- (13) A reference in a provision of this Act to a designated form is a reference to a form designated for the purposes of that provision by the Corporation from time to time by notice in the Gazette (and for the purposes of this Act the Corporation may specify information that may be provided in a specified form, not being in the nature of a written or printed form, which will satisfy a requirement as to the provision of information in a designated form).

- (14) A reference in a provision of this Act to a designated manner is a reference to a manner designated for the purposes of that provision by the Corporation from time to time by notice in the Gazette.
- (15) If a monetary sum is followed by the word (indexed), the amount is to be adjusted on 1 January of each year by multiplying the stated amount by a proportion obtained by dividing the Consumer Price Index for the September quarter of the immediately preceding year by the Consumer Price Index for the September quarter, 2007 (with the amount so adjusted being rounded up in accordance with the regulations).

4—Average weekly earnings

- (1) Subject to this section, the average weekly earnings of an injured worker is the average weekly amount that the worker earned during the period of 12 months preceding the relevant date in relevant employment.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), relevant employment is constituted by—
 - (a) employment with the employer from whose employment the injury arose; and
 - (b) if the worker was, at the time of the occurrence of the injury, in the employment of 2 or more employers, employment with each such employer.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, any amount paid while a worker was on annual, sick or other leave will be taken to be earnings.
- (4) If during the period of 12 months before the relevant date the worker had changed the circumstances of his or her employment from working casually or seasonally to working in permanent employment (whether on a full-time or part-time basis) and the worker was in that permanent employment on the relevant date, the worker's average weekly earnings may be determined by reference to the average weekly amount that the worker earned during the period of that permanent employment rather than during the period of 12 months preceding the relevant date, unless to do so would disadvantage the worker.
- (5) If a worker voluntarily (otherwise than by reason of an incapacity resulting from a compensable injury)—
 - (a) reduces the normal number of hours worked; or
 - (b) alters the nature of the work performed with the result that a reduction occurs in the worker's weekly earnings, any period before the reduction or alteration takes effect will be disregarded for the purposes of determining average weekly earnings.

- (6) In addition, if by reason of the shortness of time during which the worker has been in employment, the terms of the worker's employment or for any other reason, it is not possible to arrive at a fair average, the worker's average weekly earnings may be determined by reference to the average weekly amount being earned by other persons in the same employment with the same employer who perform similar work at the same grade as the worker or, if there is no person so employed, by other persons in the same class of employment who perform similar work at the same grade as the worker.

- (7) If a worker is a contractor rather than an employee, the worker's average weekly earnings will be determined by reference to the rate of pay that the worker would have received if the worker had been working as an employee and, if there is an award or industrial agreement applicable to the class and grade of work in which the worker was engaged, the worker's average weekly earnings will be determined by reference to that award or industrial agreement.
- (8) If—
- (a) an employer is a body corporate; and
 - (b) the worker is a director as well as an employee of the employer,
- the worker's average weekly earnings will be determined by reference to the remuneration (calculated on a weekly basis) last reported in a return from the employer to the Corporation under Part 5 Division 6 (unless the Corporation determines that there is good cause not to apply this subsection in the circumstances of the particular case).*
- Note—*
- Subsection (8) had not come into operation at the date of the publication of this version.*
- (9) If because of the gradual onset of a compensable injury it appears that the level of earnings of an injured worker prior to the relevant date were affected by the injury, the average weekly earnings of the worker must be set at an amount that fairly represents the weekly amount that the worker would have been earning if the level of earnings had not been so affected.
- (10) The average weekly earnings of an injured worker who—
- (a) was not a full-time worker immediately before the relevant date; and
 - (b) immediately before the relevant date had been seeking full-time employment; and
 - (c) had been predominantly during the preceding 18 months a full-time worker,
- will be taken to be the average weekly earnings of the worker while employed in full-time employment during the period of 18 months preceding the relevant date.
- (11) If a worker who suffers a permanent incapacity (whether total or partial) is under the age of 21 years, the average weekly earnings of the worker must be determined by applying the rate of pay that would have been payable to the worker had the worker been 21 years old and if a worker who suffers a permanent incapacity (whether total or partial) is an apprentice, the average weekly earnings of the worker must be determined by applying the rate of pay that would have been payable to the worker had the worker completed the apprenticeship (and this determination may have effect (if not before) when it is determined that a worker has a permanent incapacity under a redetermination under section 53).
- (12) For the purposes of determining the average weekly earnings of a worker—
- (a) any component of the worker's earnings attributable to overtime will be disregarded if, at the relevant date, the worker had no reasonable expectation to work overtime within the foreseeable future because of a change in employment arrangements or work practices, or other relevant factors, announced, introduced or occurring on or before the relevant date, but otherwise payments attributable to overtime will be taken into account; and

- (b) to the extent that a worker has worked overtime that is to be taken into account, the component for overtime will be an amount calculated as follows:

$$C = \frac{A}{B}$$

Where

C is the amount of the component

A is the total of the amounts paid or payable to the worker for overtime during the period used to calculate the average weekly earnings of the worker under a preceding subsection (the relevant period)

B is the number of weeks in the relevant period during which the worker worked or was on annual, sick or other paid leave.

- (13) For the purposes of determining the average weekly earnings of a worker—
- (a) any amount otherwise payable to the worker that has been the subject of a voluntary salary sacrifice for superannuation purposes by the worker will be taken into account as earnings; and
 - (b) any non-cash benefit of a prescribed class provided to the worker by an employer—
 - (i) will be taken into account if the worker does not retain the benefit of the non-cash benefit (and valued after taking into account any principles specified by this Act or prescribed by the regulations); and
 - (ii) will not be taken into account if the worker retains the benefit of the non-cash benefit.
- (14) Despite a preceding subsection, the following will be disregarded for the purposes of determining the average weekly earnings of a worker:
- (a) any contribution paid or payable by an employer to a superannuation scheme for the benefit of the worker;
 - (b) any prescribed allowances.
- (15) Despite a preceding subsection—
- (a) if an injured worker's remuneration was, at the relevant date, covered by an award or industrial agreement, the worker's average weekly earnings will not be less than the weekly wage to which the worker was then entitled under the award or industrial agreement;
 - (b) if, but for this paragraph, the average weekly earnings of a worker (not being a self-employed worker) would be less than the prescribed amount, the average weekly earnings will be fixed at the prescribed amount;
 - (c) the average weekly earnings of a worker will in no case be fixed at more than twice State average weekly earnings.
- (16) In this section—
- (a) a reference to the relevant date is a reference to the date on which the relevant injury occurs; and

- (b) a reference to State average weekly earnings is a reference to the amount last published before the relevant date by the Australian Bureau of Statistics as an estimate of Average Weekly Earnings for Ordinary Hours of Work for each Full-time Employed Adult Male Unit in this State.

5—Act to bind Crown

This Act binds the Crown in right of the State and also, so far as the legislative power of the State extends, in all its other capacities.

6—Territorial application of Act

- (1) This Act applies to a worker's employment if (and only if) that employment is connected with this State.
- (2) The fact that a worker is outside this State when an injury occurs does not prevent an entitlement to compensation arising under this Act in respect of employment that is connected with this State.
- (3) A worker's employment is connected with—
 - (a) the State in which the worker usually works in that employment; or
 - (b) if no State or no one State is identified by paragraph (a), the State in which the worker is usually based for the purposes of that employment; or
 - (c) if no State or no one State is identified by paragraph (a) or (b), the State in which the employer's principal place of business in Australia is located.
- (4) In the case of a worker working on a ship, if no State or no one State is identified by subsection (3), a worker's employment is, while working on a ship, connected with the State in which the ship is registered or (if the ship is registered in more than 1 State) the State in which the ship most recently became registered.
- (5) If no State is identified by subsection (3) or (if applicable) (4), a worker's employment is connected with this State if—
 - (a) a worker is in this State when the injury occurs; and
 - (b) there is no place outside Australia under the legislation of which the worker may be entitled to compensation for the same matter.
- (6) In deciding whether a worker usually works in a State—
 - (a) regard must be had to the worker's work history with the employer over the preceding 12 months and the intentions of the worker and employer; but
 - (b) regard must not be had to any temporary arrangement under which the worker works in a State for a period of not longer than 6 months.
- (7) Subject to subsection (6), in determining whether a worker usually works in a State or is usually based in a State for the purposes of employment, regard must be had to any period during which a worker works in a State or is in a State for the purposes of employment whether or not under the statutory workers compensation scheme of that State the person is regarded as a worker or as working or employed in that State.
- (8) Compensation under this Act does not apply in respect of the employment of a worker on a ship if the Seafarers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1992 of the Commonwealth applies to the worker's employment.

- (9) In this section—

ship means any kind of vessel used in navigation by water, however propelled or moved, and includes—

- (a) a barge, lighter, or other floating vessel; and
- (b) an air-cushion vehicle, or other similar craft, used wholly or primarily in navigation by water;

State includes a Territory and, in a geographical sense, a State's or Territory's relevant adjacent area as described in Schedule 4.

6A—Determination of State with which worker's employment is connected in proceedings under this Act

- (1) If the question of whether this State is connected with a worker's employment arises in proceedings in the Tribunal or a court in relation to a claim for compensation under this Act, the Tribunal or court must—
- (a) determine the State with which the worker's employment is connected in accordance with section 6; and
 - (b) cause that determination to be entered in its records.
- (2) The Tribunal must, in determining a question under subsection (1), be constituted of 1 or more presidential members and if the question arises in proceedings that are not before a presidential member (or presidential members) then the question is to be referred, on an interlocutory basis, to a presidential member of the Tribunal.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if there is a determination that is to be recognised under section 6B.

6B—Recognition of previous determinations

- (1) If a determination of the State with which a worker's employment is connected has been made—
- (a) by the Tribunal or a court under section 6A; or
 - (b) by a designated court under a provision of a law that corresponds with section 6A, or under another provision of a law prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this provision; or
 - (c) by a court of this State or another State in the course of proceedings that are relevant to the application of this Act or a corresponding law, or that relate to a claim for compensation or damages, the State so determined is to be recognised for the purposes of this Act as the State with which the worker's employment is connected.

- (2) This section does not prevent any appeal relating to any such determination and if the determination is altered on appeal, the altered determination is to be recognised under subsection (1).
- (3) In this section—

designated court means—

- (a) the Supreme Court of a State in which a corresponding law is in force; or

- (b) a court, tribunal or other decision-making body of a State in which a corresponding law is in force that is declared by the regulations to be a designated court for the purposes of this section;

State includes a Territory.

13—Conflict of interest under Public Sector (Honesty and Accountability) Act

A member of the Advisory Committee will not be taken to have a direct or indirect interest in a matter for the purposes of the Public Sector (Honesty and Accountability) Act 1995 by reason only of the fact that the member has an interest in a matter that is shared in common with employers generally or employees generally, or a substantial section of employers or employees.

Part 3—Rehabilitation and accident prevention programmes

 - (j) conduct, participate in or subsidise research into any aspect of rehabilitation;
 - (k) encourage and support the work of organisations that provide assistance to workers suffering from compensable injuries;
 - (l) do anything else that may assist in the rehabilitation of workers.
- (4) The Corporation may admit an injured worker to a rehabilitation programme notwithstanding that it has not been finally established that the worker's injury is compensable.

27—Clinics and other facilities

- (1) In the exercise of its powers under this Division, the Corporation should seek to utilise rehabilitation facilities and services provided by the employer of an injured worker.
- (2) In the exercise of its powers under this Division, the Corporation should give encouragement and assistance to the establishment and provision of rehabilitation facilities and services in the private sector.
- (3) The Corporation may—

 - (c) establish and maintain a register of persons and organisations that are, in the opinion of the Corporation, properly qualified and equipped to provide rehabilitation services.

28—Rehabilitation advisers

- (1) The Corporation shall appoint such rehabilitation advisers as are necessary for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) A rehabilitation adviser—
 - (a) shall assist in devising and co-ordinating rehabilitation programmes for injured workers; and
 - (b) shall be responsible to the Corporation for monitoring the progress of injured workers who are involved in rehabilitation programmes; and
 - (c) may, subject to monetary limitations set by the Corporation, expend money of the Corporation in obtaining for an injured worker services and equipment that may assist towards rehabilitation; and
 - (d) shall consult with employers with a view to expediting the return to work of injured workers.
- (3) A statement made by or to a rehabilitation adviser about a worker who is participating in a rehabilitation program must not be disclosed in proceedings under this Act unless—
 - (a) the rehabilitation adviser and the worker consent to the disclosure; or
 - (b) the statement is relevant to an allegation of fraud or dishonesty in criminal proceedings against the worker.

28A—Rehabilitation and return to work plans

- (1) The Corporation may establish a rehabilitation and return to work plan for a worker who is incapacitated for work by a compensable injury.
- (2) If a worker—
 - (a) is receiving compensation by way of income maintenance; and

- (b) is (or is likely to be) incapacitated for work by a compensable injury for more than 13 weeks (but has some prospect of returning to work),
- the Corporation must prepare a rehabilitation and return to work plan for the worker.
- (3) In preparing the plan, the Corporation—
- (a) must consult with the worker and the employer out of whose employment the injury arose; and
 - (ab) must consult with the relevant rehabilitation and return to work co-ordinator under section 28D (if appointed); and
 - (b) should if practicable—
 - (i) review medical records relevant to the worker's condition; or
 - (ii) consult with any medical expert who is treating the worker for the compensable injury.
- (4) A rehabilitation and return to work plan may impose obligations on the worker and on the employer.
- (5) The Corporation must give the worker and the employer a copy of the rehabilitation and return to work plan.
- (6) The plan is binding on the worker and the employer.

