Legislative history

1—Short title

These regulations may be cited as the Liquor Licensing (Dry Areas—Long Term) Regulations 1997.

4—Interpretation

(1) In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—

the Act means the Liquor Licensing Act 1997;

container means the container in which liquor is sealed so that it cannot escape but does not include packaging in which the container is sold;

private land means any land that is not a public place within the meaning of the Act;

street or road includes an avenue, terrace, lane, crescent, court, place or other land set aside for the carriage of vehicular traffic.

(2) Unless the contrary intention appears, a reference in these regulations to a street or a road is a reference to—

(a) the carriageway of the street or road; and

(b) the footpaths (if any) of the street or road; and

(c) a median strip or traffic island (if any) or any other land separating carriageways of the street or road; and

(d) any other land adjoining or adjacent to the carriageway of the street or road being land that has been reserved for the purposes of the street or road.

(3) For the purposes of these regulations, a wine cask will be taken to have been opened if the tap comprising part of the container is protruding through the external carton.

5—Long term dry areas—section 131 of Act

(1) Subject to subregulation (2), the consumption of liquor or the consumption and possession of liquor are prohibited in accordance with Schedule 1 in the areas described in that Schedule during the periods specified in that Schedule.

(2) The prohibition does not extend to any private land within an area described in Schedule 1.

(3) Unless the contrary intention appears, the prohibition in Schedule 1 of the possession of liquor in an area does not extend to—

(a) a person who is genuinely passing through the area if—

(i) the liquor is in the original container in which it was purchased from licensed premises; and

(ii) the container has not been opened; or

(b) a person who has possession of the liquor in the course of carrying on a business or in the course of his or her employment by another person in the course of carrying on a business; or

(c) a person who is permanently or temporarily residing at premises within the area or on the boundary of the area and who enters the area solely for the purpose of passing through it to enter those premises or who enters the area from those premises for the purpose of leaving the area; or

(d) such other persons (if any) who are specifically excluded by Schedule 1.

6—Plans of long term dry areas

(1) Schedule 2 sets out plans of some of the areas described in Schedule 1.

(2) If the description of an area in Schedule 1 does not coincide with the plan of the area in Schedule 2, the description will be taken to be correct.
