Payment of Jurors

5. (1) Subject to subregulation (2), the following scale of fees for jury service is prescribed pursuant to section 70 of the Act:

(a) for each day of attendance at the court—

(i) for attendance where a juror suffers no monetary loss 20.00;

or

(ii) where the sheriff is satisfied that a juror has suffered monetary loss in excess of $20.00 in relation to attendance in compliance with the summons, a sum equal to the amount lost, up to 100.00 per day;

(b) for necessary expenditures—

where the sheriff is satisfied that a juror has necessarily incurred expenditure in relation to an attendance in compliance with the summons, a sum equal to the expenditure, up to 80.00 per day;

(c) for travelling expenses—

for each kilometre necessarily travelled to and from the court and the residence of the juror, for each day of attendance in compliance with the summons 20 cents per kilometre.

(2) The total amount paid to a juror for jury service under paragraphs (a) and (b) of