28B—Review of plan

- (1) A worker or employer may apply for review of—
- (a) a decision to establish or not to establish a rehabilitation and return to work plan; or
 - (b) a provision of a rehabilitation and return to work plan,
- on the ground that the decision or the provision is unreasonable.
- (2) On review of a rehabilitation and return to work plan (or in consequent appellate proceedings), the plan may be modified to the extent necessary to ensure that the plan does not impose unreasonable obligations on the worker or the employer.
- (3) Proceedings on a review under this section (or consequent appellate proceedings) do not suspend obligations imposed by a rehabilitation and return to work plan.

28C—Rehabilitation standards and requirements

- (1) Rehabilitation programs, and rehabilitation and return to work plans, must comply with standards and requirements imposed by regulation.
- (2) Before the publication of regulations imposing standards and requirements for rehabilitation programs or rehabilitation and return to work plans, the Corporation must consult on the proposed regulations with—

- (1) Subject to this section, an employer must appoint a rehabilitation and return to work co-ordinator (referred to in this section as a co-ordinator).
- (2) A co-ordinator—
 - (a) must be an employee of the employer; and
 - (b) must be based in South Australia.
- (3) The employer must appoint the co-ordinator—

 - (b) within a later period approved by the Corporation.

Maximum penalty: $10 000.

- (4) A co-ordinator has the following functions:
 - (a) to assist workers suffering from compensable injuries, where prudent and practicable, to remain at or return to work as soon as possible after the occurrence of the injury;
 - (b) to assist with liaising with the Corporation in the preparation and implementation of a rehabilitation and return to work plan for an injured worker;
 - (c) to liaise with any persons involved in the rehabilitation of, or the provision of medical services to, workers;
 - (d) to monitor the progress of an injured worker's capacity to return to work;
 - (e) to take steps to, as far as practicable, prevent the occurrence of a secondary injury when a worker returns to work;
 - (f) to perform other functions prescribed by the regulations.
- (5) An employer must—
 - (a) provide such facilities and assistance as are reasonably necessary to enable a co-ordinator to perform his or her functions under this section; and
 - (b) comply with any training or operational guidelines published by the Corporation from time to time for the purposes of this section.
- (6) If a vacancy occurs in the office of a co-ordinator under this section, the employer must make a new appointment to the office within the prescribed period.

Maximum penalty: $10 000.
- (7) The regulations may exempt an employer, or employers of a prescribed class, from a requirement under this section.

Division 2—Injury prevention programmes

29—Prevention programmes

The Corporation may assist employers to establish or maintain programmes that are designed to prevent or reduce the incidence of compensable injuries.

Part 4—Compensation

Division 1—Conditions under which injury is compensable

30—Compensability of injuries

- (1) Subject to this Act, an injury is compensable if it arises from employment.
- (2) Subject to this section, an injury arises from employment if—
 - (a) in the case of an injury that is not a secondary injury or a disease—it arises out of or in the course of employment; or
 - (b) in the case of an injury that is a secondary injury or a disease—
 - (i) the injury arises out of employment; or
 - (ii) the injury arises in the course of employment and the employment contributed to the injury.
- (3) A worker's employment includes—
 - (a) attendance at the worker's place of employment on a working day but before the day's work begins in order to prepare, or be ready, for work; and
 - (b) attendance at the worker's place of employment during an authorised break from work; and
 - (c) attendance at the worker's place of employment but after work ends for the day while the worker is preparing to leave, or in the process of leaving, the place; and
 - (d) attendance at an educational institution under the terms of an apprenticeship or other legal obligation, or at the employer's request or with the employer's approval; and
 - (e) attendance at a place to receive a medical service, to obtain a medical report or certificate (or to be examined for the purpose), to participate in a rehabilitation program or for the purposes of a rehabilitation and return to work plan, or to apply for, or receive, compensation for a compensable injury.
- (4) However, an injury does not arise from employment if it arises out of, or in the course of, the worker's involvement in a social or sporting activity, except where the activity forms part of the worker's employment or is undertaken at the direction or request of the employer.
- (5) An injury that arises out of, or in the course of, a journey arises from employment only if—
 - (a) the journey is undertaken in the course of carrying out duties of employment; or
 - (b) the journey is between—
 - (i) the worker's place of residence and place of employment; or
 - (ii) the worker's place of residence or place of employment and—

- (A) an educational institution the worker attends under the terms of an apprenticeship or other legal obligation, or at the employer's request or with the employer's approval; or
- (B) a place the worker attends to receive a medical service, to obtain a medical report or certificate (or to be examined for that purpose), to participate in a rehabilitation program, or to apply for, or receive, compensation for a compensable injury, and there is a real and substantial connection between the employment and the accident out of which the injury arises.

- (6) However, the fact that a worker has an accident in the course of a journey to or from work does not in itself establish a sufficient connection between the accident and the employment for the purposes of subsection (5)(b).
- (7) The journey between places mentioned in subsection (5)(b) must be a journey by a reasonably direct route but may include an interruption or deviation if it is not, in the circumstances of the case, substantial, and does not materially increase the risk of injury to the worker.

30A—Psychiatric injuries

An injury consisting of an illness or disorder of the mind is compensable if and only if—

- (a) the employment was a substantial cause of the injury; and
- (b) the injury did not arise wholly or predominantly from—
 - (i) reasonable action taken in a reasonable manner by the employer to transfer, demote, discipline, counsel, retrench or dismiss the worker; or
 - (ii) a decision of the employer, based on reasonable grounds, not to award or provide a promotion, transfer, or benefit in connection with the worker's employment; or
 - (iii) reasonable administrative action taken in a reasonable manner by the employer in connection with the worker's employment; or
 - (iv) reasonable action taken in a reasonable manner under this Act affecting the worker.

30B—Effect of misconduct etc

- (1) A worker who is acting in connection with, and for the purposes of, the employer's trade or business is presumed to be acting in the course of employment despite the fact that—
 - (a) the worker is acting in contravention of a statutory or other regulation applicable to the employment; or
 - (b) the worker is acting without, or in contravention of, instructions from the employer.

- (2) However—
- (a) a worker will not be presumed to be acting in the course of employment if the worker is guilty of misconduct or acts in contravention of instructions from the employer during the course of an attendance under section 30(3); and
 - (b) an injury is not compensable if it is established on the balance of probabilities that the injury is wholly or predominantly attributable to—
 - (i) serious and wilful misconduct on the part of the worker; or
 - (ii) the influence of alcohol or a drug voluntarily consumed by the worker (other than a drug lawfully obtained and consumed in a reasonable quantity by the worker).
- (3) Subsection (2)(a) does not apply in a case of death or permanent total incapacity for work and subsection (2)(b) does not apply in a case of death or serious and permanent injury.

31—Evidentiary provision

- (1) Subject to this section, an injury is not compensable unless it is established on the balance of probabilities that it arises from employment.
- (2) If a worker suffers an injury of a kind referred to in the first column of Schedule 2 and has been employed in work of a type referred to in the second column of Schedule 2 opposite the injury, the worker's injury is presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, to have arisen from that employment.
- (2a) If—
- (a) a worker suffers an injury of a kind referred to in the first column of Schedule 2A; and
 - (b) the injury occurred on or after 1 July 2013; and
 - (c) before the injury occurred, the worker was employed by the South Australian Metropolitan Fire Service (SAMFS) as a firefighter for the qualifying period referred to in the second column of Schedule 2A opposite the injury; and
 - (d) during that period, the worker was exposed to the hazards of a fire scene (including exposure to a hazard of the fire that occurred away from the scene), the worker's injury is presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, to have arisen from employment by SAMFS.

- (2b) If—
- (a) a worker suffers an injury of a kind referred to in the first column of Schedule 2A; and
 - (b) the worker was a member of the South Australian Country Fire Service (SACFS) presumptively employed by the Crown as a firefighter—

- (c) the injury occurred—
 - (i) on or after 1 July 2013; and
 - (ii) in the case of a worker who is no longer a member of SACFS presumptively employed by the Crown as a firefighter—no more than 10 years after the cessation of that presumptive employment; and
- (d) during the qualifying period referred to in paragraph (b)(iii), the worker was exposed to the hazards of a fire scene (including exposure to a hazard of the fire that occurred away from the scene), the worker's injury is presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, to have arisen from his or her presumptive employment by the Crown.

- (3) A regulation made on the recommendation, or with the approval, of the Corporation or the Advisory Committee may—
 - (a) extend the operation of subsection (2) to injuries and types of work prescribed in the regulation;
 - (b) extend the operation of subsections (2a) and (2b) to an injury and corresponding qualifying period prescribed in the regulation.
- (4) Where a worker retires or is retired from employment on account of age or ill-health and the worker makes a claim for noise induced hearing loss after the expiration of two years from the date of the retirement, subsection (2) does not apply in relation to that claim.
- (4a) For the purposes of subsections (2a) and (2b)—
 - (a) a worker is taken to have been employed as a firefighter if firefighting duties made up a substantial portion of his or her duties; and
 - (b) a worker who was so employed or engaged for 2 or more periods that add up to or exceed the qualifying period is taken to have been employed or engaged for the qualifying period; and
 - (c) the qualifying period may include a period or periods that commenced or occurred before 1 July 2013.
- (5) Where—
 - (a) a worker's injury consists of the aggravation, acceleration, exacerbation, deterioration or recurrence of a pre-existing coronary heart disease; and
 - (b) the injury arises in the course of employment,

it will be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, that the employment contributed to the injury.

Division 2—Compensation for medical expenses etc

32—Compensation for medical expenses

- (1) Subject to this section, a worker is entitled to be compensated for costs of a kind described in subsection (2) reasonably incurred by the worker in consequences of having suffered a compensable injury—
 - (a) in accordance with a scale published by the Minister under this section; or
 - (b) if the relevant service is not covered by a scale under this section—to the extent of a reasonable amount for the provision of the service.
- (2) The costs referred to in subsection (1) are as follows:
 - (a) the cost of medical services;
 - (b) the cost of hospitalisation and all associated medical, surgical and nursing services;
 - (c) the cost of approved rehabilitation;
 - (d) the cost of travelling, or being transported, to and from any place for the purpose of receiving medical services, hospitalisation or approved rehabilitation (but not where the worker travels in a private vehicle);
 - (e) where it is necessary for the worker to be accommodated away from home for the purpose of receiving medical services or approved rehabilitation—the cost of such accommodation (but not exceeding limits prescribed by regulation);
 - (f) the cost of attendance by a registered or enrolled nurse, or by some other person approved by the Corporation or of a class approved by the Corporation, where the injury is such that the worker must have nursing or personal attendance;
 - (g) the cost of the provision, maintenance, replacement or repair of therapeutic appliances;
 - (h) the cost of medicines and other material purchased on the prescription or recommendation of a medical expert;
 - (i) any other costs (or classes of costs) authorised by the Corporation.
- (3) Compensation in respect of costs to which this section applies may be paid—
 - (a) to the worker; or
 - (b) directly to the person to whom the worker is liable for those costs.
- (4) Where a worker has been charged more than the amount that the worker is entitled to claim for the provision of a service in respect of which compensation is payable under this section, the Corporation may reduce the charge by the amount of the excess.
- (4a) A decision of the Corporation under subsection (4) is not reviewable.
- (5) Where—
 - (a) services of a kind to which this section applies were provided to a worker in relation to a compensable injury; and

- (b) the Corporation considers that the services were, in the circumstances of the case, inappropriate or unnecessary,
- the Corporation may disallow charges for the services.
- (6) Where the Corporation disallows or reduces a charge under this section—
- (a) it must give to the provider of the service a notice setting out—
- (i) the basis of the Corporation's decision to disallow or reduce the charge; and
- (ii) where the charge has been disallowed under subsection (5) the provider's right to have the decision reviewed under this Act; and
- (b) the worker is not liable to the provider for the disallowed charge, or for more than the reduced charge, (as the case requires) and, if the worker has in fact paid an amount for which he or she is not liable, the Corporation will reimburse the worker for that amount and may recover it from the provider as a debt.
- (7) Where a worker travels in a private vehicle to or from any place for the purpose of receiving medical services, hospitalisation or approved rehabilitation, and the travel is reasonably necessary in the circumstances of the case, the worker is entitled to a travel allowance at rates fixed by a scale published by the Minister under this section.
- (8) A reference in this section to approved rehabilitation is a reference to rehabilitation programs or services provided by a person who has an agreement with the Corporation for the provision of those programs or services.
- (9) If a treatment protocol for an injury of a particular kind has been published by the Minister under this section, costs of medical services for treatment of an injury of the relevant kind (and related hospitalisation and nursing services) are only compensable where—
- (a) the services are provided in accordance with the protocol; or
- (b) the provider of the services establishes, to the Corporation's satisfaction, that services outside the terms of the protocol are justified in the circumstances of the particular case.
- (10) The amount of compensation for a service covered by a scale of charges published by the Minister under this section must be in accordance with the scale.
- (11) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, on the recommendation of the Corporation, publish—
- (a) scales of charges for the purposes of this section (ensuring as far as practicable that the scales comprehensively cover the various kinds of services to which this section applies);
- (b) treatment protocols for treatment of injuries of particular kinds.
- (12) Subject to subsection (12a), a scale of charges published under this section must be based on the average charge to private patients for the relevant service (but the amount fixed for the service must not exceed the amount recommended by the relevant professional association).
- (12a) A scale of charges for services provided by a public hospital may be based on government charges for the relevant service.

- (13) Before the Corporation makes a recommendation to the Minister about the publishing of a scale of charges, or a treatment protocol, the Corporation must consult with—
- (a) professional associations representing the providers of medical services of the relevant kind; and
 - (b) the Self-Insurers Association of South Australia Incorporated and associations representing self-managed employers; and
 - (c) associations representing employers (including the South Australian Employers Chamber of Commerce and Industry); and
 - (d) associations representing employees (including the United Trades and Labor Council).
- (14) A person who provides a service for an injured worker, knowing the worker to be entitled to compensation for the service under this section, must not charge for the service an amount exceeding the amount allowed under a scale of charges published under this section.

