PART II
DIVISION OF LAND BY STRATA PLAN

DIVISION I—THE STRATA PLAN

Nature of strata plan and requirements with which it must conform

5. (1) A strata plan is a plan dividing land into—
- (a) units (of which there must be at least two);
 - and
 - (b) common property.
- (2) A strata plan must comprise the whole of one or more allotments.
- (3) A strata plan—
- (a) must define the units to be created by the plan in a manner that allows the boundaries of each unit to be ascertained;
 - (b) must assign to each unit a distinguishing number;
 - (c) must include a schedule of unit entitlements in relation to the units;
 - (d) must delineate the boundaries of the land comprised in the plan;
 - (e) must delineate in relation to those boundaries the external lateral boundaries of all buildings on the land;
- and
- (f) must comply with any other requirements stipulated by the Registrar-General.
- (4) A unit—
- (a) must consist of, or include, the whole or a part of a building;
 - (b) need not be wholly within one or more buildings;
 - (c) may be below, on or above the surface of land;
 - (d) may be wholly on one storey or level or partly on one storey or level and partly on another or others;
 - (e) may include an area (a “unit subsidiary”)—
 - (i) for the separate use of the occupier of the unit;
 - and
 - (ii) appurtenant to the portion of the unit designed for separate occupation.
- (5) Subject to any explicit statement to the contrary in a strata plan, the following principles apply to the definition of a unit by strata plan—
- (a) where a boundary is defined by reference to a wall or fence—the boundary is the inner surface of the wall or fence;
 - (b) where a boundary is defined by reference to a floor—the boundary is the upper surface of the floor;
 - (c) where a boundary is defined by reference to a ceiling or roof—the boundary is the under surface of the ceiling or roof.

(6) The common property comprises—

- (a) any land or space that is not within a unit;
- (b) any pipe, cable, wire, duct or drain that is not for the exclusive use of a unit;
- (c) any structure that is not for the exclusive use of a unit installed before the deposit of the strata plan;
- (d) any structure installed by a strata corporation as part of the common property;
- (e) any other structure on the site committed to the care of a strata corporation as part of the common property.

(7) A wall or fence between a building that forms part of a unit and a unit subsidiary to that unit is part of the common property.

(8) The plan must conform with any requirements of the regulations as to the design of the strata scheme.

Unit entitlement

6. (1) The unit entitlement of a unit is a number assigned to the unit that bears in relation to the aggregate unit entitlements of all of the units defined on the relevant strata plan (within a tolerance of ± 10 per cent) the same proportion that the capital value of the unit bears to the aggregate capital value of all of the units.

(2) The unit entitlement of a unit must be expressed as a whole number.

(3) The aggregate unit entitlements of all units defined on a strata plan must, if the regulations so provide, be a number fixed in the regulations.

DIVISION II—DEPOSIT OF STRATA PLAN

Application for deposit of strata plan

7. (1) Subject to subsection (2), an application for the deposit of a strata plan may only be made by the owner of the land to which the plan relates.

(2) Where a person makes an application under subsection (1) and before the plan is deposited—

(a) title to the land to which the plan relates is transferred;

or

(b) a mortgagee becomes entitled to exercise a power of sale in relation to the land, the successor in title to the land, or the mortgagee, is entitled to proceed with the application and must, within one month of becoming so entitled, inform the Registrar-General of that fact and whether he or she proposes to proceed with the application.

(3) The applicant must provide evidence to the satisfaction of the Registrar-General that any person with an encumbrance registered in relation to the land consents to the application.

(4) The application must be accompanied by—

(a) the strata plan to which it relates;

(b) the duplicate certificate of title for the land to which the plan relates;

(c) appropriate certificates of approval issued under Division V by the Commission and the council for the area in which the land is situated;

(d) a certificate by a licensed surveyor in the prescribed form (which may be endorsed on the plan) certifying that the plan has been correctly prepared to a prescribed scale in accordance with this Act;

(e) a certificate from a licensed valuer certifying that the schedule of unit entitlements is correct;

(f) any instrument, duly executed, that is to be registered on the deposit of the plan;

and

(g) such other documentary material as the Registrar-General may require.

(5) An applicant for the deposit of a strata plan must furnish the Registrar-General with such further information as the Registrar-General may require.

