- (b) any information required to be included in the annual report under the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia);
- (c) any other information that the Minister may reasonably require to be included in the annual report.

Part 4—Regulations relating to residual early childhood services

Division 1—Exemptions

12—Exemptions

- (1) The Board may, by notice in writing—
 - (a) exempt a person, or class of persons, subject to such conditions as the Board thinks fit and specifies in the notice, from specified provisions of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) as they apply to, or in relation to, residual early childhood services; or
 - (b) vary or revoke an exemption, or a condition of an exemption, under this section or impose a further condition.

- (2) A person who contravenes a condition of an exemption is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $10 000.

Division 2—General provisions

13—Early childhood services

- (1) For the purposes of the definition of in-home care services in section 4 of the Act, services (not being a service that is an education and care service within the meaning of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia)) of the following kinds are in-home care services:
- (a) a service comprising the provision of care to children in their own homes in the temporary absence of the children's parents or guardians;
 - (b) a service comprising the introduction of parents or guardians of children to a person who will care for the children in their own homes in the temporary absence of the children's parents or guardians,
- other than a service comprising—
- (c) a personal arrangement (within the meaning of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia)); or
 - (d) a person engaged by a parent or guardian of a child to baby sit the child in the child's home; or
 - (e) a baby sitting, playgroup or child minding service that is organised informally by the parents of the children concerned; or
 - (f) care provided to a child by a person in accordance with a parenting order under the Family Law Act 1975 or Family Court Act 1997 of the Commonwealth; or
 - (g) care provided to a child in accordance with an approval under the Children's Protection Act 1993.
- (2) For the purposes of the definition of occasional care services in section 4 of the Act, a service (not being a service that is an education and care service within the meaning of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia)) comprising the care for fee or reward in a place other than a child's home of 4 or more children of preschool age or younger is an occasional care service (however, such a service will be taken not to be an occasional care service if a parent or guardian of the children remains on site and is available to care for their child if required).
- (3) For the purposes of the definition of rural and mobile care services in section 4 of the Act, services (not being a service that is an education and care service within the meaning of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia)) of the following kinds are rural and mobile care services:
- (a) a service comprising the care, in a community venue in a rural community, of not more than 7 children at a particular time, of whom—
 - (i) not more than 4 are children under school age; and
 - (ii) not more than 3 are school age children;

- (b) a service providing care to children of preschool age or under at multiple locations and that transports its equipment and materials to those locations.
- (4) In this regulation—
- rural community* means a community located outside of metropolitan Adelaide (within the meaning of the Development Act 1993).

16—Prescribed documents

- (1) For the purposes of clause 3(1)(h) of Schedule 2 of the Act, the documents that an approved provider must keep are such documents as may be specified by the Board from time to time.

Note—

Clause 3(1)(h) of Schedule 2 modifies section 175(1) of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) as it applies to residual early childhood services.

Regulation 33(3) provides that the record keeping requirements under Chapter 4 of the national regulations, as it applies to residual early childhood services, do not apply to residual early childhood services.

- (2) An approved provider must keep a record referred to in subregulation (1)—
- (a) for a period of not less than 3 years (or such longer period as may be specified by the Board); and
 - (b) in a place, and in a manner, that complies with any requirements determined by the Board for the purposes of this subregulation.

17—Service approvals

For the purposes of clause 30(e) of Schedule 3 of the Act, a family day care service provided under the Children's Services Act 1985 immediately before the commencement of that clause (other than a family day care service that is an education and care service within the meaning of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia)) is declared to be included in the ambit of that clause.

Division 3—Regulations applying to residual early childhood services in place of national regulations

Subdivision 1—Preliminary

19—Interpretation

- (1) In this Division, a term or phrase that is defined in the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) or the national regulations has the same meaning as in that Law or those regulations (as the case requires).
- (2) In this Division, a reference to the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) will be taken to be a reference to that Law as it applies to residual early childhood services.

Education and Early Childhood Services (Registration and Standards) Regulations 2011—1.10.2017 to 30.11.2025—revoked

Part 4—Regulations relating to residual early childhood services

Division 3—Regulations applying to residual early childhood services in place of national regulations

20—Certain requirements under Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) to be determined by Board

If the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) requires a matter to be prescribed by, or determined in accordance with, the national regulations, and the matter is not the subject of a regulation under this Division, then the Board may prescribe or determine the matter according to its discretion (including, to avoid doubt, by not requiring compliance with the provision).