Maximum penalty: $1 000.

32A—Special provisions for payment of medical expenses after initial notification of injury

- (3) The Corporation may, on application under subsection (1), determine that it is reasonable to accept provisional liability for the payment of compensation under section 32 and make a payment under this section.
- (4) The maximum amount payable under this section with respect to a particular injury is $5 000 (indexed).
- (5) The acceptance of provisional liability under this section does not constitute an admission of liability under this Act or independently of this Act.
- (6) A payment under this section with respect to a particular cost discharges any liability that the Corporation may have with respect to that cost under section 32.
- (7) The Corporation may determine not to make a payment under this section despite the fact that the Corporation has previously made 1 or more payments with respect to the same injury under this section.
- (8) Subject to subsection (9), if the Corporation makes 1 or more payments under this section and it is subsequently determined that the worker was not entitled to compensation under this Act, the Corporation may, subject to and in accordance with the regulations—
 - (a) recover the amount or amounts paid as a debt; or
 - (b) set the amount off against a right to payment of compensation under this Act.

- (9) A right of recovery or set off under subsection (8) only arises if the worker has acted dishonestly in making an application or providing information for the purposes of this or any other section of this Act.
- (10) The following decisions are not reviewable:
 - (a) a decision to accept or not to accept liability under this section;
 - (b) a decision to make or not to make a payment under this section;

 - (b) the injury is such as to require immediate medical treatment,the employer shall, at the employer's own expense, provide the worker with immediate transportation to a hospital or medical expert for initial treatment.
- (2) If an employer fails to provide transportation in accordance with subsection (1), the cost may be recovered by the Corporation from the employer as a debt due to the Corporation.
- (3) An amount recovered by the Corporation under subsection (2) shall, if the worker incurred costs in consequence of the employer's failure to provide transportation, be paid to the worker.
- (4) If the cost of transportation provided by an employer (other than a self-insured employer) to a worker in accordance with subsection (1) exceeds an amount prescribed by the regulations, the employer is, on application to the Corporation in a manner and form approved by the Corporation, entitled to recover the excess from the Corporation.
- (5) An amount prescribed by regulation under subsection (4) may, if the regulations so provide, be indexed so as to provide annual adjustments according to changes in the Consumer Price Index.

Division 3—Compensation for property damage

34—Compensation for property damage

- (1) Where a worker suffers a compensable injury and, in consequence of the trauma out of which the injury arose, damage occurs to any therapeutic appliances, clothes, personal effects or tools of trade of the worker, the worker is, subject to limitations prescribed by regulation, entitled to be compensated for the full amount of the damage.
- (2) An entitlement under subsection (1) does not extend to compensation for damage to a motor vehicle.

 - (b) if the employer's response is that suitable employment may or will be provided at some time, the worker is waiting for suitable employment to commence; and
 - (c) if the employer's response is that suitable employment cannot be provided at some time, the worker is waiting for a response to requests for suitable employment from other employers; and
 - (d) the worker is waiting for the commencement of a rehabilitation and return to work plan, after approval has been given.
- (7) A worker must not be treated as making every reasonable effort to return to work in suitable employment for the purposes of this Division if the worker—

- (1) Subject to this Act, a worker is, in respect of a particular compensable injury, entitled to weekly payments while incapacitated for work during the first entitlement period as follows:
 - (a) for any period when the worker has no current work capacity—the worker is entitled to weekly payments equal to the worker's notional weekly earnings;
 - (b) for any period when the worker has a current work capacity—the worker is entitled to weekly payments equal to the difference between the worker's notional weekly earnings and the worker's designated weekly earnings.
- (2) Subject to this Act, a worker is, in respect of a particular compensable injury, entitled to weekly payments while incapacitated for work during the second entitlement period as follows:

 - (b) for any period when the worker has a current work capacity—the worker is entitled to weekly payments equal to 90% of the difference between the worker's notional weekly earnings and the worker's designated weekly earnings.

- (3) Subject to this Act, a worker is, in respect of a particular compensable injury, entitled to weekly payments while incapacitated for work during the third entitlement period as follows:
- (a) for any period when the worker has no current work capacity—the worker is entitled to weekly payments equal to 80% of the worker's notional weekly earnings;

 - (b) the weekly earnings that the Corporation determines that the worker could earn from time to time (including, but not limited to, the amount of any current weekly earnings) in employment, whether in the worker's employment previous to the relevant injury or in suitable employment, that the Corporation determines the worker is capable of performing despite the injury,
- whichever is the greater, but not to include a prescribed benefit under subsection (6).
- (5) Subsection (4)(b) will not apply to a worker who has a current work capacity during any period or periods during which the worker is incapacitated for work and in which either of the following circumstances apply:

35B—Weekly payments after expiry of designated periods—no work capacity

- (1) Subject to section 35C (and to the other provisions of this Act), a worker's entitlement to weekly payments under this Division ceases at the end of the third entitlement period under section 35A (unless brought to an end before this time) unless the worker is assessed by the Corporation as—
 - (a) having no current work capacity; and
 - (b) likely to continue indefinitely to have no current work capacity.
- (2) If a worker qualifies under an assessment under subsection (1), the worker is entitled to weekly payments while incapacitated for work in respect of a particular injury equal to 80% of the worker's notional weekly earnings as though the third entitlement period were continuing.
- (3) A review of the assessment of a worker under this section may be conducted by the Corporation at any time and must be conducted as often as may be reasonably necessary, being at least once in every 2 years.
- (4) In connection with the operation of subsection (1), a worker who, immediately before the end of a third entitlement period, is in receipt of weekly payments under paragraph (a) of section 35A(3) is entitled to continue to receive weekly payments at the rate prescribed by that paragraph unless or until the Corporation has assessed whether the worker falls within the category of a worker who may be considered as—
 - (a) having no current work capacity; and
 - (b) likely to continue indefinitely to have no current work capacity.
- (5) An assessment under subsection (4) may be made before or after the end of the third entitlement period.
- (6) Despite section 35A, the Corporation must not discontinue weekly payments to a worker who is subject to the operation of subsection (4) until it has given the worker at least 13 weeks notice in writing of the proposed discontinuance (and the requirements of section 36 will not apply with respect to this notice).
- (7) A notice under subsection (6) must not be given unless or until the assessment envisaged by subsection (4) has been undertaken.
- (8) Subsections (4), (5), (6) and (7) do not apply if the Corporation discontinues the worker's weekly payments under section 36 or suspends such payments under another provision of this Act.
- (9) The Corporation may, on the basis of a review under subsection (3), discontinue weekly payments under this section if satisfied that the worker has a current work capacity.

35C—Weekly payments after expiry of designated periods—current work capacity

- (1) Subject to this Act, a worker who is, or has been, entitled to weekly payments under section 35A(3)(b) or 35B, may apply to the Corporation in accordance with this section for a determination that the worker's entitlement to weekly payments under this Division does not cease at the end of the third entitlement period under section 35A or at the expiry of an entitlement under section 35B (as the case may be).

- (2) The Corporation may determine that the worker's entitlement to weekly payments under this Division does not cease as contemplated by subsection (1) if the Corporation is satisfied that the worker is in employment and that because of the compensable injury, the worker is, and is likely to continue indefinitely to be, incapable of undertaking further or additional employment or work which would increase the worker's current weekly earnings.
- (3) The Corporation—
- (a) must within 90 days of receiving an application under subsection (1), make or refuse to make a determination under subsection (2) and advise the worker in writing of its decision (unless the Corporation requires an extension of time because of the operation of paragraph (b)); and
 - (b) must not refuse to make a determination under subsection (2) on the ground that the Corporation is not satisfied under the requirements of that subsection unless—
 - (i) the Corporation has referred the medical question whether, because of the injury, the worker is, and is likely to continue indefinitely to be, incapable of undertaking further or additional employment or work, and if not so incapable, what further or additional employment or work the worker is capable of undertaking, for the opinion of a Medical Panel under Part 6C; and
 - (ii) the opinion of the Medical Panel is that the worker is not so incapable and specifies what further or additional employment or work the worker is capable of undertaking.
- (4) If the Corporation makes a determination under subsection (2), subject to this Division, the worker is entitled to weekly payments equal to 80% of the difference between the worker's notional weekly earnings and the worker's current weekly earnings.
- (5) The entitlement to weekly payments under subsection (4) continues until—
- (a) the Corporation ceases to be satisfied as to the matters specified in subsection (2); or
 - (b) the worker otherwise ceases to be entitled to weekly payments (including by virtue of the operation of section 36).

36—Discontinuance of weekly payments

- (1) Subject to this Act, weekly payments to a worker who has suffered a compensable injury must not be discontinued unless—
- (a) the worker consents to the discontinuance of weekly payments; or
 - (b) the Corporation is satisfied, on the basis of a certificate of a recognised medical expert, that the worker has ceased to be incapacitated for work by the compensable injury; or
 - (c) the worker has returned to work; or
 - (d) the worker has obtained work as an employee, or as a self-employed contractor, that is providing remuneration equal to or above the worker's notional weekly earnings; or

Part 4—Compensation

Division 4—Compensation by way of income maintenance

- (e) the worker is dismissed from employment for serious and wilful misconduct; or
 - (f) the worker breaches the obligation of mutuality; or
 - (g) the worker is, without the Corporation's consent—
 - (i) resident outside the State; or
 - (ii) absent from the State for more than two months in any continuous period of 12 months; or
 - (h) the worker's entitlement to weekly payments ceases because of the passage of time; or
 - (i) the worker's entitlement to weekly payments ceases because of the occurrence of some other event or the making of some other decision or determination that, under another provision of this Act, brings the entitlement to weekly payments to an end or the discontinuance of weekly payments is otherwise authorised or required under another provision of this Act.
- (1a) A worker breaches the obligation of mutuality if—
- (a) the Corporation has, by written notice to the worker, required the worker to submit to an examination by a recognised medical expert nominated by the Corporation and the worker fails to comply with the requirement within the time allowed in the notice or obstructs the examination; or
 - (b) the Corporation has, by written notice to the worker, required the worker to submit to the Corporation a certificate from a recognised medical expert certifying that the compensable injury continues, and the worker fails to comply with the requirement within the time allowed in the notice; or
 - (c) the worker refuses or fails to submit to proper medical treatment for the worker's condition; or
 - (d) the worker refuses or fails to participate in a rehabilitation program under this Act or participates in a way that frustrates the objectives of the program; or
 - (e) the worker fails to comply with an obligation under a rehabilitation and return to work plan under this Act; or
 - (f) the worker refuses or fails—
 - (i) to undertake work that the worker has been offered and is capable of performing; or
 - (ii) to take reasonable steps to find or obtain suitable employment, or having obtained suitable employment, unreasonably discontinues the employment; or
 - (fa) the worker refuses or fails to participate in assessments of the worker's capacity, rehabilitation progress or future employment prospects (including by failing to attend); or
 - (g) the worker does anything else that is, apart from this subsection, recognised as a breach of the obligation of mutuality.

- (1b) However, a worker does not breach the obligation of mutuality—
- (a) by reasonably refusing surgery or the administration of a drug; or
 - (b) where there is a difference of medical opinion about the appropriate treatment for the worker's condition, or the possibility of choice between a number of reasonable forms of treatment—by choosing one form of treatment in preference to another.
- (2) Subject to this Act, weekly payments to a worker who has suffered a compensable injury shall not be reduced unless—
- (a) the worker consents to the reduction of weekly payments; or
 - (b) the Corporation is satisfied, on the basis of a certificate of a recognised medical expert, that there has been a reduction in the extent the worker is incapacitated for work by the compensable injury; or
 - (ba) the reduction is necessary to correct an arithmetical or clerical error; or
 - (bb) where the weekly payments include a component for overtime—the Corporation is satisfied that if the worker had continued in the work in which he or she was last employed before becoming incapacitated, he or she would not have continued to work overtime or the pattern of overtime would have changed so that the amount of overtime would have diminished; or
 - (c) the worker has recommenced work as an employee or as a self-employed contractor, or the worker has had an increase in remuneration as an employee or a self-employed contractor; or
 - (d) the worker's entitlement to weekly payments reduces because of the passage of time; or
 - (e) the worker's entitlement to weekly payments reduces because of the occurrence of some other event or the making of some other decision or determination that, under another provision of this Act, is expressed to result in a reduction to an entitlement to weekly payments or the reduction of weekly payments is otherwise authorised or required under another provision of this Act.
- (3) Where the Corporation decides to discontinue or reduce weekly payments in pursuance of this section, the Corporation must give notice in writing to the worker containing such information as the regulations may require as to the reasons for the Corporation's decision and informing the worker of the worker's right to have the decision reviewed.
- (3a) The notice must be given at least the prescribed number of days before the decision is to take effect in any of the following cases:
- (a) where a decision to discontinue weekly payments is made, without the consent of the worker, on the ground that—
 - (i) the Corporation is satisfied that the worker has ceased to be incapacitated for work by the compensable injury (although the worker has not returned to work); or
 - (ii) the worker has failed to submit to an examination by a recognised medical expert or to provide a medical certificate as required by the Corporation; or

