Legislative history

1—Citation

These regulations may be cited as the Land Acquisition Regulations 1991.

2—Commencement

These regulations will come into operation on 1 July 1991.

3—Revocation

All regulations previously made under the Land Acquisition Act 1969 are revoked.

4—Interpretation

In these regulations—

the Act means the Land Acquisition Act 1969.

5—Forms

- (1) The forms set out in the Schedule must—
 - (a) be used for the purposes specified in the Schedule; and
 - (b) be completed in accordance with the instructions contained in the forms.
- (2) The name of a person signing a form set out in the Schedule must be written legibly under or alongside the signature of that person.
- (3) Where the space provided in a form is insufficient to contain all the required information—
 - (a) the information must be set out in an annexure to the form; and

- (b) the annexure must have an identifying mark such as a letter or numeral; and
 - (c) the space in the form must contain the statement "See Annexure" together with the distinguishing mark for the annexure, or words to similar effect.
- (4) A person preparing a notice or offer under these regulations may annex to the notice or offer a map or plan of any land referred to in the notice or offer.
- (5) A map or plan annexed to a notice or offer in accordance with subregulation (4) has the effect of being part of the notice or offer.

6—Authority complies with regulations if executes document under common seal

Notwithstanding the method of execution prescribed by the forms contained in the Schedule, it is to be taken to be a sufficient compliance with these regulations if a notice or offer, in any of those forms, is executed by an Authority under its common seal.

6A—Time within which adequacy of compensation may be disputed

- (1) For the purposes of section 23B(2) of the Act, a notice disputing the adequacy of an offer of compensation made by an Authority must be given to the Authority by the claimant within two months after the making of the offer.
- (2) The period may be extended by agreement between the Authority and the claimant or by order of the Court.

7—Terms and conditions of tenancy at will pursuant to s. 24(5)

The terms and conditions on which a person is taken to be in possession of land acquired under the Act as a tenant at will under section 24(5) are—

- (a) that the tenant, or, where there are more than one, the tenants jointly and severally, are to be taken to have covenanted as follows:
- (i) on the days and in the manner agreed between the Authority and the tenant, but in default of agreement, then weekly and at the place specified by the Authority for the purpose, to pay rent at a rate that represents a fair economic rate, having regard to the use that, during the currency of the tenancy, will probably be made of the land; and
 - (ii) to keep all fixtures and structures in or on the land in as good a state of repair as those fixtures and structures were at the commencement of the tenancy, reasonable wear and tear and damage by fire, tempest and earthquake only excepted; and
 - (iii) not to make any alteration or addition to the improvements, fixtures or structures in or on the land; and
 - (iv) not to make a use of the land that is, in any material respect, a departure from the use being lawfully made of the land at the commencement of the tenancy; and
 - (v) without affecting the generality of subparagraph (iv), not to do, or to permit or suffer to be done, on the land, anything that may be or become a nuisance or annoyance to the Authority or to the occupiers of any neighbouring property; and

- (vi) not to assign, underlet, or charge or part with the possession of the land or any part of the land; and
 - (vii) to permit all duly authorised agents, servants and employees of the Authority at all reasonable times to enter and inspect the land and to make reasonable surveys and other calculations with respect to any undertaking to be carried out by the Authority; and
 - (viii) on the Authority's giving to the tenant or tenants reasonable notice (which must not be less than one month) of determination of the tenancy, and at the expiration of the period of notice, peaceably to surrender the land to the Authority; and
 - (ix) to insure and keep insured, to their full insurable value, in the joint names of the Authority and the tenant or tenants, all improvements, fixtures or structures in or on the land against loss or damage by fire, tempest and earthquake;
- (b) that the Authority is to be taken to have covenanted with the tenant, or where there are more than one, with the tenants jointly and severally as follows:
- (i) to permit the tenant or tenants peaceably to hold and use the land until the tenancy is lawfully determined; and
 - (ii) to pay all rates, taxes and other charges and outgoings adjusted, if necessary, in accordance with the date of the commencement of the tenancy;
- (c) that the Authority may, from time to time, waive, in whole or in part, all or any of the obligations imposed by paragraph (a), on such conditions as it thinks fit;
- (d) that the obligation imposed by paragraph (b)(i) is binding only so long as the tenant or tenants observe and perform the obligations that are, subject to paragraph (c), imposed by paragraph (a);
- (e) that the provisions of paragraph (a)(i) apply subject to the operation of section 24(4) of the Act and to any order made under that section.

8—Offence of making false statement

A person who, in a notice in writing served on an Authority pursuant to section 12 of the Act, knowingly makes a statement that is false in a material particular, is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $100.