Subdivision 2—Provider approvals

21—Applications for provider approvals etc

- (1) The prescribed information in respect of an application under the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) for—
 - (a) a provider approval; or
 - (b) an amendment of a provider approval; or
 - (c) voluntary suspension of a provider approval; or
 - (d) a provider approval made under section 39(5) of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia); or
 - (e) a provider approval made under section 40 of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia), is such information as may be determined by the Board from time to time.

- (2) An application must be accompanied by the appropriate fee as set out in Schedule 1.
- (3) In determining the information required in relation to an application, the Board should have regard to the requirements (if any) for similar applications under the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) and the national regulations as applying to education and care services.

22—Maximum period of suspension of provider approval

The prescribed maximum period of suspension of a provider approval under section 27(a) or 33(1)(a)(ii) of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) is 12 months.

Subdivision 3—Service approvals

23—Applications for service approvals etc

- (1) The prescribed information in respect of an application under the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) for—
 - (a) a service approval; or
 - (b) an amendment of a service approval; or
 - (c) voluntary suspension of a service approval,

is such information as may be determined by the Board from time to time.

- (2) An application must be accompanied by the appropriate fee as set out in Schedule 1.

- (3) In determining the information required in relation to an application, the Board should have regard to the requirements (if any) for similar applications under the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) and the national regulations as applying to education and care services.

24—Additional grounds for refusal to grant service approval

The Board may refuse to grant a service approval on the following grounds:

- (a) the Board is not satisfied that the applicant is capable of operating the proposed service in a way that meets the requirements of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) or these regulations;
- (b) in the case of a centre-based service—the Board is not satisfied that the applicant is entitled to occupy the premises proposed as the place at which the service will operate.

25—Condition on service approval—insurance

A service approval is granted subject to a condition that the approved provider must hold the following insurance in respect of the residual early childhood service:

- (a) a current policy of insurance providing adequate cover for the residual early childhood service against public liability with a minimum cover of $10 000 000;
- (b) a policy of insurance or an indemnity against public liability provided by the Government in respect of the residual early childhood service.

26—Condition on service approval—entitlement to occupy premises

A service approval for a centre-based service is granted subject to the condition that the service continues to be entitled to occupy the premises at which the residual early childhood service operates.

27—Condition on service approval—in-home care services and family day care services

A service approval for a residual early childhood service that is an in-home care service or a family day care service is granted subject to a condition that the approved provider must comply with any standards or requirements determined by the Board from time to time in relation to the operation of such services.

28—Prescribed information—notifications

- (1) The prescribed information for notices under the following sections of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) is such information as may be determined by the Board from time to time:

- (a) section 56;

Note—

Section 56 relates to a change of nominated supervisor.

- (b) section 59.

Education and Early Childhood Services (Registration and Standards) Regulations 2011—1.10.2017 to 30.11.2025—revoked

Part 4—Regulations relating to residual early childhood services

Division 3—Regulations applying to residual early childhood services in place of national regulations

Note—

Section 59 relates to the transfer of a service approval for a centre-based service.

- (2) In determining the information required in relation to a notice, the Board should have regard to the requirements (if any) for similar notices under the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) and the national regulations as applying to education and care services.

29—Maximum period of suspension of service approval

The prescribed maximum period of suspension of a service approval under sections 72(a) and 79(1)(a)(ii) of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) is 12 months.

Subdivision 5—Operational requirements

33—Certain parts of national regulations to apply to residual early childhood services

- (1) Subject to this regulation and to any modification of the national regulations made by or under the Act, Chapter 4 of the national regulations applies to residual early childhood services as if they were education and care services within the meaning of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia).
- (2) Chapter 4 of the national regulations (as it applies pursuant to subregulation (1)) does not apply to, or in relation to, a residual early childhood service that is an in-home care service or a family day care service.

Note—

Regulation 27 permits the Board to set operational requirements for in-home care services or family day care services by way of conditions imposed on their service approval.

- (3) A provision of Chapter 4 of the national regulations that imposes a requirement in relation to the keeping or making of records does not apply to, or in relation to, a residual early childhood service.

Note—

Regulation 16 sets out what records must be made by approved providers and how they must be kept.