- (iii) the worker has been dismissed from employment for serious and wilful misconduct; or
 - (iv) the worker has breached the obligation of mutuality; or
 - (b) where a decision to reduce weekly payments is made, without the consent of the worker, on the ground that—
 - (i) the Corporation is satisfied that there has been a reduction in the extent the worker is incapacitated for work by the compensable injury; or
 - (ii) the Corporation is satisfied, in the case of a worker whose weekly payments include a component for overtime, that the worker would not have continued to work overtime or the pattern of overtime would have changed so that the amount of overtime would have diminished; or
 - (ba) where a decision to reduce weekly payments is made on account of the end of the first entitlement period or the second entitlement period under section 35A; or
 - (bb) where a decision to discontinue weekly payments is made on account of the end of the third entitlement period under section 35A; or
 - (bc) where a decision to discontinue weekly payments is made on account of—
 - (i) a review by the Corporation under section 35B(3); or
 - (ii) a decision of the Corporation under section 35C(5)(a); or
 - (c) where a decision to discontinue or reduce weekly payments is made under section 38,
- and in any other case the notice must be given as soon as practicable after the decision is made (but not necessarily before it takes effect).
- (3b) For the purposes of subsection (3a), the prescribed number of days is—
 - (a) if the worker has been receiving weekly payments under this Division (or Division 7A) for a period that is less than 52 weeks, or for 2 or more periods that aggregate less than 52 weeks—14 days;
 - (b) in any other case—28 days.
 - (4) Subject to complying with subsection (3a), a discontinuance or reduction of weekly payments under this section takes effect in accordance with the terms of the Corporation's notice under subsection (3).
 - (5) The effect of a decision to discontinue or reduce weekly payments is not affected by the worker lodging a notice of dispute under Part 6A.
 - (5a) If a dispute is resolved in favour of the worker at the reconsideration, conciliation or judicial determination stage, or on an appeal, the worker is entitled to be paid—
 - (a) in the case of a reconsideration—the total amount that, under the terms of the reconsideration, should have been paid to the worker between the date that the disputed decision took effect and the date that the decision, as varied under the reconsideration, takes effect (less any amount paid to the worker under subsection (15));

- (b) in the case of a resolution at the conciliation stage—any amount payable under the terms of the relevant settlement;
 - (c) in the case of a judicial determination or determination on appeal—the amount that, under the terms of the determination or according to the outcome of the appeal, would have constituted the worker's entitlements under this Act had the weekly payments not been discontinued or reduced (as the case may be), taking into account any amount paid to the worker under a preceding paragraph, under subsection (15), or under another provision of this Act, and subject to the specific terms of any determination or order made as a result of the judicial determination or appeal (as the case may be).
- (5b) An amount paid under subsection (5a) will be taken to be an amount in arrears under section 47 (with interest payable subject to the operation of section 47(2)).
- (5c) If a dispute is ultimately resolved in favour of the Corporation and the worker has been paid an amount in excess of the amount of the worker's lawful entitlements to weekly benefits on account of the operation of subsection (5a)(c) or (15), the Corporation may, at the Corporation's discretion (but subject to the regulations)—
- (a) recover the amount of the excess (together with any interest on that amount paid by the Corporation) from the worker as a debt; or
 - (b) set off the amount recoverable under paragraph (a) against liabilities of the Corporation to make payments to the worker under this Act.
- (6) If the Corporation makes a weekly payment to a worker on the assumption that the worker is incapacitated for work but the worker has in fact returned to work, the Corporation may, subject to the regulations, recover the amount of the payment as a debt.
- (7) If the Corporation overpays a worker by way of weekly payments in consequence of—
- (a) an arithmetical or clerical error; or
 - (b) an assumption, subsequently found to be incorrect, that a particular pattern of overtime would have continued if the worker had continued in the work in which he or she was last employed before becoming incapacitated,
- the Corporation may, subject to and in accordance with the regulations, recover the amount overpaid as a debt.
- (8) An employer who believes that reasonable grounds exist for the discontinuance or reduction of weekly payments under this section to a worker employed by, or formerly employed by, the employer may, in a manner determined by the Corporation, request the Corporation to review the circumstances of the case and to discontinue or reduce the weekly payments.
- (9) The Corporation must carry out the review as soon as practicable after receipt of the request unless the request is, in the Corporation's opinion, unreasonable.
- (10) If the Corporation declines to carry out a review in pursuance of a request under subsection (8), or it appears that there has been undue delay in carrying out the review, the Tribunal may, on application by the employer, direct the Corporation to carry out the review, or give such directions as appear reasonable in the circumstances to expedite the review (as the case may require).

Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986—1.7.2013 to 30.6.2015—repealed

Part 4—Compensation

Division 4—Compensation by way of income maintenance

- (11) The Corporation must comply, or take steps to ensure compliance, with such a direction.
- (12) On completing the review, the Corporation must give the employer notice in writing—
- (a) of the Corporation's decision on the review, and the reasons for its decision; and
 - (b) of the employer's right to have the Corporation's decision reviewed.
- (13) This section does not apply in relation to the discontinuance of payments pursuant to Division 4A.
- (14) In connection with the operation of subsection (1) (and to avoid doubt), a worker is required—
- (a) to take reasonable steps to attend any appointment reasonably required for the purposes of this Division; and
 - (b) to take reasonable steps to comply with any requirement reasonably required under a rehabilitation program or a rehabilitation and return to work plan,
- (and a failure to comply with these requirements constitutes a ground for the discontinuance of payments under this section).
- (15) Despite subsections (4) and (5), if—
- (a) a worker who has—
 - (i) received a notice of discontinuance of weekly payments under this section; and
 - (ii) lodged a notice of dispute under Part 6A,applies to the WorkCover Ombudsman for a review of the decision to discontinue weekly payments; and
 - (b) on the application for review it appears to the WorkCover Ombudsman that it was not reasonably open to the Corporation to decide to discontinue the payments having regard to the circumstances of the case,
- the WorkCover Ombudsman may suspend the operation of the decision to discontinue weekly payments.
- (16) Weekly payments reinstated under subsection (15) will continue until—
- (a) the notice of dispute is withdrawn; or
 - (b) the matter is resolved on reconsideration by the Corporation or at conciliation (or otherwise between the parties); or
 - (c) the Tribunal—
 - (i) determines the matter in the exercise of its judicial function; or
 - (ii) pending its determination of the matter—orders that the worker should no longer have the benefit of the weekly payments due to some unreasonable act, omission or delay on the part of the worker in connection with the proceedings.

- (17) In connection with the operation of subsection (15)—
- (a) the WorkCover Ombudsman should seek to consider an application for review under subsection (15)(a) as expeditiously as is reasonably practicable; and
 - (b) the WorkCover Ombudsman has an absolute discretion as to whether or not the worker or the Corporation will be heard on the review; and
 - (c) a decision of the WorkCover Ombudsman on a review is not subject to appeal or review under this or any other Act or law.

37—Adjustments due to change from original arrangements

- (1) The Corporation may, on its own initiative or at the request of the worker, review the calculation of the average weekly earnings of a worker (and therefore the notional weekly earnings of a worker) for the purpose of making an adjustment due to—
- (a) a change in a component of the worker's remuneration used to determine average weekly earnings (including a component constituted by a non-cash benefit); or
 - (b) a change in the equipment or facilities provided or made available to the worker (if relevant to average weekly earnings).
- (2) A request by a worker must be made in a designated manner and a designated form.
- (3) Before the Corporation begins a review under this section, the Corporation must give the worker notice, in a designated form—
- (a) informing the worker of the proposed review; and
 - (b) inviting the worker to make written representations to the Corporation on the subject of the review within a reasonable time specified in the notice.
- (4) If the Corporation finds on a review under this section that there has been a change that warrants an adjustment contemplated by subsection (1), the Corporation may make the relevant adjustment.
- (5) An adjustment under this section—
- (a) will take effect as an adjustment to the worker's notional weekly earnings (and may therefore increase or reduce weekly payments under this Division); and
 - (b) operates from a date determined by the Corporation (which may be an antecedent date but not a date that is before the date of the change on which the adjustment is based and not so as to result in a retrospective reduction in weekly payments).
- (6) For the purposes of a review under this section, the Corporation may, by notice in writing to the worker to whom the review relates, require the worker to furnish any information that the Corporation determines to be relevant to the review.
- (7) If a worker fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (6) within the time allowed in the notice, the Corporation may suspend weekly payments to the worker.

- (8) On completing the review, the Corporation must give notice, in a designated form, setting out the Corporation's decision on the review, and the rights of review that exist in respect of the decision to—
- (a) the worker; and
 - (b) the employer from whose employment the compensable injury arose.

38—Review of weekly payments

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Corporation may on its own initiative and shall if requested by a worker or an employer review the amount of the weekly payments made to a worker who has suffered a compensable injury.
- (1a) If a period of incapacity continues for more than one year, the Corporation must conduct a review under this section in the second year of incapacity and in each subsequent year of the incapacity.
- (1b) A request by a worker or employer must be made in a designated manner and a designated form.
- (2) The Corporation is not required to comply with a request for a review under subsection (1) if the request is made within three months from the completion of an earlier review.
- (3) Before the Corporation begins a review under this section, the Corporation must give the worker notice, in a designated form—
- (a) informing the worker of the proposed review; and
 - (b) inviting the worker to make written representation to the Corporation on the subject of the review within a reasonable time specified in the notice.
- (4) If the Corporation finds on a review under this section that the worker's entitlement to weekly payments has ceased, or has increased or decreased, the Corporation must adjust or discontinue the weekly payments to reflect that finding.

Example—

For example, if the Corporation finds on the review that there has been a change in the extent of the worker's incapacity with a consequent change in the amount the worker is earning or could earn in suitable employment, the Corporation must adjust the weekly payments to reflect the change in entitlement.

- (5) For the purposes of a review under this section, the Corporation may, by notice in writing to a worker, who is receiving weekly payments—
- (a) require the worker to submit to an examination by a recognised medical expert nominated by the Corporation; or
 - (b) require the worker to furnish evidence of the worker's earnings.
- (6) If a worker fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (5) within the time allowed in the notice, the Corporation may suspend weekly payments to the worker.
- (7) On completing the review, the Corporation must give notice, in a designated form, setting out the Corporation's decision on the review, and the rights of review that exist in respect of the decision, to—
- (a) the worker; and
 - (b) the employer from whose employment the compensable injury arose.

39—Economic adjustments to weekly payments

- (1) Where a worker to whom weekly payments are payable is incapacitated for work or appears likely to be incapacitated for work for more than one year, the Corporation shall, during the course of each year of incapacity, review the weekly payments for the purpose of making an adjustment to the amount of those payments under this section.
- (1a) Before the Corporation begins a review under this section, the Corporation must give the worker notice, in a designated form—
 - (a) informing the worker of the proposed review; and
 - (b) inviting the worker to make written representations to the Corporation on the subject of the review within a reasonable time specified in the notice.
- (2) An adjustment under this section—
 - (a) must be based on—
 - (i) changes in the rates of remuneration payable to workers generally or to workers engaged in the kind of employment from which the worker's injury arose; or
 - (ii) if the worker applies, in a designated manner and a designated form, for the adjustment to be made on the basis of changes in rates of remuneration prescribed by an award or enterprise agreement payable to a group of workers of which the worker was a member at the time of the occurrence of the injury—changes in those rates of remuneration; and
 - (b) operates—
 - (i) in the case of an adjustment under paragraph (a)(i)—from the end of the year of incapacity in which the review is made;
 - (ii) in the case of an adjustment under paragraph (a)(ii)—from the Corporation's decision on the application, back-dated to the date of the relevant changes in rates of remuneration.
- (3) Where the Corporation makes an adjustment to weekly payments in pursuance of this section, the Corporation shall give notice in writing, in a designated form, to the worker—
 - (a) containing such information as the regulations may require as to the grounds on which the adjustment is being made; and
 - (b) informing the worker of the worker's rights to have the Corporation's decision reviewed.

40—Weekly payments and leave entitlements

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), neither the liability to make weekly payments to a worker in respect of a period of incapacity nor the amount of such weekly payments is affected by a payment, allowance or benefit for annual leave or long service leave to which the worker is entitled in respect of that period.

- (2) Where a worker is absent from employment in consequence of a compensable injury, the period of absence shall for the purposes of computing the worker's entitlement to annual leave or sick leave under any Act, award or industrial agreement, be counted as a period of service in the worker's employment.
- (3) Where a worker has received weekly payments in respect of total incapacity for work over a period of 52 weeks or more, the liability of the employer to grant annual leave to the worker in respect of a year of employment that coincides with, or ends during the course of, that period shall be deemed to have been satisfied.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not affect the obligation of an employer to make a payment in the nature of an annual leave loading.
- (5) Where—
 - (a) the entitlement of a worker to annual leave, or payment in lieu of annual leave, is governed by a law of the Commonwealth or a State or Territory of the Commonwealth (not being this State); and
 - (b) the worker is absent from employment in consequence of a compensable injury; and
 - (c) the period of absence is not taken into account as service for the purpose of calculating the worker's entitlement to annual leave or payment in lieu of annual leave,the worker is entitled by way of compensation to the monetary value of the annual leave that would have accrued if the worker had not been absent from employment.
- (6) Any compensation payable under subsection (5) shall be paid when the annual leave, or the payment in lieu of annual leave, would (assuming that the worker had not been absent from employment) have been granted or made.

41—Absence of worker from Australia

- (1) Where a worker who has suffered a compensable injury and who is receiving weekly payments is to be absent from Australia for a period in excess of 28 days, the worker shall, at least 28 days before leaving Australia, give the Corporation prescribed details of the proposed absence.
- (2) Where the Corporation is of the opinion that the absence may impair the prospects of the worker's rehabilitation, it may, after giving the worker at least 14 days notice, in a designated form, of its intention to do so, suspend or reduce the weekly payments to the worker.
- (3) The Corporation may suspend weekly payments that are being made to a worker who is absent from Australia—
 - (a) if the Corporation cannot obtain, to its satisfaction, information relating to—
 - (i) the whereabouts of the worker;
 - (ii) the continuance of the worker's injury or incapacity for work;
 - (iii) the earning capacity of the worker; or
 - (b) if there is, in the opinion of the Corporation, some other proper reason justifying suspension of the weekly payments.

- (4) If an injured worker leaves Australia without giving the notice required under subsection (1), the Corporation may suspend weekly payments to the worker.