(6) If it appears from a strata plan that any part of a building encroaches over land not included in the site, the application for deposit of the plan can only be accepted if—

(a) no part of a unit to be created by the plan forms part of the encroachment;

and

(b) (i) the encroachment is over public land and the council within whose area the land is situated consents to the encroachment;

(ii) the encroachment consists of the protrusion of footings, or footings and associated structures of a prescribed nature, by not more than the prescribed distance beyond the boundaries of the site, and the owner of the land over which the encroachment occurs consents to the encroachment;

or

- (iii) it is established to the Registrar-General's satisfaction that the encroachment is otherwise authorized by law.

(7) Where an application affected by an encroachment is accepted by the Registrar-General—

- (a) unless the encroachment is over public land, the Registrar-General will, on the deposit of the strata plan, enter the encroachment on any relevant certificate of title;

and

- (b) any consent given in relation to the encroachment is binding on present and subsequent owners and occupiers of the land.

Deposit of strata plan

8. (1) Where—

- (a) application is made for the deposit of a strata plan in accordance with this Act;
- (b) the requirements made by or under this Act in relation to the application have been satisfied;

and

- (c) the plan conforms with the requirements of this Act, the Registrar-General will deposit the plan in the Lands Titles Registration Office and assign a number to it.

(2) On the deposit of a strata plan under subsection (1)—

- (a) an appropriate note must be entered on any certificate of title for the land to which the plan relates;
- (b) the existing certificates for the land must then be cancelled and new certificates issued for the units and common property created by the plan;

and

- (c) a strata corporation with the powers and functions conferred or assigned by this Act is created.

(3) The certificates of title for the units will be issued in the name of the registered proprietor of the land to which the plan relates and the certificate for the common property will be issued in the name of the strata corporation.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), where land to which a strata plan relates is subject to a registered easement, the easement will be registered on the relevant certificates of title issued under this section.

(5) Where the land (or part of the land) to which a strata plan relates is either the servient tenement or the dominant tenement of a registered easement, the Registrar-General may, on the application of the registered proprietor of the land, or on the Registrar-General's own initiative, and with the consent of—

- (a) the proprietor of the easement;
- (b) the registered proprietor of the servient tenement;

and

- (c) any person registered as the holder of an encumbrance over the servient tenement or the dominant tenement (if any), discharge or vary the easement.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), where land to which a strata plan relates is subject to a registered encumbrance (other than an easement) that is to continue after the deposit of the plan, the encumbrance—

- (a) will be registered on the certificate of title for each unit;

but

- (b) will not be registered on the certificate for the common property (and the encumbrance will be taken to be discharged to the extent to which the encumbrance is not registered on that certificate).

(7) The Registrar-General must, in relation to a statutory encumbrance, make such notes or other endorsements on the certificate of title for any unit, or for the common property, as may be appropriate according to the nature and extent of the encumbrance.

DIVISION III—PROPRIETARY INCIDENTS ARISING FROM DEPOSIT OF STRATA PLAN

Easements

9. The following easements exist, to the extent required by the nature of the strata scheme, between the units and between the units and common property:

 - (ii) a unit may be connected to the telephone or to a radio or television antenna;
 - (iii) a unit may be connected to sewerage, garbage, drainage or other similar services.

Common property

10. (1) The common property is held by the strata corporation in trust for the unit holders.

(2) An equitable share in the common property attaches to each unit and cannot be alienated or dealt with separately from the unit.

(3) The extent of the share is proportioned to the unit entitlement of the unit.

Vesting of public land in the council

11. (1) Any land shown on a deposited strata plan as a road, street, thoroughfare, reserve or similar open space (except any such land shown on the plan as an easement or excluded by regulation from the application of this section) is vested in the council in fee simple free of any encumbrance.

(2) Any road, street or thoroughfare that vests in a council under subsection (1) will be regarded, for all purposes, as a public road, street or thoroughfare.

a fresh schedule of unit entitlements certified correct by a licensed valuer;

(e) an instrument providing for the discharge of any registered encumbrance shown on the original certificate or certificates of title of the units that should, in the opinion of the Registrar-General, be discharged;

and

(f) such other documentary material as the Registrar-General may require.

(3a) Where—

(a) the erection or alteration of a building on the site causes an encroachment on land not included in the site;

and

(b) the application for amendment relates (wholly or in part) to the erection or alteration of that building, the application can only be accepted if—

(c) no part of a unit would, if the amendment were made, form part of the encroachment;

and

(d) (i) the encroachment is over public land and the council within whose area the land is situated consents to the encroachment;

(ii) the encroachment consists of the protrusion of footings, or footings and associated structures of a prescribed nature, by not more than the prescribed distance beyond the boundaries of the site, and the owner of the land over which the encroachment occurs consents to the encroachment;

and

(b) any consent given in relation to the encroachment is binding on present and subsequent owners and occupiers of the land.