Schedule 1—Forms

- Form 5: Notice of acquisition
- Form 6: Offer of compensation
- Form 7: Notice of intention to enter land
- Form 8: Notice of intention to enter into temporary occupation of land
- Form 9: Notice to deliver documents for inspection

Form 1—Notice of intention to acquire land

Land Acquisition Act 1969
(section 10)

[This form is to be used for any acquisition other than an acquisition of native title land for the purpose of conferring proprietary rights or interests on a person other than the Crown or an instrumentality of the Crown.]

TO:
of

1 Notice of intention to acquire land

This notice is to inform you that

.....(the Authority)
of

intends to acquire the following interests in the following land:

for the following purpose:

.....
.....

The Authority seeks to negotiate the compensation payable for the acquisition.

This notice is given under section 10 of the Land Acquisition Act 1969. It does not bind the Authority to acquire the land.

2 Right to obtain explanation of reasons for acquisition (section 11)

Within 30 days a person who has an interest in the land (including in the case of native title land, the registered representative of a native title claimant or holder or the representative Aboriginal body for the area) may require the Authority, by written notice—

- to give an explanation of the reasons for acquisition of the land; and
- to provide reasonable details of any statutory scheme in accordance with which the land is to be acquired.

3 Right to object (section 12)

Within 30 days or, if an explanation of the reasons for the acquisition was requested, within 30 days after the explanation is provided, a person who has an interest in the land (including in the case of native title land, the registered representative of a native title claimant or holder or the representative Aboriginal body for the area) may request the Authority, by written notice—

- not to proceed with the acquisition of the land; or
- to alter the boundaries of the land to be acquired; or
- not to acquire a particular part of the land or to acquire further land.

The request may be made—

- on the ground that the acquisition of the land or carrying out the purposes for which the acquisition is proposed would—
 - seriously impair an area of scenic beauty; or
 - destroy, damage or interfere with an Aboriginal site within the meaning of the Aboriginal Heritage Act 1988; or

- destroy or impair a site of architectural, historic or scientific interest; or
- prejudice the conservation of flora or fauna that should be conserved in the public interest; or
- prejudice some other public interest; or
- on some other ground stated in the request.

4 Right to compensation (Part 4 Division 2)

The Authority seeks to negotiate in good faith with you about the compensation payable for the acquisition of the land.

Note—

- The Authority is required to negotiate with the persons who have or had, or claim to have or to have had, an interest in the land that is divested or diminished by the acquisition or the enjoyment of which is adversely affected by the acquisition.
- If the land is native title land, any party may request the Environment, Resources and Development Court to mediate between the parties to assist in obtaining their agreement on the matters at issue between them.
- The Authority may offer, and must consider any request made by a party to the negotiations for, non-monetary compensation (eg a transfer of land, the provision of goods or services, or the carrying out of work for the reinstatement or improvement of land remaining in the claimant's ownership after acquisition).
- The land is acquired by notice of acquisition. Notice of acquisition may be given at any time after 3 months, and before 12 months, from the giving of this notice.
- At that time the Authority is required to make an offer to the person or persons whom it believes to be entitled to compensation for the acquisition, stating the amount of compensation the Authority is prepared to pay. The claimant may dispute the offer.
- Part 4 Division 2 of the Land Acquisition Act 1969 governs compensation. In particular, section 25 sets out the principles for determining compensation.

5 Prospective purchasers of land etc to be informed about this notice (section 13)

You must not enter into a transaction in respect of the land without first disclosing the fact that this notice of intention to acquire the land has been served on you. Any contract or agreement in relation to the land entered into without that disclosure would be voidable at the option of the person to whom disclosure should have been made.

[Clause 5 is only to be included if the land has not been brought under the Real Property Act 1886.]

6 Inquiries

Inquiries should be directed to:

.....

Date:

Signed:

1 The notice must be given to each person who has an interest in the land, or such of those persons as, after diligent inquiry, become known to the Authority.

If the Authority proposes to acquire native title in land, the notice must also be given—

- if there is a registered representative of native title holders—to the representative and the representative Aboriginal body for the area;
- if there is no registered representative of native title holders—to all who hold or may hold native title in the land (see Part 5 Native Title (South Australia) Act 1994) and the Registrar of the Environment, Resources and Development Court.

Form 2—Notice of intention to acquire native title in land for purpose of conferring rights or interests on third party

Land Acquisition Act 1969
(section 10(2) and Part 4 Division 1)

[This form is to be used for a proposed acquisition of native title land for the purpose of conferring proprietary rights or interests on a person other than the Crown or an instrumentality of the Crown.]