Division 4A—Redemption

42—Redemption of liabilities

- (1) Any of the following liabilities may, by agreement between the worker and the Corporation, be redeemed by a capital payment to the worker—
 - (a) a liability to make weekly payments;
 - (b) a liability to pay compensation under section 32.
- (2) An agreement for the redemption of a liability under this section cannot be made unless—
 - (a) the worker has received competent professional advice about the consequences of redemption; and
 - (b) the worker has received competent financial advice about the investment or use of money to be received on redemption; and
 - (c) the Corporation has consulted with the employer out of whose employment the injury arose and has considered any representations made by the employer; and
 - (d) a recognised medical expert has certified that the extent of the worker's incapacity resulting from the compensable injury can be determined with a reasonable degree of confidence; and
 - (e) 1 (or more) of the following requirements are satisfied in the case of a proposed redemption under subsection (1)(a):
 - (i) the rate of weekly payments to be redeemed does not exceed $30 (indexed);
 - (ii) the worker has attained the age of 55 years and the Corporation has determined that the worker has no current work capacity;
 - (iii) the Tribunal (constituted of a presidential member) has determined, on the basis of a joint application made to the Tribunal by the worker and the Corporation in contemplation of an agreement being entered into under this section, that the continuation of weekly payments is contrary to the best interests of the worker from a psychological and social perspective.
- (3) The amount of the redemption payment is to be fixed by the agreement.
- (4) If the Corporation notifies a worker in writing that it is prepared to enter into negotiations for the redemption of a liability by agreement under this section, the Corporation is liable to indemnify the worker for reasonable costs of obtaining the advice required under this section up to a limit prescribed by regulation.
- (5) If agreement is not reached within 3 months after redemption is first proposed (by the worker or the Corporation), either party may apply to the Tribunal for reference of the matter to a conciliation conference.

- (6) The Tribunal will then appoint a conciliator, and a conciliation conference will be held, in accordance with the rules of the Tribunal.
- (7) At the conciliation conference, each party must disclose information in the party's possession that may be relevant to the failure to reach agreement (including representation made by an employer about the redemption proposal).
- (8) The conciliator must make every practicable attempt to help the parties to settle their differences by agreement.
- (9) However, if agreement is not reached, a party cannot be compelled to agree to redemption of the liability.
- (10) The Corporation may accredit professional and financial advisers for the purpose of giving advice under this section (but a worker is not required to obtain the necessary advice from an accredited adviser).
- (11) However, the Corporation incurs no liability for advice given by an accredited professional or financial adviser.

Division 5—Compensation for non-economic loss

43—Lump sum compensation

- (1) Subject to this Act, if a worker suffers a compensable injury resulting in permanent impairment as assessed in accordance with section 43A, the worker is entitled (in addition to any entitlement apart from this section) to compensation for non-economic loss by way of a lump sum.
- (2) Subject to this section, the lump sum will be an amount that represents a portion of the prescribed sum calculated in accordance with the regulations.
- (3) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection (2) must provide for compensation that at least satisfies the requirements of Schedule 3 taking into account the assessment of whole of person impairment under this Division.
- (4) An entitlement does not arise under this section if the worker's degree of permanent impairment is less than 5%.
- (5) An entitlement does not arise under this section in relation to a psychiatric impairment.
- (6) If a worker suffers 2 or more compensable injuries arising from the same trauma—
 - (a) the injuries may together be treated as 1 injury to the extent set out in the WorkCover Guidelines (and assessed together using any combination or other principle set out in the WorkCover Guidelines); and
 - (b) the worker is not entitled to receive compensation by way of lump sum under subsection (2) in respect of those injuries in excess of the prescribed sum.
- (7) If—
 - (a) a compensable injury consists of the aggravation, acceleration, exacerbation, deterioration or recurrence of a prior compensable injury; and
 - (b) compensation by way of lump sum has been previously paid under this section, or a corresponding previous enactment, there will be a reduction of the lump sum payable under this section in respect of the injury by the amount of the previous payment unless such a reduction is incorporated into the provisions of the WorkCover Guidelines.

- (8) For the purposes of this section, the prescribed sum is—
 - (a) unless a regulation has been made under paragraph (b)—$400 000 (indexed); or
 - (b) a greater amount prescribed by regulation for the purposes of this definition.
- (9) In connection with the operation of subsection (8)—
 - (a) the amount to be applied with respect to a particular injury is the amount applying under that subsection at the time of the occurrence of that injury; and
 - (b) an amount prescribed by regulation under paragraph (b) of that subsection must be indexed so as to provide annual adjustments according to changes in the Consumer Price Index.
- (10) For the purposes of this section, any degree of impairment will be assessed in accordance with section 43A (and the WorkCover Guidelines).
- (11) Compensation is not payable under this section after the death of the worker concerned.
- (12) In this section—

WorkCover Guidelines means the guidelines published under section 43A.

43A—Assessment of impairment

- (1) This section sets out a scheme for assessing the degree of impairment that applies to a compensable injury that results in permanent impairment.
- (2) An assessment—
 - (a) must be made in accordance with the WorkCover Guidelines; and
 - (b) must be made by a legally qualified medical practitioner who holds a current accreditation issued by the Corporation for the purposes of this section.
- (3) The Minister will publish guidelines (the "WorkCover Guidelines") for the purposes of section 43 and this section.
- (4) The guidelines under subsection (3)—
 - (a) must be published in the Gazette; and
 - (b) may adopt or incorporate the provisions of other publications, whether with or without modification or addition and whether in force at a particular time or from time to time; and
 - (c) must incorporate a methodology that arrives at an assessment of the degree of impairment of the whole person; and
 - (d) may specify procedures to be followed in connection with an assessment for the purposes of this Division; and
 - (e) may have effect on a day specified by the Minister by notice in the Gazette; and

- (f) may be amended or substituted by the Minister from time to time.
- (5) The Minister must, before publishing or amending the WorkCover Guidelines, consult with—
- (a) the Australian Medical Association (South Australia) Incorporated; and
 - (b) any other prescribed body.
- (6) The Corporation will establish an accreditation scheme for the purposes of subsection (2)(b).
- (7) The accreditation scheme—
- (a) may provide for a term or period of accreditation, and for the suspension or cancellation of accreditation on specified grounds; and
 - (b) may specify terms or conditions of accreditation; and
 - (c) may be amended or substituted by the Corporation from time to time.
- (8) An assessment of the degree of impairment resulting from an injury for the purposes of this Division must—
- (a) be made after the injury has stabilised; and
 - (b) subject to subsection (9), be based on the worker's current impairment as at the date of assessment, including any changes in the signs and symptoms following any medical or surgical treatment undergone by the worker in respect of the injury.
- (9) An assessment must take into account the following principles:
- (a) if a worker presents for assessment in relation to injuries which occurred on different dates, the impairments are to be assessed chronologically by date of injury;
 - (b) impairments from unrelated injuries or causes are to be disregarded in making an assessment;
 - (c) assessments are to comply with any other requirements specified by the WorkCover Guidelines or prescribed by the regulations.
- (10) An amendment or substitution in relation to the WorkCover Guidelines under subsection (4)(d) will only apply in respect of an injury occurring on or after the date the amendment or substitution takes effect.
- (11) A number determined under the WorkCover Guidelines with respect to a value of a person's degree of impairment may be rounded up or down according to any principle set out in the WorkCover Guidelines.

43B—No disadvantage—compensation table

- (1) If—
- (a) a worker suffers a compensable injury that gives rise to an entitlement to compensation under sections 43 and 43A; and
 - (b) the compensable injury is a loss mentioned in the table in Schedule 3A; and

- (c) the amount of compensation payable under sections 43 and 43A in respect of that injury is less than the amount applying under the table in Schedule 3A in respect of that injury, then the worker is entitled to compensation equal to the amount applying under the table (and, if relevant, subsection (2)) instead of the compensation payable under sections 43 and 43A.

- (2) If a worker suffers 2 or more injuries mentioned in the table in Schedule 3A arising from the same trauma, the worker is not entitled in any case to receive compensation under this section in excess of $254 100 (indexed) (despite the operation of subsection (1) and the table).
- (3) Compensation is not payable under this section after the death of the worker concerned.

Division 6—Compensation payable on death

44—Compensation payable on death—weekly payments

- (1) Subject to this Act, where a worker dies as a result of a compensable injury, compensation in the form of weekly payments is payable as follows:
- (a) a dependent spouse or domestic partner is entitled to weekly payments equal to—
- (i) in the case of total dependency—50%;
 - (ii) in the case of partial dependency—such lesser percentage as may be fixed by the Corporation having regard to the extent of the dependency,
- of the amount of the notional weekly earnings of the deceased worker;
- (b) a dependent child (being an orphaned child) is entitled to weekly payments equal to—
- (i) in the case of total dependency—25%;
 - (ii) in the case of partial dependency—such lesser percentage as may be fixed by the Corporation having regard to the extent of the dependency,
- of the amount of the notional weekly earnings of the deceased worker;
- (d) a dependent child (not being an orphaned child) is entitled to weekly payments equal to—
- (i) in the case of total dependency—12½ per cent;
 - (ii) in the case of partial dependency—such lesser percentage as may be fixed by the Corporation having regard to the extent of the dependency,
- of the amount of the notional weekly earnings of the deceased worker;
- (e) a dependent relative (not being a spouse, domestic partner or child) is entitled to such compensation by way of weekly payments as may be determined by the Corporation having regard to—

Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986—1.7.2013 to 30.6.2015—repealed

Part 4—Compensation

Division 6—Compensation payable on death

- (i) the extent of the relative's dependency on the deceased worker;
 - (ii) the earning capacity of the relative;
 - (iii) the relative's means;
 - (iv) the extent of any other benefits provided under this Act in respect of the worker's death.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), where a worker and the worker's spouse or domestic partner jointly contributed to the support of a dependent child immediately before the occurrence of the compensable injury that resulted in the worker's death, any contribution to the support of the child from the worker's spouse or domestic partner shall be disregarded in determining whether the child is a dependant and, if so, the extent of the child's dependency.
- (5) Where—
 - (a) a worker dies leaving a spouse or domestic partner and a dependent child; and
 - (b) the spouse or domestic partner subsequently dies,the child (if still eligible to receive weekly payments under this section) shall then be entitled to receive weekly payments under subsection (1)(b) as an orphaned child.
- (6) Compensation is payable, if the Corporation so decides, to a spouse or domestic partner or child of a deceased worker who, although not dependent on the worker at the time of the worker's death, suffers a change of circumstances that may, if the worker had survived, have resulted in the spouse or domestic partner or child becoming dependent on the worker.
- (7) Weekly payments shall not be made to a dependent child under this section unless—
 - (a) the child is under the age of 18 years; or
 - (b) the child is a full-time student at an educational institution approved by the Corporation for the purposes of this paragraph and is under the age of 26 years; or
 - (c) the child is, by reason of physical or mental injury, incapable of earning a living.
- (8) Weekly payments shall not be paid under this section beyond the date at which such payments would, assuming that the worker had survived but had been permanently incapacitated for work, have ceased to be payable to the worker.
- (9) Where weekly payments payable under this section would but for this subsection exceed in aggregate the amount of the weekly payments to which the worker would have been entitled in the event of total and permanent incapacity, the weekly payments shall be proportionately reduced so as not to exceed that amount.
- (10) Where a person who is entitled to a payment under this section is under the age of 18 years, the payment may, if the Corporation so determines, be made wholly or in part to a guardian or trustee for the benefit of that person.

- (11) Subject to subsection (12), where the child of a deceased worker who is entitled to weekly payments under this section is under the age of 18 years and is in the care of a person other than a dependent spouse or domestic partner of the worker, that person shall, if the Corporation so determines, be entitled to a supplementary allowance to assist in the care of the child until—
- (a) the child attains the age of 18 years; or
 - (b) the person ceases to have the care of the child,
- whichever first occurs.
- (12) Where a child is by reason of a physical or mental injury, incapable of earning a living, the Corporation may pay a supplementary allowance under subsection (11) during the period of incapacity even though the child has attained the age of 18 years.
- (13) Where the worker had received compensation under Division 4B, a person is not eligible for weekly payments under this section to the extent (if any) that those payments would coincide with a period in respect of which the compensation under Division 4B was paid but otherwise weekly payments are payable under this section as if compensation had not been paid under that Division.
- (14) A liability to make weekly payments under this section may, on application by the person entitled to the weekly payments, be commuted to a liability to make a capital payment that is actuarially equivalent to the weekly payments.
- (15) However, the liability may only be commuted if the actuarial equivalent of the weekly payments does not exceed the prescribed sum (within the meaning of section 43).
- (16) The Corporation has (subject to this section) an absolute discretion to commute or not to commute a liability under this section, and the Corporation's decision to make or not to make commutation is not reviewable (but a decision on the amount of a commutation is reviewable).
- (17) If the Corporation decides to make a commutation and makes an offer under this section, the Corporation cannot, without the agreement of the applicant, subsequently revoke its decision to make the commutation.
- (18) In calculating the actuarial equivalent of weekly payments, the principles (and any discount, decrement or inflation rate) prescribed by regulation must be applied.
- (19) A commutation discharges the Corporation's liability to make weekly payments to which the commutation relates.

45—Review of weekly payments

- (1) The Corporation may on its own initiative and shall if requested by an employer or the person to whom weekly payments are payable, review the amount of weekly payments payable to any person under this Division.
- (2) A request for a review of the amount of weekly payments payable under this Division may not be made within 6 months from the completion of an earlier review.
- (3) The amount of the weekly payments payable under this Division shall be reviewed at least once in each year.