Division 4—Standards

34—Standards applying to residual early childhood services

- (1) For the purposes of clause 3(2) of Schedule 2 of the Act, the standards approved or adopted by the Board from time to time for the purposes of that subclause is prescribed.
- (2) To avoid doubt, a particular standard may apply to all residual early childhood services or a specified class of residual early childhood services.

Part 5—Regulations relating to schools

35—Education services—exclusions

For the purposes of the definition of education services in section 3(1) of the Act, the following services are declared not to be included in the ambit of that definition:

- (a) lessons or coaching in, or providing for participation in, a linguistic, cultural, recreational, religious or sporting activity;
- (b) private tutoring.

36—Full fee paying overseas students—exclusions

For the purposes of section 3(3) of the Act, the following students or classes of students are, in respect of the specified activities, declared not to be full fee paying overseas students:

- (a) a student or class of students referred to in section 3(3)(a) of the Act receiving lessons or coaching in, or providing for participation in, a linguistic, cultural, recreational, religious or sporting activity;
- (b) a student or class of students referred to in section 3(3)(a) of the Act receiving private tutoring;
- (c) a student or class of students taking part in a student exchange program organised by a registered school.

36A—Requirements for registration on schools register

- (1) For the purposes of section 43(1)(c) of the Act, it is a requirement that the school must comply, or be able to comply, with the standards for registration and review of registration of schools in South Australia.
- (2) In this regulation—

standards for registration and review of registration of schools in South Australia means the standards for registration and review of registration of schools in South Australia published by the Board after consultation with the members of the Board appointed under section 22(2)(b), (c) and (d) of the Act, as in force from time to time.

37—Prescribed bodies

For the purposes of section 43(3) of the Act, the following bodies are prescribed:

- (a) Advisory Committee on Non-Government Schools;
- (b) Association of Independent Schools of South Australia Incorporated;
- (c) Association of Independent Schools of South Australia—Primary Heads Reference Group;
- (d) Association of Independent Schools of South Australia—School Group Representatives Committee;
- (e) Association of Independent Schools of South Australia—Secondary/Combined Heads Reference Group;
- (f) Association of Principals of Catholic Secondary Schools in South Australia;

- (g) Australian Education Union (SA Branch);
- (h) Federation of Catholic School Parent Communities;
- (i) Independent Education Union (SA);
- (j) Ministerial Advisory Committee: Students with Disabilities;
- (k) Multicultural Education Committee;
- (l) Pitjantjatjara Yankunytjatjara Education Committee;

- (q) South Australian Area School Leaders Association;
- (r) South Australian Association of State Schools Organisations Inc;
- (s) South Australian Catholic Primary Principals Association;
- (t) South Australian Commission for Catholic Schools Inc;
- (u) South Australian Isolated Children's Parents' Association Incorporated;
- (v) South Australian Primary Principals Association;
- (w) South Australian Secondary Principals Association;
- (x) South Australian Special Schools Principal's Association;
- (y) Teachers Registration Board of South Australia;
- (z) United Voice (formerly the Liquor, Hospitality and Miscellaneous Union SA).

38—Certificate of registration

For the purposes of section 45 of the Act, a certificate of registration must be in a form approved by the Board.

38A—Requirements for endorsement of registration with approval to enrol full fee paying overseas students

For the purposes of section 49(1) of the Act, the following requirements must be satisfied:

- (a) if the endorsement relates to overseas students within the meaning of the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 of the Commonwealth—the registered school—
 - (i) must comply, or be able to comply, with—
 - (A) any standard or code of practice prepared or adopted for the purposes of this paragraph by the Board, as in force from time to time; or

- (B) if no such standard or code of practice has been prepared or adopted—the standards for registered providers contained in the National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students under that Act, as in force from time to time; and
- (ii) must be registered on the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students under that Act;
- (b) if the endorsement relates to students other than overseas students within the meaning of the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 of the Commonwealth—the registered school must comply, or be able to comply, with any standard or code of practice prepared or adopted for the purposes of this paragraph by the Board, as in force from time to time;
- (c) in any case—the registered school must comply, or be able to comply, with any other requirement determined by the Board for the purposes of this paragraph.