TO:.....
of.....¹

1 Notice of intention to acquire land

This notice is to inform you that

.....(the Authority)

of.....

intends to acquire the following interests in the following land:

for the following purpose:

The Authority intends to confer the following proprietary rights or interests on a person other than the Crown or a Crown instrumentality:

.....

The Authority seeks to negotiate an agreement about the acquisition of the land and the compensation payable for the acquisition.

This notice is given under section 10 of the Land Acquisition Act 1969. It does not bind the Authority to acquire the land.

2 Right to obtain explanation of reasons for acquisition (section 11)

Within 30 days a person who has an interest in the land (including the registered representative of a native title claimant or holder or the representative Aboriginal body for the area) may require the Authority, by written notice—

- to give an explanation of the reasons for acquisition of the land; and
- to provide reasonable details of any statutory scheme in accordance with which the land is to be acquired.

3 Right to object (section 12)

Within 30 days or, if an explanation of the reasons for the acquisition was requested, within 30 days after the explanation is provided, a person who has an interest in the land (including the registered representative of a native title claimant or holder or the representative Aboriginal body for the area) may request the Authority, by written notice—

- not to proceed with the acquisition of the land; or
- to alter the boundaries of the land to be acquired; or
- not to acquire a particular part of the land or to acquire further land.

The request may be made—

- on the ground that the acquisition of the land or carrying out the purposes for which the acquisition is proposed would—
 - seriously impair an area of scenic beauty; or
 - destroy, damage or interfere with an Aboriginal site within the meaning of the Aboriginal Heritage Act 1988; or
 - destroy or impair a site of architectural, historic or scientific interest; or
 - prejudice the conservation of flora or fauna that should be conserved in the public interest; or
 - prejudice some other public interest; or
- on some other ground stated in the request.

4 Right to negotiate about acquisition (Part 4 Division 1)

The Authority seeks to negotiate in good faith with the native title parties in an attempt to reach agreement about the acquisition of the land.

Note—

- If, 2 months after this notice is given no persons are registered under the law of the State or the Commonwealth as the holders of, or claimants to, native title in the land, negotiation is not required and the Authority may acquire the land.
- If any of the negotiating parties requests the Environment, Resources and Development Court (ERD Court) to do so, the Court must mediate among the parties to assist in obtaining their agreement.
- If agreement is not reached between the Authority and the native title parties within 6 months after this notice is given, any party may apply to the ERD Court for a resolution of the matter.
- The ERD Court may determine whether the Authority may acquire the land and, if so, the conditions on which the acquisition is to proceed (but compensation is not to be determined at this stage).
- The ERD Court must make its determination within 6 months unless there are special reasons why it cannot do so.
- Section 21 of the Land Acquisition Act 1969 sets out criteria that the ERD Court must take into account.
- The Minister may, within 2 months, overrule a determination of the ERD Court if the Minister considers it to be in the interests of the State.

5 Right to compensation (Part 4 Division 2)

The Authority seeks to negotiate in good faith with the native title parties about the compensation payable for the acquisition of the land.

Note—

- The Authority is required to negotiate with the persons who have or had, or claim to have or to have had, an interest in the land that is divested or diminished by the acquisition or the enjoyment of which is adversely affected by the acquisition.
- Any party may request the Environment, Resources and Development Court to mediate between the parties to assist in obtaining their agreement on the matters at issue between them.
- The Authority may offer, and must consider any request made by a party to the negotiations for, non-monetary compensation (eg a transfer of land, the provision of goods or services, or the carrying out of work for the reinstatement or improvement of land remaining in the claimant's ownership after acquisition).
- The land is acquired by notice of acquisition. Notice of acquisition may be given at any time after 3 months, and before 12 months, from the giving of this notice.
- At that time the Authority is required to make an offer to the person or persons whom it believes to be entitled to compensation for the acquisition, stating the amount of compensation the Authority is prepared to pay. The claimant may dispute the offer.

- Part 4 Division 2 of the Land Acquisition Act 1969 governs compensation. In particular, section 25 sets out the principles for determining compensation.

6 Prospective purchasers of land etc to be informed about this notice (section 13)

You must not enter into a transaction in respect of the land without first disclosing the fact that this notice of intention to acquire the land has been served on you. Any contract or agreement in relation to the land entered into without that disclosure would be voidable at the option of the person to whom disclosure should have been made.

[Clause 6 is only to be included if the land has not been brought under the Real Property Act 1886.]

