Legislative history

1—Short title

These regulations may be cited as the Branding of Pigs Regulations 2003.

3—Interpretation

In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—

Act means the Branding of Pigs Act 1964.

4—Kind of mark prescribed as brand

For the purposes of the definition of brand in section 2 of the Act, a mark consisting of a combination of 3 letters of the alphabet is prescribed as a brand.

5—Register

For the purposes of section 4 of the Act, the registrar must keep as a register of brands a record in writing containing a description of each brand registered under the Act, the date of its registration and the full name and address of the proprietor of the brand.

6—Manner of branding

For the purposes of section 5 of the Act, a pig must be branded as follows:

- (a) the brand must be applied by tattooing with a carbon based liquid or paste;
- (b) the letters making up the brand must be—
 - (i) not less than 15 millimetres and not more than 25 millimetres in height; and
 - (ii) not more than 15 millimetres apart; and
 - (iii) clearly legible;
- (c) the tattoo must be applied—

- (i) in the case of a pig bred from one owned by the proprietor of the brand—to the left shoulder of the pig; or
- (ii) in any other case—to the right shoulder of the pig.