(5) Where part of a unit is, on the amendment of the strata plan by the Registrar-General, transferred to another unit or to common property, then—

(a) the part is discharged from any encumbrance (other than an easement) registered over the unit from which it is transferred;

and

(b) if the part is being transferred to another unit—the part will be held subject to any encumbrance registered over the whole of that unit.

(5a) Where part of the common property is, on the amendment of the strata plan by the Registrar-General, transferred to a unit, then—any unit created by the amendment will be held subject to any registered encumbrance shown on the original certificate or certificates of title (unless an instrument providing for the discharge of the encumbrance is lodged with the Registrar-General).

14. (1) An application for the deposit of a strata plan, or for the amendment of a deposited strata plan, cannot be made unless approved by the Commission and the council.

(2) Approval is not required under this section for an amendment that does not alter the delineation of units or common property.

(3) An application for approval must be in the prescribed form and accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(4) The Commission will approve an application if it is satisfied—

(5) The Commission may, if it thinks fit, remit the contribution payable under subsection (4) (c) wholly or in part.

(6) The Commission may refuse to approve an application if it considers—

(a) that the division of land in accordance with the plan is unsuitable because a building or buildings shown on the plan as forming part of a unit or units are not of sufficient substance or quality;

or

(b) that an application to divide the land should instead be made under Part XIXAB of the Real Property Act, 1886.

(7) The council will approve an application if—

(8) The council may refuse to approve an application if it considers that any building shown on the plan is not structurally sound or is not in good condition.

(9) The Commission or the council may, subject to such conditions as it thinks fit, grant provisional approval in relation to a proposed strata plan or amendment, and if the conditions are complied with within the period stipulated by the Commission or the council, it must not subsequently refuse its approval to an application for deposit of the strata plan or the amendment.

(10) The approval of the Commission or a council under this section will be given by certificate in a form prescribed by the regulations.

(11) Subject to subsection (12), a certificate of approval issued under this section will lapse if it is not lodged with the Registrar-General (together with the application to deposit a strata plan or to amend the strata plan to which it relates) within 12 months of the date of its issue.

(12) The Commission or a council may, on due application made before the expiration of the period referred to in subsection (11), extend the period within which a certificate that it has issued may be lodged with the Registrar-General.

(13) A council must, when giving a certificate of approval under this section in relation to a strata plan, fix the address of the building or buildings erected on the site (and that address must be included in the notification of approval).

(3) The Planning Appeal Tribunal may allow an extension of time for commencing an appeal under this section.

(4) On an appeal under this section, the Planning Appeal Tribunal may—

(a) if no decision has been made on the appellant's application—determine whether approval or provisional approval should be given and give appropriate directions to the Commission or council;

(b) confirm, vary or reverse a decision under appeal (and if the Tribunal reverses the decision, issue the appropriate certificate);

(c) remit any matter for further consideration by the Commission or council;

(d) make any incidental or ancillary orders.

the unit holder of unit A, or a person authorized by that unit holder, may, after giving such notice to the unit holder of unit B as may be practicable in the circumstances, enter unit B for that purpose.

(2) Reasonable force may be exerted in the exercise of powers conferred by this section but any damage to unit B must be immediately made good at the expense of the unit holder of unit A.

Insurance by unit holder

43. (1) Nothing in this Act limits the right of a unit holder to effect insurance in respect of the unit.

(2) A contract of insurance may be entered into by the unit holder in respect of damage to the unit for an amount equal to the amount secured at the date of the contract by mortgages over the unit.

(3) Where a contract of insurance of the kind referred to in subsection (2) is in force—

(a) payment must be made by the insurer under the contract to the mortgagees whose interests are noted in the contract in order of their respective priorities, subject to the terms and conditions of the contract;

(b) subject to the terms and conditions of the contract, the insurer is liable to pay under the contract—

(i) the amount stated in the contract;

(ii) the amount of the damage;

or

(iii) the amount sufficient, at the date of the payment, to discharge the mortgages noted in the contract, whichever is the least amount.

(4) Where the amount so paid by the insurer equals the amount necessary to discharge a mortgage over the unit, the insurer is entitled to an assignment of that mortgage and where the amount is less than the amount necessary to discharge a mortgage over the unit, the insurer is entitled to obtain from the mortgagee a transfer of a proportion of the mortgagee's interest in the mortgage equal to the proportion that the amount of the payment bears to the amount owing under the mortgage immediately before the payment.