2 Compensation

A person who has or had an interest in the land that is divested or diminished by the acquisition or the enjoyment of which is adversely affected by the acquisition who does not receive an offer of compensation from the Authority may apply to the Authority for compensation.

[The following paragraph is only to be included if the land is native title land.]

If no claim for compensation is made by a person claiming native title in the land within 2 months of this notice, the Authority may apply to the Land and Valuation Court for an order—

- declaring that the land was not, at the time of acquisition, subject to native title; or
- fixing the amount of compensation payable for acquisition of the land and ordering that the compensation be held in trust—
 - to be paid, as directed by the Court, to persons who, within 6 years after the date of the order, establish to the Court's satisfaction that they held native title in the land immediately before its acquisition; or
 - if no claim to the compensation is established within that period—to be repaid to the Authority (see section 23D Land Acquisition Act 1969).

.....(the Authority)
of.....
intends to enter the following land:
.....
on the following days or over the following period:
.....
to carry out the following work:
.....
.....

2 Authority for notice (section 27)

This notice is given under section 27 of the Land Acquisition Act 1969 which allows the Authority, or any person authorised in writing by the Authority, to—

- enter and remain on land with any assistants, vehicles, machinery or equipment; and
- affix or establish any trigonometrical stations, survey pegs, marks or poles and from time to time alter, remove, reinstate or remove them; and
- dig or bore into the land, for the purposes of that Act or an Act allowing the Authority to compulsorily acquire land.

It is an offence to—

- wilfully and without authorisation from the Authority, interfere with any trigonometrical stations, survey pegs, marks or poles; or
- wilfully obstruct any person acting in accordance with section 27.

4 Right to negotiate (section 28A)

The Authority seeks to negotiate in good faith with the native title parties in an attempt to reach agreement on the conditions on which the Authority may enter and use the land.

Note—

- If, at the end of 2 months, no persons are registered under the law of the State or the Commonwealth as holders of, or claimants to, native title in the land, negotiation is not required and the Authority may enter the land.
- If any of the negotiating parties requests the Environment, Resources and Development Court (ERD Court) to do so, the Court must mediate among the parties to assist in obtaining their agreement.

- If agreement is not reached between the Authority and the native title parties within 6 months after this notice is given, either party may apply to the ERD Court for a resolution of the matters in dispute.
- The ERD Court may decide whether the Authority may enter the land and, if so, determine the conditions on which the Authority may enter the land and exercise powers conferred by Part 5 of the Land Acquisition Act 1969.

[Clause 4 is only to be included if the land is native title land and the intended exercise of powers will involve the removal of minerals from the land, or substantial interference with the land or its use or enjoyment.]

5 Right to compensation (section 29)

Within 3 months from the day on which the Authority, or a person authorised by the Authority, was last in occupation of the land you may, by written notice to the Authority, claim compensation.

If you do claim compensation and 3 months after making the claim there is no agreement on the amount of compensation, either you or the Authority may refer the matter to the Land and Valuation Court for determination.

This notice is given under section 28 of the Land Acquisition Act 1969 which allows the Authority to temporarily occupy and use land that—

- is within 500 metres of the boundaries of land acquired under the Act; and
 - is not a garden, orchard or plantation attached or belonging to a house, or a park, planted walk, avenue or ground ornamentally planted; and
 - is not within 500 metres of a place genuinely used as a place of residence,
- for purposes authorised by an Act and to—
- take stone, gravel, earth or other material; or
 - deposit any material on the land; or
 - make cuttings or excavations on the land; or
 - make and use roads on the land; or
 - manufacture on the land materials required for those purposes; or
 - erect workshops, sheds and buildings of a temporary character on the land.

3 Right to apply to Court for Authority to acquire interest (section 28(3) and (4))

You may apply to the Land and Valuation Court for an order that the Authority acquire your interest in the land.

4 Right to negotiate (section 28A)

The Authority seeks to negotiate in good faith with the native title parties in an attempt to reach agreement on the conditions on which the Authority may enter and use the land.

Note—

- If, at the end of 2 months, no persons are registered under the law of the State or the Commonwealth as holders of, or claimants to, native title in the land, negotiation is not required and the Authority may enter the land.

- If any of the negotiating parties requests the Environment, Resources and Development Court (ERD Court) to do so, the Court must mediate among the parties to assist in obtaining their agreement.
- If agreement is not reached between the Authority and the native title parties within 6 months after this notice is given, either party may apply to the ERD Court for a resolution of the matters in dispute.
- The ERD Court may decide whether the Authority may enter the land and, if so, determine the conditions on which the Authority may enter the land and exercise powers conferred by Part 5 of the Land Acquisition Act 1969.