- (4) On a review under this section the Corporation shall make any necessary adjustments to the amount of weekly payments—
- (a) to reflect changes in the income or earning capacity of the person to whom the weekly payments are payable and any other relevant changes in the circumstances of that person; and
 - (b) where the review is an annual review conducted in pursuance of subsection (3)—to reflect changes in the average minimum award rates since payments were commenced under this Division or an adjustment was last made under this section (as may be appropriate).
- (5) For the purposes of a review under this section, the Corporation may, by notice in writing to a person who is receiving weekly payments under this Division, require that person to produce evidence to the satisfaction of the Corporation of—
- (a) income;
 - (b) earning capacity;
 - (c) any other circumstances that are relevant to the payment, or the amount, of weekly benefits.
- (6) If a person fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (5) within the time allowed in the notice, the Corporation may suspend weekly payments to that person.
- (7) Where the Corporation proposes the reduction of weekly payments to a person on a review under this section the Corporation shall, at least 21 days before the proposal is to take effect, give notice in writing to the person—
- (a) containing such information as the regulations may require as to the grounds on which weekly payments are to be reduced; and
 - (b) informing the person of the person's rights to have the Corporation's decision reviewed.

45A—Compensation payable on death—lump sums

- (1) In this section—

child means a person who—

- (a) is under the age of 18 years; or
- (b) is a full-time student at an educational institution approved by the Corporation for the purposes of this paragraph and is under the age of 26 years; or
- (c) is, by reason of physical or mental injury, incapable of earning a living; dependent child means a child, including an orphaned child, totally, mainly or partially dependent on the worker's earnings; dependent partner means a spouse or domestic partner totally or mainly dependent on the worker's earnings; partially dependent partner means a spouse or domestic partner who is to any extent dependent on the worker's earnings; prescribed sum means the prescribed sum under section 43 (as at the time of the occurrence of the compensable injury that resulted in the death of the relevant worker and less any amount paid to the relevant worker under section 43).

- (2) For the purposes of this section, in determining whether a spouse or domestic partner was wholly or mainly dependent on a worker's earnings at the time of death of the worker or other relevant time, no regard will be had to any money which the spouse or domestic partner had earned or was earning by his or her own personal exertion or to any savings arising from any such earnings.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, if a worker and the worker's spouse or domestic partner jointly contributed to the support of a dependent child immediately before the occurrence of the compensable injury that resulted in the worker's death, any contribution to the support of the child from the worker's spouse or domestic partner will be disregarded in determining whether the child is a dependant and, if so, the extent of the child's dependency.
- (4) Subject to this Act, if a worker dies as a result of a compensable injury, compensation in the form of a lump sum is payable in accordance with this section.
- (5) If the worker leaves a dependent partner, or dependent partners, and no dependent child, the amount of compensation is an amount equal to the prescribed sum payable to the dependent partner or, if there is more than 1, in equal shares to the dependent partners.
- (6) If the worker leaves no dependent partner and no dependent children other than an orphan child or orphan children, the amount of compensation is an amount equal to the prescribed sum payable to that orphan child or, if there are 2 or more, in equal shares for those children.
- (7) If the worker leaves a dependent partner, or dependent partners, and 1, and only 1, dependent child, the amount of compensation is—

Division 7A—Special provisions for commencement of weekly payments after initial notification of injury

50A—Interpretation

In this Division—

initial notification means the notification of an injury that is given to an employer (if the worker is in employment) and the Corporation, in the manner and form required by the Provisional Payment Guidelines, by the worker or by a person acting on behalf of the worker (for example, by an employer or a medical expert);

Provisional Payment Guidelines means guidelines published by the Minister from time to time in the Gazette for the purposes of this Division.

50B—Commencement of weekly payments following initial notification of injury

- (1) Provisional weekly payments of compensation by the employer or the Corporation are to commence within 7 days after initial notification of an injury by the worker, unless the Corporation determines that there is a reasonable excuse for not commencing those weekly payments.
- (2) Weekly payments under subsection (1) are to be made—
 - (a) by the employer or the Corporation in accordance with the incidence of liability determined under the Provisional Payment Guidelines; and
 - (b) in accordance with any other requirements under the Provisional Payment Guidelines.
- (3) A reasonable excuse under subsection (1) must be a reasonable excuse under the Provisional Payment Guidelines.

50C—Status of payments

- (1) The payment of provisional weekly payments of compensation under this Division is on the basis of the provisional acceptance of liability for a period of up to 13 weeks determined by the Corporation having regard to the nature of the injury and the period of incapacity.

- (2) The acceptance of liability on a provisional basis does not constitute an admission of liability by the employer or the Corporation under this Act or independently of this Act.
- (3) A payment under this Division will be taken to constitute the payment of a weekly payment of compensation under Division 4 (and the other provisions of this Act will, subject to this Division or any provision made by the regulations, apply accordingly).
- (4) Without limiting the operation of any other section, the employer or the Corporation may decide to discontinue weekly payments under this section on any ground set out in the Provisional Payment Guidelines.

50D—Worker to be notified if weekly payments are not commenced

If weekly payments of compensation are not commenced because of a reasonable excuse under the Provisional Payment Guidelines, the Corporation must within the prescribed period give the worker notice in writing that there is a reasonable excuse for not commencing weekly payments of compensation and include in that notice—

- (a) details of that reasonable excuse; and
- (b) a statement in the designated form about the worker's rights under this Act (including to make a claim under Division 8).

50E—Notice of commencement of weekly payments

As soon as practicable after weekly payments of compensation commence under this Division, the employer or Corporation (as required under the Provisional Payment Guidelines) must give the worker notice in writing—

- (a) notifying the worker that weekly payments of compensation to the worker have commenced on the basis of provisional acceptance of liability; and
- (b) setting out a statement in the designated form about the operation of this Act in relation to the payments and the making of a claim.

50F—Obligations of worker

- (1) The Corporation may, on or after the commencement of weekly payments of compensation under this Division, require the worker to provide—
 - (a) a medical certificate in a designated form certifying as to the worker's incapacity for work; and
 - (b) other information of a prescribed kind.
- (2) Weekly payments of compensation under this Division may be discontinued by the Corporation if the worker fails to comply with a requirement under this section within 7 days after it is served on the worker.

50G—Liability to make weekly payments not affected by making of claim

- (1) A liability to make weekly payments of compensation pursuant to the acceptance of liability on a provisional basis under this Division is not affected by the making of a claim for compensation.

- (2) If the period for making payment of provisional weekly payments ends before the determination of a claim under Division 8, an employer or the Corporation may (but need not), subject to any provision made by the Provisional Payment Guidelines, continue to make weekly payments under this Division until the determination of the claim or until otherwise determined by the employer or the Corporation (before the determination of the claim).

50H—Set-offs and rights of recovery

- (1) An amount paid under this Division may be set off against a liability to make weekly payments of compensation under Division 4.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), if an employer or the Corporation makes 1 or more payments under this Division and it is subsequently determined that the worker was not entitled to compensation under this Act, the employer or the Corporation may, subject to and in accordance with the regulations, recover the amount or amounts paid as a debt from the worker.
- (3) A right of recovery under subsection (2) only arises if the worker has acted dishonestly in making an application or providing information for the purposes of this Division or any other provisions of this Act.

- (7) In this section—

prescribed period, in relation to the making of a claim in pursuance of this section, means the period of 6 months commencing on the day on which the entitlement to make the claim arises.

53—Determination of claim

- (1) On receipt of a claim for compensation the Corporation shall make such investigations and inquiries as it thinks necessary to determine the claim.
- (2) For the purpose of satisfying itself of the nature, extent or probable duration of an injury, the Corporation may require a worker to submit to an examination by a recognised medical expert nominated by the Corporation from a list of approved experts.

Part 4—Compensation

Division 8—Notices of injuries and claims for compensation

- (4b) If an employer notifies the Corporation, before the Corporation determines a claim, that the employer disputes that the injury is compensable under this Act, the Corporation must, before determining the claim, make a reasonable investigation into the grounds on which the employer disputes the compensability of the injury.
- (5) As soon as practicable after determining a claim for compensation the Corporation shall give notice in writing of the determination—
- (a) to the claimant; and
 - (b) to any employer who may be directly affected.

 - (b) the claimant deliberately withheld information that should have been supplied to the Corporation and the original determination was, in consequence, based on inadequate information; or
 - (c) the redetermination is appropriate by reason of new information that was not available and could not reasonably have been discovered by due enquiry at the time that the original determination was made; or
 - (ca) the redetermination is for the purposes of section 4(11) and is appropriate by reason of the stabilising of a compensable injury; or
 - (d) the original determination was made as the result of an administrative error and the redetermination is made within two weeks of the making of the original determination; or
 - (e) the redetermination is made in prescribed circumstances.
- (7b) A regulation made for the purposes of subsection (7a)(e) cannot come into operation until the time for disallowance has passed.
- (8) The redetermination of a claim does not give rise to any right on the part of the Corporation to recover from the worker money paid under a previous determination unless the previous determination was made in consequence of the worker's fraud.

Division 9—Miscellaneous

Subdivision 1—Limitations on liability

54—Limitation of employer's liability

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), no liability attaches to an employer in respect of a compensable injury arising from employment by that employer except—
 - (a) a liability under this Act.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect a liability arising out of the use of a motor vehicle, being a liability against which the employer was or ought to have been insured under the law of compulsory third-party motor vehicle insurance.
- (3) A court before which an action is brought against an employer for non-economic loss arising from a compensable injury (being an injury that arises out of the use of a motor vehicle and gives rise to a liability of a kind referred to in subsection (2)) shall make due allowance for any lump sum paid or payable under Division 5 or 6 to the person by or on whose behalf the action is brought.
- (4a) Where—
 - (a) a worker suffers a compensable injury (not being an injury that arises out of the use of a motor vehicle and gives rise to a liability of a kind referred to in subsection (2)); and
 - (b) the injury is attributable to the negligence of another worker—
 - (i) who was acting in the course of employment with the same employer; and
 - (ii) whose negligence did not arise from, or in the course of, serious and wilful misconduct, the worker has no right of action against the other worker.

- (4b) Where—
 - (a) a worker suffers a compensable injury (not being an injury that arises out of the use of a motor vehicle and gives rise to a liability of a kind referred to in subsection (2)); and
 - (b) action is taken against a person other than the employer for damages in respect of the injury, the other person has no right to recover contribution from the employer.

- (5) Where—
 - (a) compensation is paid or payable under this Act in respect of a compensable injury;
 - (b) a right of action exists against a person other than the employer for damages in respect of the injury, the person by whom the compensation is paid or payable is entitled to recover from that other person the amount of the compensation in accordance with subsection (7).

(6) Where—

- (a) a compensable injury arises out of the use of a motor vehicle;
- (b) the employer was or ought to have been insured against liability for the injury under the law of compulsory third-party motor vehicle insurance;
- (c) compensation is paid or payable by the Corporation or a self-insured employer under this Act in respect of the injury, the Corporation or a self-insured employer (as the case requires) is entitled to recover the amount of the compensation in accordance with subsection (7).

(7) Where—

- (a) compensation is paid or payable to a person (the injured party) under this Act;
- (b) the injured party has received, or is entitled to, damages from another person (the wrongdoer) in pursuance of rights arising from the same trauma as gave rise to the rights to compensation under this Act;
- (c) the person by whom the compensation is paid or payable under this Act (the claimant) is entitled to recover the amount of the compensation by virtue of subsection (5) or (6), then the following provisions apply:

- (d) the claimant is entitled to recover the amount of compensation paid or payable under this Act from the wrongdoer or the injured party but subject to the following qualifications:
 - (i) no amount may be recovered from the wrongdoer in excess of the wrongdoer's unsatisfied liability to the injured party; and
 - (ii) the claimant must exhaust its rights against the wrongdoer before recovering against the injured party; and
 - (iii) no amount may be recovered from the injured party in excess of the amount of the damages received by the injured party; and
 - (iv) in a case involving contributory negligence on the part of a worker, the amount to be recovered from the wrongdoer by the claimant under this subsection must be adjusted to the extent that is just and equitable having regard to the extent to which the wrongdoer establishes that the contributory negligence contributed to the occurrence of the relevant injury;
- (e) the claimant shall, on giving notice to a wrongdoer of an entitlement to recover compensation under this section, have a first charge, to the extent of the entitlement, on damages payable by the wrongdoer to the injured party;
- (f) any amount recovered by the claimant against a wrongdoer under this subsection shall be deemed to be an amount paid in or towards satisfaction of the wrongdoer's liability to the injured party;
- (g) an action for the recovery of compensation under this subsection—
 - (i) may be heard and determined in proceedings brought in the District Court of South Australia; and

- (ii) must be commenced within 3 years after the date of the trauma referred to in paragraph (b).
- (7a) This section is intended to apply in relation to any action that arises out of the occurrence of a compensable injury—
 - (a) irrespective of where the injury occurred; and
 - (b) —
 - (i) irrespective of whether the action is brought before a court of this State or before a court of some other state, territory or country; and
 - (ii) notwithstanding that the court before which the action is brought would not (but for this subsection) apply, or take into account, South Australian law.
- (7b) If—
 - (a) an action is brought in respect of a compensable injury in a court that is not a court of the State; and
 - (b) notwithstanding subsection (7a), the court awards an amount against an employer that is in excess of the amount (if any) that would have been awarded in a similar action before a court of the State; and
 - (c) the Corporation is liable to pay the amount awarded by virtue of insurance provided under this Act, the Corporation is entitled to recover the excess from the person to whom the amount is awarded.

- (7c) In the course of proceedings under subsection (7b) a court may—

Maximum penalty: $25 000.

- (7) Nothing in this section affects the adjustment of a premium or the imposition of a fine under another provision of this Act.

68—Employer categories

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the regulations may, for the purposes of this Division, divide employers into various categories.
- (2) The Corporation may, if it considers it appropriate to do so and after applying criteria or factors specified by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection (if any), assign an employer to a category that is different to the category that would apply under subsection (1).