38B—Requirements for reviews of registration

- (1) For the purposes of section 54(1) of the Act, a review of the registration of a registered school must satisfy the following requirements:
 - (a) the review must be undertaken in accordance with the standards for registration and review of registration of schools in South Australia;
 - (b) a review must be undertaken at least once in each 5 year period in accordance with the following provisions:
 - (i) if the registered school was first registered after the commencement of this regulation, the first review must be undertaken not later than 5 years after the date of registration;
 - (ii) if the registration of the registered school has not previously been reviewed, or has not been reviewed in the 5 years immediately preceding the commencement of this regulation, the first review following the commencement of this regulation must be undertaken not later than 5 years after that commencement;
 - (iii) subsequent reviews must be undertaken not later than 5 years after the preceding review.
- (2) In this regulation—

standards for registration and review of registration of schools in South Australia means the standards for registration and review of registration of schools in South Australia published by the Board after consultation with the members of the Board appointed under section 22(2)(b), (c) and (d) of the Act, as in force from time to time.

39—Records to be kept by registered schools

- (1) For the purposes of section 56(1)(b) of the Act, a registered school is required to keep such records as the Board may determine for the purposes of this subregulation.

- (2) A registered school must keep a record referred to in subregulation (1)—
- (a) for a period of not less than 7 years (or such longer period as may be specified by the Board); and
 - (b) in a place, and in a manner, that complies with the requirements (if any) determined by the Board for the purposes of this subregulation.

Part 6—Miscellaneous

40—Fees

- (1) The fees for the purposes of the Act (including fees payable by, or in relation to, residual early childhood services for a matter under the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) as it applies to those services) are as set out in Schedule 1.

Note—

Clause 2(4) of Schedule 2 of the Act provides that the fees set under the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) do not apply to residual early childhood services.

- (2) The Board may waive or remit the whole or any part of a fee payable under the Act.

Schedule 2—Further transitional and savings provisions

1—Board to be comprised of Minister during initial transitional period

- (1) Despite a provision of the Act, the following provisions apply in relation to the Board during the initial transitional period:
 - (a) the Board will be taken to be comprised of the Minister;
 - (b) before the Board delegates a function or power under the Act, the Board must consult with—
 - (i) if the subject matter of the proposed delegation relates only to a particular sector—the prescribed peak body for that sector; or
 - (ii) in any other case—each prescribed peak body;
 - (c) subject to this clause, the Board must defer any proceedings under Part 7 of the Act until after the initial transitional period ends;
 - (d) a requirement under section 45(1) of the Act that the Board issue to a school a certificate or certificates of registration in the prescribed form need not be complied with until 14 days after the end of the initial transition period (and section 45(2) of the Act does not apply to a school until the Board has complied with that requirement in relation to that school).
- (2) However, the Board may hear and determine proceedings under Part 7 of the Act if the Board is of the opinion that the matter is urgent, or that it is otherwise appropriate that the matter be heard during the initial transitional period (and, in that case, section 60(2) to (6) (inclusive) of the Act do not apply to the proceedings and the Board may determine its own procedures).
- (3) To avoid doubt, nothing in this clause prevents the Governor from appointing a member of the Board under section 22 of the Act prior to the end of the initial transitional period.

Note—

However, the Board will continue to be comprised of the Minister until all necessary appointments have taken effect, or the initial transitional period ends, whichever happens first.

- (4) In this clause—

education and care service means an education and care service within the meaning of the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia);

initial transitional period means the period commencing on 1 January 2012 and finishing on—

 - (a) 31 March 2012; or
 - (b) if the Governor appoints all members of the Board under section 22 of the Act—on the date on which the last such appointment takes effect,

whichever is the sooner;

prescribed peak body means—

- (a) in the case of the Catholic education sector—the South Australian Commission for Catholic Schools Inc; or
- (b) in the case of the independent education sector—the Association of Independent Schools of South Australia Incorporated; or
- (c) in the case of the early childhood services sector—each of the following bodies:
 - (i) Family Day Care Educators of South Australia Inc;
 - (ii) Out of School Hours Care Association (SA) Inc;
 - (iii) Community Children's Centres SA Incorporated;
 - (iv) Childcare South Australia Inc.

2—Requirement to hold certain licences under Children's Services Act 1985

A requirement under the Children's Services Act 1985 that a child care centre that is a registered children's services centre be licensed will be taken to be satisfied if the child care centre holds a service approval to operate a service of the relevant kind under the Education and Care Services National Law (South Australia) (including as that Law applies to residual early childhood services).

Note—

See the definition of children's services centre in section 3, as well as Part 3 Division 4, of the Children's Services Act 1985