(5) Money received under any such contract of insurance is not liable to be brought into contribution with any other money received under another contract of insurance, except where the other contract of insurance—

(a) is in respect of damage to the same unit;

and

(b) relates to the same mortgage debt.

Dealing with part of unit

44. (1) Subject to this section, a unit holder may not enter into any dealing with a part of the unit unless—

(a) the dealing is to be effected by amendment to the strata plan;

or

(b) the dealing consists of the granting, surrendering or extinction of an easement.

(2) Subject to any other law, a unit holder may grant a lease or licence over a part of a unit—

(a) if all of the units comprised in the strata scheme consist of non-residential premises;

or

(b) where paragraph (a) does not apply—

(i) if the lease or licence is granted to another unit holder;

or

(ii) if the lease or licence is authorized by unanimous resolution of the strata corporation (but no authorization is required in relation to a lease or licence over the whole of a unit).

(3) Where a unit holder acts in contravention of this section—

(a) the dealing is void and no instrument purporting to give effect to the dealing may be lodged for registration;

and

(b) the unit holder is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Division 8 fine.

(2a) Subject to subsection (2b), the person appointed under subsection (2) must be a director, manager, secretary or other officer of the body corporate.

(2b) Subsection (2a) does not apply—

(b) if the body corporate is the South Australian Housing Trust;

or

(c) in any other case prescribed by regulation.

(3) A function performed on behalf of a body corporate by a person appointed under subsection (2) will be taken to have been performed by the body corporate.

(4) A body corporate may revoke at will an appointment under subsection (2).

Persons under disability, etc.

45. (1) Where a unit holder is under a disability, the rights and powers of that unit holder under this Act may be exercised on his or her behalf by a guardian.

(2) If a unit holder is under a disability or cannot be found, the Court may on application by the strata corporation or any other person with a proper interest in the matter, dispense with any consent, approval or vote that would otherwise be required from that person under this Act.

Relief where unanimous resolution required

46. (1) Where a unanimous resolution is necessary under this Act before an act may be done and that resolution is not obtained but the resolution is supported to the extent necessary for a special resolution, a person included in the majority in favour of the resolution may apply to the Court to have the resolution declared sufficient to authorize the particular act proposed and, if the Court so orders, the resolution will be taken to have been passed as a unanimous resolution.

(2) Notice of an application under subsection (1) must be served on—

(a) every person who was entitled to exercise the power of voting conferred under this Act and did not, either in person or by proxy, vote in favour of the resolution;

and

(b) any other person whom the Court declares to have a sufficient interest in the proceedings to require that the person should be served with notice of the application, and the Court may direct that any person served with, or to be served with, notice of proceedings under this subsection be joined as a party to the proceedings.

(3) The Court should not order a party who opposes an application under this section to pay the costs of a successful applicant unless the Court considers the actions of that party in relation to the application were unreasonable.

Vicarious liability of management committee members

47. (1) If a strata corporation for which a management committee has been constituted is guilty of an offence against this Act, each person who was a member of the management committee at the time of the offence is also guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding one-half the maximum prescribed for the principal offence.

- (2) It is a defence to a charge under subsection (1) to prove—
- (a) that the defendant exercised reasonable care in the exercise of his or her responsibilities as a member of the management committee;
- and
- (b) that the offence is not attributable to any intentional or negligent act or omission on the defendant's part.

Applications, etc.

(2) Any such application must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

Penalty: Division 9 fine.

(3) A document may be served on the strata corporation, its secretary or treasurer, or a member of its management committee—

(a) by placing it in the strata corporation's letter box;

or

(b) by post addressed to the strata corporation, the secretary or treasurer at the postal address of the site.

Proceedings for offences

50. (1) An offence against this Act is a summary offence.

(2) A prosecution for an offence against this Act may only be commenced with the written consent of the Attorney-General.

(3) In proceedings for an offence against this Act, a document apparently signed by the Attorney-General that appears to be a consent to a prosecution for an offence against this Act will be accepted, in the absence of proof to the contrary, as proof of the consent.

(4) Where a person fails to comply with an obligation imposed by this Act and is, in consequence of that non-compliance, convicted of an offence against this Act, the court may order the convicted person to comply with the obligation within a time fixed by the court.

(5) If the convicted person fails to comply with an order under subsection (4), that person is guilty of a further offence.

Penalty: Division 7 fine.