69—Classes of industry

- (1) The Corporation may, for the purposes of the calculation of premiums, divide the industries carried on in the State into various classes.
- (2) The Corporation may determine any question as to the class of industry in which an employer employs workers.
- (3) In determining the class of industry in which an employer employs workers the following provisions will be applied:
- (a) if the employer employs a worker in 2 or more classes of industry—
 - (i) the worker will, subject to any determination by the Corporation to the contrary, be treated as if solely employed in the class of industry in which he or she is predominantly employed; and
 - (ii) if it is not possible to determine which is the predominant class, the worker will be treated as if solely employed in a class of industry determined by the Corporation;

- (b) subject to paragraphs (c) and (d)—if the employer employs workers in different classes of industry all workers employed by the employer will, if the Corporation so determines, be treated as engaged in the predominant class of industry;
 - (c) if the employer employs workers at 2 or more workplaces, all workers employed at a particular workplace will, if the Corporation so determines, be treated as engaged in the predominant class of industry conducted at that workplace;
 - (d) in determining what is the predominant class of industry, the Corporation will have regard to—
 - (i) the importance within the employer's total operations of each class of industry in which workers are employed; and
 - (ii) any other factor determined to be relevant by the Corporation.
 - (4) The Corporation may, as it thinks fit, review and revise a determination previously made under or for the purposes of this section.
 - (5) A revision may be made under subsection (4) at any time (including in respect of a period that is underway).

70—Industry rates and base premiums

- (1) The Corporation must, in relation to each class of industry, fix a rate (expressed as a percentage and to be called the industry premium rate) that is to be applied for the purposes of determining base premiums under subsection (9).
- (2) The rates under subsection (1)—
 - (a) must be fixed by the Corporation by notice in the Gazette; and
 - (b) may be varied by the Corporation by subsequent notice in the Gazette.
- (3) Subject to subsection (5), a percentage fixed under subsection (1) in relation to a class of industry must not exceed 7.5%.
- (4) In fixing the percentage applicable to a particular class of industry the Corporation must apply any criteria or principles specified by the regulations.
- (5) The Corporation may fix a percentage in excess of 7.5% in relation to a particular class of industry if in each of 2 consecutive years the Corporation's estimate of the aggregate cost of claims in respect of injuries attributable to traumas occurring in the year in the relevant class exceeds 30% of the aggregate remuneration paid to workers in that class that is used for the purposes of the calculation of premium.
- (6) The Corporation may apply any principle determined by the Corporation to be appropriate for the purposes of making an estimate of the aggregate cost of any claims (or any claims of a specified class under subsection (5)).
- (7) A percentage fixed under subsection (5) must not exceed 20%.
- (8) A percentage fixed under subsection (5) must be reviewed annually by the Corporation and applies until it is revoked or varied by the Corporation.

- (9) A base premium under this Act, in its application to a particular industry, is determined as follows:

$$BP = \text{remuneration} \times \text{industry premium rate}$$

Where

BP is the base premium remuneration is the remuneration payable by an employer to workers employed in the particular industry industry premium rate is the industry premium rate for the relevant class of industry.

Subdivision 4—Premiums (calculation and application)

71—Premiums

- (1) A premium payable by an employer in relation to a particular period (other than an employer who is not liable to pay a premium under this Division) will be—
- (a) determined in accordance with a WorkCover premium order under this section; or
 - (b) to the extent that a WorkCover premium order does not apply to the employer—the aggregate base premiums applying to that employer in respect of all classes of industry in which the employer employs workers (subject to any adjustments or requirements that apply in the circumstances).
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), the Corporation may, after consultation with the Minister and applying any principle specified by the Minister for the purposes of this section, fix the manner in which a premium payable by an employer (or a person who proposes to become an employer) will be calculated.
- (3) The Corporation must, for the purposes of subsection (2), publish an order (or orders) in the Gazette (and any such order will be referred to as a WorkCover premium order).
- (4) A WorkCover premium order will take effect from the commencement of a financial year specified by the order (and will then apply, including in relation to a succeeding financial year, until superseded by another WorkCover premium order).
- (5) A WorkCover premium order may—
- (a) apply generally or be limited in its application by reference to specified factors or exceptions; and
 - (b) apply differently according to—
 - (i) categories of employers; and
 - (ii) different factors of a specified kind; and
 - (c) authorise any matter to be determined, applied or regulated by a specified person or body,
- or may do any combination of these things.

- (6) Without limiting a preceding subsection, a WorkCover premium order may—
- (a) apply any principle relevant to the claims experience of a particular category or class of employer, or the size of an employer (after applying such principles or assumptions as the Corporation thinks fit); and
 - (b) fix and apply various principles, weights, adjustments, caps, limits (including limits on the reduction of premiums), assumptions or exclusions according to specified factors; and
 - (c) without limiting any other provision, specify any adjustment or assumption relating to the remuneration paid to workers over a particular period (including a period into the future); and
 - (d) allow employers who satisfy any specified criteria, on application and at the discretion of the Corporation, to pay a premium determined by the Corporation according to an alternative set of principles—
 - (i) specified in the order; or
 - (ii) specified in another WorkCover premium order that applies in the circumstances; or
 - (iii) agreed between the Corporation and the employer; and
 - (e) require that employers of a specified class must provide a deposit, bond or guarantee, or some other form of security, specified in the order; and
 - (f) make any other provision or impose any other requirement prescribed by the regulations.
- (7) Subject to any remission or reduction of premium granted by the Corporation, where—
- (a) the amount of premium payable by an employer in respect of a designated period would, apart from this subsection, be less than the designated minimum premium; or
 - (b) an employer is registered but no premium would, apart from this subsection, be payable by the employer for a designated period,
- the premium payable by the employer for the designated period is the designated minimum premium.
- (8) For the purposes of subsection (7), the Corporation may, from time to time, as part of the WorkCover premium provisions, fix—
- (a) the designated period; and
 - (b) the designated minimum premium.
- (9) The Corporation may, if it considers that there is an error in a WorkCover premium order, after consultation with the Minister, amend the WorkCover premium order by notice in the Gazette.
- (10) A notice under subsection (9) may, if the notice so provides, take effect from a date that is earlier than its date of publication (being on or after the date on which the relevant WorkCover premium order took effect).

72—Premium stages

- (1) A premium in relation to a particular period (being a period determined by the Corporation) may be constituted by—
 - (a) an initial premium calculated on the basis of estimates and assumptions made at, or in relation to, the beginning of the period after applying any principles specified by the Corporation in the WorkCover premium provisions or in a WorkCover premium order;
 - (b) an adjusted premium at any time during the period based on applying any principles or requirements specified by the Corporation in the WorkCover premium provisions or in a WorkCover premium order;
 - (c) a hindsight premium calculated on the basis of actual amounts and information known or determined by the Corporation at the end of the period after applying any principles or requirements specified by the Corporation in the WorkCover premium provisions or in a WorkCover premium order.
- (2) Subject to this section, an initial premium will be payable by a date specified by the Corporation for the purposes of this subsection.
- (3) The Corporation may adjust a premium at any time during the relevant period and any amount that becomes due on account of that adjustment (the adjusted premium) will, subject to this section, be payable by a date specified by the Corporation for the purposes of this subsection.
- (4) A hindsight premium will be payable after the end of the relevant period by a date specified by the Corporation for the purposes of this subsection (unless a hindsight premium does not need to be paid).
- (5) If the Corporation so allows, an employer may elect to pay an initial premium or an adjusted premium by instalments, at such times and of such amounts as the Corporation may determine.
- (6) Subject to this Act, if the initial premium, and an adjusted premium (if any), paid by an employer in relation to a particular period exceed the employer's liability to pay premium for that period, the Corporation may at the Corporation's discretion (but subject to the regulations)—
 - (a) refund the difference to the employer; or
 - (b) set off the difference against existing or future liabilities of the employer to make payments of premium under this Part.
- (7) The Corporation may grant discounts or other incentives in order to encourage the payment of any premium in advance.
- (8) The Corporation may, in prescribed circumstances, remit any premium payable by an employer under this section wholly or in part.
- (9) This section applies subject to—
 - (a) any alternative arrangements agreed between the Corporation and an employer as part of an alternative set of principles applied under section 71(6)(d); or
 - (b) any alternative requirements specified by the Corporation (by notice to a particular employer or by notice in the Gazette); or

- (c) without limiting paragraph (a) or (b), any alternative arrangements agreed between the Corporation and the employer that allow the employer to pay any premium on aggregate remuneration paid during a preceding period and after taking into account any other matter or factor specified by the Corporation for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (10) A notice under subsection (9)—
- (a) may be varied by the Corporation from time to time by further notice; and
 - (b) will have effect according to its terms.

72A—Grouping provisions

- (1) For the purposes of this section, 2 or more employers will, if the Corporation so determines, constitute a group if—
- (a) they are capable of being treated as a member of a group under the Payroll Tax Act 2009; or
 - (b) they are related in some other way.
- (2) Where 2 or more employers constitute a group—
- (a) unless the Corporation otherwise determines, each employer in the group will be liable to pay premiums in accordance with a WorkCover premium order under this Division (rather than on the basis of aggregate base premiums); and
 - (b) the Corporation may apply any claims experience, rating or other principle to all members of the group on a combined basis (rather than on an individual basis) in accordance with the provisions of a WorkCover premium order; and
 - (c) the Corporation may aggregate the employers in such manner (in any way or for such other purposes) as the Corporation thinks fit under a WorkCover premium order (including by treating 1 employer within the group as if the employer were the employer of all workers employed by the members of the group or by rating them together or according to a common factor).
- (3) Despite being grouped, each employer will be taken to be subject to the relevant WorkCover premium provisions in its own right (but with premiums being aggregated or divided according to principles specified in a WorkCover premium order).
- (4) The employers in a group are jointly and severally liable for the payment of premiums attributable to the group.
- (5) This section applies subject to any alternative arrangements agreed between the Corporation and the members of the group of employers as part of an alternative set of principles applied under section 71(6)(d).
- (6) The Corporation may, if it is satisfied that 2 or more employers who should have been grouped under this section have not been so grouped on account of false or misleading information, or insufficient or defective information, provided to the Corporation—
- (a) make any determination or redetermination, and impose any premium, on a retrospective basis; and
 - (b) impose on each employer a fine (not exceeding an amount calculated under the regulations) fixed by the Corporation.

- (7) The Corporation may for any proper reason remit a fine imposed under subsection (6)(b) wholly or in part.

Division 5—Self-insured employers—fees

72B—Self-insured employers—fees

- (1) A self-insured employer is liable to pay a fee to the Corporation under this section.
- (2) The fee payable by a self-insured employer will be a percentage of the base premium that would have been payable by the employer if the employer were not registered as a self-insured employer and liable to pay a base premium under this Part and will be fixed by the Corporation with a view to raising from self-insured employers—
- (a) a fair contribution towards the administrative expenditure of the Corporation; and
 - (b) a fair contribution towards the cost of rehabilitation funding; and
 - (c) a fair contribution towards the costs of the system of dispute resolution established by this Act; and
 - (d) without limiting a preceding paragraph, a fair contribution towards the costs associated with the operation of Part 6C and Part 6D; and
 - (e) a fair contribution towards actual and prospective liabilities of the Corporation arising from the insolvency of employers.
- (3) If the Corporation is satisfied that there are good reasons for differentiating between different self-insured employers or classes of self-insured employers, the percentage on which the fee for self-insured employers is based may vary from self-insured employer to self-insured employer or from class to class.
- (4) If the measures taken by a self-insured employer—
- (a) to reduce the incidence of work related traumas and injuries; and
 - (b) to provide for the rehabilitation of workers who have suffered compensable injuries; and
 - (c) to provide for the administration of claims,
- conform to or exceed standards determined by the Corporation for the purposes of this subsection, the Corporation may grant to the self-insured employer such remission of the fee that would otherwise be payable by the self-insured employer as the Corporation thinks fit.
- (5) A fee payable under this section must be paid by a date specified by the Corporation.

Division 6—Remissions and supplementary payments

72C—Remissions and supplementary payments

- (1) Subject to this section, the Corporation may, in relation to a particular employer, after having regard to 1 or more of the matters specified under subsection (2) (being a matter that the Corporation determines to be appropriate and relevant)—
- (a) grant the employer a remission of part of a premium or fee that would otherwise be payable by the employer; or

- (b) impose a supplementary payment on the employer (to be paid in addition to the premiums or fees payable by the employer under this Part).
- (2) The following matters are specified for the purposes of subsection (1):
- (a) the adequacy or inadequacy of measures taken by the employer to reduce the incidence of work related traumas and injuries;
 - (b) the incidence or costs of claims for compensable injuries suffered by the employer's workers (disregarding claims of a class excluded from the ambit of this paragraph by regulation);
 - (c) the rehabilitation facilities or services for injured workers provided by the employer;
 - (d) the absence or inadequacy of rehabilitation facilities or services provided by the employer;
 - (e) the employer's practices and procedures in connection with the appointment and work of a rehabilitation and return to work co-ordinator under Part 3 (including with respect to compliance with any relevant guidelines published by the Corporation for the purposes of section 28D);
 - (f) the employer's practices as to the retention, employment or re-employment of injured workers (and, in particular, any failure on the employer's part to provide, in accordance with this Act, employment to a worker who has suffered a compensable injury in the employer's employment);
 - (g) any other matter (whether similar or dissimilar to those referred to above) that the Corporation determines to be appropriate and relevant.
- (3) The following provisions apply in connection with subsections (1) and (2):
- (a) a reference to an employer extends to another employer who is linked to the employer through a transfer of business;
 - (b) the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) to (f) (inclusive) of subsection (2) are not intended to establish any pattern or principle that must be applied by the Corporation under paragraph (g) of that subsection;
 - (c) if the Corporation imposes a supplementary payment, the Corporation may require the employer to observe conditions stipulated by the Corporation in a written notice to the employer and if an employer fails to comply with such a condition then the Corporation may impose on that employer a further supplementary payment;
 - (d) the Corporation may establish rehabilitation and return to work programs for injured workers on terms under which an employer who participates in the program by providing employment for such workers and complying with other conditions of the scheme determined is entitled to a remission of premium that would otherwise be payable by the employer on a basis set out in the scheme.
- (4) The Corporation may, for any proper reason—
- (a) adjust or revoke a remission of any premium or fee granted, or a supplementary payment imposed, under this section; or
 - (b) vary or revoke a condition imposed under this section.

