any determination or order (including an order under, or for the purposes of, a relevant Act) necessary to give effect to the settlement.
- (9) If a settlement is not reached at the mediation or the mediator is not a member of the Tribunal, the mediator is to report on the outcome of the mediation to the Tribunal as constituted when it made the referral.
- (10) Any settlement under this section—
  - (a) must not be inconsistent with a relevant Act; and
  - (b) may be rejected by the Tribunal on the basis that the settlement may materially prejudice any person who has not participated in the mediation but who has a direct or material interest in the matter.
- (11) Evidence of anything said or done in the course of a mediation under this section is inadmissible in proceedings before the Tribunal except by consent of all parties to the proceedings.
- (12) If the mediator is a member of the Tribunal, the member cannot take any further part in dealing with the proceedings after the mediation, unless all parties to the proceedings agree to his or her continued participation.
- (13) The rules may set out circumstances where the outcome of any proceedings under this section (including details of a settlement) are to be available to members of the public.

Subdivision 3—Settling proceedings

47—Settling proceedings

- (1) The Tribunal may itself endeavour to achieve a negotiated settlement of a matter before the Tribunal.
- (2) If the parties agree in writing to settle a matter before the Tribunal, the Tribunal may make any determination or order (including an order under, or for the purposes of, a relevant Act) necessary to give effect to the settlement.
- (3) A settlement under this section must not be inconsistent with a relevant Act and the Tribunal may reject a settlement under subsection (2) on the basis that the settlement may materially prejudice any person who is not a party to the settlement but who has a direct or material interest in the matter or that the terms of the settlement are inappropriate.

Division 5—Parties

48—Parties

- (1) A person is a party to proceedings before the Tribunal if the person is—
  - (a) the applicant; or
  - (b) in the case of proceedings involving the review of a decision—the decision-maker; or

  - (a) the person should be bound by, or have the benefit of, a decision of the Tribunal in the proceedings; or

  - (c) for any other reason it is desirable that the person be joined as a party.

  - (c) the person would be acting in any other manner that is inconsistent with disciplinary proceedings that have been taken under the Legal Practitioners Act 1981.

- (4) If, in accordance with a relevant Act, a person who is not a legal practitioner (the representative) is entitled to appear in proceedings before the Tribunal as a representative of a party (the first party), evidence is not to be adduced in proceedings and material is not required to be disclosed to another party in proceedings if, on objection by the first party, the Tribunal finds that—
- (a) adducing the evidence or disclosing the material would result in the disclosure of—
    - (i) a confidential communication between the first party and the representative; or
    - (ii) the contents of a confidential document prepared by the representative; and
  - (b) the communication or document was for the dominant purpose of—

- (2) Without limiting anything else that may be considered in making an order for the payment by a party of the costs of another party, where the matter that is the subject of any proceedings comes within the Tribunal's review jurisdiction, the Tribunal is to have regard to—
  - (a) whether the party genuinely attempted to enable and assist the decision-maker to make a decision on its merits;
  - (b) whether the party (being the decision-maker) genuinely attempted to make a decision on its merits.
- (3) The rules may deal with the effect of certain offers to settle, and the response, if any, to the offer, on the making of an order for the payment by a party of the costs of another party.

- (4) The Tribunal may order that the representative of a party, rather than the party, in the representative's own capacity compensate that or any other party for costs incurred because the representative acted in, or delayed, any proceedings in a way that resulted in unnecessary costs.

63—Completion of part-heard matters

A person who ceases to hold office as a member of the Tribunal (other than on account of having his or her appointment revoked or being removed from office) may nevertheless continue to act in the relevant office for the purpose of completing the hearing and determination of proceedings part-heard by the person when he or she ceased to hold that office.

- (2) In considering whether it is in the interests of justice that a question should be determined as part of the proceedings under subsection (1)(a), the Tribunal must have regard to the principle that all issues in dispute between the parties should be heard and determined in the same proceeding insofar as is just and appropriate.

- (1c) The President may determine, in relation to a particular matter, or particular class of matters, how the Tribunal will be constituted for the purposes of a review under this section.
- (1d) On a review, the Tribunal will examine the decision of the Tribunal at first instance on the evidence or material before the Tribunal at that time but the Tribunal may, as it thinks fit, allow further evidence or material to be presented to it.