- (5) A remission or supplementary payment will be provided or payable in accordance with a scheme prescribed by the regulations.

- (5) If the Corporation specifies an estimate under subsection (3)(a), the amount of the estimate will be used for the purposes of the calculation of any relevant statutory payment under this Part.
- (6) The Corporation may, from time to time as the Corporation thinks fit, vary or revoke a notice under subsection (3), or make a new specification or impose a new requirement under subsection (3).

- (2) In acting under subsection (1), the Corporation may have regard to any matter considered to be relevant by the Corporation.

72H—Further adjustments

- (1) If the Corporation considers that a statutory payment payable by an employer should be adjusted—
 - (a) because of a change in—
 - (i) the category to which the employer belongs; or
 - (ii) the class of industry or industries in which the employer employs workers; or
 - (iii) the workplace or workplaces at which the employer employs workers; or
 - (b) because of the specification of an estimate or the making of a determination under section 72E(3); or

- (c) because of information provided under section 72F; or
 - (d) because of the outcome of a review under section 72G; or
 - (e) because of any other circumstance prescribed by the regulations,
- the Corporation may issue to the employer a notice of adjustment of the statutory payment.
- (2) If an additional amount is payable under a notice of adjustment under subsection (1), the additional amount is payable in accordance with a determination of the Corporation (and may be recovered as an unpaid statutory payment in a case of default).
 - (3) If an excess amount has been paid by the employer on account of a notice of adjustment under subsection (1), the Corporation may at the Corporation's discretion (but subject to the regulations)—

72I—Deferred payment

- (1) The Corporation may, on application by an employer, defer the payment of a statutory payment by the employer if satisfied that—
 - (a) the employer is in financial difficulties; but
 - (b) the employer has a reasonable prospect of overcoming the financial difficulties and the deferment would assist materially in overcoming those difficulties.
- (2) A deferment may be given under this section on conditions that the Corporation considers appropriate having regard to the objects of this Act.
- (3) The Corporation may, by written notice to the employer, cancel a deferment under this section.
- (4) If a deferment is cancelled, the employer must pay to the Corporation the amount covered by the deferment as required by the notice of cancellation.
- (5) Nothing in this section affects the ability of the Corporation to allow an employer to pay a statutory payment by instalments.

72J—Recovery on default

- (1) If an employer—
 - (a) fails or neglects to furnish a return when required by or under this Act; or
 - (b) furnishes a return that the Corporation has reasonable grounds to believe to be defective in any respect, the Corporation may make an assessment of any statutory payment payable by the employer on the basis of estimates made by the Corporation.

- (2) If an employer fails to pay a statutory payment, or the full amount of a statutory payment, as required under this Act, the Corporation may make an assessment of the amount payable by the employer (including on the basis of estimates made by the Corporation).
- (3) The Corporation may, as part of an assessment under subsection (1) or (2), impose on the employer a fine of an amount (not exceeding 3 times the amount assessed) fixed by the Corporation.
- (4) The Corporation may for any proper reason remit a fine imposed under subsection (3) wholly or in part.
- (5) An employer to whom a notice of an assessment or a fine under this section is given must pay the amount of the assessment or fine within the time allowed in the notice.

 - (a) the amount in arrears will, unless the Corporation determines otherwise, be increased by penalty interest at the prescribed rate; and

Maximum penalty: $10 000.

72L—Exercise of adjustment powers

The Corporation may exercise its powers under this Part more than once in relation to any particular period and regardless of whether or not—

- (a) any statutory payment has been fixed, demanded or paid; or

- (b) a period to which any determination or adjustment may apply has been completed or expired; or
- (c) the Corporation has already reviewed or adjusted any estimate, liability or payment under this Part; or
- (d) any circumstances have arisen that would, but for this section, stop the Corporation from conducting a review, or making a determination or adjustment.

72M—Review

- (1) If an employer considers that a decision of the Corporation as to—
 - (a) the estimate of remuneration that is to be used for the calculation of a statutory payment; or
 - (b) the fixing or assessment of a statutory payment; or
 - (c) the imposition of penalty interest or a fine; or
 - (d) the imposition or variation of a condition of a kind that may lead to the remission or imposition of a supplementary payment,is unreasonable, the board must, on application by the employer, review the decision.
- (2) An application for review does not suspend a liability to pay a statutory payment, penalty interest or a fine.
- (3) The review will be conducted, in accordance with procedures determined by the board, by the board itself, or by a committee or person to whom the board has delegated its powers of review under this section, and the board has an absolute discretion as to whether it will permit the employer or a representative of the employer to be heard orally on the review.
- (4) On review, the board may—
 - (a) alter an estimate of remuneration;
 - (b) alter a statutory payment or an assessment;
 - (c) quash or reduce penalty interest or a fine;
 - (d) direct the repayment of amounts overpaid;
 - (e) quash or vary a condition imposed by the Corporation.

72N—Payments to be made to Corporation

Any statutory payment, penalty interest or fine (other than a fine for an offence) under this Part will be payable to the Corporation (and may be recovered by the Corporation as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction).

72O—GST

- (1) A statutory payment under this Part is subject to any GST payable under A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Commonwealth) and any such GST is additionally payable by an employer.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not extend to a fine or any penalty interest imposed under this Part.

72P—Transfer of business

- (1) In a case involving any transfer of business, the Corporation may, as it thinks fit, apply any claims experience or other factor applying with respect to the business before the transfer to the employer who takes over the business on account of the transfer.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a reference to a business includes a reference to any form of undertaking.
- (3) Without limiting subsections (1) and (2), a transfer of business between 2 employers will be taken to occur if there is a connection between the 2 employers under section 311 of the Fair Work Act 2009 of the Commonwealth.

72Q—Reasonable mistake about application of Act

- (1) Despite any other provision of this Part, if the Corporation is satisfied that the reason for an employer failing to pay the correct amount of a statutory payment is that the employer believed on reasonable grounds that the employer would not be required to pay a statutory payment in respect of a particular worker because that worker's employment was not connected with this State by virtue of the operation of section 6, the employer is not liable to pay a fine or penalty interest on account of that particular failure.
- (2) However, if the employer's belief on reasonable grounds under subsection (1) was that under section 6 the particular worker's employment was connected with another State, subsection (1) does not apply unless at the time of the relevant failure the employer had workers compensation cover in respect of the worker under the law of that other State.
- (3) In this section—

State includes a Territory;

workers compensation cover means insurance or registration under the law of a State in respect of liability for statutory workers compensation under that law.

- (2) Where an employer employs workers in more than one class of industry, the Corporation may require the employer to keep an account and other information under subsection (1) in respect of each separate class.
- (3) Any accounts and other information required to be kept under this section must be kept within the State and in writing in the English language or so as to be readily accessible and convertible into writing in the English language.

Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation (Territorial Application of Act) Amendment Act 2006, Sch 1—Transitional provisions

1—Interpretation

In this Schedule—

amendments means amendments made to the principal Act by this Act;

commencement day means the day on which this Schedule comes into operation;

principal Act means the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986, and other terms used have meanings consistent with the meanings they have in the principal Act.

2—Application of amendments

The amendments do not apply in respect of a disability that occurred before the commencement day except to the extent prescribed by this Schedule.

3—Cases where disabilities occur before and after commencement of this Act

- (1) If the death of a worker results from both a disability that occurred before the commencement day and a disability that occurred on or after that day, the worker is, for the purposes of the application of the amendments to and in respect of the death of the worker, to be treated as having died as a result of the disability that occurred on or after that day.
- (2) If a period of incapacity for work resulted both from a disability that occurred before the commencement day and a disability that occurred on or after that day, the incapacity is, for the purposes of the application of the amendments to and in respect of that incapacity for work, to be treated as having resulted from a disability that occurred on or after that day.

- (3) Subclauses (1) and (2) do not affect any apportionment of liability or responsibility under the principal Act in a case where 1 or more of the disabilities occurred before the commencement day and 1 or more occurred on or after that day (but any such apportionment will only apply to the extent that a disability was compensable under the principal Act before the commencement day).

4—Claims made before the commencement of this Act

- (1) If—
- (a) a person suffered a disability before the commencement day; and
 - (b) a claim for compensation in respect of the disability (the original claim) was made under the principal Act but rejected (by notice in writing under the principal Act) on account of the operation of section 6 of the principal Act as in force at the time of the occurrence of the disability; and
 - (c) the original claim would have given rise to—
 - (i) an entitlement to compensation in the form of weekly payments under section 35 or 44 of the principal Act; or
 - (ii) an entitlement in the form of a funeral benefit under section 44(1)(a) of the principal Act; or
 - (iii) an entitlement to compensation in the form of a lump sum under section 44(1)(b)(i) of the principal Act,had the amendments been in force at the time of the occurrence of the disability; and
 - (d) the disability was not (and is not) compensable under a corresponding law,
- then the person who made the original claim will, on application to the Corporation made within 6 months after the commencement of this clause, be entitled to any relevant benefit under subclause (2).
- (2) A benefit under this subclause is any of the following (depending on what is relevant in the circumstances of the particular case):
- (a) —
 - (i) if the original claim was in respect of a disability that resulted in an incapacity for work—a payment of compensation represented by weekly payments for a period not exceeding 12 months of incapacity for work, based on—
 - (A) the extent and duration of the incapacity for work; and
 - (B) the worker's notional weekly earnings at the time of the incapacity (adjusted in accordance with any provision made by the regulations); and
 - (C) any other factor that would otherwise apply under section 35 of the principal Act that is applied by regulations made for the purposes of this subparagraph (modified in any manner prescribed by the regulations);

- (ii) if the original claim was in respect of a disability that resulted in the death of a worker—a payment of compensation represented by weekly payments for a period not exceeding 12 months for loss of support, based on—
 - (A) the relationship between the worker and the claimant (as would apply under section 44 of the principal Act); and
 - (B) the worker's notional weekly earnings at the time of death (adjusted in accordance with any provision made by the regulations); and
 - (C) any other factor that would otherwise apply under section 44 of the principal Act that is applied by regulations made for the purposes of this subparagraph (modified in any manner prescribed by the regulations);
 - (b) compensation for any costs of a kind described in section 32(2) of the principal Act incurred by a worker in consequence of having suffered a relevant disability;
 - (c) compensation in the form of a funeral benefit under section 44(1)(a) of the principal Act (as determined at the time of death of the worker and adjusted in accordance with any provision made by the regulations);
 - (d) compensation in the form of a lump sum under section 44(1)(b)(i) of the principal Act (as determined at the time of death of the worker and adjusted in accordance with any provision made by the regulations).
- (3) The Corporation may, pursuant to an agreement between the person who has an entitlement under this clause and the Corporation, make any payment with respect to that entitlement—
 - (a) in instalments (with each instalment being an amount fixed under the agreement); or
 - (b) in a lump sum (representing the total amount of the entitlement adjusted to take into account any factor prescribed by the regulations).
- (4) The Corporation may, in connection with an application under this clause, require a person seeking a payment to provide any information that the Corporation thinks fit.
- (5) The Corporation may delay making a payment on an application under this clause until any information required under subclause (4) has been provided.

5—Ex gratia payments

- (1) In addition to a preceding clause, the Corporation has an absolute discretion to make an ex gratia payment (of an amount determined by the Corporation) to a person in connection with the enactment of this Act if—
 - (a) —
 - (i) the person did not make a claim under the principal Act in respect of a disability suffered before the commencement of this Act and, if he or she has made such a claim, the claim would have been rejected on account of the operation of section 6 of the principal Act as in force at the time of the occurrence of the disability; or

- (ii) the person did make a claim under the principal Act in respect of a compensable disability suffered before the commencement of this Act but the claim did not (or does not) give rise to an entitlement under the principal Act on account of the operation of section 6 of the principal Act as in force at the time of the occurrence of the disability; and
 - (b) the Corporation is satisfied—
 - (i) that the person would have had an entitlement to compensation under the principal Act had the amendments been in force at the time of the occurrence of the disability; and
 - (ii) that the disability was not (and is not) compensable under a corresponding law; and
 - (iii) that the person suffered substantial hardship on account of the disability; and
 - (iv) taking into account any other matter as the Corporation thinks fit, that it is appropriate in the circumstances of the particular case that an ex gratia payment be made.
 - (2) A person seeking an ex gratia payment under this clause must make an application to the Corporation, in a manner and form determined by the Corporation, within the period prescribed by the regulations.
 - (3) The Corporation may, in connection with an application under this clause, require a person seeking a payment to provide any information that the Corporation thinks fit.
 - (4) The Corporation may delay making a determination on an application under this clause—
 - (a) until any period that applies under subclause (2) has expired; or
 - (b) until any information required under subclause (3) has been provided.
 - (5) The making of a payment under this clause will not affect any entitlement that a person may have with respect to another disability under the principal Act (and will not be taken into account for the purposes of any claim under the principal Act).
 - (6) The Corporation may make a payment under this clause on such conditions as the Corporation thinks fit (and a person who contravenes or fails to comply with a condition may be required to repay any amount that has been paid by the Corporation (and any such amount will be recoverable as a debt)).
 - (7) A decision of the Corporation to make, or not to make, an ex gratia payment, or the amount of an ex gratia payment, under this clause is final and cannot be subject to review by a court or tribunal in any respect.

6—Related matters

- (1) Any payment under clause 4 or 5 will be taken from the Compensation Fund (and the Corporation is authorised by force of this clause to apply the relevant amount from the Compensation Fund).

- (2) The Corporation is not entitled to recover the amount of any payment made under clause 4 or 5 from a person who was the employer of the relevant worker at the time of the occurrence of the disability (including in a case where the employer was an exempt employer).
